HIGH POSTAGE.

If the people of this country could be astonished at any act of the present Congress, they might be astonished now, to see the House of Representatives passing such an absurd and preposterous measure as the raising of postage on all letters from three cents up to ten, at one jump.

The folly of the measure will be clearly seen by remembering for a moment, that postage on very short routes was only 6 cents forty years ago; and on the next longer routes only 10 cents. Then please to remember, besides, that with these prices, twenty years ago or so, private post offices were set up, and private mails carried, out of which men made money, and which business they carried on in spite of lawsuits, until Congress reduced the government post office rates so low as to break up the private offices.

Should the present Congress persist in the folly of raising the rates of letter postage, and the present bill become a law, letters for the long routes would go in the government mail bags; but on all the short and busy routes, they would go otherwise.

We never yet saw the chapter and verse of the constitution, wherein the people or the States gave to Congress the right to create for themselves a monopoly of postage, or of mail carrying. We do not believe they have such right or power. And we are quite certain that the people generally will not pay ten cents postage, when they can get as well served for five or three.

Mr. Olds brings in this famous bill—and he is certainly old enough to be behind this age. We beg pardon, he is behind all the ages.—He is ante-diluvian. Noah's ark is too modern for him. The old Jewish running footmen, that passed as expressmen between Joab and David, were altogether ahead of such a fossil post office as he projects.

A "TEMPERANCE" SPEECH.—Rev. Mr. Miner, in the course of his remarks at the so-called Temperance Convention at Lowell, according to the Journal, says:

"The fidelity of judges and juries is also endangered by this (liquor) traffic. How can you expect men who are engaged in this traffic to do their duties as jurymen, or judges, who daily take their glass of wine, to rule in favor of the law. Our interest in the National Legislature is also affected by it. It is said that the Nebraska iniquity had its vitality through the power of the brandy bottle. It also affects individual integrity. The whole business is a lie from beginning to end."

We have rarely seen more calumnious statements than those compressed in these sentences. The Reverend triune doctorate of Beechers who heard such scandalous language, believe, and sincerely, it is presumed, that Mr. Miner, being a Universalist, will be eternally damned hereafter. While there is a hope, one dislikes to cherish such a belief in regard to the final disposition of any human creature—but after reading the sentences quoted, who can doubt that if any imaginable thing could fairly justify the belief of the Drs. Beecher, or entitle one to the doom which they pronounce, it must certainly be such infamous and diabolical language as that used by the Universalist preacher in question.—Boston Chronicle.

If the reader will please to read the quotation over again, perhaps he can find the diabolical language. We have copied it to give him a chance.

GAS EXPLOSION.—We have already mentioned, briefly, a gas explosion in Richmond, supposed to be occasioned by a black man, who was found dead in the purifying apartment. The Richmond papers say:

Shortly after the occurrence of the accident a coroner's jury was empanelled, when it appeared in evidence that the man who lost his life was a slave—that he had recently been purchased at a very high price—that he had frequently manifested discontent at the change of owners, and that not a doubt existed that he had purposely applied a lighted match to one of the purifiers, and had thus sought to blow up the gas works, regardless of the consequences to himself, and the lives and property of others.

The man was a blacksmith by trade, and was considered very ingenious in mechanical matters,—so much so, that he has been known to invent and put into use a machine for counterfeiting silver coin. He had recently been sold for the enormous sum of $1700, and was only staying temporarily at the Gas Works, before being transported South. He was known to be very dissatisfied with his position, and anxious to get away—having ran off some weeks since, and been caught and brought back. The conclusion therefore is, that he had determined to blow up the whole works by applying the match to one of the open valves, and run the risk of escaping from the ruins.

This is a fine incident for the third volume of Uncle Tom. Mrs. Stowe will please to make a note of it.

GODEY FOR JULY, 1854.—This number is embellished with engravings; of Noah and his household looking out at the Ark window; of Gallantry; colored fashions, &c., &c.—There is also in the number, a rich variety of tales, poetry, and editorial notes. This No. begins the 26th year of the publication. It comes to us from Federhen & Co., Boston, via J. P. Morse of this city.

A committee of very respectable men in Chicago were appointed by the inhabitants to inquire into the truth respecting the drowning of Knud Iverson, who it was said was drowned by other boys because he would not steal.—The committee think that the drowning was accidental. They therefore recommend that the money subscribed for the erection of a monument be returned to the donors. The whole fund amounted to $1579.

This is one of the strangest things we have seen for a long time. The first story was that the rowdy boys set out to punish honest Knud by keeping him under water, for not stealing as they wished him to do; or to intimidate him, so as to compel him to do so. Next, this was half contradicted; not the drowning part, but the intent of the boys who did it, in part. Then followed a confirmation of the first story, signed by the minister whose church and Sunday school Knud attended, on the strength of which the monument fund was gathered. And now, a year or more after the death, comes this report of a respectable committee, that in their opinion the drowning was accidental!

So, indeed, we have always supposed; and so must all who were on the spot have supposed, otherwise they would have prosecuted the rowdy boys for murder. But was it accidental, or designed, on the part of the boys, that they put Knud in circumstances of peril? We suppose not. Then the honest boy was a martyr to his honesty, and deserves the monument. But the respectable committee may think the monument would bear too hard against the other boys, the real, but accidental homicides; and perhaps this is true. Very probably this is the spot where the shoe pinches.

THE CHOLERA IN PHILADELPHIA.—The principal mortality is among a gang of Stevedores employed in unloading a ship laden with iron and soda ash. The vessel came from Liverpool, and reached port on the 3d inst.—She was detained at the Lazaretto a short time in consequence of sickness on board, but the health officers deemed the ship in a perfectly clean and sweet condition when she came up to her wharf. The Stevedores who were attacked with cholera had been, for some days before, drinking water in which sour oat meal was mixed. This mess brought on diarrhœa, which ended in cholera. Seven of the men died.

We should think they would die; but cannot imagine what possessed the men to drink swill made of sour oatmeal.

TOBACCO.—We have always been aware of the importance attached to this product of our Southern fields, in the British customs duties, but were, nevertheless, utterly amazed on reading, recently, the Chancellor of the Exchequer's war budget speech in the House of Commons, to find the sum raised upon that one article rated at nearly a tenth of the whole revenue of Great Britain. The Chancellor of the Exchequer, after reviewing a list of articles which might appear objects for increased taxation during the Eastern war, remarked as follows:—

"With regard to the tobacco duty, it is impossible for us wisely to propose any change. The tobacco duty is a wonderful achievment. We raise five millions upon an article with a rate of duty of something like 1200 per cent., and that revenue is progressively improving from year to year [cheers]. That is a wonderful state of things, and I think it one of these cases to which to apply the doctrine of let well alone [hear, hear]. Were we to tamper with it, I do not think we should get a very large sum. We might break down the revenue altogether, and enable the smuggler to have the upper hand."

A revenue of five millions of pounds sterling—twenty five millions of dollars—upon so apparently insignificant and almost unnecessary an article as tobacco! Well might the Chancellor of the Exchequer call it "a wonderful achievment"—"a wonderful state of things."—Journal of Commerce.

'Bimelech, said Mr. Slow, solemnly extending his arm like a pump handle, you are now old enough to understand the words of wisdom—being eleven and a half, in other words half past eleven—and I wish to advise you never to interfere with nobody nor to interfere with nothing that don't belong to you. Shet yourself up, like a gold eagle in your pocket book, and don't get spent in too much concern for others. If people is inclined to go to ruin, let 'em go if they're a mind to—what business is it of your'n? If neighbors quarrel, what business is it of your'n? Let 'em fight it out. Why should you risk your precious head in trying to save theirs? When you trade allers look to your side of the bargain, and leave the one you are trading with to look arter his. If he gets bit 'taint your fault. Take keer of number one is scriptur, the real golden rule, and he that acts onto it never can die poor. Never have anything to do with sympathy. Sympathy doesn't pay. 'Taint worth one per cent. But if you must be sympathetic because it's pop'lar, be sure before you begin that it ain't agoin to cost you any thing, and then p'raps 'twill do to invest in it. Nobody never lost any thing by not being generous, so lay by for yourself what folks expects you to give to poor people and other vagabonds, and when you are old 'twill not depart from you. You will have somethin' to count on to make you happy, pay your doctor's bills, confound a hospital, and buy a gravestone full of exalted virtoos. Be careful, 'Bimelech; allers look arter the main chance, and beware of sympathy.—Post.

The farmers and others in the city of Norfolk, Va., are now doing a large business in potatoes. More than two thousand barrels are regularly sent by each steamer to New York. The average quantity sent per day to Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, is about one thousand six hundred barrels. One farmer had sent $1140 worth of cucumbers to Philadelphia and Baltimore.

LOCAL.

☞ We understand that on Friday, Mayor Walker, accompanied by Aldermen Tucker, Dearborn and Nelson, and by the full board of overseers, proceeded to the Alms House, and made such investigations into the condition of the house, premises and management, as satisfied them that all was right, and that the complaints which were noticed in the Board of Aldermen on Thursday night, were groundless and without cause.

Their promptness in making the examination the next day after the complaint, is the best guarantee against abuses.

ACCURACY.—Our neighbor the Journal amuses itself and us by picking flaws in our past week's issues. With regard to the first paper named, that of Monday, we acknowledge the corn—though we corrected the chief error in print before being told of it. We mentioned the Journal's wrong announcement only after repeated calls for information on the subject. We have had enough experience to know the facility with which mistakes of all sorts creep into a newspaper—particularly a daily; and should not have made such reference to a matter of no consequence, had not our cotemporary, on several occasions, gone out of its way to correct our slight inaccuracies, and at the same time appropriated our items without credit of any kind. We will wind up this affair by stating that Uncle Toby had nothing to do with the matter—and that we are much obliged to our neighbor for its complimentary closing paragraph.

N. H. Legislature—June Session.

Abridged from the Patriot.

THURSDAY, June 29.

HOUSE.—During the debate on the viva voce vote, Mr. Grant of Lyndeboro,' uttered words something like the following: "It is not the first time I have been interrupted by a pack of black hearted knaves"—and a good deal of sensation was created by the expression.

A long debate ensued, at the conclusion of which the Speaker ruled that the remarks of Mr. Grant were not in order, and the matter was allowed to drop.

The discussion of the resolution to vote viva voce was then resumed.

Finally Mr. Goodwin of Portsmouth moved to lay it on the table, and the House agreed without coming to a division.

The 7th ballot then preceded, and on a count, the vote was declared to stand as follows:

Whole number of ballots cast	309
Necessary to a choice	155
Ichabod Goodwin	1
Daniel Clark	3
Mason W. Tappan	16
Joel Eastman	65
Geo. W. Morrison	74
John S. Wells	150

—and there was again no choice.

At half past 6, on motion of Mr. Robertson of Warner, the House adjourned.

[The Patriot says, editorially, "a few more ballotings will do the business."]

CONCORD, June 30.—N. H. LEGISLATURE.—In the House, on motion of Mr. Emery, whig, of Portsmouth, the election of Senator was postponed to next Thursday forenoon, by a vote of 154 to 145.

The consideration of the Nebraska resolutions was assigned for Wednesday next.

AFTERNOON—IN CONVENTION.

Ballot for State Printer.

Whole number votes,	321
Scattering,	3
Wm. Butterfield,	153
Amos Hadley, chosen,	165

Warden of State Prison.

G. Webster, present incumbent, had 176, and was chosen. Chas. Smart had 142.

At a meeting of the Wardens and Vestry of St. Paul's Church, Newburyport, it was voted unanimously not to accept the resignation of their Rector, Rev. Wm. Horton—but proposed a leave of absence for the restoration of his health.

The steward and his wife named Allison, who are so frightfully injured by the infernal machine in Cincinnati, have both died. It is said that a fellow named Conwell committed a murder sometime since, and that Allison was acquainted with the facts—consequently it is supposed that Conwell desired to take Allison's life.

Cholera has made its appearance on several plantations in Louisiana. Mr. Lamden lost twenty three slaves by the disease.

WASHINGTON, June 30.—It is asserted that some of the Southern Senators are so indignant at Mr Sumner's course that they seriously contemplate introducing a resolution to expel him.

The appointments for the Territories were all confirmed.

In secret session last evening, an effort was made by Senator Shield to remove an injunction of secresy on the discussion of the Gadsden treaty, but without effect.

It is is understood that the reciprocity treaty bill will not be acted upon until after the new Canadian Parliament have met and given its decision therenpon.

NEW YORK, June 30.—Late yesterday afternoon, the old steamboat Buffalo sank at the foot of Robinson street, North River, with upwards of 500 German emigrants—men, women and children, on their way to the West—on board. No lives were lost, and most of the passengers succeeded in saving their luggage, more or less damaged. A port hole forward was carelessly left open, and hence the accident.

NEW YORK, June 29.—Ship Rhine, Doane, from London, arrived to-day, had 22 deaths among her passengers.

Madam Meszlenge, one of Kossuth's sisters, died in this city this morning of consumption, aged 34.

In Paris the latest fashions are bonnets very small and the crowns so compressed and thrown back on the neck that they are almost hidden by the enormous bows with long ends, which ornament them; the bonnets allowed to rest on the back of the head, and ornamented either with flowers or feathers, mixed with lace and bows of ribbon. The insides are trimmed with profusion of flowers and blonde. Straw, employed in a thousand different ways, is the material most used for bonnets at the present moment.

CONGRESS.

In the Senate, on Wednesday, June 28, a debate occurred on the Boston petition to repeal the Fugitive Slave Act of 1851, for which we have no room; the debaters were Messrs. Sumner on one side, and half a dozen defenders of slavery on the other. We give only the close of Mr. Sumner's remarks.

As I close, I dwell for one moment on the agreeable aspect of this discussion. On former occasions like this, the right of petition has been vehemently assailed or practically denied; only two years since, memorials for the repeal of the Fugitive Slave act, presented by me, were laid on this table without reference to any committee. All is changed now. Senators have condemned the memorial and cried treason, but thus far in this excited debate, no person has so far outraged the spirit of our institutions of forgotten himself as to object to the reception of the memorial and its proper reference. It is true, the remonstrants have been treated with indignity, but the great right of petition, the sword and buckler of the citizen, though displayed by such indignity, has not been denied. Here, sir, is a triumph of freedom.

The motion to refer was agreed to, and at nearly 5 o'clock the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—The House resumed the consideration of the bill providing for a Weekly Mail Service between the Atlantic States and San Francisco.

The bill was tabled by 84 against 70. The House then went into Committee on the bill appropriating $4,000,000 to carry into effect the Gadsden treaty.

After much debate, Mr. Benton's and other amendments were voted down. The Committee rose, and under the operation of the previous question, the bill passed by 103 yeas to 62 nays. Adjourned.

THURSDAY, June 29.

SENATE.—Mr. Hunter moved to take up the $10,000,000 bill.

Mr. Sumner presented a memorial from Pepperell, Mass., the home of Prescott, who commanded at Bunker Hill, praying for the repeal of the odious and inhuman fugitive slave law; he moved its reference.

Mr. Adams of Mississippi moved to lay it on the table, but at the request of several Senators withdrew the motion. The petition was referred.

At one o'clock the doors were closed for an executive session on the Ten Million appropriation bill. At 3 o'clock the doors were reopened, when Mr. Clayton offered a resolution which was adopted, calling for all the correspondence between this government and the British Minister in 1849 and '50, on the reciprocity question.

The Ten Million bill was again taken up and read three times, when it was passed by 34 to 6.

The Shanghae Mail Steamer bill was taken up, and debated by Messrs. Adams, Mallory, Brown, Mason, Bayard and Clay in opposition; and Rusk, Hamlin, Jones of Tennessee, and Johnson of Arkansas in favor, when it was ordered to a third reading.

Mr. Bayard objected to a third reading today, and the bill was laid over.

After a short executive session adjourned at 4 o'clock.

HOUSE.—Mr. Fessenden of Maine presented a petition from New Hampshire for a repeal of the Fugitive Slave Law. He said that the petition was not open to the obligation of locality, which had been the objection urged against the memorial of the men of Boston. It came from a town whose population was about two thousand, and was signed by over three hundred voters, which he supposed comprised all its voters; moreover the town was the birthplace of the President. Referred.

Mr. Faulkner of Virginia, after some remarks in favor of the strengthening of the army, moved that two bills prepared for the purpose be made special order for the 5th of July. Objection was made.

Mr. Mace made a personal explanation in regard to the frauds alleged to have been discovered against Mr. Richardson in the matter of the Nebraska bill. He denied the charge.

The House resumed the consideration of the bill amending the postage law.

New Postage Bill.—The new postage bill, introduced by Mr. Olds, the chairman of the Post Office Committee, provides in lieu of the rates of postage now established by law, that there shall be charged for a single letter conveyed any distance not exceeding 3000 miles, ten cents; when conveyed wholly or in part by sea, or to or from a foreign country, for any distance not exceeding 3000 miles, the ocean postage shall be five cents. For any distance exceeding 3000 miles, ocean postage shall be ten cents, excepting, however, all cases where such postages have been or shall be at different rates by postal treaty or convention already concluded or hereafter to be made. Double, treble and quadruple letters in proportion, upon all letters passing through or in the mail, except such as are from a foreign country. The postage as above specified shall be prepaid, and from and after the first of January next, such prepayment shall be by stamps. All drop letters for delivery only to be charged one cent each. All advertised letters an additional cent.

Mr. Olds offered an additional section that it shall not be lawful for any postmaster or any other person to sell post office stamps or envelopes for more than appears on their face. The offence to be a misdemeanor, subjecting the offender to a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $500.

After debate, the bill thus amended was passed, yeas 104, nays 55.

The House debated the resolution fixing a time for the final adjournment, but after rejecting various amendments, and the Senate amendment for a recess, they adhered to their original design of adjourning sine die, on the 11th of August.

The President sent in a message enclosing notes from the British Minister on the subject of the health of emigrants during their voyage from Europe to this country—referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs. Adjourned.

CINCINNATI, June 28.—Considerable cholera is prevailing in several interior towns in Kentucky and Missouri, and many places have been deserted by the citizens. The weather is everywhere excessively hot.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS!!

THE CELEBRITY OF

DR. S. O. RICHARDSON'S

Sherry Wine Bitters

HAS induced several persons, who do not possess the least medical knowledge, to assume the title of Doctor, and put before the public an article in imitation of my Medicine, which they call Sherry Wine Bitters, and attempt to palm them off under the pretence that I have retired from business, and also that they manufacture an improved article of the same name.

I would say to those in pursuit of health, to be sure that you obtain the REAL article, which may be known by the Fac-simile of my signature upon the outside wrapper, covering each bottle, and also by the copyright border of the same covering.

Sold wholesale and retail at my office, No. 51 Hanover street, Boston, and by all dealers in Medicine in every city, town and village throughout the New England States.

m10 GEO. W. TOWLE & CO.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common Pasture Weeds a remedy that cures Every Kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruption of the skin.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of crofula.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of to-day, as that a common weed growing on the pastures and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system, yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start. There is no it's and ands, hums and ha's about its suiting some cases, but not yours. I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effects of it in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. I gave it to children of one year old; to people of sixty. I have seen poor, puny, wormy looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some have taken it who have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is sound it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature it will cause very singular feelings; but you must not be alarmed; they will disappear in from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it; on the contrary, when that feeling is gone, you will find yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to.

Nothing in the annals of Patent Medicines has ever been received by the public with so much favor as this simple preparation. It is now composed of nine different herbs. In May, 1852, when I commenced making a business of it, I sold about two bottles per day. In June, 1853, I sold 4320 bottles. In October, 1853, I sold 6120 bottles. I hope you will call that doing well; I do.

In my own practice, I confine it strictly to humors; but there are some who are so enthusiastic in its favor they think what cured them will cure any thing and any body; they accordingly recommend it for every variety of disease. In this way a great many virtues of it have been found that I never would suspect.

Cases of Dyspepsia, of many years standing, that withstood every known remedy, have been permanently cured.

I know one man to gain 17 lbs. by taking three bottles; another 11 lbs.; another 10 lbs.; and another 7 lbs—the venerable master Robinson of Boston.

In diseases of the Liver it is a specific. I know several with yellow skin and yellow eyes, the body emaciated and the mind melancholy, get fat and cheerful by a few bottles.

I know several cases of Dropsy, and one particularly bad. A lady, aged 79, was unable to leave her house for the last twelve years, was so much relieved (she was reduced in circumference thirty-four inches,) as to visit her friends in several neighboring towns.

Another had the Dropsy in her left leg, and was unable to walk for ten years, sometimes swelling to an enormous size; at last bursted, making a bad wound which could not be healed; by taking three bottles and using two boxes of ointment, she is now quite well. Why it should make some fat and others lean, I cannot tell, but so it is.

I know of several cases of Kidney complaints cured by it. It has attracted the notice of a newspaper was a proper medium, I could tell of cases of this most distressing of all diseases that would make your heart bleed, that were permanently cured by it.

It has been lately found to be a sure cure for Panama fever. In one case the first spoonful put off the fit two hours. One bottle cured him. Another came home to die, and was induced by his brother to try it. Three bottles cured him.

It likewise gives great relief to Asthma. A lady in Lawrence was unable to lie in bed for a number of years; she can now lie without the least inconvenience.

Ira Ingham Weymouth lost the use of her left side by the Erysipelas. After the second bottle, she broke out in one mass of humor from head to foot. In a few days she was well.

It has lately been found to be equally good for humor outside as inside, (taking it inwardly is the meantime,) for Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Pimples on the Face, or any eruption of the skin whatever; only where the flesh is very sore you must dilute it with water.

When made weak enough it is the best eye-wash for weak and watery eyes that I ever saw.

Others use it to clease the dandruff outof the hair and strengthen its roots, which it certainly does, and to crown all, it made the hair grow on bald heads, which, if I had not seen with my own eyes, I would not believe from you or anybody else.

As regards dieting, I never came across the first person that ever got any benefit from it. On the contrary, numbers came to death's door by it, as it gives the humors the upper hand. My medicine requires the most nourishing food you can get. It will roon give you an appetite.

Do not for a moment suppose that I warrant a cure of all those diseases, in every case. I merely tell you what it has done, hoping it will do the same for you. I do not warrant a cure in any disease but humors, where it never fails. For further particulars see the circular around each bottle.

No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you can get, and enough of it.

I have an herb, simmered in olive oil, scatters Scrofulous swellings of the neck and under the ears. Price fifty cents per box.

Dimensions for use. Adults, one table spoonful per day; children of eight years, dessert spoonful, from five to eight, tea spoonfuls. As no direction can be applicable to all constitutions, take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

FOR THE CURE OF

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its wonderful cures, for the descriptions of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others, by

W. Gibson, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University.
Valentine Mott, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, N. Y.
W. P. Dewees, M.D., Prof. of Mid. Pa. University.
N. Chapman, M.D., Prof. of Physic, Pa. University.
T. Parke, M.D., Pres't College of Physicians, Phila.
Dr. Del Vallo, Prof. of Medicine, Havana.
Jose Eourenco de Luz, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon.
G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spain.
J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London.
Sir Thomas Pearson, Maj. Gen. British Army.
Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have been for many years made its an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and, being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:—

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork; and a splendid engraved steel plate of the bottle, composed of a geocentric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swaim, copy right secured.

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c., &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge. Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIMS PANACEA, must SWAIM'S PANACEA on the stamp, and be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

Dead Shot for Bed Bugs!

SLEEP IN PEACE.

ALL good House-keepers will be glad to hear of an article for the destruction of Bed Bugs, reliable and sure. The Dead Shot is a saturated tincture of a

POISONOUS GUM RESIN,

Which evaporates very slowly, and will not lose its destructive properties for months. One instance is known where Bugs in LARGE NUMBERS were destroyed by it, where none had been applied later than the previous year. Keepers of Hotels have found that a thorough use of the Dead Shot in every suspicious place, has kept their house free from Bugs for years.

IT IS PUNGENT AND DEADLY.

Apply it to insects it curls them up and lays them out as readily as snuff, or fumes kill bees. It is a TRAP READY SET for these noxious tormenters of our nightly rest.

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS

With the U. S. Patent Office, Washington,

No. 76 state Street, oppo. Kilby street, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office) is the only one in Boston, who can to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty) will be charged for which, be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring Patents in France and Foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure a patent promptly and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

HOUSE on Christian Shore, suitable for two small families. If applied for immediately will be sold low. Apply to

April 17. E. S. WENDELL.

FOR SALE.—The two story wooden House, No. 3 Raitt's Court, containing 9 rooms, with a good dry cellar, and provided with aqueduct, &c. Has a good yard, barn and out buildings. For information apply on the premises, to apl1 JOHN M. DAVIS.

HOUSES FOR SALE.

THE DWELLING HOUSE, No. 9 School street. This is a well built house, two (high) stories, in good repair, and is convenient for one family or two families, or for a large Boarding House. It contains nine or more rooms and two sculleries, and has an excellent cellar under the whole house. The situation is central, being about equi-distant from the markets, factories and railroads. Connected with this house is a building which has been and may be occupied both as a barn and a work-shop. If not sold soon, a part or the whole of the premises will be let.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 6 Green street. This house is fitted for two tenements; it is well built, was thoroughly painted and put in good order the last season, and is well calculated for two families, (having about 6 rooms each) and may be considered a good location for persons employed at the north end. It is centrally located between the different ship-yards in that section of the city. each tenement will be sold separately, if desired.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 7 Liberty street, corner of Charles street. This house was formerly owned and occupied by the late Peter M. Lowd and is in good order. Attached to it is a lot of land large enough for a Stable or for another dwelling house. It would make a good place for the residence of a person employed at the shipyards across the river, or at the Navy Yard.

The HOUSE No. 47 Bow street.—This house has been built but a few years, is well finished off, and is very convenient. In the rear is quite a large garden spot. This would be a desirable place for a person employed at the shipyards, or at the Navy Yard nearly opposite.

Also, for sale, a BUILDING LOT, on Mount Vernon street, (opposite No. 2,) with a small building thereon, which can be finished off into a Dwelling house.

All of the above property will be sold on liberal terms, if applied for soon. For further particulars apply to JOSEPH M. EDMONDS,

Feb. 27. No. 9 Islington street.

TO LET—The STORE on the corner of Vaughan and Deer streets. Cows occupied as the Office of Union Stores in this city, is considered as a good stand for business. It is within a few rods of the Boston and Concord Railroad Depots. Possession can be had immediately.

FOR SALE—The HOUSE in the rear of the above, on Vaughan street—a convenient house for two families, and has been so occupied for about six years, by the same tenants. It rents for $200 per year. Information, terms, &c. call on JOSEPH L. LOCKE, on the premises, or JOSEPH M. EDMONDS, 9 Islington st. m29

California and India Sealing Wax.

THIS WAX, made by Hyde & Co, Manufacturers to the Queen, affords the only security to Foreign Correspondence,—Wafers, Gum, or ordinary Sealing Wax being alike insecure for Letters to or from hot climates.

Hyde's India Wax possesses the peculiar property of remaining HARD in the hottest climate, the seal impression being found uninjured after passing twice through the Tropics. A perfect security to Foreign Letters is thus obtained by the use of this Hard Wax the peculiar properties of which obtained for Hyde & Co. the Exhibition Prize Medal of 1851.

For sale by JOSEPH H. FOSTER
Also a good assortment of common Red and Fancy Sealing WAX, Wafers, Mottos and Initial Seals, &c. je23

MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT—

Every land has hailed with
Xtacy this preparation whose
Intrinsic merits has introduced its
Curative powers to the notice of the whole
American people. Rheumatism of long duration,
Neuralgia, with its tortures, have yielded to its
Magical influence; canners, contorted joints,
Ulcerated and swollen limbs that have
Suffered for years under the weight of disease,
Turn by its application to suppleness and health.
A remedy of such general usefulness that can
Restore newness of Action to the diseased nerves,
Arteries and glands of the human body,
Is worthy of high praise.
Let the rheumatic, halt, lame and palsied
Invalid examine its qualities, and they will
Not be disappointed. Years of study and
Investigation have enabled the proprietors of the
Mexican Mustang Liniment to furnish a remedy,
Extraordinary in its power over diseases,
No matter of how long standing—sold at

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase no Remedy equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is an English Remedy, and was used by William IV. late King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure, and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by his Liniment, but considers warranting it sufficient, as any person who does not obtain relief, need not pay for it.

Dr. Tobias has put up a HORSE LINIMENT in pint bottles, which is warranted cheaper and better than any other for Cholic, Scratches, Old Sores, Galls, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc.

Marble Chimney Pieces.

THE PENRHYN MARBLE is a new and beautiful article, manufactured of Stone imported from England, which is enameled in imitation of of the richest and most expensive Spanish, Gallway, Egyptian, Pyronex, Lisbon, Sienna and other rare and desirable kinds of Marble—the imitation being so perfect as to challenge detection without the closest scrutiny. In style of finish these Chimney Pieces stand unequalled, being very highly polished—retaining their beauty much longer than common marble, and are not injured by oils, smoke, coal gas or acids. They have been extensively introduced into public and private buildings, giving perfect satisfaction to those who have used them. The best of references can be given, showing their adaptedness for general use, the subscriber having furnished some of the best dwelling houses in the city with them during the last two years.

While excelling all others in beauty of finish and appearance, they are sold much cheaper than any thing of the kind in the market. The subscriber has now in Store a complete assortment of the above named desirable Goods, to which he invites the attention of all interested.

EXCOMMUNICATION.—The Trustees of the St. Louis Church in Buffalo, having steadily refused to give up to the Catholic Bishop of Buffalo the control of the church property in accordance with the decision of a Nuncio of the Pope, who was sent on from Rome to investigate the matter, they have received sentence of excommunication from John †, Bishop of Buffalo. The sentence is in the following words:

"I then declare the said Trustees of St. Louis Church in Buffalo, to wit: Messrs. Martin Roth, Alexander Allenbrand, Michael Mesmer, Jacob Wilhelm, George Fisher, Nicolaus Ottenot, J. P. Munschauer, to be excommunicated with the major or greater excommunication, and through the authority given to His Church by the Almighty God, Father, Son and Holy Ghost, I do hereby, then, excommunicate them; declaring further, that all who may henceforward accept the office of Trustee in St. Louis Church, to continue the present unholy opposition to Church discipline, will, ipso facto, that is, by the very fact, incur the same major excommunication. Pray for their conversion, that they may return to Catholic unity, and that their souls may be saved in the day of Judgment."

The Boston Traveller remarks on this:

"For this major excommunication, the fearless gentlemen were undoubtedly prepared.—They probably understand perfectly, that a church excommunication carries with it no penal sanction, either in the eye of God or in the estimation of the intelligent and religious portion of this people, unless occasioned by moral dereliction on the part of the excommunicated. And it is quite possible that even the bishop of Buffalo himself will find out this important fact ere long."

The Boston Journal adds: In reply to the excommunication, the Trustees say that they shall still maintain the ground that they have taken. We give their own words:

"We admit that the report made by Archbishop Bedini of his mission to the United States, has been sanctioned by the Propaganda in Rome, as being in accordance with the rule and statute of the Catholic church; and also that all the transactions of the same prelate, while Governor of Bologna, were sanctioned by the same college."

The Trustees of the General Theological Seminary of the P. E. Church in the United States, held their annual meeting in New York on Wednesday evening. A large number of bishops, clergy and laity was present. The report of the Examining Committee was presented, which, with other reports concerning the condition of the Seminary, were regarded as highly favorable. The Commercial Advertiser says:

"The Rev. Paul Trapier introduced a proposition to abolish the professorship of the ministry and polity of the Church, now held nominally by the Rt. Rev. B. T. Onderdonk, D. D., the suspended bishop of this diocese.—This proposition was discussed with great warmth, but was finally laid on the table under the ruling of the presiding bishop, who held that the subject was one which, according to the rules, required one day's notice to be given before it could be brought before the board. Mr. Trapier then gave notice that he should renew his motion on Thursday evening. The Rev. Dr. Vinton also gave notice that he should introduce an amendment to the statutes of the Seminary, to increase and define the powers of the examing committee and faculty at the annual examination."

MAINE POLITICS.—The Whig State Convention of Maine assembled in Portland on Thursday, and was very full, 579 delegates being present.

Hon. Isaac Reed of Waldoboro', was nominated for governor. Very decided anti-Nebraska resolutions were passed, also resolutions in favor of the Maine Liquor Law, and urging the modification of the Fugitive Slave Law.

This closes the list, we believe, of party nominations in Maine. There are about five governors in the field,—candidates we mean.

RATES OF POSTAGE.—Papers of Saturday state that Mr. Old's new postage on single letters is to be 5 cents and not 10; this makes a difference; but even the increase of postage from 3 to 5 cents will throw a large portion of letters out of the mail on short routes. The error was telegraphic.

The Boston Journal thinks the rate remains the same, viz, three cents, and that all letters are to be prepaid.

If so, Mr. Olds has hit the nail on the head.

THE WHEELING BRIDGE.—The United States Circuit Court, at Philadelphia, has granted an injunction against the reconstruction of the bridge over the Ohio river, at Wheeling, Va. If the injunction is sustained by a higher Court, it will settle the principle, that the general government have the control over the waters of rivers as well as bays and harbors, and that a grant or charter by a State, authorizing the construction of a bridge over any river, may be annulled and set aside by the United States Courts. The New Bedford Mercury remarks that in this case our own bridges remain by sufferance of the government of the United States; and the recent decision of the Supreme Court of this State, that the charter held by the Bridge Company is a contract, and therefore cannot be annulled, is of little value.—Boston Chronicle.

We remark that the decision will probably not be sustained by the Supreme Court, as it happens to be against all respectable modern decisions.

LOCAL.

THE NATIONAL JUBILEE.

IN PORTSMOUTH.—The Fourth of July will be celebrated in this city in a simple way.—Salutes will be fired at sunrise, noon and sunset, and the bells be rung an hour at each of these times. No appropriation has been made by the city for this or any other purpose; but the Journal says it was voted at the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Thursday evening, that His Honor the Mayor with Aldermen Tucker and Jenkins, be a committee to make suitable arrangements for ringing the bells, firing a salute, and procuring fireworks for the 4th of July, if they deem it expedient. It was also voted that ten additional watchmen be employed on the 4th, and on the evening previous. We learn that it is not deemed expedient to procure fireworks for the evening, probably owing to the want of time—so ringing the bells and firing the guns is all the city is to do for the occasion.

The Odds and Ends and the Fantastics are expected to enliven the morning with their displays. The Continentals have decided not to appear, owing to a difficulty of finding one of their number able and willing to command—quite a new trouble among the military. The boys can't have learned the glory of being clothed in regimentals and "a little brief authority" yet.

IN NEWBURYPORT.—Our neighbor city is to have the celebration of the country, as Portsmouth did last year. The most extensive and interesting arrangements have been made for the day and evening. We learn from the Herald that the first division of the procession will form at nine o'clock, to meet the cars from Boston at the Eastern depot, at half-past nine; at which time the whole procession will form on the Mall—to move at ten o'clock.—Col. Amos Tappan is Chief Marshal.

The procession will move through the main streets of the city to the Pleasant Street Church, where a fine programme of services is announced:—The Oration by Rev. Geo. D. Wildes of Boston; Reading of the Scriptures and the Declaration of Independence, and Invocation; Singing, with Organ, the Chorus "Praise the Lord ye nations all," an original Song of welcome by Hon. Geo. Lunt, an original Ode set to the music of the "Star Spangled Banner," and the Hallelujah Chorus. At the close of these services, the procession will re-form and move to the Pavilion on Congress street, to partake of a dinner provided by Horace Hamlet, Esq., of the Ocean House.

According to the programme, the procession will be very large and imposing. It is to consist of six divisions, each headed by a brass band. The first comprises the City Officers, &c., with escort; the second, a Floral Procession; the third, the Fire Department, with their eight machines, and other Companies, guests from abroad; the Fourth, an Industrial Procession; the fifth, various Societies, Free Masons, Odd Fellows, and strangers and citizens generally; the sixth, a Cavalcade, bringing up the rear. As an interesting feature, it is stated that one of the old Eastern stage company coaches, with some of the old drivers of the line, whose names and countenances are familiar to elderly travellers on this line, will drive in from the Turnpike, sounding the horn as in days of old, and join the procession.

A large and brilliant display of Fireworks is announced for the evening.

PISCATAQUA ENGINE COMPANY.—A beautiful Banner, a token of regard from the lady friends of this Company, is to be presented by a young lady, with appropriate ceremonies, from the balcony of their Engine House, near the Eastern Railroad station, this afternoon, at half past two o'clock. We were misinformed as to the "Fours" visiting Newburyport to-morrow. Handsome arrangements were made for their reception and entertainment there, by "Six" and "Eight," which they may enjoy at some future day.

VETERANS' PARADE.—At a meeting of this company of ex-soldiers, on Friday evening, it was voted to parade on Thursday, July 13th, for target practice. The route of the company has not yet been determined. The following is a list of the officers chosen.

Brig. Gen. Josiah G. Hadley, Capt.
Col. Andrew J. Beck, 1st Lieut.
Maj. Theodore F. Rowe, 2d Lieut.
Maj. Robert Lefavour, 3d Lieut.
Capt. George W. Towle, 1st Sergeant.
Capt. John Dame, 2d "
Capt. B. B. Swasey, 3d "
Capt. B. M. Parker, 4th "
Capt. Charles W. Marden, 1st Corporal.
Capt. James A. Hazeltine, 2d "
Capt. J. G. Fitts, 3d "
Lieut. James W. Lefavour, 4th "

SODA.—The soda fountain which emblematically figures so well in our columns, will be found to yield a delicious article for a hot day. Thacher, at the sign of the Good Samaritan, corner of Pleasant and State streets, is doing a brisk business, in the Soda line among other good things. Who can afford to drink anything else, when fifty soda-tickets can be had for a dollar?. See advertisement, which we have found by experiment is all true.

CORNER STONE.

The Corner Stone of the new North Meeting House, agreeable to appointment, was laid on Saturday afternoon. The services commenced at 4 o'clock, by singing a hymn. A portion of Scripture was read by Rev. Mr. Moore, the pastor, and prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. Peabody, of the South Church.—Rev. Mr. Moore then read the list of articles to be deposited, and gave a brief but appropriate address, in which he considered the new house, not only as a house of worship, but also as a monument in memory of our fathers, and of their zeal and ours for religious worship, and for a church built on the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone.

The articles were then depositited, the stone was laid. The services closed by singing the doxology in Old Hundred, and by the Benediction.

LIST OF ARTICLES DEPOSITED:

I. Copy of the ancient grant of Land on which the Church is being built, made in 1640, in the 16th year of the reign of Charles I. of England.

C. H. BUNDLETT, P.M.

☞ The regular weekly meeting of the Portsmouth Musical Union, is postponed from this evening to Monday next, at a quarter before eight o'clock.

☞ Travellers in Epping will find a pleasant stopping place at the Rockingham House, kept by H. G. O. Rundlett, Esq., situated about a third of a mile from the P. & C. Railroad station. Capital fare, good attendance, and moderate charges. A carriage will always be found at the depot, for the gratuitous conveyance of travellers to and from the House.

AN AFFECTING SIGHT.—In the Galena passenger depot, on the closing day of last week, sat a man and woman apart from the crowd, and close together. Every one who saw them paused involuntarily to gaze.—There was nothing remarkable in their dress, unless it might be cleanliness, but an air of grief—of mourning, enveloped them like a transparent mantle. As we passed on, pondering what great grief had cast a shadow on the pair, one of the day police came by, and said, "I saw you looking at those poor people just now. They are from my country: I have been talking with them, and it is a hard story to tell.—His name is Stephen Cook, and they are on the way from Holland, to a settlement of their friends at Pella, Iowa. They embarked with three children, the pride of their parent hearts. The voyage was long, the icebergs surrounded the ship, and held it fast fourteen days, and before it was ended, they had dropped into the cold blue sea their two youngest idols. The last, a pretty little girl of eight summers, died here in their arms to-day, in this cheerless depot, and they have just returned from the burial, to which no one accompanied them but the undertaker, and when the train goes out, they will resume their journey desolate and alone." Ah, how few know the trials of the immigrant!—Chicago Press.

CONGRESS.

FRIDAY, June 30.

SENATE.—The chair laid before the Senate a message from the President, transmitting certain correspondence respecting emigrant passengers on board of vessels, being the same as that which was sent to the House yesterday.

Mr. Clayton's resolution of yesterday, calling for information, was reconsidered, because the information has already been made public.

The vote by which the bill for the relief of David Myerle, which was passed a month ago in the House, was taken up and agreed to, 19 to 17. The bill was then debated and amended by reducing the appropriation from $30,000 to $15,000, and passed.

The resolution for adjournment on the 14th of August was returned by the House, they having disagreed to the Senate amendment for a recess from July 17 to October 16.

Mr. Gwin moved that the Senate insist on its amendment—agreed to. A committee of conference was asked.

Six private bills were passed.

Mr. Badger of North Carolina offered a resolution, that when the Senate adjourn to-morrow, it be to meet on Wednesday next.—Agreed to.

The Senate then at 3 o'clock, adjourned, no quorum having been in attendance since one o'clock.

Mr. Houston to-morrow will make a personal explanation in regard to his course on the Nebraska bill.

HOUSE.—In the House, various reports were made from committees. The House appointed a committee of conference to confer with that of the Senate on the resolution fixing the day of adjournment.

The House went first into committee on the private calendar, and next on the General Appropriation bill, but there being little disposition to act in either case, the committee rose at half past two o'clock, and the House adjourned.

FOREIGN NEWS.

By the Europa at New York, we have Liverpool dates to June 17.

LIVERPOOL MARKET, June 17.—Dennistown & Co. quote good demand, partly on speculation, during the past few days; prices closing at advance of 1s on Flour, and 1 a 2d on Wheat. Indian Corn 6d a 1s lower.—Western Canal Flour 39s 6d a 40s; Baltimore and Ohio 39 a 40s; sour 34 a 37s 6d. White, yellow and mixed Corn, 38 a 40s. The improved demand is mostly owing to unfavorable weather in France.

Silistria held out up to the latest dates, the 14th. It is announced that Austria and Prussia have jointly framed a reply, overruling the objections of smaller German states.

Count Manteriffel is about to go to St. Petersburg with a message from Prussia recommending the Czar to accept Austria's recall sammons. It is rumored, however, the Czar has already refused it.

The Baltic fleet was at Boresund, 20 miles from Helsingfors.

There is nothing later from Asia, Greece or the Black Sea.

The allies are still proceeding towards Varna.

A bill giving Canada an elective Senate has passed a second reading in the House of Lords.

Very wet weather in France excited fears in regard to the crops.

Prince Paskiewitch has been severely wounded.

A telegraphic despatch dated Gottland, 11th, says the French and English fleets were at Boresund, 20 miles from Sweaborg, and it was expected that they would attack the latter place on or soon after the 18th. There were sixteen Russian ships in Sweaborg, and they had blockaded the harbor by sinking a ship loaded with rocks.

The treaty with Mexico was ratified to-day and Gen. Almonte received a check for $7,000,000 on the treasury at New York.

MEMPHIS, June 30.—The Know Nothing ticket for Mayor and city officers was elected to-day by a handsome majority.

The Cholera is raging to some extent all along the Mississippi and Ohio rivers.

CINCINNATI, June 30.—Explosion.—During the firing of the artillery at Aurora, Indiana, yesterday, in consequence of the railroad celebration, the powder magazine exploded, killing one man and wounding four others.

OREGON.—The offer of a bounty of 160 acres to each single man, and 320 acres to each family settling in Oregon, holds good till December 1st, 1855, having been extended by the last Congress.

TREE STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.—During the thunder shower yesterday afternoon, the lightning struck a large willow tree in front of J. Thieme's, near 48th street, East River. It split the tree from top to bottom, killing a dog that was chained to it. The fluid passed into the corner house and destroyed a post which supported the building.—N. Y. E. Post.

CHOLERA.—The following extract from the letter of a clergyman to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, presents a very simple, and, he says, effectual, preventivie of cholera, as well as a remedy of great power:—The preventive is simple: "a teaspoonful of powdered charcoal taken three or four times a week, in a cup of coffee, or other liquid, in the morning. When attacked with cholera, a mixture of an ounce of charcoal, an ounce of laudanum, and an ounce of brandy or other spirits, may be given as follows—after being well shaken: a teaspoonful every five minutes. In half an hour I have known this effectually to relieve and stay the disease. As the patient becomes better, the mixture may be given at longer intervals. I have known a patient in the blue stage, and collapsed, perfectly recover in a few hours. The charcoal was tried as a preventive on a large plantation in the Mauritius, and not a single individual out of eight hundred was attacked with the cholera.

Sherry Wine Bitters

HAS induced several persons, who do not possess the least medical knowledge, to assume the title of Doctor, and put before the public an article in imitation of my Medicine, which they call Sherry Wine Bitters, and attempt to palm them off under the pretence that I have retired from business, and also that they manufacture an improved article of the same name.

I would say to those in pursuit of health, to be sure that you obtain the real article, which may be known by the Fac Simile of my signature upon the outside wrapper, covering each bottle, and also by the copyright border of the same covering.

Sold wholesale and retail at my office, No. 61 Hanover street, Boston, and by all dealers in Medicine in every city, town and village throughout the New England States.

m10 GEO. W. TOWLE & CO.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common Pasture Weeds a remedy that cures Every Kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, of a cloth thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure the scaly eruption of the skin.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of crofula.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed growing on the pastures and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system, yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start. There is no if's and ands, hums and ha's about its suiting some cases, but not yours. I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effects of it in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. I gave it to children a year old; to old people of sixty. I have seen poor, puny, wormy looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some have taken it who have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is sound it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings, but you need not be alarmed; they will disappear in from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it; on the contrary, when that feeling is gone, you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to.

Nothing in the annals of Patent Medicines has ever been received by the public with so much favor as this simple preparation. It is now composed of nine different herbs. In May, 1852, when I commenced making a business of it, I sold about two bottles per day. In June, 1853. I sold 4320 bottles. In October, 1853, I sold 6120 bottles. I hope you will call that doing well; I do.

In our own practice, I confine it strictly to humors; but there are some who are so enthusiastic in its favor they think what cured them will cure any thing and any body; they accordingly recommend it for every variety of disease. In this way a great many virtues of it have been found that I never would suspect.

Cases of Dyspepsia, of many years standing, that withstood every known remedy, have been permanently cured.

I know one man to gain 17 lbs. by taking three bottles; another 11 lbs.; another 10 lbs.; and another 7 lbs—the venerable master Robinson of Boston.

In diseases of the Liver it is a specific. I know several with yellow skin and yellow eyes, the body emaciated and the mind melancholy, get fat and cheerful by a few bottles.

I know several cases of Dropsy, and one particularly bad. A lady, aged 70, was unable to leave her house for the last twelve years, was so much relieved (she was reduced in circumference thirty-four inches,) as to visit her friends in several neighboring towns.

Another had the Dropsy in her left leg, and was unable to walk for ten years, sometimes swelling to an enormous size; at last bursted, making a bad wound which could not be healed; by taking three bottles and using two boxes of ointment, she is now quite well. Why should I make some fat and others lean, I cannot tell, but so it is.

I know of several cases of Kidney complaints cured by it. If the columns of a newspaper was a proper medium, I could tell of cases of this most distressing of all diseases that would make your heart bleed, that were permanently cured by it.

It has been lately found to be a sure cure for Panama fever. In one case the first spoonful put off the fit two hours. One bottle cured him. Another came home to die, and was induced by his brother to try it. Three bottles cured him.

It likewise gives great relief in the Asthma. A lady in Lawrence was unable to lie in bed for a number of years; she can now lie without the least inconvenience.

A lady in Weymouth lost the use of her left side by the Erysipelas. On the second bottle, she broke out in one mass of humor from head to foot. In a few days she was well.

It has lately been found to be equally good for humor outside as inside, (taking it inwardly in the meantime,) for Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Pimples on the Face, or any eruption of the skin whatever; only where the flesh is very sore you must dilute it with water.

When made weak enough it is the best eye-wash for weak and watery eyes that I ever saw.

Others use it to cleanse the dandruff out of the hair and strengthen its roots, which it certainly does, and to crown all, it made the hair grow on bald heads, which, if I had not seen with my own eyes, I would not believe from you or anybody else.

As regards dieting, I never came across the first person that ever got any benefit from it. On the contrary, numbers came to death's door by it, as it gives the humors the upper hand. My medicine requires the most nourishing food you can get. It will soon give you an appetite.

Do not for a moment suppose that I warrant a cure of all those diseases, in every case. I merely tell you what it has done, hoping it will do the same for you. I do not wish you to think it will cure but humors, where it never fails. For further particulars see the circular around each bottle.

No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you can get, and enough of it.

I has an herb, steeped in olive oil, scatters Scrofulous swellings of the neck and under the ears. Price fifty cents per box.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE. Adults, one table spoonful per day; children of eight years, dessert spoonful; from five to eight, teaspoonfuls. As a rule no direction can be applicable to all constitutions, take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the descriptions of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others, by

W. Gibson, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University.
Valentine Mott, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, N. Y. "
W. P. Dewees, M.D., Prof. of Mid., Pa. University.
N. Chapman, M.D., Prof. of Physic, Pa. University.
T. Parke, M.D., First College of Physicians, Phila.
Dr. Del Valle, Prof. of Medicine, Havana.
Jose Eourenco de Luz, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon.
G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spaine.
J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London.
Sir Thomas Pearson, Maj. Gen. British Army.
Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and, being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:—

SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork: and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geocentric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swain, copy right secured

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c., &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge. Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA, and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

Dead Shot for Bed Bugs!

SLEEP IN PEACE.

ALL good House-keepers will be glad to hear of an article for the destruction of Bed Bugs, reliable and sure. The Dead Shot is a saturated tincture of a

POISONOUS GUM RESIN,

Which evaporates very slowly, and will not lose its destructive properties for months. One instance is known where Bugs in LARGE NUMBERS were destroyed by it, which had been applied later than the previous year. Keepers of Hotels have found that a thorough use of the Dead Shot in every suspicious place, has kept their house free from Bugs for years.

IT IS PUNGENT AND DEADLY.

Apply it to insects it curls them up and lays them out as readily as sulphur fumes kill bees. It is a TRAP READY SET for these noxious tenanters of our nightly rest.

American and Foreign Office.

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS

With the U. S. Patent Office, Washington,

No. 76 state Street, oppo. Kilby street, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringements of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 9 years practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries: besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were those who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a more competent and more trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

"PATENT OFFICE,
"R. H. EDDY, Esq., Boston, Mass.

"SIR:—Your facilities for the prosecution of any business connected with this Office, are equal to those of any other agent I am very respectfully,

HOUSES FOR SALE.

THE DWELLING HOUSE, No. 9 School street. This is a well built house, two (high) stories, in good repair, and is convenient for one family or two families, or for a large Boarding House. It contains nine or more rooms and two sculleries, and has an excellent cellar under the whole house. The situation is central, being about equi-distant from the markets, factories and railroads. Connected with this house is a building which has been and may be occupied both as a barn and a work-shop. If not sold soon, a part or the whole of the premises will be sold.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 6 Green street. This house is fitted for two tenements; it is well built, was thoroughly painted and put in good order the last season, and is well calculated for two families, having about 6 rooms each) and may be considered a good location for persons employed at the north end. It is centrally located between the different ship-yards in that section of the city, each tenement will be sold separately, if desired.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 7 Liberty street, corner of Charles street. This house was formerly owned and occupied by the late Peter M. Lowd and is in good order. Attached to it is a lot of land large enough for a Stable or for another dwelling house. It would make a good place for the residence of a person employed at the shipyards across the river, or at the Navy Yard.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 47 Bow street.—This house has been built but a few years, is well finished off, and is very convenient. In the rear is quite a large garden spot. This would be a desirable place for a person employed at the shipyards, or at the Navy Yard nearly opposite.

Also, for sale, a BUILDING LOT, on Mount Vernon street, (opposite No. 2,) with a small building thereon, which can be finished off into a Dwelling house.

All of the above property will be sold on liberal terms, if applied for soon. For further particulars apply to JOSEPH M. DRAMMONDS,

Feb. 27. No. 9 Islington street.

TO LET—The STORE on the corner of Vaughan and Deer streets. It was occupied as the first Union Store in this city, and is considered as a good stand for business. It is within a few rods of the Boston and Concord Railroad Depots. Possession can be had immediately.

FOR SALE—The HOUSE in the rear of the above, on Vaughan street—a convenient house for two families, and has been so occupied for about six years, by the same tenants. It rents for $160. For information, &c., call on JOSEPH L. LOCKE, on the premises, or JOSEPH M. EDMONDS, 9 Islington st. m29

California and India Sealing Wax.

THIS WAX, made by Hyde & Co., Manufacturers to the Queen, affords the only security to Foreign Correspondence,—Waiers, Gum, or ordinary Sealing Wax being alike insecure for Letters to or from hot climates.

Hyde's India Wax possesses the peculiar property of remaining HARD in the hottest climate, the seal impression being found uninjured after passing twice through the Tropics. A perfect security to Foreign Letters is thus obtained by the use of this Wax, the superior properties of which obtained for Hyde & Co. the Exhibition Prize Medal of 1851.

For sale by JOSEPH H. FOSTER

Also a good assortment of common Red and Fancy Sealing Wax, Waiers, Mottos and Initial Seals, &c. je23

Marble Chimney Pieces.

THE PENRHYN MARBLE is a new and beautiful article, manufactured of Stone imported from England, which is enameled in imitation of the richest and most expensive Spanish, Galway, Egyptian, Pyronese, Lisbon, Sienna and other rare and desirable kinds of Marble—the imitation being so perfect as to challenge detection without the closest scrutiny. In style of finish these Chimney Pieces stand unequalled, being very highly polished—retaining their beauty much longer than common marble, and are not injured by oils, smoke, coal gas or acids. They have been extensively introduced into public and private buildings, giving perfect satisfaction to those who have used them. The best of references can be given, showing their adaptedness for general use, the subscriber having furnished some of the best dwelling houses in the city with them during the last two years.

While excelling all others in beauty of finish and appearance, they are sold much cheaper than any thing of the kind in the market. The subscriber has now in Store a complete assortment of the above named desirable Goods, to which he invites the attention of all interested.

Morning Chronicle.

TUESDAY, JULY 4, 1854.

FOURTH OF JULY.

To give all hands a chance to celebrate this glorious anniversary, we must make a pause somewhere, and shall therefore issue no Daily Chronicle on Wednesday morning.

We perceive that the celebrations of the day are by no means so numerous, or on so large a scale this year, as usual. The recent triumphs of slavery in Congress, and the occurrence of a kindred event in Boston, have sent a chill throughout New England. Some of the noisiest patriots are silent, and seem to think. And the men of sober thought and deep reflection ponder the recent events in their hearts, and ask mentally, if not orally, whether our professions of devotion to liberty are sincere or false; and whether the present tendency of our government is towards despotism or anarchy.

THE CONSTITUTION.

WHO SUPPORTS IT?—A despatch from Washington, of July 1, says:

The rumor that an earnest effort is to be made to expel Mr. Sumner from the Senate, gains strength. Four Northern Senators are said to favor the movement. The reason alleged, is, unconstitutional opposition to the Fugitive Slave law.

We know there has been a terrible commotion among the honorable Senators, and a small amount of holy horror exhibited, because Mr. Sumner said he would not aid in the return of a fugitive, though he had sworn to support the Constitution.

Now we would like to ask these "conscience" slave catchers, in the Senate, whether they feel bound by their oath, to aid in enforcing another provision of the same section in the Constitution, which says, "The citizens of each State shall be entitled to all the privileges and immunities of citizens in the several States?"

Every one must answer No! as Senator Sumner did; for this provision has been and is violated, not by one or a few men, but by a State, systematically, and up to this hour.—Yet they are immensely conscientious about Senator Sumner's oath. Will not somebody say to them this proverb: "Physician, heal thyself."

ARMED PETITIONERS.

Under this head, the Boston Courier and Post publish the following communication:

Mr. Editor—I understand that a petition is to be circulated for the signatures of the volunteer soldiers of Boston who recently did duty in the preservation of the public peace, praying as soldiers for the repeal of the fugitive slave law of 1850. Now it appears to me that this mode of petition is an ill-advised movement, and will confer no honor upon our citizen soldiers should it be carried into effect. As soldiers they are to obey and support the laws, and as such cannot properly have any voice in making or repealing them. As citizens, like all other citizens, they have the right to petition upon this subject, and there can be no objection to their using it, should they see fit. But as soldiers, I hope never to see the day when they will take a stand for or against any particular law; for such a course could be productive of nothing but evil, not only to the institution of volunteer militia, but also to the sacred cause of law and order which they are pledged at all times and on all occasions to maintain. As a sincere friend of the military, I trust that the movement in question may be abandoned, and that all soldiers who choose to petition upon the subject will sign the general petition, in common with other citizens, and sign it as citizens. EUSTIS.

This is decidedly rich. Br. Douglas went almost into hysterics because the 3000 clergymen protested against his scheme, and some editors were seized with a tremor lest the pulpit should be desecrated by these protestants. They must not petition, because, forsooth, theirs was a calling too holy to permit such a meddling with secular affairs, especially in their character of clergymen. Now Mr. Eustis has almost as many and as grave objections to the militiamen's petitioning, as such, to repeal the hateful statute which they were called out, as soldiers, virtually to sustain.

This must not be done, quoth he, lest it damage the sacred cause of law and order.

We are not any more able, ourselves, to see any impropriety in a soldier's requesting to have such a law repealed,—than we were to censure Major Wyse for rebelling against the swindlers who were willing to drown him and his regiment, for the sake of getting a little money in the shape of charters or bribes.

We think it quite likely there may be some men among the Boston soldiers, with hearts like William Tell, who hung two arrows in his girdle, one to cleave the apple on his son's head, the other for the tyrant if he missed the shot.

An effort to expel Mr. Sumner from the Senate is seriously contemplated, and will be made in a few days, if a sufficient number of Senators can be relied upon. Expulsion is probably the readiest answer to Senator Sumner's arguments.—New York Times.

Exactly so.—Strike, but hear me! says the freeman. No, indeed, replies tyranny,—crush out free speech. Jefferson says, tolerate error, but leave reason free. No; replies some modern Ephraimite, apply the gag to every one who does not speak our shibboleth aright.

HOW ARE WE TO WHIP ALL CREATION?—The Boston Times has one of the most sensible editorials having a bearing on the manifest-destiny, extending-the-area-of-freedom policy, which we have seen for a long time.—Commenting upon the bill of Mr. Bocock for reorganizing the Navy, the Times says:

"What is wanted is a large addition to our navy of ships that shall combine all the modern improvements. We should be in a position to put afloat, at not more than two months' notice, a fleet that should be sufficiently powerful to command the respect of Europe. The only alternative is, to refrain from talking of what may be offensive to European powers. If we should make up our minds to remain content with our present vast possessions, which it will require an hundred years to people in full, we need not trouble ourselves about building men of war, or of increasing our expenditures on the navy.—There is not the slightest probability that any nation will attack us of its own will. Fearful of our increase, England and France may combine to assail us if we should take measures to extend our territory, though that would depend a good deal upon the direction in which we should march.

On the supposition, then, that we are to go on 'annexing' everything that we like, there should be no time lost in putting the navy on such a footing as should make it equal to any work that might be demanded at its hands.—If a war should grow out of our desire to have more sugar plantations, it would be essentially naval in its character. It would be waged in the West Indian Seas. Without command of those seas we might as well look to obtain, or having obtained, to hold, Sicily or Malta, as Cuba. The Western Indies have always been the prize of the strongest maritime nation, and they always will be. If we would have them, we must cease gasconading about certain matters, and go to work at completing such a navy as no nation or combination of nations, could afford to regard otherwise than with respect. It may be very fine to talk about the ability of the United States to have their way in all things, but sensible men know that if they should come into collision with a stronger nation, they would be beaten, and badly so. All the heroism, bravery, and 'manifest-destiny'-ism in the world would not save us from disgraceful defeats on the ocean, if our enemy should have a decided superiority of force there. Something beside words would be found necessary to meet all the results of modern science that England and France have brought to bear upon naval warfare.

We defeated the English in our last contest with them, because in single ship combats, the advantages were decidedly on our side.—The advantages derivable from powerful fleets would be found on the side of European nations, who have been paying attention to things calculated to advance their purposes, while we have been squabbling about matters of as little consequence as the disputes in Lilliput. We must take a larger view of things than we have been accustomed to, if we would have our deeds correspond with our words. While we have been talking other nations have been doing, and doing as well for themselves as badly for us, if we should be bent upon having war with them."

This is placing the matter in its true light before the public. If we are to become an aggressive nation, we must have a larger navy and a standing army, with the oppressive concomitants of an enormous debt and heavy taxation. If we are content to keep within our own borders—to confine ourselves to the legitimate pursuits of peaceful enterprise—to improve our already vast unoccupied domain—we must quit gasconading and discourage fillibusterism in all its forms.—Boston Jour.

FROM THE PROVINCES.—The elections in New Brunswick for the Legislature had gone in favor of the government party. The opposition journals are very much opposed to the provisions of the reciprocity treaty. The Halifax Sun of the 27th has an article in favor of the treaty, which, it says, is not, strictly speaking, one of reciprocity. "The agreement, as perfected by Lord Elgin, simply stipulates for what is designated reciprocity, in the free transit of raw products between the United States and British America—that is to say, these Colonies are to send their wheat, corn, potatoes, lumber, coal, &c., into the States duty free. In consideration of which, the United States may send the same articles into the Colonies upon like terms. This is not reciprocity. Still we do not see that any Bluenose can find fault with this bargain."

VERMONT POLITICS.—The whig and free soil county conventions met in Essex, Chittenden Co., Vt., on June 29th, went into mass convention, and acted in harmonious conduct throughout. G. W. Benedict presided, with fifteen vice presidents, ten whigs and five free soilers.

A ticket composed of whigs and free soilers in equal proportion was nominated, and resolutions taking strong ground in favor of the repeal of the fugitive slave law and Nebraska bill were passed unanimously. The meeting was largely attended.

NEW POSTAGE RATES.—The following rates are embraced in the new postage bill passed by the House on Thursday: For a single letter for any distance by land, within the United States, not exceeding 3000 miles, postage to remain as at present, 3 cents; for a greater distance than 3000 miles, the rates are to be advanced to 10 cents; single letters sent under 3000 miles, wholly or in part by sea, pay 5 cents; foreign letters conveyed wholly or in part by sea, and not over 3000 miles, pay 5 cents, and if over 3000 miles, 10 cents, excepting where postage has been or shall be adjusted at different rates by postal treaty; double letters to pay in all cases double rates. The bill also provides that all letters except from foreign countries, passing through the mails of the United States, shall be prepaid in stamps after January, 1855.

ASSAULT.—The Sunday Despatch states that John P. Averill, Principal of the Chapman School for Boys at East Boston, was knocked down on Saturday evening by Spencer R. Brown, in consequence of a whipping to which his boy was subjected. Brown was subsequently arrested and committed to answer for the assault.

LOCAL.

EASTERN RAILROAD.—On July 4, 1854, in addition to the regular trains, extra trains will run as follows:

Leave Boston for Newburyport at 5.30 A. M.

Leave Boston for Newburyport and way stations at the close of the fire works in the evening.

Leave Portsmouth for Newburyport at 6.45 P. M.

Leave Newburyport for Portsmouth and way stations at the close of the fire works in the evening.

CONCORD RAILROAD.—An extra train will leave the Depot at the foot of Deer street at 1 1-2 o'clock P. M., for the Pic Nic at Greenland, and return at 7 1-2 o'clock.

FLAG PRESENTATION.

Piscataqua Engine Co., No. 4, had a beautiful banner presented to them on Monday afternoon, from the balcony of their Engine House. The presentation, in behalf of the ladies of Portsmouth, was made by a daughter of Mr. Solomon Seymour, and was accepted for the Company by Mr. John J. Mason. Appropriate remarks were made by the donor and recipient. The banner is of white silk, with a red fringe around, and ornamented on one side with a picture of houses on fire, with the words "Piscataqua No. 4" above, and below "Prompt when duty calls." On the reverse, encircled in a wreath, the words "Presented by the ladies of Portsmouth." The flag was painted in Boston.

The company appeared in a new uniform, consisting of a cloth cap, red shirt with blue collar, black pants, and rubber leggins. The machine was beautifully decorated with flowers, and was drawn after the company by two grey horses. The standard-bearer's handsome Collar was manufactured and presented by Mr. Larabee, saddler, who also made the Belts for the Company. Their dress is a neat one, and the Company appeared well.

After marching through the principal streets to the music of a drum and fife, the Company sat down to a bountiful table at Gen. J. G. Hadley's, with the Mayor, Chief Engineer, Officers of our Fire Companies, and other invited guests.

NEW CHURCH ORGAN.—Barton & Cobb of this city, have just finished a fine Organ for the Methodist Society here, and put it up in their church orchestra. It contains ten stops; five hundred pipes; and twelve registers, viz.:—Open Diapason; Stopped Diapason, (bass and treble;) Principal; Twelfth; Fifteenth; Dulciana; Flute; Night Horn; Trumpet; and Clariabella. The compass is five octaves, from G to G. The pedals connect with the key-board; there is no swell or sub-bass, though it is designed to put in both at some future day. The case is fourteen feet high, nine feet front, and five feet deep; it is grained to imitate black walnut, and with the gilt pipes and a pair of neat golden harps near the top, makes a very handsome appearance. The tone is full and rich, and the workmanship throughout excellent. The cost was about $800. Mr. George Parkinson is the organist. With the improvements made on this church, within the past year, the house now presents a very pleasant appearance, inside and out.

The same builders are now constructing an Organ somewhat smaller than the above, for the Methodist Society at New Marker.

ROWDYISM.—We are informed by a gentleman who resides in the vicinity of Market Square, and who was disturbed by the firing of crackers in front of Congress Block, on Saturday about mid-night,—that measures are being taken to bring to justice these disturbers of the peace. Such outrageous proceedings should be stopped, somehow.

FINE DRAWINGS.

The writer passed three pleasant hours, a few evenings since, in the study of Mr. T. P. Moses, at Brooklyn, N. Y. Mr. M., since establishing himself in that city, has produced several pictures vastly superior to anything he has shown his Portsmouth friends; and one especially, a sunset scene, will compare favorably with the most exquisite pastil drawing we have ever seen. There is a richness of tone pervading his landscapes, a delicacy of tinting which seems peculiar to himself. The manner in which he applies the crayon, is such that while it gives trees, rocks, &c., the requisite roughness, they will still bear as scrutinizing an examination as the finest of oil painting. The writer pretends to be no "critic," but he has an intuitive perception of the beautiful,

Be it in flowers or in human eyes.

And he is proud of old Portsmouth and those she sends forth to enrich other cities and "go down unto the sea in ships." He wishes every success to one who has displayed such talent in the beautiful art of translating thought to color. The writer is not one of those who deem painting and the sister arts frivolities; each has its own high uses; but fine souls only can comprehend them and their beauties. for it is "hard for the non-elect to understand

NEW ORLEANS, June 29.—A vote was taken throughout the city to-day on a proposition to authorize the city to subscribe to the New Orleans and Mobile Railroad. The proposition was carried by fully 1500 majority.

The weather is the hottest ever known here, the thermometer reaching 108 in the shade. Eight cases of sun stroke have occurred.

The Grand Jury of the Circuit Court have refused to find bills against the persons accused of fillibustering, because no evidence but vague rumor has been brought before them, notwithstanding Judge Campbell intimated that he should bind the suspected parties over, in $3000 bonds, to obey the laws for nine months.

John May, the clown, who erst was wont to set us all in a roar at Welch's circus, died lately in the Blockley Almshouse. Sometime since he was struck on his head out West by a stone, from the effects of which he lost his memory and was unable to perform. Mr. May was a very worthy man, strictly temperate, and a very lively wit. His old companions supported him until it was found he could receive better nursing and attention at Blockley, where he was sent. Poor John! "we could have better spared a better man."—Philadelphia Sun.

Health Regulations.

THE Board of Health of the City of Portsmouth call the attention of the public to the following sections of City Ordinance No. 4, and invite all interested in the preservation of the health of the City to aid them in the execution of their duty:—

SEC. 3. All waste water of houses, yards, cellars, sinks, pumps, &c. shall be conveyed by their owners or occupiers to the common sewers, or to such places as the Health Officers may direct.

SEC. 4. No person shall be allowed to throw any vegetable or dead animal substance, or any other matter capable of producing infection, into any street, lane, alley or dock, or upon any wharf, but shall bury them or throw them into the river below low water mark.

SEC. 5. The contents of vaults and privies shall not be permitted to rise within one foot of the surface of the earth. And all owners or occupiers of buildings having such vaults or privies as shall require it, shall cause them to be emptied within ten days from the promulgation of this ordinance, and in future on or before the first day of May in each year. And any such owner or occupier neglecting so to do, shall forfeit and pay for every such neglect a sum not less than three nor more than twenty dollars, and a like sum for every week's neglect, after the time above specified.

SEC. 11. The Health Officers may give written notice to the owner or occupier of any building, vessel or enclosure, to remove or destroy any nuisance or other thing deemed by them, on examination, to be injurious to the public health, within a certain time limited therein; and in case such owner or occupier—the said notice having been given to him, or left at his usual place of abode—shall neglect to comply therewith, the said Health Officers may, by direction of the Mayor and accompanied by the City Marshal, forcibly enter such building, vessel or enclosure, and cause the said nuisance or other thing aforesaid to be removed or destroyed.

SEC. 14. The owner or occupier of any building, vessel or enclosure shall be liable to pay the expense of the removal or destruction of any such nuisance or other thing, as aforesaid, including fees of the Health Officers who order or cause the same to be removed; and the same may be recovered by action to be brought in the name of the city.

SEC. 16. And whenever any person or persons shall violate any rule or regulation, or commit any act forbidden in any section of this ordinance, to which no special penalty is annexed, shall forfeit and pay a sum not less than one dollar nor more than twenty dollars, to be recovered by complaint before the Police Court of this city.

CONGRESS.

SENATE.—On Saturday Mr. Sumner presented a memorial from 685 men of Massachusetts, praying for a repeal of the Fugitive Slave Law. He gave notice that he would on Monday ask leave to introduce a bill to repeal that act.

Mr. Clayton moved to take up the bill reported by him some days since, to prevent the transfer of American vessels to be employed in the African slave trade.

Mr. Sumner asked if the Senator designed to push that bill to its passage to-day?

Mr. Clayton—I will if I can.

Mr. Sumner—I have not been able to give to it that examination I would like to, as it now stood, it would require amendments which he would feel compelled to move. To his knowledge one Senator intended to debate the bill at considerable length. He made these remarks by way of suggestion that the bill be laid on the table for the present.

Mr. Clayton said if the bill was to be defeated by such means, he wanted Americans to know it. It was a bill to suppress the African slave trade. It was taken up, and after being debated for some time by Messrs. Clayton, Hamlin, Petit, etc., it was postponed till Wednesday.

Mr. Dodge reported back the House bill to establish the office of Surveyor-General in New Mexico, Kansas and Nebraska, to grant donations of land to actual settlers therein, and for other purposes, and the same was passed. He also reported a bill to invest in the several states and territories the title in fee of lands which have been or may be certified to them. Taken up and passed.

The bill authorizing the construction of a line of telegraph from the Mississippi river to the Pacific, was made the special order for Wednesday next.

Mr. Bright reported back the Texas Creditor's Bill, with a substitute therefor. This substitute provides pro rata $8,580,000 among those creditors declared to be entitled to the same in the opinion of the Attorney General of September, 1853.

Mr. Adams introduced a bill to establish a department of law, to prescribe certain duties of the Auditors and Comptrollers of the Treasury, and for other purposes. The bill establishes a law department, of which the Attorney General shall be the superior officer.

Mr. Houston then, for three hours, addressed the Senate in personal explanation of matters in controversy between himself and Commodore W. Moore, late of Texas Navy, defending himself against the accusations made by Moore, and giving a statement of official and private transactions of Moore, calculated to disparage the character of the latter. He did not conclude. The Senate agreed to adjourn sine die 4th of August. After a short executive session, adjourned till Wednesday.

HOUSE.—Mr. Orr, of the Committee of Conference, on the Adjournment, reported resolutions that they had agreed to recommend Aug. 4th, as the day of adjournment. The Committee had come to this recommendation after a long conference, and he moved the previous question upon it. Mr. Jones of Tennessee moved to lay the report on the table. Mr. Jones's motion was disagreed to, 50 against 114. The report was adopted, 114 against 54. The House then went into Committee on a private bill, debating it only.—Adjourned till Wednesday.

NEW YORK, JULY 2.—A private letter from Melbourne, of February 23d, states that the Callao gold fever continues to increase, and that nearly 500 Americans had sailed for that port. The same letter records the death of several Americans at Melbourne, and among others Charles Hunnit of Bangor, Me., who died of consumption, Archibald Chase of Frankfort, Me., of billious fever.

The American steamer West Wind, before reported as burned near Melbourne on the 27th of February, it is suspected was burned by design, she having been heavily insured.—Capt. Smith and two of his men have been arrested on the charge of being accessory to the fact.

Later from Havana.—The steamship Black Warrior, from Mobile via Havana, arrived here this forenoon, with Havana dates of last Tuesday evening.

She brings over 150 passengers, but no news of the least importance.

The Spanish steamer Isabel arrived at Havana with a large number of troops, and more were expected daily.

There was an unusual large number of American vessels at Havana. The French admiral at Havana would sail in a few days.

Don Tojoras, late Collector at Havana, and recently promoted to Intendente of the Treasury, died on the 25th ult.

PHILADELPHIA, July 2.—The U. S. steamer San Jacinto went to sea on her engine trial trip on Saturday morning.

Twelve fatal cases of cholera occurred here during last week, including three in the county prison. All the taverns in this city were closed to-day, and everything was quiet and orderly.

NORFOLK, July 2.—The U. S. steamer Legare, from Charleston, has arrived in Hampton Roads in a sinking condition.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common Pasture Weeds a remedy that cures Every Kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruption of the skin.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of crofula.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed, growing on the pastures and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system, yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start. There is no if's and ands, hums and ha's about its suiting some cases, but not yours. I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effects of it in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. I gave it to children a year old; to old people of sixty. I have seen pale, puny, wormy looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some have taken it who have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is sound it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings; but you must not be alarmed; they will disappear in from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it; on the contrary, when that feeling is gone, you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to.

Nothing in the annals of Patent Medicines has ever been received by the public with so much favor as this simple preparation. It is now composed of nine different herbs. In May, 1852, when I commenced making a business of it, I sold about two bottles per day. In June, 1853, I sold 4320 bottles. In October, 1853, I sold 6120 bottles. I hope you will call that doing well; I do.

In my own practice, I confine it strictly to humors; but there are some who are so enthusiastic in its favor they think what cured them will cure any thing and any body; they accordingly recommend it for every variety of disease. In this way a great many virtues of it have been found that I never would suspect.

Cases of Dyspepsia, of many years standing, that withstood every known remedy, have been permanently cured.

I know one man to gain 17 lbs. by taking three bottles; another 11 lbs.; another 16 lbs.; and another 7 lbs—the venerable master Robinson of Boston.

In diseases of the Liver it is a specific. I know several with yellow skin and yellow eyes, the body emaciated and the mind melancholy, get fat and cheerful by a few bottles.

I know several cases of Dropsy, and one particularly bad. A lady, aged 79, was unable to leave her house for the last twelve years; was so much relieved (she was reduced in circumference thirty-four inches,) as to visit her friends in several neighboring towns.

Another had the Dropsy in her left leg, and was unable to walk for ten years, scarcely, swelling to an enormous size; at last bursted, making a bad wound which could not be healed; by taking three bottles and using two boxes of ointment, she is now quite well. Why it should make some fat and others lean, I cannot tell, but so it is.

I know of several cases of Kidney complaints cured by it. In the columns of a newspaper was a proper medium, I could tell of cases of this most distressing of all diseases, that would make your heart bleed, that were permanently cured by it.

It has been lately found to be a sure cure for Panama fever. In one case the first spoonful put off the fit two hours. One bottle cured him. Another came home from Panama, and was induced by his brother to try it. Three bottles cured him.

It likewise gives great relief in the Asthma. A lady in Lawrence was unable to lie in bed for a number of years; she can now lie without the least inconvenience.

A lady in Weymouth lost the use of her left side by the Erysipelas. On the second bottle, she broke out in one mass of humor from head to foot. In a few days she was well.

It has lately been found to be equally good for humor outside as inside, (taking it inwardly in the meantime,) for Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Pimples on the Face, or any eruption of the skin whatever; only where the flesh is very sore you must dilute it with water.

When made weak enough it is the best eye-wash for weak and watery eyes that I ever saw.

Others use it to cleanse the dandruff out of the hair and strengthen its roots, which it certainly does, and to crown all, it made the hair grow on bald heads, which, if I had not seen with my own eyes, I would not believe from you or anybody else.

As regards dieting, I never came across the first person that ever got any benefit from it. On the contrary, numbers came to death's door by it, as it gives the humors the upper hand. My medicine requires the most nourishing food you can get. It will soon give you an appetite.

Do not for a moment suppose that I warrant a cure of all those diseases, in every case. I merely tell you what it has done, hoping it will do the same for you. I do not warrant a cure in any disease that humors, where no cure fails. For further particulars see the circular around each bottle.

No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you can get, and enough of it.

I have an herb, simmered in olive oil, scatters Scrofulous swellings off the neck and under the ears. Price fifty cents per box.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE. Adults, one table spoonful per day; children of eight years, dessert spoonful; from five to eight, tea spoonfuls. As no direction can be applicable to all constitutions, take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

THE GREAT REMEDY OF
INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the descriptions of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others, by

W. Gibson, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University.
Valentine Mott, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, N. Y.
W. P. Dewees, M.D., Prof. of Mid., Pa. University.
N. Chapman, M.D., Prof. of Physic, Pa. University.
T. Parke, M.D., Pres't College of Physicians, Phila.
Dr. Del Vallo, Prof. of Medicine, Palermo.
Jose Eourenco de Luz, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon.
G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spaine.
J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London.
Sir Thomas Pearson, Maj. Gen. British Army.
Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain a Mercury in any form, and, being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:—

and having the name of Jas. Swaim stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label relating the cork; and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geocentric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia. ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c., &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge. Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA, and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by spurious articles made in imitation of them by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

Dead Shot for Bed Bugs!

SLEEP IN PEACE.

ALL good House-keepers will be glad to hear of an article for the destruction of Bed Bugs, reliable and sure. The Dead Shot is a saturated tincture of

POISONOUS GUM RESIN,

Which evaporates very slowly, and will not lose its destructive properties for months. One instance is known where Bugs in LARGE NUMBERS were destroyed by it, where none had been applied later than twelve months previous. Keepers of Hotels have found that a thorough use of the Dead Shot in every suspicious place, has kept their house free from Bugs for years.

IT IS PUNGENT AND DEADLY.

Apply it to insects it curls them up and lays them out as readily as sulphur fumes kill bees. It is a TRAP READY SET for these noxious tormentors of our nightly rest.

American and Foreign Office.
AGENCY FOR BUSINESS

With the U. S. Patent Office, Washington,
No. 76 state Street, oppo. Kilby street, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under date, of 1857) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in the United and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and Infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. K. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

HOUSE on Christian Shore, suitable for two small families. If applied for immediately will be sold low. Apply to
April 17. E. S. WENDELL.

FOR SALE.—The two story wooden House, No. 8 Raitt's Court, containing 9 rooms, with built in dry cellar, and provided with aqueduct, &c. Has a good yard, barn and out buildings. For information apply on the premises, to ap11 JOHN M. DAVIS.

HOUSES FOR SALE.

THE DWELLING HOUSE, No. 9 School street. This is a well built house, two (high) stories, in good repair, and is convenient for one family or two families, or for a large Boarding House. It contains nine or more rooms and two sculleries, and has an excellent cellar under the whole house. The situation is central, being about equi-distant from the markets, factories and railroads. Connected with this house is a building which has been and may be occupied both as a barn and a work-shop. If not sold soon, a part or the whole of the premises will be let.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 6 Green street. This house is fitted for two tenements; it is well built, was thoroughly painted and put in good order the last season, and is well calculated for two families, (having about 6 rooms each) and may be considered a good location for persons employed at the north end. It is centrally located between the different ship-yards in that section of the city, each tenement will be sold separately, if desired.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 7 Liberty street, corner of Charles street. This house was formerly owned and occupied by the late Peter M. Lowd and is in good order. Attached to it is a lot of land large enough for a Stable or for another dwelling house. It would make a good place for the residence of a person employed at the ship-yards across the river, or at the Navy Yard.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 47 Bow street.—This house has been built a few years, is well finished off, and is very convenient. In the rear is quite a large garden spot. This would be a desirable place for a person employed at the ship-yards, or at the Navy Yard nearly opposite.

Also, for sale, a BUILDING LOT, on Mount Vernon street, (opposite No. 2,) with a small building thereon, which can be finished off into a Dwelling house.

All of the above property will be sold on liberal terms, if applied for soon. For further particulars apply to JOSEPH M. EDMONDS,
Feb. 27. No. 9 Islington street.

TO LET—The STORE on the corner of Vaughan and Deer streets. It was occupied as the first Union Store in this city, and is considered as a good stand for business. It is within a few rods of the Boston and Concord Railroad Depots. Possession can be had immediately.

FOR SALE—The HOUSE in the rear of the above, on Vaughan street—a convenient house for two families, and has been so occupied for about six years, by the same tenants. It rents for $160. For information, terms, &c., call on JOSEPH L. LOCKE, on the premises, or JOSEPH M. EDMONDS, 9 Islington st. m29

A MODEL BABY.

There was only one baby among the members of the late excursion party up the Mississippi to the Falls of St. Anthony. That baby was only six months old—A son of Henry Farnum, Esq., the engineer of the Chicago and Rock Island railroad. When the baby was first brought on board the Golden Era, some of the company shrugged their shoulders, and others said 'humph.' One crusty old bachelor muttered, 'we may look out for squalls now;' and a young man with mustaches, who passed for a wit, sighed for the days of good king Herod. The baby meanwhile looked about and crowed a little, and then quietly entertained himself with sucking his fist.

Well: from the time we left Rock Island on Monday evening, till we returned the following Saturday, not a cry or the suspicion of a cry was uttered by the baby. He was indeed a charming little fellow—always bright and placid, and ready to meet half way those who were disposed to be attentive. Of the sensation of fear he seemed to be utterly ignorant. He would go to the arms of a rough old backwoodsman as readily as to those of the beautiful Miss W. or Miss J.; and remain contented away from his mother or nurse, till fearful that he was giving trouble they would come in search of him. But instead of giving trouble he seemed to be doing more than anybody else for the general entertainment.—It was frequently proposed to pinch him to see if he could cry; and in one instance the experiment was tried without success. The features of the gruff old bachelor, who had looked so austerely at first on this infant phenomenon, would now relax as he came in sight, and he at last ventured upon the experiment of taking him in his arms, and found to his delight that the baby maintained his good character, even in his inexperienced embrace.

The general satisfaction at the baby's unparallelled behavior at length manifested itself in a substantial form. It was resolved to get up a testimonial. A subscription was put in circulation for a gold cup to be presented as a token of the admiration and esteem of the passengers, who, when they reflected how much a crying baby might have detracted from their enjoyment, liberally opened their purses, and subscribed the handsome sum of $260.—A formal presentation of this offering was then made.

Mr. Rockwell, late member of Congress from Connecticut, was deputed to address the baby. This he did in the presence of the assembled passengers, the baby meanwhile being held in his mother's arms, and always umping and chuckling at the right place in Mr. Rockwell's speech. The speech, which was a capital one, and enunciated with due gravity and dignity, was followed by a reply from Professor Twining, of New Haven, the baby's medium on the occasion, and who spoke in the little fellow's behalf in admirable style, now witty and now beautiful, for upwards of five minutes.

Both speeches were much enjoyed and applauded. Ex-President Fillmore was appointed to prepare an inscription for the gold cup; a task which he accomplished with his accustomed good taste; and Mr. Rockwell was appointed to purchase the cup.

Thus ended one of the pleasantest little episodes of the great excursion—one that must be always remembered with pleasure by those who witnessed it, and especially by the parents of the child, who so early in life won so solid a mark of the approbation of his seniors.

ONE OF THE SPECTATORS.

IMAGE AND SIGN NOT ESSENCE.

When Alexander was at Babylon, he caused a priest to come from every country which he had conquered, and assembled them all together in his palace. Thereupon he sat himself on his throne, and then addressed them. 'Tell me, do you acknowledge and venerate a highest invisible being?'

Then they all bowed themselves, and answered, 'Yes.'

Then the king questioned further. 'By what name do you call him?'

Thereupon the priest from India answered, 'We name it Bhamar, which means the great;' the priest from Persia, 'We name it Ormus, which means the original light;' the priest from Jordan, 'Jehovah Adonar, the Lord, who is, was, and will be.'

And thus every priest had his own word, wherewith he denominated the highest being. Then the king was angry in his heart, and spake. 'You have only one ruler and king, so you shall also, henceforth, have but one God. Infinite is his name.'

Then the priests were very sad, because of the speech of the king, and answered—'Our people call him by this name, which we have known from our youth up, and how now shall we change it?'

But the king was yet more angry. Then an old sage, with gray head, a Bramin, who had accompanied him to Babylon, stepped forward and spake. 'The king, my master, will permit, that I may speak to the assembly.' Thereupon he turned himself to the priests, and asked, 'Does the heavenly constellation of day, the well of earthly light shine also for you?'

The priests bowed themselves altogether, and answered, 'Yea.'

Then the Bramin asked them, one after the other, 'How name you the same?'

And each named a different word, the proper name among his country and people.

Then the Bramin asked the king, 'Shall they not henceforth call the constellation of day by the same word? Helios is its name.'

At these words the king was ashamed, and said—'Let them each use his own word—I see well that the image and sign is not the essence.'

Marble Chimney Pieces.

THE PENRHYN MARBLE is a new and beautiful article, manufactured of Stone imported from England, which is enameled in imitation of of the richest and most expensive Spanish, Galway, Egyptian, Pyronese, Lisbon, Sienna and other rare and desirable kinds of Marble—the imitation being so perfect as to challenge detection without the closest scrutiny. In style of finish these Chimney Pieces stand unequalled, being very highly polished—retaining their beauty much longer than common marble, and are not injured by oils, smoke, coal gas or acids. They have been extensively introduced into public and private buildings, giving perfect satisfaction to those who have used them. The best of references can be given, showing their adaptedness for general use, the subscriber having furnished some of the best dwelling houses in the city with them during the last two years.

While excelling all others in beauty of finish and appearance, they are sold much cheaper than any thing of the kind in the market. The subscriber has now in Store a complete assortment of the above named desirable Goods, to which he invites the attention of all interested.

THURSDAY, JULY 6, 1854.

FOURTH OF JULY.

In Portsmouth.—After the grand display of last Fourth of July, it was not deemed expedient to have an extensive celebration this year. A large portion of the people left the city to join their friends in other places to do honor to the nation's birth day. Newburyport, the Greenland picnic, and the lower harbor—each took a part, leaving the city almost as quiet as Sunday.

The companies of Fantastics and Odds and Ends attracted some attention by their unique equipment, but all looked exhausted by the extreme heat. The Odds and Ends dined at the City Hotel. After the dinner the Mayor made a speech, and then the company disbanded. The temperature was as high as has been known for years. The only fire works on exhibition was a bon fire, in the morning, on the Square.

In Newburyport.—The grand celebration, par excellence, took place at Newburyport. A grand reunion of Sons and Daughters was suggested, and well was the summons obeyed. We make a somewhat extended abstract of the proceedings from the Boston Journal:

The day was ushered in by the merry peal of bells, and the boom of cannon, waking the echoes as their commingled voices echoed among the hills, over the quiet waters of the Merrimac, and the ceaseless roll of old ocean—and waking, too, any lucky wight who had been able to snatch a few fitful slumbers during the night in spite of the patriotic racket which was kept up through the hours of darkness by roystering youngsters with guns and pistols, and precocious juveniles with snapping fire crackers.

At 9 1-2 o'clock the cars from Boston brought a delegation of several hundred "Sons." They were accompanied by the Weymouth Brass Band, and were under the marshalship of Warren S. Tilton, Esq.

A rich and elegant banner was borne at their head, on which were the inscriptions,

"Boston."

"Return Home, July 4, 1854."

other appriate banners were also borne by the delegation.

The returned "Sons" were greeted with hearty cheers as they formed into line, when they were received by Amos Tappan, Esq., Chief Marshal of the day, and were escorted to the city Hall by the Cushing Guards of Newburyport, accompanied by the East Stoughton Brass Band, to the City Hall, in Brown Square. Here they were received by the City Government, and addressed by his Honor Mayor Davenport.

At the conclusion of Mr. Davenport's remarks, the Boston boys gave nine hearty cheers for "the old home."

Warren Tilton, Esq., Chief Marshal of the Boston "sons" then responded.

Nine cheers were then given for the "returned Boston sons."

After a brief exchange of congratulations, the City government and guests formed in procession and proceeded to High st., where the Procession was formed under the direction of Amos Tappan, Esq, Chief Marshal, aided by a full corps of assistant marshals.

The first division, escorted by the Cushing Guards, was composed of the City Officials and the returned "Sons", with music.

The second division—the Floral display—formed the feature of the Procession, and was arranged with much elegance and beauty, embracing many unique and charming designs, and reflected the highest credit upon those engaged in it. Twenty-one scenes were represented in this department.

Division No. 3 was composed exclusively of firemen—eight companies with their machines. The firemen were dressed in bright unitorms, and their engines were beautifully decocated. They formed a fitting link to connect the floral with the mechanical display.

Division No. 4—the Industrial—was not extensive. First came the ship carpenters, with a beautiful model of a vessel, about 15 ft long, called the "Independence", and various other models, followed by workmen.

Next came a carriage containing old ship carpenters from 65 to 92 years of age—a fine looking set of old men who once wielded the broad axe with vigorous arms, and on many a gallant ship.

Next came ship joiners with the implements of their trade.

Next followed the car of John Burrill & Co. house, ship and sign painters, with workmen and paraphernelia appertaining to the craft.

A model man-of-war schooner, succeeded, manned by three youthful tars.

Albert Bond of Wilmington, brought up the rear with his cracker team, drawn by six bright bay horses.

The procession marched through the principal streets to the Pleasant street church, where after agreeable opening exercises, the company listened to an appropriate and pleasing oration from Rev. Geo. D. Wildes, devoted chiefly to a review of the history, political, social and commercial, of the city of Newburyport, and was well adapted to the occassion.

As the Boston delegation were passing the residence of Hon. Caleb Cushing, three cheers were called for from the "returned sons," for that gentleman, but the only response was a vociferous cry of "No, no."

The procession was then formed anew, and marched to a spacious pavilion, where a dinner was laid for about 1430 persons by Horace Hamlet of the Ocean House.

The procession reached the pavilion at half-past 3 o'clock, and after being seated at the table, the Divine blessing was invoked by the Rev. Samuel Clark of Philadelphia. Attention was then given to the contents of the tables, after which Mayor Davenport arose and bridly welcomed the returned "Sons" to their native place.

The Mayor was followed by many other able and eloquent speakers.

The decoration of the streets and buildings was somewhat extensive, and in good taste. Mottoes every where abounded.

The festivities of the day, which passed off in the happiest manner, were concluded by a brilliant display of fireworks in the evening, on Chickering street, west of the Frog Pond. They were witnessed by a large concourse of spectators, and gave great satisfaction.

The heat during the day was most intense, and quite a number of persons were sunstruck, but we heard of no fatal results.

In Dover.—No public celebration was had. A large party of ladies and gentlemen chartered a packet and went down to the Point, where the day was spent in an agreeable manner.

The writer had the pleasure of participating in their festivities, by invitation. The only drawback to their joy was the extreme heat. Such a general display of carmine on cheek and hand was never before seen. The party returned in season to witness the display of fireworks, which was under the direction of Messrs. Sanderson and Larnegan. During the exhibition, a quantity of candles and other pieces prematurely ignited, and several persons were quite severely burned. The town was generally peaceable. Some amusement was created by the attempts of some of the crowd to shoulder a greased pig, weighing 250 pounds, but without success.

Church Blown Up.—It was reported in Boston, on Tuesday, that the Catholic church at Milton Lower Falls, Mass., was blown up with gunpowder, early on the morning of the 4th. It was a stone house, roofed with slate, and is about ruined. This kind of persecution is as unwise as it is unjust;—and in its recoil upon the guilty, may seriously injure some who are innocent of any such crime.

Gouging.—It is customary for holders of goods of any sort, to tuck on an extra price when the demand makes it safe. We don't see as this is to be objected to, unless carried to an unreasonable extent; but it does not seem to be good policy for a hotel keeper to double his charges on the occasion of a large gathering of people, who eat at his table or nowhere. Such extortion does not pay, in the long run. We refer particularly to the course pursued at the Merrimack House, Newburyport, on the Fourth. $1 was charged for a common dinner, and we saw a gentleman pay fifty cents for half a peck of oats! We believe our tavern keepers pursued no such course last year, nor the proprietor of the Ocean House in Newburyport this time.—Travellers will find the Ocean a good stopping place.

Such is Fame.—Under the head of N. H. Legislature, the Charlestown, Mass., Advertiser of July 1st gives the following information:—

John S. Wells, free soil democrat, was elected U. S. Senator on the part of the Senate, on Thursday. In the House they had a number of ballotings. The Piercites cast about 50 votes, but Mr. W. received about three times that number. So Mr. Franklin Pierce, President of the United States, is repudiated by his friends at home.

Now we think Mr. Wells does not exactly come under the head of free soil democrats or opponents to Mr. Pierce's administration. We advise our cotemporary to put on his specs and read the report of of our Legislative proceedings again. As to "the President of the United States being repudiated by his friends at home," we are are not authorised to speak for them.

Scheming, Speculation, and Gambling.—A New York writer for the Newburyport Herald, says:

New York seems to have become the grand operating ground of inventors, speculators, and adventurers of all sorts. A man has been making trips over our Russ & Cobbe pavement, with a carriage propelled by steam. His model is imperfect, but works well on the Russ pavement. The inventor proposes to apply his plan to fire engines, so that the men may run with the 'machine,' till she gets up steam, and then jump on and ride, fresh, to the fire!

Talking of speculators, a story is told about town of George Law, which sounds like a true one. The great 'operator' having, one afternoon, a few hours of leisure, and several thousands of money on his hands, walked into a Broadway gaming establishment. Sitting down at a faro-table he managed, in a short time, by continually doubling stakes, to break the bank. He then broke all the gamblers in the room, successively, having taken charge of the table himself. Feeling decidedly flush, Law ordered and paid for a magnificent champagne supper, to which he sat down with his fellow sharpers, and finally left the building $20,000 richer than when he entered! This man's career has been wonderfully successful. He came to New York, I believe, without resources, his father being a plain, honest farmer in the western part of New York. It is said that Law has offered a fast steamship to the fillibusters, now organizing in New Orleans. His sagacious purchase of muskets made before the commencement of hostilities in Europe, netted Law about two hundred thousand dollars.

The packet ship Webster arrived at New York, from Liverpool, on Thursday, with nine hundred and forty-five emigrants—the largest number ever brought at that port in one vessel.

LOCAL.

Fire.—We understand that the dwelling house of Mr. John I. Rand, near Breakfast Hill, in Rye, was entirely destroyed, with all the contents, by fire, on Tuesday forenoon, July 4. The family were absent at the time. The loss is probably considerable—insurance $700.

Small Pox.—We are informed by a citizen of Kittery, that the small pox is pervalent on Gerish's Island, in the family of Capt. Andrew Grace, jr. He says no one but the physician, Dr. Wentworth of Navy Yard village, can be induced to visit the house. An infant son of Mr. Grace died on Tuesday of the disease, and the father was obliged to bury his own son, with only his children attending.

Bathing.—Sir Astley Cooper was a great believer in the efficacy of bathing. Hear what he says to the ladies about it:

Immediately on rising from bed, and having all previously ready, take off your night dress, then take up from your earthen pan of two gallons of water, a towel, quite wet, but not dripping; begin at your head, rubbing hair, and face, and neck, and ears well; then wrap yourself behind and before, from neck to chest, your arms and every portion of your body. Remand your towel into the pan, charge it afresh with water, and repeat once all I have mentioned, except the head, unless that be in a heated state, when you may do so, and with advantage. Three minutes will now have elapsed. Throw your towel into the pan, and then proceed with two coarse, long towels, to scrub your head and face and body, when four minutes will have you in a glow; then wash and rub your feet, brush your hair, and complete your toilette, and trust me that this will give new zest to your existence. A mile of walking may be added with advantage.

The Naval School at Annapolis.—The annual examination at this Academy, which has lately closed, was of the most gratifying character; and the class of young officers just graduated have by their attainments in nautical science, &c., reflected upon themselves the highest credit, and shown their worthiness of the fostering care bestowed on them by the officers of the institution.

On Thursday last the school ship Preble sailed from Hampton Roads with forty midshipmen on board, who will pass the summer on the ocean in acquiring practically a knowledge of the duties of seamen. Before her return to our shores the Preble will make a brief visit to the great naval stations of Plymouth and Portsmouth, in England, and Brest and Cherbourg, on the coast of France.

The visit of our young seamen to these establishments will serve not only to instruct them, but also to impress them with the power of our great rivals; and thus early awaken in them an honorable emulation and a just sense of the responsibilities to which they aspire, and which it may be their high privilege to share.

It is much to be regretted that time did not admit of the cruise of the Preble being extended to the Baltic, which now bears upon its waters the most magnificent fleet that ever lifted anchor, and displays to naval officers a school of instruction and observation such as has never been opened to them before.—National Intelligencer, July 3.

Accident.—In the sawmill of M. Hill & Co., at Candia, N. H., last Saturday afternoon, an iron dog fell upon the saw while in motion, breaking the saw in pieces. One piece flew and hit A. J. Fifield in the face, broke his lower jaw, and badly injured him upon the shoulder. At the time, it was thought his recovery was doubtful.

Tit for Tat.—We find the following rich correspondence as an advertisement in the Portland Advertiser. We have always been unwilling to publish such "notices" as this of Mr. Shaw's—as we generally suspect the lord is fully as much to be blamed as his lady. It will be seen that the weaker vessel is able to speak for herself in this case.

Notice.—Whereas my wife, Louisa Jane, has without cause left my bed and board, this is to forbid all persons harboring or trusting her on my account, as I shall pay no debts of her contracting after this date.

Paris, June 9, 1854. Elisha Shaw.

Whereas the above notice hath appeared in the Oxford Democrat of June 16th, now this is to give notice to all persons in general, and to Elisha Shaw in particular, that the above notice is an unqualified falsehood; as I have not left his bed or board, for he has never had or provided one for me to leave, and he has never been in credit so that I could have contracted debts on his account if I had desired it; but my reason for leaving him was, that he has never treated me as a husband should treat a wife in any respect whatever; and I will further say, that if any one doubts the truth of what I state, let them try him as long as I have and their doubts will be removed.

Louisa Jane Shaw.

Portland, June 28, 1854.

The New York Courier & Enquirer, referring to the bombastic speech of Senator Jones on the fugitive slave law petition, in which he threatened disunion, caustically says:

"James C. Jones cannot put an end to this Republic. A million of James C. Joneses could not do it. They may play at thunder and lightning under a cabbage leaf if they like, but as for setting the world on fire, it is entirely out of the question. Senator Rockwell of Massachusetts, in declaring that the dissolution of the Union was not a possible thing, simply stated a truth which is obvious to every man of sense. From the Atlantic to the Pacific, from the great lakes to the Gulf, it is bound together with ligaments which the God of Nature placed there."

Health Regulations.

THE Board of Health of the City of Portsmouth call the attention of the public to the following sections of City Ordinance No. 4, and invite all interested in the preservation of the health of the City to aid them in the execution of their duty:—

Sec. 3. All waste water of houses, yards, cellars, sinks, pumps, &c. shall be conveyed by their owners or occupiers to the common sewers, or to such places as the Health Officers may direct.

Sec. 4. No person shall be allowed to throw any vegetable or dead animal substance, or any other matter capable of producing infection, into any street, lane, alley or doc-, or upon any wharf, but shall bury them or throw them into the river below low water mark.

Sec. 5. The contents of vaults and privies shall not be permitted to rise within one foot of the surface of the earth. And all owners or occupiers of buildings having such vaults or privies as shall require it, shall cause them to be emptied within ten days from the promulgation of this o: dinance, and in future on or before the first day of May in each year. And any owner or occupier neglecting so to do, shall forfeit and pay for every such neglect a sum not less than three nor more than twenty dollars, and a like sum for every week's neglect, after the time above specified.

Sec. 11. The Health Officers may give written notice to the owner or occupier of any building, vessel or enclosure, to remove or destroy any nuisance or other thing deemed by them, on examination, to be injurious to the public health, within a certain time limited therein; and in case such owner or occupier—the said notice having been given to him, or left at his usual place of abode—shall neglect to comply therewith, the said Health Officers may, by direction of the Mayor and accompanied by the City Marshal, forcibly enter such building, vessel or enclosure, and cause the said nuisance or other thing aforesaid to be removed or destroyed.

Sec. 14. The owner or occupier of any building, vessel or enclosure shall be liable to pay the expense of the removal or destruction of any such nuisance or other thing, as aforesaid, including fees of the Health Officers who order or cause the same to be removed; and the same may be recovered by action to be brought in the name of the city.

Sec. 16. And whenever any person or persons shall violate any rule or regulation, or commit any act forbidden in any section of this ordinance, to which no special penalty is annexed, shall forfeit and pay a sum not less than one dollar nor more than twenty dollars, to be recovered by complaint before the Police Court of this city.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—The venerable Thomas Ritchie, of Virginia, formerly of the Richmond Enquirer and the Washington Union, died in this city to-day.

FREEDOM OF A SLAVE SECURED.—Stephen Pembroke, the fugitive slave of Mr. Grove, of Washington County, Md., who was recently arrested in New York and brought back to this city, has secured his freedom through the exertions of his brother, who raised the sum of $1000, the amount demanded for him. He returned to New York on Tuesday night, in company with Mr. Angelis, a Deputy United States Marshal for that city. The two sons of Stephen, who were also arrested in New York, have been sold to a lumber merchant in North Carolina, a gentleman said to be an excellent master.—Baltimore Sun.

SUICIDE.—The Louisville Journal relates the facts concerning the suicide of a lad of thirteen years, named Henry Herriman, ten miles from that city:

This is one of the most mysterious as well as one of the most extraordinary cases of suicide ever committed in this country. Henry was a devout Christian. He had lost a little sister who belonged to the church. The sister had given him a prayer book on her death bed, and desired him to use it. He had become so interested in the book, and on the subject of meeting with a dear sister, that it had become a subject of daily conversation and prayer with him. He appeared desirous to be with her. His mother told him that he would meet his sister in heaven after death. he prayed nightly and daily to see her, and in his fit of religious insanity, he, upon his knees, cut his throat from ear to ear, severing both jugular veins. This was truly a sorry sight to look upon, by a heart-broken mother, afflicted father, and distressed relatives—this was a scene to dissolve a heart of stone. Every one present was in tears; every one became as it were a child.

The verdict of the jury was, that the child came to his death from the influence of the above facts, causing religious insanity.

INDICTED FOR MURDER.—Hilliard, keeper of the hotel at Natick, who stabbed a man while they were engaged in gambling, a few months since, has been indicted for murder by the Grand Jury of Middlesex county. The indictment was certified up to the Supreme Court, next to be holden at Cambridge in October.

At Stamford, Conn., on Wednesday, a lad about 12 years of age, name unknown, attending school at Mamaroneck, and whose parents reside in New York, was killed by a train in the afternoon a little below Mamaroneck. He was trying to see how near the engine he could cross whilst the train was in motion, when he was struck by it, thrown a distance of several rods, and instantly killed.

The wholesale price of Flour at New York ranges from $6.12 1-2 per bbl. for superfine No. 2 and inferior State, through fifteen different qualities, up to $11.75 for extra Genesee, and there are a few brands of the latter that command $12.

'So the Russians are going to prosecute the war agin Turkey, said Mrs. Partington, as she read that fact in the paper. 'They'd better prosecute the ones that made the war, and then they'd just hit it. The Emperor Nicholas deserves the excrescence of all good people, and if the women could only have the handling of him, I guess they'd soon make him cry copaiva, as the Frenchman says.' She meant peccavi, but indignation does not stop at words. She passed off, like an exhalation of summer sweets, and in her excitement left her parasol behind her, which can be seen at this 'orifice.'—Boston Post.

COAL.—The new treaty of reciprocity between the British provinces and this country is said to include free trade in coal. As advocates of the doctrine of protection to American industry we might object to this article, because it would seem to oppose Pennsylvania interests, and we might say that Pennsylvania did all that lay in her power to put down Mr. Clay and his American system.—But we do not wish to be governed by any such limited views, when we say that we should be glad to see the coal of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick admitted free of duty. According to all the reports from Pennsylvania, the supply which can be sent to the seaboard does not equal the demand. There is an immensity of coal without doubt in that State, but the consumption has increased so much that the ordinary supplies must be entirely inadequate.

In Nova Scotia and New Brunswick the coal lies convenient for shipping, and if the duty is taken off, can be brought into Boston or New England ports cheaper than the Pennsylvania article. It is therefore a question of economy in New England. If our manufacturers can be supplied with the Picton coal cheaper than with the Alleghany, it becomes a matter of strong interest to them to assent to this reciprocity. The duty is now 30 per cent. advalorem, which amounts to about 96 cents on the ton—an essential saving in many manufactures. The subject of cheap fuel for the poor must also occupy the attention of the politician as well as the philanthropist, and, if necessary, the principle of protection given up to secure it.—Hartford Courant.

Sherry Wine Bitters

HAS induced several persons, who do not possess the least medical knowledge, to assume the title of Doctor, and put before the public an article in imitation of my Medicine, which they call Sherry Wine Bitters, and attempt to palm them off under the pretence that I have retired from business, and also that they manufacture an improved article of the same name.

I would say to those in pursuit of health, to be sure that you obtain the REAL article, which may be known by the FAC SIMILE of my signature upon the outside wrapper, covering each bottle, and also by the copyright border of the same covering.

EARLY TO BED AND EARLY TO RISE

BY ELIZA COOK.

"Early to bed and early to rise"—
Aye, note it down in your brain,
For it helpeth to make the foolish wise,
And uproots the weeds of pain.
Ye who are walking on thorns of care,
Who sigh for a softer bower,
Try what can be done in the morning sun,
And make use of the early hour.

Full many a day forever is lost
By delaying its work till to-morrow;
The minutes of sloth have often cost
Long years of bootless sorrow.
And ye who would win the lasting wealth
Of content and peaceful power,
Ye who would couple labor and health,
Must begin at the early hour.

We make bold promises to time,
Yet, alas! too often break them;
We mock up our figures or plant in our ground,
And weave out the threads of fate.
The eye looketh bright and the heart keepeth light,
And man holdeth the conqueror's power,
When ready and brave, he chains time as his slave,
By the help of the early hour.

DR. ORDWAY'S HUMOR DISCOVERY,

AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

DR. ORDWAY has been using his Blood Purifier in his practice for the last seven years with great success. He has often been urged by his friends and those who have tried it, and know its efficacy, to put it within the reach of all. He has now added to it an Herb, discovered in California, by Dr. Kelley, which makes it the most wonderful remedy for

HUMORS OF ALL KINDS,

LIVER COMPLAINTS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

The virtues of this Herb were first made known to Dr. Kelley by an Indian, while attending a patient, sick with that terrible disease, the California Erysipelas and Liver Complaint—the effect was miraculous—curing the man in a few days. The natives, when bitten by a rattles ake, or rabid animal, resort to this Herb for a cure.—Hundreds are taking this medicine, after trying in vain other remedies, and say that the half was never told them.

If you have Erysipelas, 3 to 5 bottles will cure it.
If you have Scrofula, 3 to 7 bottles will cure it.
Three to five bottles will cure Tetter.
One or two bottles will cure Pimples on the Face.
Two or three bottles will cure Scaly Eruptions and Scald Head.
One to three bottles will cure Nursing Sore Mouth.
One to three bottles will cleanse the system of Biles.
Two to five bottles will cure Rheumatism.
Three to four bottles will cure old running Sores and Ulcers.
One or two bottles will cure Barber's Itch.
One to three bottles will cure Canker in the mouth and bowels.

For Liver Complaints and Jaundice.

Its effects are new and wonderful, removing obstructions from the Liver, open the pores of the skin, carrying off the morbid matter, relieving the side, and all gone feelings of the stomach; and removing low spirits and despondency, which is the result of this disagreeable and often fatal disease.

FOR DYSPEPSIA.

A fair trial will convince you that there is nothing like it.

FOR CANCEROUS HUMORS,

It is the surest remedy ever offered. One widow lady in Lawrence, has been troubled with Cancer for years, by taking two bottles says she is now quite well.

FOR COSTIVENESS.

One gentleman says that it was the only medicine that cured him.

FOR KIDNEY DIFFICULTIES,

It is spoken of in the highest terms. A young man was sick so much with Asthma that he had to leave College; three bottles cured him, and he has now resumed his studies. One lady in Salem was perfectly cured of Periodical Sick Headache, by the use of two bottles. Mr. Williams, of Lawrence, had humors in his eyes for years, and was cured by the use of the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier. For Chills and Fever, Mercurial Diseases, Taints in the System, it stands unrivaled; sometimes where the system is much deranged it will cause disagreeable feelings at first, but continue its use as indications favorable. It is purely vegetable, and its compound and proportions are such that the effect is perfectly satisfactory and safe.

FULL DIRECTIONS ON THE BOTTLE.

☞ Price $1.00. ☜

HE HAS ALSO A HUMOR SALVE,

Unsurpassed for external humors, which, if used in connection with the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier will much facilitate a cure.

PRICE 25 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Cough Destroyer.

This invaluable Cough Remedy is for the complete cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Influenza, Whooping Cough, pains in the side and breast, hacking or tickling at the throat, spitting blood, tightness across the lungs and chest, and all Lung Complaints leading to Consumption.

No medicine yet discovered has that decided effect in curing Bronchial affections as the Cough Destroyer. It can be taken by all ages and classes, from a child six months old to the oldest man or woman, with the most happy results.

PRICE 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Pain Destroyer.

This preparation is composed of a great variety of Extracts, Gums, Essential Oils, most of which have not heretofore been united and compounded into their present form. It will cure attacks of Cramps of the Stomach, Spasms, Convulsions, Faintings, Pain in the Stomach, Bowels, Side, Back, Limbs, and a great variety of other difficulties. It is also invaluable as an external remedy. It will be found to contain nearly double the strength of any similar article, and possesses properties heretofore unknown. No family should be without it for a single day.

PRICE 25, 37½ AND 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Full directions for the above medicines, on the Bottles. Orders should be accompanied with full directions how it should be sent.

m10 GEO. W. TOWLE & CO.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

FOR THE CURE OF

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the descriptions of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others, by W. Gibson, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University. Valentine Mott, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, N. Y. " W. P. Dewees, M.D., Prof. of Mid., Pa. University. N. Chapman, M.D., Prof. of Physic, Pa. University. T. Parke, M.D., Pres't College of Physicians, Phila. Dr. Del Valle, Prof. of Medicine, Havana. Jose Eourenco de Luz, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon. G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spaine. J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg. London. Sir Thomas Pearson, Maj. Gen. British Army. Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and, being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:—

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:" and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork: and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geocentric lathe work, comprising nine different devices, has been adopted for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swaim, copy right secured.

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge. Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA, and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

Dead Shot for Bed Bugs!

SLEEP IN PEACE,

ALL good House-keepers will be glad to hear of an article for the destruction of Bed Bugs, reliable in its nature. The Dead Shot is a saturated tincture of a

POISONOUS GUM RESIN,

Which evaporates very slowly, and will not lose its destructive properties for months. One instance is known where over 1,000 LARGE NUMBERS were destroyed by it, where none had been applied later than the previous year. Keepers of Hotels have found that a thorough use of the Dead Shot in every suspicious place, has kept their house free from Bugs for years.

IT IS PUNGENT AND DEADLY.

Apply it to insects it curls them up and lays them out as readily as sulphur fumes kill bees. It is a RAT PROOF SAFE for these noxious tormenters of our nightly rest.

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS

With the U. S. Patent Office, Washington,

No. 76 state Street, oppo. Kilby street,

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered by other agencies, have made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the utmost fidelity shown in the entirety days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

FURNISHING STORE,
No. 32 MARKET STREET.

MOSES & DOWNIE are happy to inform their numerous customers that they have on hand one of the LARGEST and BEST MADE Stocks of CLOTHING ever exhibited in Portsmouth, and they warrant it all good Custom Work, of their own manufacture, and latest style. They have just received a large lot of

CLOTHS, DOESKINS, CASSIMERES, Satinetts, Cashmeretts, Jeans, Vestings, and Tailors' Trimmings,

Which they will sell by the yard as cheap as they can be bought elsewhere. They will make up to order every style or quality of garment in the best manner, and warrant them to fit or no sale. They have also just received a large lot of

HATS, CAPS, BOOTS, SHOES AND FURNISHING GOODS,

Of the Best Quality, which they will sell very cheap. Having satisfied themselves by their large increase of Sales last year over the previous year that the

"LOW PRICE SYSTEM"

Is the most profitable way of doing business. It is true that during the last year we have not been able to supply all the wants of our numerous customers, but as we have largely increased our facilities for manufacturing this year, by adding another Cutter and increasing our number of workmen, we hope to be able to supply the wants of all who may favor us with a call for READY-MADE CLOTHING or Measure.

If any who are in want of Good Clothing at Low Prices will do us the favor to look at our Large Stock, they will be convinced that what we state is true.

For Sale.

HOUSE on Christian Shore, suitable for two small families. If applied for immediately will be sold low. Apply to
April 17. E. S. WENDELL.

FOR SALE.—The two story wooden House, No. 3 Raitt's Court, containing 9 rooms, with a good dry cellar, and provided with aqueduct, &c. Has a good yard, barn and out buildings. For information apply on the premises, to ap11 JOHN M. DAVIS.

HOUSES FOR SALE.

THE DWELLING HOUSE, No. 9 School street. This is a well built house, two (high) stories, in good repair, and is convenient for one family or two families, or for a large Boarding House. It contains nine or more rooms and twelve closets, and has a excellent cellar under the whole house. The situation is central, being about equi-distant from the markets, factories and railroads. Connected with this house is a building which has been and may be occupied both as a barn and a work-shop. If not sold soon, a part or the whole of the premises will be let.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 6 Green street. This house is fitted for two tenements; it is well built, was thoroughly painted and put in good order the last season, and is well calculated for two families, (having about 6 rooms each) and may be considered a good location for persons employed at the north end. It is centrally located between the different ship-yards in that section of the city. each tenement will be sold separately, if desired.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 7 Liberty street, corner of Charles street. This house was formerly owned and occupied by the late Peter M. Lowd and is in good order. Attached to it is a lot of land large enough for a Stable or for another dwelling house. It would make a good place for the residence of a person employed at the ship-yards across the river, or at the Navy Yard.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 47 Bow street.—This house has been built but a few years, is well finished off, and is very convenient. In the rear is quite a large garden spot. This would be a desirable place for a person employed at the ship-yards, or at the Navy Yard nearly opposite.

Also, for sale, a BUILDING LOT, on Mount Vernon street, (opposite No. 2,) with a small building thereon, which can be finished off into a Dwelling house.

All of the above property will be sold on liberal terms, if applied for soon. For further particulars apply to JOSEPH M. EDMONDS,
Feb. 27. No. 9 Islington street.

TO LET—The STORE on the corner of Vaughan and Deer streets. It was occupied as the first Union Store in this city, and is considered as a good stand for business. It is within a few rods of the Junction of the Eastern Railroad Depots. Possession can be had immediately.

FOR SALE—The HOUSE in the rear of the above, on Vaughan street—a convenient house for two families, and has been so occupied for about six years, by the same tenants. It rents for $160. For information, terms, &c., call on JOSEPH L. LOCKE, on the premises, or JOSEPH M. EDMONDS, 9 Islington st. m29

DR. ORDWAY'S HUMOR DISCOVERY, AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

DR. ORDWAY has been using his Blood Purifier in his practice for the last seven years with great success. He has often been urged by his friends and those who have tried it, and know its efficacy, to put it within the reach of all. He has now added to it an Herb, discovered in California, by Dr. KELLEY, which makes it the most wonderful remedy for

HUMORS OF ALL KINDS,
LIVER COMPLAINTS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

The virtues of this Herb were first made known to Dr. Kelley by an Indian, while attending a patient, sick with that terrible disease, the Callforuia Erysipelas and Liver Complaint—the effect was miraculous—curing the man in a few days. The natives, when bitten by a rattles ake, or rabid animal, resort to this Herb for a cure.—Hundreds are taking this medicine, after trying in vain other remedies, and say that the half was never told them.

If you have Erysipelas, 3 to 5 bottles will cure it.
If you have Scrofula, 3 to 7 bottles will cure it.
Three to six bottles will cure Salt Rheum.
One or two bottles will cure Pimples on the Face.
Two or three bottles will cure Scaly Eruptions and Scald Head
One to three bottles will cure Nursing Sore Mouth
One to three bottles will cleanse the system of Biles.
Two to five bottles will cure Rheumatism.
Three to four bottles will cure old running Sores and Ulcers.
One or two bottles will cure Canker in the mouth and bowels.

For Liver Complaints and Jaundice.
Its effects are new and wonderful, removing obstructions from the Liver, open the pores of the skin, carrying off the morbid matter, relieving the side, and all-gone feelings of the stomach; and removing low spirits and despondency, which is the result of this disagreeable and often fatal disease.

FOR DYSPEPSIA.
A fair trial will convince you that there is nothing like it.

FOR CANCEROUS HUMORS,
It is the surest remedy ever offered. One widow lady in Lawrence, has been troubled with Cancer for years, by taking two bottles says she is now quite well.

FOR COSTIVENESS.
One gentleman says that it was the only medicine that cured him.

FOR KIDNEY DIFFICULTIES,
It is spoken of in the highest terms. A young man was sick so much with Asthma that he had to leave College; three bottles cured him, and he has now resumed his studies. One lady in Salem was perfectly cured of Periodical Sick Headache, by the use of two bottles. Mr. Williams, of Lawrence, had humors in his eyes for years, and was cured by the use of the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier. For Chills and Fever, Mercurial Diseases, Taints in the System, it stands unrivalled; sometimes where the system is much deranged it will cause disagreeable feelings at first, but continue its use as indications favorable. It is purely vegetable, and its compound and proportions are such that the effect is perfectly satisfactory and safe.

FULL DIRECTIONS ON THE BOTTLE.
☞ Price $1.00. ☜

HE HAS ALSO A HUMOR SALVE,
Unsurpassed for external humors, which, if used in connection with the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier will much facilitate a cure.
PRICE 25 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Cough Destroyer.
This invaluable Cough Remedy is for the complete cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Pains in the side and breast, hacking or tickling at the throat, spitting blood, tightness across the lungs and chest, and all Lung Complaints leading to Consumption.

No medicine yet discovered has that decided effect in the bronchial affections as the Cough Destroyer. It can be taken by all ages and classes, from a child six months old to the oldest man or woman, with the most happy results.
PRICE 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Pain Destroyer.
This preparation is composed of a great variety of Extracts, Gums, Essential Oils, most of which have not heretofore been united and compounded into their present form. It will cure attacks of Cramps of the Stomach, Spasms, Convulsions, Faintings, Pain in the Stomach, Bowels, Side, Back, Limbs, and a great variety of other difficulties. It is also invaluable as an external remedy. It will be found to contain nearly double the strength of any similar article, and possesses properties heretofore unknown. No family should be without it for a single day.
PRICE 25, 37½ AND 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Full directions for the above medicines, on the Bottles. Orders should be accompanied with full directions how it should be sent.

Marble Chimney Pieces.

THE PENRHYN MARBLE is a new and beautiful article, manufactured of Stone imported from England, which is enameled in imitation of the richest and most expensive Spanish, Galway, Egyptian, Pyronese, Lisbon, Sienna and other rare and desirable kinds of Marble—the imitation being so perfect as to challenge detection without the closest scrutiny. In style of finish these Chimney Pieces stand unequalled, being very highly polished—retaining their beauty much longer than common marble, and are not injured by oils, smoke, coal gas or acids. They have been extensively introduced into public and private buildings, giving perfect satisfaction to those who have used them. The best of references can be given, showing their adaptedness for general use, the subscriber having furnished some of the best dwelling houses in the city with them during the last two years.

While excelling all others in beauty of finish and appearance, they are sold much cheaper than any thing of the kind in the market. The subscriber has now in Store a complete assortment of the above named desirable Goods, to which he invites the attention of all interested.

Morning Chronicle.

FRIDAY, JULY 7, 1854.

For the Chronicle.

WASHINGTON'S SLAVE AND HIS OPINION.

Messrs. Editors:—In a recent paper you expressed an opinion that two of Washington's slaves escaped to New Hampshire, and that one was returned. If two escaped, what evidence is there that either was returned?

In the U. S. Senate, Hon. Charles Sumner, in his speech upon the unconstitutionality of the fugitive slave act, which is not law, August 26, 1852, says that Washington, near the close of his administration, sought to recover a slave who had fled to New Hampshire. His autograph letter to Mr. Whipple, the Collector at Portsmouth, dated at Philadelphia, 28th Nov., 1796, which I now hold in my hand, and which has never before seen the light, after describing the fugitive, and particularly expressing the desire of 'her mistress,' Mrs. Washington, for her return, employs the following decisive language:—"I do not mean, however, by this request, that such violent measures should be used as would excite a mob or riot, which might be the case if she has adherents, or even uneasy sensations in the minds of well disposed citizens. Rather than either of these should happen, I would forego her services altogether; and the example also, which is of infinite more importance.

GEORGE WASHINGTON."

Mr. Whipple, in his reply, dated at Portsmouth, Dec. 22, 1796, an autograph copy of which I have, recognizes the rule of Washington:

"I will now, sir, agreeable to your desire, send her to Alexandria, if it be practicable, without the consequences which you except—that of exciting a riot or a mob, or creating uneasy sensations in the minds of well disposed persons. The first cannot be calculated beforehand; it will be governed by the popular opinion of the moment, or the circumstances that may arise in the transaction. The latter may be sought into and judged of by conversing with such persons without discovering the occasion. So far as I have had opportunity, I perceive that different sentiments are entertained on this subject."

The fugitive never was returned; but lived in freedom to a good old age, down to a very recent period. That was probably the slave, made free by our constitution, which you mentioned, lived and died in Greenland, N. H. No doubt, Washington treated his slaves well, and kindly; yet it seems that some of these panted for freedom rather than be a slave under the best President we ever had, or ever shall have. That good man, although surrounded by the corrupting influences of slavery, would not resort to violent measures to recover a slave. During his life he used his efforts to abolish the institution of slavery. By his last will and testament, a copy of which is before us, he liberated all the slaves he held in his own right, and declared—

"I do hereby expressly forbid the transportation out of said commonwealth of any slave I may die possessed of, under any pretence whatsoever."

If a slave would escape from Washington, it is less surprising that they wish to escape from their present keepers. By the last census, it appears that during the year ending June 1, 1850, one thousand and eleven slaves made their escape. Under recent circumstances, unless the keepers put up higher gates and have a better watch, the ratio of the persons escaping may continue to increase. In the future, there may not be quite so many white Northern servants that are "dogs, that they should do this thing." T.

Our correspondent's query is easily answered. We expressed no opinion at all about one of Washington's slaves going back, and the other one's staying here; but simply stated well known historical facts, resting partly on actual observation, and partly on the most abundant traditionary evidence, entirely uncontradicted and indisputable. It is on this evidence, tradition, that we know one was returned; and we have no reason to doubt that the one which we have seen, was the very woman Col. Whipple mentions in his letter.

Our correspondent is not strictly accurate in saying that our Constitution (in N. H.) made the woman free. Our constitution could do no more than declare her free; for slavery never had a legal existence in New Hampshire, either as a colony or a State. Slaves were actually held here, particularly in Portsmouth, quite a number of them; and the same thing was true in Massachusetts; but in a suit at law, tried in Boston, it was decided that slavery was a condition unknown to Massachusetts laws, and therefore the alleged slave in the case was a freeman. Upon this decision, as we were then connected with Massachusetts, our slaveholding ceased to be regarded as legal, and gradually melted away till there was none of it left.

A few of the negroes were quietly slipped off and sold, and the remainder generally informed by their masters that they were free; though a very large proportion of this latter class lived and died with the families to which they were attached; and many of them were most devoted and faithful servants.

N. H. Legislature—June Session.

CONCORD, July 5.—The Nebraska resolutions were debated all this afternoon. Motions made to substitute a series committing the Whigs to the principles of their platform of 1852 were defeated.

The first resolution, reiterating the principle promulgated in 1850 by the House, declaring against the introduction of slavery into free territory, and of the creation of any territory without its prohibition, was put to vote and adopted, by 160 to 118.

The second resolution passed by 155 to 119. It deprecated the repeal of the Missouri Compromise.

The third resolution, approving the course of Messrs. Rittredge and Morrison in Congress, in voting against the Nebraska bill, passed, 156 to 110.

The fourth resolution, which disapproves of the conduct of Senators Norris and Williams, and Mr. Hibbard of the House, was carried by a vote of 152 to 117.

The House adjourned at 8 o'clock.

THURSDAY, July 6.

The eighth, ninth and tenth ballots for U.S Senator took place today, with the following result:

	8th.	9th.	10th.
Whole number of votes,	310	309	309
Necessary to a choice	156	156	156
John S. Wells had	148	147	147
Joel Eastman	41	32	39
G. W. Morrison	103	102	91
M. W. Tappan	7	14	9
Scattering	11	14	23

—No choice.

The Bill to establish the State Reform School passed the House this afternoon.

The Senate have elected Hon. Harry Hibbard U. S. Senator for the long term, and notified the House thereof.

CONGRESS.—Washington, July 5.—In Senate, to-day, Mr. Sumner presented several petitions, praying for the repeal of the fugitive slave law.

Correspondence by the American Minister at Brazil respecting the seizure of an American vessel and the imprisonment of American citizens, was called for.

The bill establishing a line of steamers to Shanghai was passed—22 to 13

CHURCH TROUBLE.—In our account of the Catholic Church, blown up at Milton Lower Falls, we took it for granted that some outsiders did the deed as an act of persecution, and condemned it accordingly.

But in the Boston Journal it is said, however, that there has been some difficulty in the society, about locating the church, &c., and it is supposed that these differences may have been in some way connected with the destruction of the church.

RIOT IN MANCHESTER.—On Tuesday morning, (4th of July,) a riot occurred between the Irish and Native Americans. The row was commenced by the Irish. They were then attackhd by a large number of the exasperated popoulace. Many of the Irish habitations were assailed, and a smart warfare carried on with bricks and stones, demolishing great quantities of glass, &c. The windows of a large building owned by Marshal, who killed an Irishman a few weeks since, were broken in by the Irish, particularly that occupied by Marshal's brother as a rumshop. The Catholic church, upon which was expended $12,000 last season, was assailed, and the fence about it and the basement windows were partially demolished, and the beautiful stained glass windows, completely riddled with stones. Tuesday night a demonstration was again made to destroy the church, but was quieted by the police. Several individuals were injured in the melee by brickbats, one or two seriously, but none dangerously, so far as we know.—Correspondence of Concord Statesman.

BOSTON AND PHILADELPHIA SHIPS SUNK WITH PORTIONS OF THEIR CREWS.—The ship Trade Wind, of Philadelphia, from a southern port for Liverpool, was run into off Cape Sable, about the 36th ult., by the ship Olympus, of Boston, Capt. Wilson, from Liverpool with 900 tons of iron, for Boston.—Both ships sunk with a part of their crews. The Trade Wind was stove, and she filled within an hour. The Olympus also went down within half an hour after the collision. Ten of the crew of the packet Olympus, the captain, and 37 passengers, were saved, and the captain of the Trade Wind, sixteen of her crew, and all her passengers. This shows the loss of the Olympus to be three passengers and three of the crew. Eighteen of the Trade Wind's crew perished. The saved from each ship were taken off by the Belgian bark Stradt Antwerpian, and landed at New York. The Trade Wind was a clipper of 2800 tons, worth $100,000, (error?) freight, $50,000; cargo, $250,000.

The National Theatre, Philadelphia, was burnt on the night of July 5; also the Chinese Museum—loss $250,000. The theatre was set on fire by a man rubbing a match against the scenery.

NARROW ESCAPE.—On Saturday afternoon last, a lad of 12 years, while playing on the railroad bridge in Amesbury, fell therefrom a distance of 26 feet, into the river.—The tide was out and he struck upon a ridge of sand. He was picked up and conveyed home, and medical assistance immediately called, when it was ascertained that no bones were broken, nor was he otherwise injured.—Villager.

Captain Joshua Elbridge, Jr, of Barnstable, Mass., is having built for him at Baltimore, a bark of rather peculiar proportions. She is to be 140 feet long, 26 feet beam, and only 13 1-2 depth of hold. She is extremely sharp, and of beautiful proportions, and will register about 500 tons. She is to be employed in the fruit trade, and her owners (Messrs Crosby & Son) design calling her the "Lean Racer."

The vine crops of Madeira had been almost universally blighted.

LOCAL.

CITY COUNCIL.

THURSDAY, July 6.

In the Board of Aldermen, Ald. Colcord in the chair, an order was passed directing the offer of a reward of $30 for evidence to convict any person who has committed depredations on either of the Burying Grounds.

The appropriation bill was passed without amendment.

In the Council, a resolution to inquire into the expediency of a law fixing an hour for closing saloons was passed and sent up for concurrence.

A resolution from the Aldermen, recommending an increase of pay to Firemen, was agreed to, and the subject recommitted for a further resolution actually raising and fixing the pay.

SUMMER RESORTS.—Among the many beautiful places in the neighborhood of Portsmouth, which are or should be frequented by the lovers of beauty or pleasure, no one excels Dover Point. Upon the extreme southern point of this peninsula is a spacious, beautiful and airy hotel, from each window of which may be seen the clear and swift flowing waters of the Piscataqua and its branches; on one side the Cochecho, in front the main river itself, where it turns and swells out its bread bosom to form the Great Bay; and in the back ground the back river, as it is called. The house stands within a few rods of where the Dover Railroad is to strike the Point to enter the territory of Dover. The house, kept by Mr. John Hanson, is very convenient of access from Portsmouth, in boats, and is distant but about five miles. The voyage up the river is, to many tastes, even more agreeable than down the river, and when the destination is reached, a cordial greeting is sure, and what is of no small consequence, the charges are moderate.

ADVENT MEETINGS.—Every afternoon and evening this week, the Advent Chapel in Hanover Street will be open for public worship. There are several ministers present from other places, who are delivering a series of lectures, on the Second Coming of Christ to occur this year. These lectures will continue through the week, and close on Sunday evening.

A similar meeting was held in Dover last week, of which the Enquirer gives the following account:

The believers in the Second Advent have been holding a Tent Meeting in the Grove near the High School House, Dover, for a week past. Many of the disciples were present from abroad, and the attendance at times was quite large. They struck their tents on Sunday evening.

☞ Piscataqua Bridge is again open for travel, and it is to be hoped that pleasure and other travel over it may so increase, as to make it good and permanent property for the Messrs. Frink, who are now engaged in making the needful repairs.

☞ We understand that Mr. Joseph Moses formerly of this city, a provision dealer in Boston, was thrown from his cart on Thursday, and stepped on by his horse, injuring him so severely that he lived but about an hour.—He was son of Mr. Thomas Moses, keeper of Portsmouth Bath-House.

☞ The Emily Farnum, a fine freighting ship of about 1200 tons burthen, was launched from the yard of Geo. Raynes, Esq., on Saturday afternoon last—promptly at the time announced, as all launches should be, and in the customary good style of our Piscataqua launches. The owners are William Jones & Son, Richard Jenness, and Capt. Wm. Parker, who will command her.

☞ We find the Excelsior Cream Mead to be an excellent article for warm weather. It foams well, and is finely flavored. We know of no better drink of the kind. Prepared by S. Gilbert, 18 Exchange Buildings, in any quantity desired.

SMALL POX.—The cases of small pox on Gerrish's Island were generally as reported in the Chronicle of Thursday. But another citizen gives us some corrections. One of the Selectmen, with a physician, performed the burial. And the house is so separate from any other, on an island, that no evil can come of it, if unvaccinated persons will keep away, and a very few of the vaccinated go near and help the afflicted.

MAN KILLED.—A man was killed on the new bridge of the Eastern Railroad over the Mystic river, Wednesday afternoon. He was seen walking on the track, and proper precaution was taken to save him; the engine broke up and the whistle sounded, but the train overtook him and the engine knocked him overboard. The engineer at once jumped into the water to save him, but life was extinct.

The Cocheco Manufacturing Co. have declared a dividend of $30 on a share.

In the vicinity of Henderson, Ky., the apple trees are dying off with great rapidity. The cause of this fatality is attributable to a peculiar kind of worm, which, it is feared, will work great destruction to the apple orchards throughout that section of country.

PARSONS'S GRAND PANORAMIC
Illustrations of Uncle Tom's Cabin,
Will open for Exhibition
AT THE TEMPLE, THIS EVENING,
Friday, July 7, 1854.

THESE magnificent illustrations, which have been exhibited with unsurpassed success in the Western and New England States, faithfully portrays on canvass all those beautiful and thrilling incidents of Mrs. Stowe's world wide popular work, UNCLE TOM'S CABIN.

Having made a limited engagement with that distinguished vocalist, M. G. GILPATRICK, he will, during the exhibition, introduce several of his popular songs.

Each scene will be interspersed with appropriate instrumental Music.

Admission 15 cents. Doors open at 7. Panorama will commence moving at 8 o'clock.

THE WAR.—The siege of Silistria has been raised. The Russians were defeated by the Turks and driven across the Danube. Order of events as follows: Siege operations were begun on the 17th of May, and from then to June 15th the attack and defence were carried on incessantly and with equal bravery on both sides; repeated storming parties were directed against the intrenchments; mines and counter mines, were exploded, causing immense slaughter to the besiegers and beseiged. Mussa Pasha, the brave Turkish commander, was killed by a shell, after which Prince Paskiewitch, the Russian commander, was struck and disabled by a spent ball,and will probably die. On the 13th of June a tremendous attack was ordered under General Gortschakoff and Schilders, but after severe fighting the Russians were repulsed, and a Turkisk brigade, sent from Shumla by Omar Pacha, succeeded in entering the fortress. Thus reinforced, the garrison on the 15th made a sortie, and a desperate hand to hand contest ensued, and ended in the complete discomfiture of the Russians. Prince Gortschakoff was severely wounded. Gen Schilders had his leg shot off, and two other general officers were killed.

The carnage among the Russian troops was dreadful, and they retreated fighting across the river: the Turks pursuing their advantage, crossed an arm of the river, seized the Isle of Hopa, and blew up the Russian siege works thereon. The Turks then brought out their guns, and erected temporary batteries on the Bulgarian bank of the river, before the north face of the fortress. The Russian Battalions east and west of Silistria immediately retreated in good order across the river, and destroyed their bridges behind them.

This victory was gained entirely by the Turks, the French and English not having made their appearance.

The Russians are now in the vicinity of Kalaresch, awaiting reinforcements and orders. Gen. Liprandi's division, and several detached corps are marching in haste from Slatina to join them.

The seige of Silistria being raised must alter the whole Russian plan of operation in Bulgaria, and consequently must change the plans of the allies. It is rumored that Paskiewitch will order the whole force to fall back on Jassy. Ere this the Russians have probably relinquished all their positions on the left bank of the Danube, excepting the forts of Hirsova, Matschin in Isacktcha, and apprehensions of their advance on the Balkan are at an end for the present.

Russian accounts via Bucharest, admit that operations again st Silistria are suspended, but say that the siege is not finally raised.

The Russians have evacuated Moquielli and Sinnobea. Five thousand Turks have occupied Turkukai and it was reported doubtfully, that the Turkish garrison of Rutschuk crossed to Giurgovo, killed 400 Russians and took nine guns.

The Russian loan is negociating at Hamburg, 16,000,000 roubles five per cent. at 87.

Reports are again current that Russia makes peace overtures through Austria, but the terms are said to be the immediate retirement of the allies from Turkey. It can scarcely be regarded as true.

Rumor is again afloat in English papers that the Czar will abdicate, but no dependence can be placed on the report. He is also said to be sick, and for that alleged reason did not meet the King of Prussia.

It is stated that the Emperor Napoleon has intimated to the Austrian government that the French will interfere to suppress any revolutionary movement in Hungary or Italy, while Austrian troops are engaged against the Russians. A similar declaration is expected from England.

Admirals Dundas and Hamelin issued a circular on the 7th, announcing a close blockade of the mouth of the Danube. Most of the fleet was cruising off Sebastopol. Six or eight ships were at Varna, assisting the embarkation of troops.

Transports with heavy guns having arrived, it was likely that Sebastopol would soon be attacked.

BALTIC.—The English ships Odin and Vulture landed 150 men at Gamla Karlchy, but they were attacked by the Russians and driven back to the ships, with a loss of three officers and three seamen killed, two officers and fourteen seamen wounded, and 29 taken prisoners. Sir Charles Napier has sent four ships against the place. All the Russian pilots are sent into the interior.

The London Times has an editorial expressing satisfaction with the reciprocity treaty just concluded by Lord Elgin, but regretting that Great Britain has not secured a share in the coast trade.

GREECE.—Advices from Missolonghi, June 14th, say the insurrection is totally extinguished in Epirus, but Turkish troops are marching to Thessaly, where Badjepetros refuses to submit.

The U. S. frigates Cumberland and Saranac were at the Piraeus.

ASIA.—Sifer Pasha is appointed Governor of Circassia and Abasia. The Circassians are commanded by Emir Magmot, Schamyl's lieutenant, and are reported to have defeated the Russians at "Darial Sear Karesch," with great loss to the enemy. Schamyl was in full march upon Tiflis, no date given.

ENGLAND.—Nothing of interest is discussed. On the book is a motion to inquire if the government have taken steps to secure for Great Britain equal advantage with America as regards the trade of Japan.

Lord Dudley Stuart has moved for a copy of the Servain protest against the Trune occupation; also for a copy of the Austro-Prussian convention with its additional article.

In Providence a Mrs. Crogan, in attempting to pour burning fluid from one lamp into another while lighted, on Friday night, was so badly burned by the fluid igniting as to cause her death on Sunday morning. Her husband, Mr. Crogan, was also badly burned in attempting to extinguish the flame. She leaves six small children, the youngest about six months old.—N. Bedford Standard.

THE CELEBRITY OF DR. S. O. RICHARDSON'S Sherry Wine Bitters

HAS induced several persons, who do not possess the least medical knowledge, to assume the title of Doctor, and put before the public an article in imitation of my Medicine, which they call Sherry Wine Bitters, and attempt to palm them off under the pretence that I have retired from business, and also that they manufacture an improved article of the same name.

I would say to those in pursuit of health, to be sure that you obtain the REAL article, which may be known by the Fac Simile of my signature upon the outside wrapper, covering each bottle, and also by the copyright border of the same covering.

2 GROSS PUTNAM'S Self Adjusting CURTAIN FIXTURES—received this day and for sale by JAMES H. HEAD, 18 Pleasant st. je17

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common Pasture Weeds a remedy that cures Every Kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruption of the skin.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed growing on the pastures and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system, yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start. There is no if's and ands, humbugs and ha's about its suiting some cases, but not yours. I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effects of it in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. I gave it to children of one year old, and people of sixty. I have seen poor, puny, wormy looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some have taken it who have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is sound it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings; but you must not be alarmed; they will disappear in from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it; on the contrary, when that feeling is gone, you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to.

Nothing in the annals of Patent Medicines has ever been received by the public with so much favor as this simple preparation. It is now composed of nine different herbs. In May, 1852, when I commenced making a business of it, I sold about two bottles per day. In June, 1853. I sold 4320 bottles. In October, 1853, I sold 6120 bottles. I hope you will call that doing well; I do.

In my own practice, I confine it strictly to humors; but there are some who are so enthusiastic in its favor they think what cured them will cure any thing and any body; they accordingly recommend it for every variety of disease. In this way a great many virtues of it have been found that I never would suspect.

Cases of Dyspepsia, of many years standing, that withstood every known remedy, have been permanently cured.

I know one man to gain 17 lbs. by taking three bottles; another 11 lbs.; another 16 lbs.; and another 7 lbs—the venerable master Robinson of Boston.

In diseases of the Liver it is a specific. I know several with yellow skin and yellow eyes, the body emaciated and the mind melancholy, get fat and cheerful by a few bottles.

I know several cases of Dropsy, and one particularly bad. A lady, aged 79, was unable to leave her house for the last twelve years, was so much relieved (she was reduced in circumference thirty-four inches,) as to visit her friends in several neighboring towns.

Another had the Dropsy in her left leg, and was unable to walk for ten years, sometimes swelling to an enormous size; at last bursted, making a bad wound which could not be healed; by taking three bottles and using a few days ointment, she is now quite well. Why it should make some fat and others lean, I cannot tell, but so it is.

I know of several cases of Kidney complaints cured by it. If the columns of a newspaper was a proper medium, I could tell of cases of this most distressing of all diseases that would make your heart bleed, that were permanently cured by it.

It has been lately found to be a sure cure for Pain in the Side and Back; in one case the first spoonful put off the fit two hours. One bottle cured him. Another came home to die, and was induced by his brother to try it. Three bottles cured him.

It likewise gives great relief in the Asthma. A lady in Lawrence has been troubled with it for a number of years; she can now lie without the least inconvenience.

A lady in Weymouth lost the use of her left side by the Erysipelas. On the second bottle, she broke out in many sores on her body from head to foot. In a few days she was well.

It has lately been found to be equally good for humor outside as inside, (taking it inwardly in the meantime,) for Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Pimples on the face, or any eruption of the skin whatever; only where the flesh is very sore you must dilute it with water.

When made weak enough it is the best eye-wash for weak and watery eyes that I ever saw.

Others use it to cleanse the dandruff out of the hair and strengthen its roots, which it certainly does, and to crown all, it made the hair grow on bald heads, which, if I had not seen with my own eyes, I would not believe from you or anybody else.

As regards dieting, I never came across the first person that ever got any benefit from it. On the contrary, numbers came to death's door by it, as it gives the humors the upper hand. My medicine requires the most nourishing food you can get: It will soon give you an appetite.

Do not for a moment suppose that I warrant a cure of all those diseases, in every case. I merely tell you what it has done, and can do in the same for you. I do not warrant a cure in any disease but humors, where it never fails. For further particulars see the circular around each bottle.

No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you can get, and enough of it.

I have an herb, simmered in olive oil, scatters Scrofulous swellings of the neck and under the ears. Price fifty cents per box.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE. Adults, one table spoonful per day; children of eight years, dessert spoonful; from five to eight, tea spoonfuls. As no direction can be applicable to all constitutions, take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the descriptions of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others, by W. Gibson, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University. Valentine Mott, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, N. Y. " W. P. Dewees, M.D., Prof. of Mid., Pa. University. N. Chapman, M.D., Prof. of Physic, Pa. University. T. Parke, M.D., Prof. College of Physicians, Phila. Dr. Del Valle, Prof. of Medicine, Havana. Jose Eourenco de Luz, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon. G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spaine. J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London. Sir Thomas Pearson, Maj. Gen. British Army. Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and, being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:—

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork: and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geocentric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swain, copy right secured.

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c., &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge. Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA, and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

Dead Shot for Bed Bugs!

SLEEP IN PEACE.

ALL good House-keepers will be glad to hear of an article for the destruction of Bed Bugs, reliable and sure. The Dead Shot is a saturated tincture of a

POISONOUS GUM RESIN,

Which evaporates very slowly, and will not lose its destructive properties for months. One instance is known where Bugs in LARGE NUMBERS were destroyed by it, where none had been applied later than the previous year. Keepers of Hotels have found that a thorough use of the Dead Shot in every suspicious place, has kept their house free from Bugs for years.

IT IS POISONOUS AND DEADLY.

Apply it to insects it curls them up and lays them out as readily as sulphur fumes kill bees. It is a TRAP READY SET for these noxious tormenters of our nightly rest.

HOUSES FOR SALE.

THE DWELLING HOUSE, No. 9 School street. This is a well built house, two (high) stories, in good repair, and is convenient for one family or two families, or for a large Boarding House. It contains nine or more rooms and two sculleries, and has an excellent cellar under the whole house. The situation is central, being about equi-distant from the markets, factories and railroads. Connected with this house is a building which has been and may be occupied both as a barn and a work-shop. If not sold soon, a part or the whole of the premises will be let.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 6 Green street. This house is fitted for two tenements; it is well built, was thoroughly painted and put in good order the last season, and is well calculated for two families, (having about 6 rooms each) and may be considered a good location for persons employed at the north end. It is centrally located between the different ship-yards in that section of the city, each tenement will be sold separately, if desired.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 7 Liberty street, corner of Charles street. This house was formerly owned and occupied by the late Peter M. Lowd and is in good order. Attached to it is a lot of land large enough for a Stable or for another dwelling house. It would make a good place for the residence of a person employed at the ship-yards across the river, or at the Navy Yard.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 47 Bow street.—This house has been built but a few years, is well finished off, and is very convenient. In the rear is quite a large garden spot. This would be a desirable place for a person employed at the ship-yards, or at the Navy Yard nearly opposite.

Also, for sale, a BUILDING LOT, on Mount Vernon street, (opposite No. 2,) with a small building thereon which can be finished off into a Dwelling house.

All of the above property will be sold on liberal terms, if applied for soon. For further particulars apply to JOSEPH M. EDMONDS,

Feb. 27. No. 9 Islington street.

TO LET—The STORE on the corner of Vaughan and Deer streets. It was occupied as a first class store in this city, and is considered as a good stand for business. It is within a few rods of the Boston and Concord Railroad Depots. Possession can be had immediately.

FOR SALE—The HOUSE in the rear of the above, on Vaughan street—a convenient house for two families, and has been so occupied for about six years, by the same tenants. It rents for $160. For information, terms, &c., call on JOSEPH L. LOCKE, on the premises, or JOSEPH M. EDMONDS, 9 Islington st. m29

DR. ORDWAY'S
HUMOR DISCOVERY,
AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

DR. ORDWAY has been using his Blood Purifier in his practice for the last seven years with great success. He has often been urged by his friends and those who have tried it, and know its efficacy, to put it within the reach of all. He has now added to it an Herb, discovered in California, by Dr. KELLEY, which makes it the most wonderful remedy for

HUMORS OF ALL KINDS,
LIVER COMPLAINTS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

The virtues of this Herb were first made known to Dr. Kelley by an Indian, while attending a patient, sick with that terrible disease, the California Erysipelas and Liver Complaint—the effect was miraculous—curing the man in a few days. The natives, when bitten by a rattles ake, or rabid animal, resort to this Herb for a cure.—Hundreds are taking this medicine, after trying in vain other remedies, and say that the half was never told them.

If you have Erysipelas, 3 to 5 bottles will cure it.
If you have Scrofula, 3 to 7 bottles will cure it.
Three to six bottles will cure Salt Rheum.
One or two bottles will cure Pimples on the Face.
Two or three bottles will cure Scaly Eruptions and Scald Head
One to three bottles will cure NursingSoreMouth
One to three bottles will cleanse the system of Biles.
Two to five bottles will cure Rheumatism.
Three to four bottles will cure old running Sores and Ulcers.
One or two bottles will cure Barber's Itch.
One to three bottles will cure Canker in the mouth and bowels.

For Liver Complaints and Jaundice.
Its effects are new and wonderful, removing obstructions from the Liver, open the pores of the skin, carrying off the morbid matter, relieving the side, and all-gone feelings of the stomach; and removing low spirits and despondency, which is the result of this disagreeable and often fatal disease.

FOR DYSPEPSIA.
A fair trial will convince you that there is nothing like it.

FOR CANCEROUS HUMORS.
It is the surest remedy ever offered. One widow lady in Lawrence, has been troubled with Cancer for years, by taking two bottles says she is now quite well.

FOR COSTIVENESS.
One gentleman says that it was the only medicine that cured him.

FOR KIDNEY DIFFICULTIES,
It is spoken of in the highest terms. A young man was sick so much with Asthma that he had to leave College; three bottles cured him, and he has now resumed his studies. One lady in Salem was perfectly cured of Periodical Sick Headache, by the use of two bottles. Mr. Williams, of Lawrence, had been lame in his eyes for years, and was cured by the use of the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier. For Chills and Fever, Mercurial Diseases, Taints in the System, it stands unrivalled; sometimes where the system is much deranged it will cause disagreeable feelings at first, but continue its use as indications favorable. It is purely vegetable, and its compound and proportions are such that the effect is perfectly satisfactory and safe.

FULL DIRECTIONS ON THE BOTTLE.
☞ Price $1.00.

HE HAS ALSO A HUMOR SALVE,
Unsurpassed for external humors, which, if used in connection with the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier will much facilitate a cure.
PRICE 25 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Cough Destroyer.
This invaluable Cough Remedy is for the complete cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Influenza, Whooping Cough, pains in the side and breast, hacking or ticking at the throat, spitting blood, tightness across the lungs and chest, and all Lung Complaints leading to consumption.

No medicine yet discovered has that decided effect in curing Bronchial affections as the Cough Destroyer. It can be taken by all ages and classes, from a child six months old to the oldest man or woman, with the most happy results.
PRICE 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Pain Destroyer.
This preparation is composed of a great variety of Extracts, Gums, Essential Oils, most of which have not heretofore been united and compounded into their present form. It will cure attacks of Cramps of the Stomach, Spasms, Convulsions, Faintings, Pain in the Stomach, Bowels, Side, Back, Limbs, and a great variety of other difficulties. It is also invaluable as an external remedy. It will be found to contain nearly double the strength of any similar article, and possesses properties heretofore unknown. No family should be without it for a single day.
PRICE 25, 37½ AND 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Full directions for the above medicines, on the Bottles. Orders should be accompanied with full directions how it should be sent.

California and India Sealing Wax.
THIS WAX, made by Hyde & Co., Manufacturers to the Queen, affords the only security to Foreign Correspondence.—Wafers, Gum, or ordinary Sealing Wax being alike insecure for Letters to or from hot climates.

Hyde's India Wax possesses the peculiar property of remaining hard in the hottest climate, the seal impression being found uninjured after passing twice through the Tropics. A perfect security to Foreign Letters is thus obtained by the use of this Hard Wax, the peculiar properties of which obtained for Hyde & Co. the Exhibition Prize Medal of 1851.

For sale by JOSEPH H. FOSTER.
Also a good assortment of common Red and Fancy Sealing Wax, Wafers, Mottos and Initial Seals, &c. je23

Marble Chimney Pieces.
THE PENRHYN MARBLE is a new and beautiful article, manufactured of Stone imported from England, which is enameled in imitation of of the richest and most expensive Spanish, Galway, Egyptian, Pyronese, Lisbon, Sienna and other rare and desirable kinds of Marble—the imitation being so perfect as to challenge detection without the closest scrutiny. In style of finish these Chimney Pieces stand unequalled, being very highly polished—retaining their beauty much longer than common marble, and are not injured by oils, smoke, coal gas or acids. They have been extensively introduced into public and private buildings, giving perfect satisfaction to those who have used them. The best of references can be given, showing their adaptedness for general use, the subscriber having furnished some of the best dwelling houses in the city with them during the last two years.

While excelling all others in beauty of finish and appearance, they are sold much cheaper than any thing of the kind in the market. The subscriber has now in Store a complete assortment of the above named desirable Goods, to which he invites the attention of all interested.

RUSSIAN TYRANNY.

Mr. Julian Allen, the author of the book, has handed us a volume of 200 pages, entitled Autocrasy in Poland and Russia, including the Experience of an Exile. It is published in New York by John Wiley, and of course will be among the booksellers shortly.

We have read it with interest. The author expressly disclaims any literary merit for the book, but professes to give a plain statement of facts, in regard to slavery as it exists in Russia and Poland. He does it, plainly, but terribly; for he tells us of sad things which he suffered as a Polish rebel, when yet a student at school, and of his sympathy with Poland, now that he is a refugee and citizen in this land. He tells us also, of dreadful cruelties under Russian law in the army, ending in death, which he saw inflicted, as the punishment of an act of virtuous love. This story is told on pages 40-43. We pity the man who can read this simple recital without a tear; and we despise him who can read it without anger, if such an one could any where be found.

Yet on the side of the oppressor there is power; and such evils are only part of a monstrous system of iniquity, which, seen across the water is of hateful mien to us, but may yet have its defenders and apologists at home.

We are unable at this moment, to notice the work at greater length; but will briefly say every part of it will repay the perusal of those who wish to learn terrible facts from a relater who has been on the spot.

N. H. Legislature—June Session.

Abridged from the Patriot.

THURSDAY, July 6.

In the House, the vote to choose a Senator to fill the vacancy, at the Eleventh Ballot was, whole number 309. Wells had 148, Morrison 95, Eastman 35, Tappan 5, Clark 13, Goodwin 4, scattering 9. No choice.

A motion to indefinitely postpone the special order, including the election of both Senators, was made by Mr. Nesmith of Franklin, Whig, which was put to a Yea and Nay vote, and was adopted by 159 to 147. A motion to reconsider the vote was negatived by 157 to 144. The House then adjourned.

This proceeding throws the whole business of electing Senators, open again to the people of New Hampshire, and virtually closes the business of the session.

The repeal of the Missouri compromise is trebly condemned by the Representatives of New Hampshire in General Court convened: first by a decisive vote against the measure itself: secondly by a censure of the men who voted for it: and thirdly by the defeat and rebuke of the executive who urged it, in the vote on the State printer, and in the balloting throughout.

The Boston correspondent of the New York Standard says:

"I told you in my last that I didn't know the exact line of trade of Major General Edmands, whom Dr. Smith invested, in the fullness of his might, with absolute power of life and death over his majesty's subjects within his kingdom of Cockney. Well, I am told that the man is an Apothecary. So you see it was perfectly regular and raleable in Doctor Smith to send his prescription to an apothecary to be made up and administered. A pleatiful exhibition of lead pills, with powdered saltpetre and charcoal by way of vehicle, was what seemed to this eminent practitioner precisely what the case required. He would naturally like to have tried the virtue of a little blood-letting, inasmuch as Phlebotomy belongs to a higher branch of the Art Medical than simple Pharmacepoly. It was promotion to him. But only think of our condition that day. As if it were not enough to have a Dr. Last for a Mayor, we must have an Abel Drugger for a Commander-in-Chief. And both of them are what are called 'heroic practitioners.' It is a special mercy that any of us are left alive."

DIVING FOR PICKEREL.—On Saturday last, our new Governor, famous for his fishing propensities, together with Col. Moore, the reporter, and one or two other disciples of Isaak Walton, rode over to the Soucook, where they got into a rickety boat to fish for pickerel. Pretty soon his Excellency had a glorious bite, and putting his foot upon the side of the boat, so as to stand firm, over it went, sousing the party into ten feet of water. Col. Moore being somewhat fat floated off upon the surface like a porpoise; another of the party, who could not swim, crawled up upon the sand so as to get his head above water, but "Nat," like a true sportsman, stuck to his pickerel, and managed to bring him safe to shore. He was a "lounder," weighing five pounds and a half. We saw some of the party on their return, who looked very much like drowned rats.—Concord Reporter.

BALTIMORE, July 7th.—Up to the present time there has been 32 deaths from the late disaster on the Susquehannah Railroad, and three or four persons are in a doubtful condition. A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Mr. Park Winchester, the Superintendent of the road. It is reported that Mr. Winchester had resigned his office this morning. The accident is now attributed mainly to the recent removal of the former competent and experienced President and Superintendent, by political proscription, and the appointment of inefficient and experienced successors of the right political stripe.

NEWBURYPORT CELEBRATION.

We have already given from Boston papers some account of the display at Newburyport on the Fourth. The Newburyport Herald of Wednesday is nearly filled with details of "The Celebration," from which we give some extracts, with remarks from our personal observation.

The Procession was quite imposing, and embraced six bands of music. The escort was the Cushing Guard, with the East Stoughton brass band—an excellent corps of soldiers and musicians. The old Newburyport Artillery, which was enrolled in 1777 and did service in the revolution—and which is now lost in the Cushing Guard,—were out sixty strong, with the field peices, under the command of Maj. Ebenezer Bradbury. Both companies appeared uncommonly well.

First, came the Officers of the City and the day, and the Sons from abroad. Nearly half the States of the Union were represented.—Maine came in with strong delegations from seashore and inland. The largest number from any one place in New-Hampshire came from Portsmouth, and conspicuous among them was the venerable Abner Greenleaf, the first mayor of the city. Boston sent full five hundred, with a banner prepared by "Cymon," of the Post,—and the fine Weymouth Brass Band for accompainiment.

Then followed the Floral Procession, with band—a most creditable display. The moving tableaux represented Flora; Landing of the Pilgrims, with their vessel, the Mayflower; Goddess of Liberty; Age; Naiads—three maids reclining in a grotto, shaded by vines and adorned with shells; Dryads, three maids grouped round a youth representing the rural god Pan; Morning and Night;—Spring, Summer, Autumn, Winter; The old woman who lived in the Shoe, who had so many children, &c.,—one of the most amusing features of the procession.

The Fire Department formed a great attraction. The companies numbered eight, and made a rich display, viz.:—Deluge, 1, of Newburyport, with Newburyport Band.—Their uniforms was red jackets trimmed blue, black pants, with buff stripes, and fire caps. Gen. Washington, 3, of Medford, with their tub—red jackets, black plants and leggins, black caps trimmed with gold lace. Mechanic, 2, of Newburyport—blue jackets trimmed red, two stars on collar; cloth cap, red quarters, black top, gold band; black pants, gold stripe. The Herald says the Mechanics had excellent music from Portsmouth navy-yard. Protector, 3, of Newburyport—coats red, trimmed buff and green; white pants with patent leather bottoms; green belts, name in silver; cloth caps, tops read, quarters green, bands red trimmed with silver lace, name in front in diamond shape. Tiger, 1, of Haverhill, with Union brass band from that town—blue coats trimmed white, black pants striped red, belts red with gold 'Haverhill,' red caps with silver name. Their tub is one of Jeffer's double-deckers, plays four streams, has two suctions, cylinder 10 1-2 inch—throwing water very fast. Eagle, 4, of Newburyport—white coats trimmed blue, black pants with white stripe, black glazed caps—an odd but neat uniform. Torrent, 7, of Newburyport—red jackets with blue and silver trimming, blue cloth caps trimmed red and silver, black pants striped silver, patent leather belts trimmed red, name in silver—an elegant uniform, the belt alone costing $3. Neptune, 8, of Newburyport—blue coats trimmed red and white, brown pants striped red, glazed belt with name gilded on back and S on front; caps, blue glazed tops, blue quarters, with silver lace and blue stripes; motto, 'Douse the glim'; on the top sat Neptune or the water god, with long streaming beard, cap made of shells, a tar-pot in one hand and a piece of iron hoop in the other, as described by sailors on crossing the line. Newburyport 4 and 6 were not out, their Companies being otherwise engaged in the procession.

The Industrial show was small but good. As the procession was passing the Turnpike, one of the stages, formerly in the employ of the old Eastern Stage Company, with the old mail team of four nice white horses, drove up; the driver, Mr. Edmund Knight, one of the oldest drivers, formerly in the employ of that company, blowing the horn, &c. Upon the top was the baggage, valises, &c., and the whole looked like the times when the Wolfe Tavern was in the place of the depot.

The services at church were very interesting. The pronouncing of the benediction by Rev. Dr. Dana, more than four score years of age, excited a deep feeling of reverence.

The Dinner in the Pavillion, and the accompanying exercises, are spoken of as excellent. We were unable to go and judge for ourselves, at the polite invitation of the Committee, including Wm. H. Brewster, Esq., of the Herald, who paid every attention to the press. Among the speakers at the dinner were Rev. Dr. Dana, Hon. Caleb Cushing, Rev. Geo. D. Wildes of Boston, (orator of the day,) Robt. G. Pike of New York, Rev. Thos. M. Clark of Hartford, Stephen Tilton, jr., Esq., of Boston, Daniel N. Haskell, Esq., of the Boston Transcript, &c. Mr. Haskell, in the course of a very neat speech, gave due honor to the author of these "comings home," B. P. Shillaber, Esq., formerly of this city, now of the Boston Post, thus:

"This is a new and striking illustration of the potency of the press, for it is the invention of a printer, and was conceived in the fertile brain of the fertile and genial man who indites the quaint sayings and fills the snuff box of the widow Ruth Partington."

The dinner table was not deserted till eight o'clock. The Fireworks commenced at half past eight, and were superior in design and quality. After the close of this exhibition, there was a glorious reunion Levee at the spacious City Hall, which was tastefully fitted for the occasion. Here a large part of the night was whiled away in lively conversation, dancing, waltzing, promenading, &c.

Thus closed "The Celebration" at Newburyport. Although some who had expected to see ours of last year eclipsed in this, may have been disappointed, yet in itself the display was in every way creditable, and but for our almost unparallelled turnout last year, might have received even more consideration. We think our neighboring city has reason to be proud of her sons, and those sons to feel much pleasure at their cordial and grand reception home.

SUSAN AND KATE DENIN—BLOODY TRAGEDY AT ASPINWALL.—We learn from a passenger by the North Star, which arrived in New York yesterday afternoon, bringing passengers who left San Francisco on the 1st of June, the particulars of a tragedy which took place on the Isthmus.

It will be recollected that Susan Denin (Mrs. Woodward) and Kate Denin, (Mrs. Fox) two actresses well known in this city, some time since went to California to fill professional engagements there. They were accompanied by Mr. Woodward, Susan's husband. After they had arrived in California a difficulty arose between Susan and her husband, which resulted in a separation. She then openly joined with or put herself under the protection of Mr. Bingham, an actor of San Francisco. On the 1st of June, Susan, Kate, and Mr. Bingham sailed for New York. Mr. Woodward also took passage by the same vessel and route.

On arriving at Aspinwall, (this side of the Isthmus,) Mr. Bingham left the cars, with the crowd of passengers, for the purpose of looking after his baggage. He had not been out but a few minutes when he was shot, and immediately fell, mortally wounded, as it is reported to us. The ball entered his side, near his back, passing through his body above the hips. In the confusion of the crowd, where each person was rushing to secure his baggage, it was impossible to tell who committed the deed. There was a rumor just as the steamer sailed that a Jamaica negro perpetrated the act.

Woodward came on to New York in the North Star, while the Denin girls remained at Aspinwall with Bingham, who it was said was dying when the steamer sailed.—Troy Budget, June 24.

Garden Engines.

JULT received at "the sign of the Big Coffee Pot" a full suppiy of Garden or Fire Engines, which are respectfully commended by the subscriber to the notice of the public. Wherever these Engines have been introduced they have invariably given entire satisfaction. They are unsurpassed for power, capacity or usefulness. From the size of the air chamber sufficient power is obtained to enable one man to throw a steady stream of water to the height of fifty feet perpendicularly, thereby rendering it a desirable article as a

PROTECTION AGAINST FIRE,

And for washing windows of second and third stories of buildings, carriages, &c. With a newly invented water diffuser as a Garden Engine it defies competition. The diffuser is a perfect and simple article, and its superiority over the common rose sprinkler is that it will throw three times the quantity of water a much greater distance and spread it perfectly even, with less power applied. An Engine with a diffuser of this description, used in orchards and gardens to throw soap suds on the young trees, will destroy many kinds of vermin liable to injure the fruit and be an invaluable addition to the implements of the Nurseryman and Horticulturist.

MAP OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

Mr. Brickett, the Agent for the new and convenient Map of New Hampshire, has deposited a copy of the Map with Mr. Shores, Bookseller, and another with Mr. Morse, dealer in periodicals. Subscriptions may be made at either of these places.

The Maps are to be delivered to subscribers in this city about the 15th of this month.

VETERANS.—At a full and enthusiastic meeting of the Veterans, on Thursday evening, the ground for target exercise was selected near Philbrick's Union House, Rye Beach, for which place the company will start in the first train on Thursday morning next. They will dine at the Union House.

The Veterans will be accompanied by Bond's Cornet Band, of Boston, numbering nineteen pieces, who we are glad to learn will give one of their noted concerts on Wednesday evening, at the Temple.

☞ Uncle Tom on canvas, is a much more interesting exhibition than we supposed it would be. We looked in at the Temple awhile last evening, and saw several of the scenes of Uncle Tom's Cabin represented as a Panorama, distinct and spirited;—and heard the lecturer describe the acts connected with the scenes in an easy, off-hand style, giving the thread of the story in familiar language.

The exhibition will be open this afternoon and evening.

MELANCHOLY EVENT.—On Thursday, at the Navy Yard, just before sunset, Miss Anna North, between 11 and 12 years of age, daughter of Mr. John North, sailmaker, visited a neighbor, and having received a boquet was returning home. On the beach, she, with another girl was playing with a stick in shoal water. The stick on which she was leaning broke, and she fell into the water. Her companion became alarmed and ran for help, but before any arrived Anna had floated out of sight, and was not found until midnight. She was a very interesting girl and much endeared to her associates. She was carried to Portland on Friday for interment.—Journal.

☞ We perceive by the Newburyport Herald, that Rev. Edwin Holt died very suddenly on Sunday, July 2, at Evansville, Indiana. Mr. Hoyt was pastor of the North Church in Portsmouth from 1836 to 1844, and afterwards of the Congregational Society in Greenland for a short time. His age was about 48.

☞ Mr. Joseph Moses, who was killed in Boston on Thursday, by falling from the wagon of Mr. Andrews, was well known, says the Boston Courier, in that city.

As the Christian Israelite preacher, he used to hold forth at the Custom House, and many persons who came to scoff at his fervent offerings, remained to pray. He was an industrious man, and had been in the employ of Mr. Andrews over twelve years. Mr. Moses leaves a wife and two children.

ILLEGAL ELECTION OF CITY OFFICERS.—We understand that the committee of the Board of Aldermen, appointed to test the validity of the late alleged election of city officers, have obtained the opinion of Judge Perley, in writing, fully sustaining the position of the majority of the Board, that the elections were illegal. We further learn that the matter will now be brought to the decision of the Superior Court with as little delay as is practicable.—Gazette.

☞ The Pic Nic of the Methodist Ladies' Society at Greenland, on the Fourth, was successful. Besides being an occasion of as much social enjoyment as could be expected on so hot a day, about $135 were realized as the proceeds.

CHERRIES.—Mr. John Hodgdon, our neighbor residing in Warren street, has brought us in a specimen of the cherries he raises.—They are very large, of beautiful dark red color, and of delicious flavor. The yield is immense—upwards of fifty still clinging to a twig five inches long which he left with us.

☞ Printers sometimes have curious mixtures to try and report upon. Yesterday we had mead; to-day we have cherries, and a lot of Ginger Syrup from Lafayette Laighton.—This latter article we supposed was to make a summer drink of, as there was a box of soda powders with it. The first trial was a failure—there was no foam in it. Without the soda it was as hot as a small volcano; afterwards we tried a little of it in molasses and water, and it was very good. It is a capital article for giving the flavor of ginger, when desired.

☞ Rev. Mr. Russell, of Connecticut, who preached last Sabbath, will preach at the Pleasant street church to-morrow.

☞ The Board of Directors for the New Hampshire State Agricultural Society, have directed that the next State Fair shall be held at Keene. This is due as well to the Connecticut valley as to the liberal offer of that beautiful town. We learn that the conditions are that Keene defrays the expenses of the Fair.

DEBATE ON NEBRASKA.

In the Legislature of New Hampshire, July 5, the House of Representatives took up, debated and passed the anti-slavery or Nebraska resolutions, with the thermometer standing at about 100 degrees.

We give below, the remarks of gentlemen from Newington and Portsmouth, as reported by the Patriot, together with the Resolutions as they passed.

Mr. Emery of Portsmouth, spoke in reply to Mr. Stratton, concluding that the slave power in the South had more than its due representative weight in Congress on account of their slaves—thus doing injustice to the men of the North. He also made a few remarks on the manifest sincerity which actuated his party in respect to the slavery question, and their love for union, which the passage of the resolutions would not endanger.—Mr. Emery contended that the representatives of the people had a full right to canvas the opinions and actions of their Senators and Representatives in Congress, to any extent short of libel, and that the course of his party in relation to the question before this House was proper and right.

Mr. Goodwin of Portsmouth, spoke briefly in defence of the consistency of his party, and of the public inconsistency which subsisted between the cases of Koszta and the slave Burns—where the one was rescued from slavery because he was a white man, although an unworthy, drunken person, and the other sent into slavery because he was a black man, although a good citizen and preacher of the living gospel. He denied that he was an abolitionist in the extreme sense of the word, although he prayed God that the time should soon arrive when every man now in bonds would, through education suitable to their prospects, be in a condition to be emancipated, and that emancipation be speedily consummated.

The Assistant Clerk called the roll, and 290 members answered to their names.

The question of recommittal was then put, and the yeas and nays demanded by Mr. James of Raymond, and taken, when the motion to recommit was negatived by 155 to 131.

The question then came up on the adoption of the resolutions, when Mr. Grant of Lyndeborough moved to strike out all after the word "Resolved," in the first line of the first resolution, and insert a part of the resolutions of the whig national convention of 1852.

Mr. Emery of Portsmouth objected to the motion to substitute, and referred to the refusal of the party in power last year to allow any such amendment, as a reason why the resolutions should not be entertained.

Mr. Pickering of Newington was as favorable to the welfare of the slaves as any of the gentlemen from Portsmouth; and he thought it was unreasonable in the people of the North to take away from the South the property in slaves that their own pirate vessels had stolen and sold to them. He was opposed also to recrimination of any kind, and to the reflection in the original resolutions, which was laid on a worthy member of the Congress of the United States. He approved of the amended resolution.

Mr. Grant of Lyndeboro' thought the resolutions he had presented were calculated to harmonise parties and the State; and they had received the sanction of distinguished men in this House—men who supported Winfield Scott in 1852. The gentlemen in this House who were in the Convention of 1852, were Messrs. Nesmith of Franklin, Goodwin of Portsmouth, and Stevens of Nashua; and he hoped they and their adherents would stand up to the rack.

Mr. Goodwin of Portsmouth said that there was a new issue before the country, which the platform of no former Convention would hit.

Mr. Pickering of Newington said that he wished the first man who had a resolution had been shot. Both parties—whigs and democrats—had passed indiscreet resolutions, but the democrats were rather the cleanest of the two in his opinion.

Mr. Emery of Portsmouth moved to divide the question, and the yeas and nays were demanded on the motion to strike out, by Mr. Patten of Hancock, and the roll called, with the following result—yeas 128, nays 152—so the motion to strike out was rejected.

The resolutions adopted are as follows:

Resolved, That the State of New Hampshire re-affirms the principles promulgated by her House of Representatives in 1850, "that the people are bound by no compact, expressed or implied, to suffer the introduction of slavery into territory now free, and that they are unalterably opposed to the erection of any territory without its prohibition by positive law.—Passed, 160 to 118.

Resolved, That the repeal of the Missouri Compromise by the passage of the Nebraska and Kansas bill, so called, was in violation of those principles, was unnecessary, impolitic, a breach of faith with the North, dangerous and wrong. 155 to 119.

Resolved, That the course of George W. Morrison and George W. Kittredge, a portion of our delegation in Congress, in resisting such repeal, receives the hearty and united approval of the people of New Hampshire.—156 to 110.

Resolved, That the course of Harry Hibbard, Moses Norris and Jared W. Williams, the other members of our delegation, in voting for such repeal, was in opposition to the wishes of the people of the State, treacherous to freedom and the great cause of equality and human rights, and meets our decided reprobation. 152 to 117.

Mr. Flanders of Manchester offered a resolution that copies of the resolutions be forwarded, by the Secretary of State, to the President of the United States, and to each of our Representatives in Congress.

The resolution was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Emery of Portsmouth, the House adjourned at twenty minutes to 9 o'clock.

A most rigid surveillance is kept up in Paris, and in all parts of the country from whence the capital is supplied, over the milk which is forwarded for the consumption of its inhabitants. Thirteen farmers have just been condemned to fines of one hundred francs and under, and one to eight days imprisonment, for sending milk mixed with water.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common Pasture Weeds a remedy that cures Every Kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruption of the skin.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of crofula.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed growing on the pastures and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system, yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has cured you. There is no if's and ands, hums and ha's about its suiting some cases, but not yours. I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effects of it in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. I gave it to children a year old; to old people of sixty. I have seen poor, puny, wormy looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some have taken it who have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is sound it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings; but you must not be alarmed; they will disappear in from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it; on the contrary, when that feeling is gone, you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to.

Nothing in the annals of Patent Medicines has ever been received by the public with so much favor as this simple preparation. It is now composed of nine different herbs. In May, 1852, when I commenced making a business of it, I sold about two bottles per day. In June, 1853, I sold 4320 bottles. In October, 1853, I sold 6120 bottles. I hope you will call that doing well; I do.

In my own practice, I confine it strictly to humors; but there are some who are so enthusiastic in its favor they think what cured them will cure any thing and any body; they accordingly recommend it for every variety of disease. In this way a great many virtues of it have been found that I never would suspect.

Cases of Dyspepsia, of many years standing, that withstood every known remedy, have been permanently cured.

I know one man to gain 17 lbs. by taking three bottles; another 11 lbs.; another 10 lbs.; and another 7 lbs—the venerable master Robinson of Boston.

In diseases of the Liver it is a specific. I know several with yellow skin and yellow eyes, the body emaciated and the mind melancholy, get fat and cheerful by a few bottles.

I know several cases of Dropsy, and one particularly bad. A lady, aged 79, was unable to leave her house for the last twelve years, was so much relieved (she was reduced in circumference thirty-four inches,) as to visit her friends in several neighboring towns

Another had the Dropsy in her left leg, and was unable to walk for ten years, sometimes swelling to an enormous size; at last bursted, making a bad wound, which could not be healed; taking three bottles and using two boxes of ointment, she is now quite well. Why it should make some fat and others lean, I cannot tell, but so it is.

I know of several cases of Kidney complaints cured by it. At the request of a newspaper of a proper medium, I could tell of cases of this most distressing of all diseases that would make your heart bleed, that were permanently cured by it.

It has been lately found to be a sure cure for Panama fever. In one case the first spoonful put off the fit two hours. One bottle cured him. Another came home to die, and was induced by his brother to try it. Three bottles cured him.

It has also given relief in cases of Asthma. A lady in Lawrence was unable to lie in bed for a number of years; she can now lie without the least inconvenience.

A lady in Weymouth lost the use of her left side by the Erysipelas. In the second bottle, she broke out in one mass of humor from head to foot. In a few days she was well.

It has lately been found to be equally good for humor outside as inside, (taking it inwardly in the meantime,) for Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Pimples on the Face, or any eruption of the skin whatever; only where the flesh is very sore you must dilate it with water.

When made weak enough it is the best eye-wash for weak and watery eyes that I ever saw.

Others use it to cleanse the dandruff out of the hair and strengthen its roots, which it certainly does, and to crown all, it made the hair grow on bald heads, which, if I had not seen with my own eyes, I would not believe from you or anybody else.

As regards dieting, I never came across the first person that ever got any benefit from it. On the contrary, numbers came to death's door by it, as it gives the humors the upper hand. My medicine requires the most nourishing food you can get. It will soon give you an appetite.

Do not for a moment suppose that I warrant a cure of all those diseases in every case. I merely tell you what it has done, hoping it will do the same for you. I do not warrant a cure in any disease but humors, where it never fails. For further particulars see the circular around each bottle.

No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you can get, and enough of it.

I have an herb, simmered in olive oil, scatters Scrofulous swellings of the neck and under the ears. Price fifty cents per box.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE.—Adults, one table spoonful per day; children of eight years, dessert spoonful; from five to eight, tea spoonfuls. As no direction can be applicable to all constitutions, take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than fifty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures. For the descriptions of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others, by

W. Gibson, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University.
Valentine Mott, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, N. Y.
W. P. Dewees, M.D., Prof. of Mid. Pa. University.
N. Chapman, M.D., Prof. of Physic, Pa. University.
T. Parke, M.D., Prof. College of Physicians, Phila.
Dr. Del Vallo, Prof. of Medicine, Havana.
Jose Rouxeno de Lara, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon.
G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spain.
J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London.
Sir Thomas Pearson, Maj. Gen. British Army.
Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and, being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:—

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written signature of Philadelphia, the cork: and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geocentric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co. beat a note of hand engraver of Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swaim, copy right secured

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all disease arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c., &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge. Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA, and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS

With the U. S. Patent Office, Washington,

No. 76 state Street, oppo. Kilby street, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1836) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in cases of full rejection of a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries: besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay and fees, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

"PATENT OFFICE, ———.

"R. H. EDDY, Esq., Boston, Mass.

"SIR,—Your facilities for the prosecution of any business connected with this Office, are equal to those of any other agent I am very respectfully,

Yours, &c. THOMAS EWBANK,
Commissioner of Patents."

HOUSE on Christian Shore, suitable for two small families. If applied for immediately will be sold low. Apply to

April 17. E. S. WENDELL.

FOR SALE.—The two story wooden House, No. 3 Raitt's Court, containing 9 rooms, with a good dry cellar, and provided with aqueduct, &c. Has a good yard, barn and out buildings. For information apply on the premises, to apl1 JOHN M. DAVIS.

HOUSES FOR SALE.

THE DWELLING HOUSE, No. 9 School street. This is a well built house, two (high) stories, in good repair, and is convenient for one family or two families, or for a large Boarding House. It contains nine or more rooms and two sculleries, and has an excellent cistern under the whole house. The situation is central, being about equidistant from the markets, factories and railroads. Connected with this house is a building which has been and may be occupied both as a barn and a work-shop. If not sold soon, a part or the whole of the premises will be let.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 6 Green street. This house is fitted for two tenements; it is well built, was thoroughly painted and put in good order the last season, and is well calculated for two families, (having about 6 rooms each) and may be considered a good location for persons employed at the north end. It is centrally located between the different ship-yards in that section of the city, each tenement will be sold separately, if desired.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 7 Liberty street, corner of Charles street. This house was formerly owned and occupied by the late Peter M. Lowd and is in good order. Attached to it is a lot of land large enough for a Stable or for another dwelling house. It would make a good place for the residence of a person employed at the ship-yards across the river, or at the Navy Yard.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 47 Bow street.—This house has been built but a few years, is well finished off, and is very convenient. In the rear is quite a large garden spot. This would be a desirable place for a person employed at the ship-yards, or at the Navy Yard nearly opposite.

Also, for sale, a BUILDING LOT, on Mount Vernon street, (opposite No. 2,) with a small building thereon, which can be finished off into a Dwelling house.

All of the above property will be sold on liberal terms, if applied for soon. For further particulars apply to JOSEPH M. EDMONDS,

Feb. 27. No. 9 Islington street.

TO LET—The STORE on the corner of Vaughan and Deer streets. It was occupied as the first Union Store in this city, and is considered as a good stand for business. It is within a few rods of the Boston and Concord Railroad Depots. Possession can be had immediately.

FOR SALE—The HOUSE in the rear of the above, on Vaughan street—a convenient house for two families, and has been so occupied for about six years, by the same tenants. It rents for $160. For information, terms, &c., call on JOSEPH L. LOCKE, on the premises, or JOSEPH M. EDMONDS, 9 Islington st. m29

THE TRUTHS OF AMERICAN HISTORY.—SOUTH CAROLINA.—Senator Butler, of South Carolina, on Wednesday last, charged the Senator from Massachusetts with searching "old and musty records and scraps of history."—Persons familiar with the Revolutionary history of our country can well understand the sensitiveness of the South Carolinian upon this point; as our annals present his State in no enviable light during that memorable struggle. She could not then defend herself against her own Tories; and it is no exaggeration to say, that more soldiers from New England were sent to her aid, and now lie buried in her soil, than she sent from it to every scene of strife from Lexington to Yorktown.

South Carolina, with a northern army to assist her, could not, or would not, preserve her own capital. The impartial historian, as he records this portion of her history, must state that the inhabitants, as a body, gave the most ample evidence that they preferred allegiance to the British crown to joining their fortunes with the Patriots of America. Sir Henry Clinton considered his triumph there complete, and communicated to the British Ministry the intelligence that the whole State had yielded submission to the royal arms, and had again become a part of the empire. One of the most able American writers upon the subject of the Revolutionary history of South Carolina has affirmed, in his closing paragraph, "that whatever the guilt of the Tories, the Whigs disgraced their cause and the American name." Had the people of South Carolina rallied in defence of Charleston, as the yeomen of Massachusetts did to aid the town of Boston, Gen. Lincoln would never have been compelled to accept the humiliating terms of capitulation.

The Continental Congress fixed the quota of troops to be furnished by South Carolina at 16,932 soldiers. She sent 6,660, or more than ten thousand less than the number. Massachusetts was called upon by Congress for 52,689 men. She furnished 83,032 soldiers, or upwards of thirty thousand more than was required. South Carolina furnished only 752 more soldiers in the conflict than gallant little Rhode Island, the smallest State in the confederacy. She sent only one fifth the number of Connecticut; only one half as many as New Hampshire, then almost an unbroken wilderness.

It is true she sent a Laurens, father and son, Middleton, Rutledge, Marion, Sumpter and Pickens, gallant men on the field and wise men in council, but the mass of her people were not favorably disposed to the American cause, and her Senators should be careful how they taunt the sons of New England about "old and musty records and scraps of history." The muster-rolls of the Revolution contain a deep stain upon her honor, and the graves of the brave soldiers of New England upon her soil will be perpetual memorials of her backwardness in the cause of American Freedom! The name of a resident of Charleston, South Carolina, heads the alphabetical list of noted Tories in 1780, and the only "SAMUEL ADAMS" of South Carolina, that figures in the history of the Revolution, signed his name to the Tory address to Sir Henry Clinton.—Boston Transcript.

MADAME SONTAG.—We select from the New York Tribune the following sketch of the great artiste whose recent and sudden death has brought sorrow to so many hearts. It is a just tribute to the memory of Sontag, of whom the writer truthfully remarks:

Hers was an eventful existence. The cotemporary of Beethoven and Weber, admired and petted by those illustrious and now departed composers; glorified by the living Rossini; the coadjutor on the stage of Malibran and Pasta; the envied beauty of the fashionable and courtly life, to which she suddenly went from the stage; the affectionate mother of seven children, for whose sake, after a reverse of fortune, she resumed the sock and buskin, and beggared wonder by the freshness of her tones and consummate skill of her vocalization—she presents a career without parallel in the history of the stage. In some respects she was the best artist living, and had in a higher degree than any one else the pure vocal traditions of Porpora and Crescentini. As an actress, she showed herself altogether above and beyond lighter characters when she undertook severe and stately tragedy, and sustained herself triumphantly. This sudden death will be a heavy blow to her devoted husband, Count Rossi. She leaves several children, some of them quite young, and one lovely girl of about 17 years. These all remained in Europe when she came to this country. One reason of the coming hither of Madame Sontag was, that she was cut off from appearing on the stage in a large portion of Europe. Having been the wife of a diplomatist, etiquette forbade her reappearance in the opera. This extreme folly, which virtually outlaws the profession of a vocalist, was not practiced in Prussia, France or England, where her pious devotion to the interests of her children only enforced the admiration felt for her.

Sontag was born at Coblentz on the Rhine, in 1805, and after performing juvenile parts, made her first appearance in 1822 as prima donna, in Berlin, and from that time shared with Malibran the lyric throne of Europe.—In 1830 she was married to the Count Rossi, the Sardinian Ambassador, and retired to private life. After an interval of nineteen years she reappeared in London in 1849, to retrieve the fortunes of her husband, and came to this country in 1851, where she achieved the most complete success.

Marble Chimney Pieces.

THE PENRHYN MARBLE is a new and beautiful article, manufactured of Stone imported from England, which is enameled in imitation of of the richest and most expensive Spanish, Galway, Egyptian, Pyronese, Lisbon, Sienna and other rare and desirable kinds of Marble—the imitation being so perfect as to challenge detection without the closest scrutiny. In style of finish these Chimney Pieces stand unequalled, being very highly polished—retaining their beauty much longer than common marble, and are not injured by oils, smoke, coal gas or acids. They have been extensively introduced into public and private buildings, giving perfect satisfaction to those who have used them. The best of references can be given, showing their adaptedness for general use, the subscriber having furnished some of the best dwelling houses in the city with them during the last two years.

While excelling all others in beauty of finish and appearance, they are sold much cheaper than any thing of the kind in the market. The subscriber has now in Store a complete assortment of the above named desirable Goods, to which he invites the attention of all interested.

MONDAY, JULY 10, 1854.

THE SOUTH.

"In sorrowful, not in passionate emphasis, we say, that if the South insist on making the North the scene of its activity in maintaining an institution from which the conscience and the heart of the North revolt, it will compel us to ask in serious and solemn deliberation, is the Union worth preserving on that condition?" —Dr. Gannett's Sermon.

It is but the merest justice to "the South," to admit that every measure of injustice, hardship, and oppression, of which we complain, has been adopted in Congress by Northern votes. Such was the fact with regard to the Fugitive Slave Law, and still more emphatically with the Nebraska perfidy. It is to Northern doughfaces that we owe every aggression which has ever been made upon freedom or the rights and interests of the North. In addition to the delinquents from the old line of Northern and Eastern States, every new Free State that is admitted invariably sends its first two Senators and its Representatives to vote on the pro-slavery side of every question. For the truth of this, we need only refer to the votes in Congress from Indiana, Illinois, and Iowa; and these always find plenty of backers from the Middle States and New England. It does not seem very reasonable, therefore, to separate from the South, on account of grievances which that part of the country neither does nor can impose upon us without very considerable aid from the North itself. It will be quite time enough to speak of that, after the places of Northern renegades and recusants have been supplied with better men.

The above remarks come from the Salem Gazette, and suggest ideas which the reader can carry out as he pleases. They agree in the main with an oft expressed opinion of our own, that we have no quarrel or cause of quarrel with the South as a section. If we were true to freedom, slavery would have no more power over us than a bull without horns. It might bellow sometimes, but nobody need to run.

To sustain freedom, men need honesty and backbone. But if political men sell themselves, either for gold or for smiles, for good fat offices or champagne suppers, some evil thing or other will buy them, as likely slavery as any thing else.

NEW INTERPRETATION.

The Dover Gazette publishes the Nebraska Bill in full, and in a good readable type. In commenting on its provisions, it remarks:

It makes every inch of the territory covered by it FREE to begin with. The moment a slave is brought there he is a freeman—for the old French law, which would make him a slave, is abolished. The only means by which slavery can be introduced is by a vote of the people of those territories.

This would be very gratifying news if it were true. But unfortunately it is one grand error, and nothing else; for Sec. 9, of the Bill itself, in the Dover Gazette, says, among things "that in all cases involving title to slaves, the said writs of error, or appeals, shall be allowed and decided by the said supreme court, without regard to the value of the matters, property, or title in controversy.

The House have reconsidered their vote fixing on the 13th inst., as the day of adjournment, and have voted to close the session on Saturday next. (This day, July 8.) This is the third day fixed by the House for the final adjournment, but they "don't stay fixed."—We hope the Senate will concur with them in this vote, and hold them to it.—N. H. Patriot.

The Senate didn't do it; but are going on for another week.

NEW YORK, July 5.—On the Susquehanah Railroad, near Baltimore, last evening, a collision took place between the regular train from New York and a Know Nothing excursion train. Twenty-four persons were instantly killed and eighty-three seriously wounded. The Know Nothing excursion train, with about 5000 men, women and children, went out to Ryder's Grove, from Baltimore, to celebrate the day, and most of them were on their return when the accident occurred.—The disaster took place about ten miles from the city, and the passengers were obliged to walk that distance. The dead bodies were brought to the city this morning.

RAISING OF THE ERIE.—This vessel, the melancholy fate of which will be remembered by all, was raised from her watery bed on Friday afternoon last. Her hull was towed into port this morning, and taken to the dry dock for the purpose of examination. It will be a fearful sight to look into her desolate hold, which probably contains many treasures, and perhaps the remains of some of the unfortunate persons who were on board when the vessel was destroyed by fire.—Buffalo Republic of July 3.

MR. SUTTLE.—Mr. Suttle, the owner of the fugitive Burns, being annoyed by what he considers the injustice of the many complimentary resolutions which have been passed at various conventions in Virginia, complimenting among others, the mayor of Boston, for his efforts to execute the laws of the land during the recent slave excitement, has published a card in the Alexandria Gazette censuring the course of Mayor Smith, throughout the affair, and declaring that when he applied to that gentleman for protection, Mr. Smith's repeated answer was that he "had no force to spare."

According to a report made last Monday night to the Young Men's Christian Association, by a member who had canvassed the city, there are nearly thirty thousand clerks in New York, and of these it was estimated that nearly six thousand had arrived in the city during the last twelve months.

RAILROAD FRAUD.

Of all the swindles in a swindling day, that of Robert Schuyler of New York is one of the keenest.

He was President of the New York & New Haven R. R., and not only issued the proper stock certificates for $3,000,000, but also $2,000,000 on his own account. The Traveller says:

It appears that Mr. Schuyler's whole life, for many years, has been a great lie. He has risen up in the morning, gone forth into the world, and returned at night with a lie in his mouth. He has passed himself off in society as a rich bachelor, while for a series of years, it is now proclaimed, that he has had a wife and children maintained at a separate establishment in N. Y., under a feigned name; and that this state of things has existed long enough for some of his children to grow up to marriageable age. Now, without placing implicit confidence in all the details of this story if the essential facts are stated, they prove Mr. Schuyler to have been for a series of years, a man of corrupt moral principles, and utterly unworthy to be trusted.

Mr. Schuyler, it is said, has fled the State and country, and that, as his crime is only a breach of trust, he may go unreclaimed and unpunished, to enjoy the fruits of his knavery in foreign lands; while a poor knave who should steal from the person or premises of a citizen a few dollars, could be followed across the ocean, if necessary, and reclaimed and punished as a criminal.

The New York Evening Post says:

In consequence of the assignment of all his property, Mr. George Schuyler, (brother and partner of Robert, but not implicated in the fraud,) has resigned the Presidency of the Harlem Railroad Company, in consequence of which the directors of which have been called together, and are now in session at Mr. Nelson Robinson's office in Wall st. They intend, we learn, for general satisfaction, though no suspicion attaches to any misdoings in the Harlem company, in which Mr. Robert Schuyler has had no power for the past year, to make a thorough examination into its affairs, and to report the result.

One of the many incidents publicly mentioned in connection with this gigantic fraud is, that Mr. Cornelius Vanderbilt had an interview with Mr. Robert Schuyler subsequently to the announcement of his failure—offered him at once a check for $150,000 and tendered further assistance to the extent of even three millions, if necessary, and would carry the New Haven and Harlem stocks to par, if Mr. Robert Schuyler would only assure him that "all was right." To this Mr. Robert Schuyler made no other reply than shaking his head. No such assurance could be given. The enormity of this crime, committed by an old member of one of the most aristocratic families, and the grandson of Gen. Schuyler of the revolution, has produced a shock in financial circles, from which the country will not soon recover.

Gouverneur Morris has failed, in consequence of Mr. Schuyler's defalcation. He had borrowed—to accommodate Mr. S.—over $100,000, the paper for which matured and which he could not meet. He held the fraudulent stock issues as collateral. He will make an assignment and his creditors hope that his large estate will enable him to meet all his liabilities.

The Journal of Commerce says the missing funds appear to have been sunk in bona fide railroad expenses. The Vermont Road, with which he was identified, sunk about $350,000 in stock, besides a heavy depreciation in bonds. The Saratoga was also a bad speculation; and many of the Western roads have hardly been more fortunate.

BATH, ME., July 7.—A street preacher, called the Angel Gabriel, lectured here on Wednesday and Thursday Nights against Popery. On Thursday evening the crowd was large and a disturbance occurred. A crowd of men and boys proceeded to the "Old South Church," used by the Catholics as a place of worship, broke open the doors, rung the bell, and displayed the American ensign from the belfry, and afterwards set the Church on fire, which was burned to the ground. No further destruction of property took place, but a mob of 100 paraded the streets, yelling and hooting, until nearly morning. No persons were arrested.

NEW ORLEANS, July 3.—Judge Cambell, on Saturday, held Gen. Quitman, Mr. Thrasher and Dr. Saunders in bonds of $3000.—They all refused to give bonds, and were placed in the custody of the U. S. Marshal. The case will probably be carried before the State Court, on a writ of habeas corpus.—They have since given bonds.

THE BIGOT AND THE SHAKER.

BY THE LATE JAMES KENNARD, JR.

'Salvation is of us,' the bigot cried,
'Accept and live! or perish in your pride!
Salvation is of Us—We are the Church!
Seek Heaven here, or else give up the search'

'How many, Reverend Sir, are on your roll,
Of all earth's millions, spread from pole to pole?'

'Why, one in twenty thousand, less or more,
Is seeking Heaven through ours, the only door.'

'If none are saved but you, and all else damned,
Then Heaven runs no risk of being crammed;
But of those few who form your congregation,
How many souls are certain of salvation?'

'Not one in five, succeeding in his search,
Finds a new heart, repents, and—joins the church:
Which proves th' innate depravity of man
Beyond a doubt—gainsay the fact who can!'

'Art married?'

'Yes, thank God! I have a wife,
And ten dear children, blessings of my life!'

'Oh, worse than brute! slave of unhallowed lust!
Against such odds to raise up souls from dust.
Does not thy conscience smite thee, thus t' have given
Eight souls to Hell, and only two to Heaven?
If human nature be indeed so base,
Why do you thus perpetuate the race?
Either the doctrines taught by thee are evil.
Or thou art but a pander to the devil.
Oh, how can peace within thy bosom dwell,
Recruiting sergeant to the ranks of Hell!
Go then, enlarge your scheme for man's salvation,
Or else, in God's name! cease your propagation.'

Portsmouth, N. H.

LOCAL.

TOWN PUMPS.—It has always appeared to us a mistaken policy, on the part of our city government, to abolish the town pumps, as they have been gradually doing for some years past. They are of great value to the poor in their neighborhood, who cannot afford to pay aqueduct bills; and no person who has daily occasion to pass any one of them can fail to observe that they afford frequent accommodation for the refreshment of country people with their teams. On holidays, like the present, hundreds of persons are kept from the grogshop by their generous outpourings, and on those occasions, which happen in some part of the city every year, when, from any cause, the supply of aqueduct water is cut off from some neighborhood, the value of the town pump as a benefactor is sure to be acknowledged.—Salem Gazette, 4th.

Portsmouth, like Salem, has an aqueduct of good water, without any great head of water or force, to throw it up.

Both places, in our view, need the town pumps, as above suggested. The noise and slop of a pump are indeed nuisances; but yet, like the bridge nuisance, pumps do more good than hurt.

The cattle and horses from the country, the dogs, and lastly but not least, the poor people who live in a poor and dirty way, need the free city pumps. There is a good well in High street, where there is no pump, but ought to be. And the one opposite the Post Office is invaluable, especially for the Irish people in Penhallow street. This by the way, needs to be so fixed as to send the waste water down into the sink.

The pumps which formerly dispensed cooling draughts on Market Square and near the jail, ought certainly to be "restored to their places." Why don't somebody get up a petition to have our old number of pumps? Almost everybody would like it.

GENTEEL BEGGAR.—A friend who has seen him, describes the genteel beggar as a middle aged gentleman in a black coat, who goes into public offices and private dwellings, tells of his losses by banks and otherwise, and asks pecuniary relief. Sometimes he gets it by the sale of a card rack for two dollars, which may be worth two dimes, and at others by direct and importunate, not to say impertinent, beggings.

He is supposed to have gathered something like $500 in this city, and his presence begins to be so nearly allied to a bore, that some gentlemen have reported him to the city marshal, who will be likely to make him acquainted with the Police Justice, unless he should conclude to emigrate shortly.

☞ We understand that a certain Inspector of Timber has also assumed the office of Inspector of Newspapers, or Censor of the Press: that he has undertaken to dictate to men at least as intelligent as himself, what papers they had better take, and what others they had better not take; and that in one or two instances he has induced persons to give back papers they had bought, and buy others.

Now if this literary espionage is not a duty of his office, he had better mind his own business rather than burn his fingers in meddling with matters too warm to be safely handled.

He may reply, or some one might reply for him, that he has the right thus to dictate, or at all events he will do it. Very likely he will; but are any other men round him such consummate fools as to be led by his dictation, to buy what they don't want, and not to buy what they choose?

If so, they must have a much lower opinion of themselves, than we have of them. That's all.

COMPLAINT having been made to the Mayor and Aldermen that the comfort of the inmates had been disregarded in the management of the Alms-House, the Overseers of the Poor in fulfilment of their duty immediately took steps to investigate the charge. They found upon careful examination, that the statements made were not only without foundation in truth, but that every department of the institution is in the best condition, and the manner of conducting the establishment such as to reflect great credit upon Mr. Scott the Superintendent, and his lady.

Garden Engines.

JULT received at "the sign of the Big Coffee Pot" a full supply of Garden or Fire Engines, which are respectfully commended by the subscriber to the notice of the public. Wherever these Engines have been introduced they have invariably given entire satisfaction. They are unsurpassed for power, capacity or usefulness. From the size of the air chamber sufficient power is obtained to enable one man to throw a steady stream of water to the height of fifty feet perpendicularly, thereby rendering it a desirable article as a PROTECTION AGAINST FIRE,

And for washing windows of second and third stories of buildings, carriages, &c. With a newly invented water diffuser as a Garden Engine it defies competition. The diffuser is a perfect and simple article, and its superiority over the common rose sprinkler is that it will throw three times the quantity of water a much greater distance and spread it perfectly even, with less power applied. An Engine with a diffuser of this description, used in orchards and gardens to throw soap suds on the young trees, will destroy many kinds of vermin liable to injure the fruit trees in an incalculable addition to the implements of the Nurseryman and Horticulturist.

CONGRESS.

THURSDAY, July 6.

SENATE.—Mr. Gillett presented the resolution of the Legislature of Connecticut on the project of slavery, and censuring Mr. Toucey for his vote on the Nebraska bill and the repeal of the Missouri Compromise.

Mr. Toucey defended his course, and reviewed the legislation of the coalescing majority of the Connecticut Legislature on the subject of slavery, and he accepted the vote of censure as the highest compliment that could be paid him by that majority.

Mr. Gillett responded warmly and Mr. Toucey replied.

Mr. Gillett defended the Legislature, but disclaimed any desire personally to add to the present embarrassment of his colleague. The question of the violation of the Missouri compromise was the only issue in the late state election, and the people had decided by an overwhelming majority against the repeal.—The Legislature then elected, instructed the Senators to resist the violation of the compromise, but Mr. Toucey declared his determination to disobey this, and accordingly voted for its violation, thus forming a beautiful illustration of the doctrine of popular sovereignty by one of its ablest defenders. The Senator also denounced the Fugitive Slave Law in the most severe terms.

The consideration of the bill for the construction of a telegraph line from the Mississippi was resumed and amended, when it was postponed to Monday.

The vetoed Insane Land Bill was taken up, and Mr. Williams of New Hampshire spoke at length in defence of the veto. He also defended his vote on the Nebraska bill.

After some explanations between Messrs. Badger and Cass, the question was put—"shall the bill pass, the objections of the President to the contrary notwithstanding ?"—and it was decided in the negative—yeas 21, nays 26.

Nays—Messrs. Adams, Allen, Atchison, Bayard, Bright, Brodhead, Butler, Cass, Clay, Dodge of Wisconsin, Dodge of Iowa, Douglas, Evans, Fitzpatrick, Hunter, Jones of Iowa, Mason, Norris, Pettit, Rusk, Sebastian, Shields, Toucey, Weller, Williams.

The following House bills were then severally considered and passed:—An Act to provide for the building of a military road from Great Salt Lake City to the eastern boundary of California; for the construction of certain military roads and wells in New Mexico; making appropriations for continuing the construction of roads in Minnesota; and to refund private individuals the money loaned to New Mexico. Also the following Senate bills:—The bill revising for a limited time the act relating to land donations in Arkansas; authorizing the sale of certain reserved lands.

A private bill was taken up and debated, and on the question of passage no quorum voted. Adjourned.

HOUSE.—The General Appropriation bill was taken up. Most of the amendments agreed in committee were concurred in collectively, while the remainder were reserved for separate votes. The amendment appropriating $321,000 for the completion of the custom houses at St. Louis, Mobile, Cincinnati, Louisville, Bangor, Bath, Wilmington, Delaware, and for a site for one at Providence was concurred in—yeas 72; nays 70.

The House, without a division, concurred in the amendment of $530,000 for the purchase of the Assay Office Buildings, at New York, on condition that the government shall be exempted from taxation thereon. Among the amendments rejected was that appropriating $500,000 for continuing the Washington Water Works according to the President's plan—yeas 60; nays 91.

The bill appropriating $750,000 for the Capitol extension was concurred in. Adjourned.

The General Appropriation bill was rejected by a vote of 82 to 75, and pending a motion to reconsider that vote the House adjourned.

FOUR DAYS LATER EROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE BALTIC.

NEW YORK, July 8.—The Collins steamship Baltic, Capt. Comstock, from Liverpool at one o'clock on Wednesday the 28th arrived this morning.

Consols firm at 94 1-8.

Cotton at Liverpool was firm, and prices had an upward tendency.

A despatch from Vienna asserts positively that Russia has, out of high consideration for Austria, consented to evacuate the principalities, and is already withdrawing her forces beyond the Prath.

Lord John Russell officially informed Parliament that the siege of Silistria was raised.

The advance Guard of the French and English have reached Prevendi.

From the Baltic, Black Sea, or Asia, there is no news.

It is not the Russian squadron that is feared by our mercantile marine, but pirates from California sailing under Russion colors.

The Greek insurrectson was totally quelled.

Weather is very fine in France and Great Britain.

The Austrians will march into the Principalities as the Russians leave them.

The Russians have taken prisoners two newspaper correspondents on the right bank of the Danube.

ALEXANDRIA.—Great numbers of vessels keep pouring in for homeward cargoes, but they find there is little stuff for shipment.

Freights are consequently lower. Prices of wheat and beans have fallen, in consequence of advices from England.

Liverpool Market very dull; decline of 2d on wheat, 6d on Flour and Indian Corn; very little doing.

LOUISVILLE, July 7.—The distilleries of Messrs. Root & Co., and Mr. Sydner, at Carrolton, were destroyed by fire last night, together with all the contents and a large number of hogs; loss estimated at $100,000.

ALBANY, July 7.—In the gale which swept over Lake Erie, on Tuesday last, the schooner Duke of Dilington founderd, and six persons, including the captain, perished.

Sherry Wine Bitters

HAS induced several persons, who do not possess the learned medical knowledge, to assume the title of Doctor, and put before the public an article in imitation of my Medicine, which they call Sherry Wine Bitters, and attempt to palm them off under the pretence that I have retired from business, and also that they manufacture an improved article of the same name.

I would say to those in pursuit of health, to be sure that you obtain the REAL article, which may be known by the Fac Simile of my signature upon the outside wrapper, covering each bottle, and also by the copyright border of the same covering.

Sold wholesale and retail at my office, No. 51 Hanover street, Boston, and by all dealers in Medicine in every city, town and village throughout the New England States.

Water Coolers.

THE subscriber has received from Philadelphia an invoice of Water Coolers—a fine article for Summer use, suitable for private families, Hotels, Stores, &c. Please call and examine them at No. 12 Daniel street. E. A. STEVENS.

The Baltimore Patriot speaks in highly complimentary terms of the newly elected 'Know Nothing' Mayor of Norfolk. It says:

'If the invisible reformers shall continue to secure the services of men as free of all moral reproach, and as thoroughly identified with the popular interest as Mr. Stubbs, who was recently elected Mayor of Norfolk, we shall begin to believe that they belong to that useful class of fairies called Brownies, who build the fires, sweep the house, and do all the useful labors of the household whilst the family are asleep. They resemble also those mischievous spirits, who, in 'Midsummer's Night Dream,' disturb the dreams of wrong doers. In this capacity we expect that the office holders who hold by the tenure of party services, are greatly troubled with dreams of discharge and decapitation.'

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, was discovered in one of our common Pasture Weeds a remedy that cures Every Kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruption of the skin.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of crofula.

Nothing looks more improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed growing on the pastures and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system, yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has cured, there is no if's and ands, hums and ha's about its suiting some cases, but not yours. I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effects of it in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. I gave it to children a year old; to old people of sixty. I have seen poor, puny, wormy looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some have taken it who have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is bound it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings; but you must not be alarmed; they will disappear in from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it; on the contrary, when that feeling is gone, you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to.

Nothing in the annals of Patent Medicines has ever been received by the public with so much favor as this simple preparation. It is now composed of nine different herbs. In May, 1852, when I commenced making a business of it, I sold about two bottles per day. In June, 1853, I sold 432) bottles. In October, 1853, I sold 6120 bottles. I hope you will call that doing well; I do.

In my own practice, I confine it strictly to humors; but there are some who are so enthusiastic in its favor they think what cured him will cure any thing and any body; they accordingly recommend it for every variety of disease. In this way a great many virtues of it have been found that I never would suspect.

Cases of Dyspepsia, of many years standing, that withstood every known remedy, have been permanently cured.

I know one man to gain 17 lbs. by taking three bottles; another 11 lbs.; another 10 lbs.; and another 7 lbs—the venerable master Robinson of Boston.

In diseases of the Liver it is a specific. I know several with yellow skin and yellow eyes, the body emaciated and the mind melancholy, get fat and cheerful by a few bottles.

I know several cases of Dropsy, and one particularly bad. A lady, aged 79, was unable to leave her house for the last twelve years, was so much relieved (she was reduced in circumference thirty-four inches,) as to visit her friends in several neighboring towns

Another had the Dropsy in her left leg, and was unable to walk for ten years, sometimes swelling to an enormous size, at last bursted, making a bad wound which could not be healed; by taking three bottles and using two boxes of ointment, she is now quite well. Why it should make some fat and others lean, I cannot tell, but so it is.

I know of several cases of Kidney complaints cured by it. If the columns of a newspaper was a proper medium, I could tell of cases of this most distressing of all diseases that would make your heart bleed, that were permanently cured by it.

It been lately found to be a sure cure for Panama fever. In one case the first spoonful put off the fit two hours. One bottle cured him. Another came home to die, and was induced by his mother to try it. He recovered and married him.

It likewise gives great relief in the Asthma. A lady in Lawrence was unable to lie in bed for a number of years; she can now lie without the least inconvenience.

A lady in Weymouth lost the use of her left side by the Erysipelas. On the second bottle, she broke out in one mass of humor from head to foot. In a few days she was well.

It has lately been found to be equally good for humors outside as inside, (taking it inwardly in the meantime,) for Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Pimples on the Face, or any eruption of the skin whatever; only where the flesh is very sore you must dilute it with water.

When made weak enough it is the best eye-wash for weak and watery eyes that I ever saw.

Others use it to cleanse the dandruff out of the hair and strengthen its roots, which it certainly does, and to crown all, it made the hair grow on bald heads, which, if I had not seen with my own eyes, I would not believe from you or anybody else.

As regards dieting, I never came across the first person that ever got any benefit from it. On the contrary, numbers came to death's door by it, as it gives the humors the upper hand. My medicine requires the most nourishing food you can get. It will soon give you an appetite.

Do not for a moment suppose that I warrant a cure of all those diseases, in every case. I merely tell you what it has done, hoping it will do the same for you. I do not warrant a cure in any disease but humors, where it never fails. For further particulars see the circular wound each bottle.

No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you can get, and enough of it.

I have an herb, simmered in olive oil, scatters Scrofulous swellings of the neck and under the ears. Price fifty cents per box.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE. Adults, one table spoonful per day; children of eight years, dessert spoonful; from five to eight, tea spoonfuls. As no direction can be applicable to all constitutions, take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the descriptions of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others, by

W. Gibson, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University.
Valentine Mott, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, N. Y. "
W. P. Dewees, M.D., Prof. of Mid., Pa. University.
N. Chapman, M.D., Prof. of Physic, Pa. University.
T. Parke, M.D., Prest. College of Physicians, Phila.
Dr. Del Vallo, Prof. of Medicine, Havana.
Jose Eourenco de Luz, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon.
G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spaine.
J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London.
Sir Thomas Pearson, Maj. Gen. British Army.
Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and, being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass,

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork: and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geocentric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been produced for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swaim, copy right secured

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Fever and ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c., &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge. Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD SWAIM, Fourth St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA, and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase no Remedy equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT. For Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back; etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is an English Remedy, and was used by William IV. late King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure, and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocuous, to be taken internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by his Linimeut, but considers warranting it sufficient, as any person who does not obtain relief, need not pay for it.

Price 50 cents. Dr. Tobias's office, 240 Green st.

Dr. Tobias has put up a HORSE LINIMENT in pint bottles, which is warranted cheaper and better than any other for Cholic, Scratches, Old Sores, Galls, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc.

HOUSE on Christian Shore, suitable for two small families. If applied for immediately will be sold low. Apply to

April 17. E. S. WENDELL.

FOR SALE.—The two story wooden House, No. 3 Raitt's Court, containing 9 rooms, with a good dry cellar, and provided with aqueduct, &c. Has a good yard, barn and out buildings. For information apply on the premises, to apl1 JOHN M. DAVIS.

HOUSES FOR SALE.

THE DWELLING HOUSE, No. 9 School street. This is a well built house, two (high) stories, in good repair, and is convenient for one family or two families, or for a large Boarding House. It contains nine or more rooms and two sculleries, and has an excellent cellar under the whole house. The situation is central, being about equi-distant from the markets, factories and railroads. Connected with this house is a building which has been and may be occupied both as a barn and a work-shop. If not sold soon, a part or the whole of the premises will be let.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 6 Green street. This house is fitted for two tenements; it is well built, was thoroughly painted and put in good order the last season, and is well calculated for two families, (having about 6 rooms each) and may be considered a good location for persons employed at the north end. It is centrally located between the different ship-yards in that section of the city. each tenement will be sold separately, if desired.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 7 Liberty street, corner of Cushing street. This house was formerly owned and occupied by the late Peter M. Lowd and is in good order. Attached to it is a lot of land large enough for a Stable or for another dwelling house. It would make a good place for the residence of a person employed at the shipyards across the river, or at the Navy Yard.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 47 Bow street.—This house has been built but a few years, is well finished off, and is very convenient. In the rear is quite a large garden spot. This would be a desirable place for a person employed at the shipyards, or at the Navy Yard nearly opposite.

Also, for sale, a BUILDING LOT, on Mount Vernon street, (opposite No. 2,) with a small building thereon, which can be finished off into a Dwelling house.

All of the above property will be sold on liberal terms, if applied for soon. For further particulars apply to JOSEPH R. EDMONDS,

Feb. 27. No. 9 Islington street.

TO LET—The STORE on the corner of Vaughan and Dock streets. It was occupied as the first Union Store in this city, and is considered as a good stand for business. It is within a few rods of the Boston and Concord Railroad Depots. Possession can be had immediately.

FOR SALE—The HOUSE in the rear of the above, on Vaughan street—a convenient house for two families, and has been so occupied for about six years, by the same tenants. It rents for $160. For information, terms, &c., call on JOSEPH L. LOCKE, on the premises, or JOSEPH M. EDMONDS, 9 Islington st. m29

HUMOR DISCOVERY,

AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

DR. ORDWAY has been using his Blood Purifier in his practice for the last seven years with great success. He has often been urged by his friends and those who have tried it, and know its efficacy, to put it within the reach of all. He has now added to it an Herb, discovered in California, by Dr. KELLEY, which makes it the most wonderful remedy for

HUMORS OF ALL KINDS,

LIVER COMPLAINTS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

The virtues of this Herb were first made known to Dr. Kelley by an Indian, while attending a patient, sick with that terrible disease, the California Erysipelas and Liver Complaint—the effect was miraculous—curing the man in a few days. The native, when bitten by a rattles ake, or rabid animal, resort to this Herb for a cure.—Hundreds are taking this medicine, after trying in vain other remedies, and say that the half was never told them.

If you have Erysipelas, 3 to 5 bottles will cure it.
If you have Scrofula, 3 to 7 bottles will cure it.
Three to six bottles will cure Salt Rheum.
One or two bottles will cure Pimples on the Face.
Two or three bottles will cure Scaly Eruptions and Scald Head.
One to three bottles will cure Nursing Sore Mouth
One to three bottles will cleanse the system of Biles.
Two to five bottles will cure Rheumatism.
Three to four bottles will cure old running Sores and Ulcers.
One or two bottles will cure Barber's Itch.
One to three bottles will cure Canker in the mouth and bowels.

For Liver Complaints and Jaundice.

Its effects are new and wonderful, removing obstructions from the Liver, open the pores of the skin, carrying off the morbid matter, relieving the side, and all-gone feelings of the stomach; and removing low spirits and despondency, which is the result of this disagreeable and often fatal disease.

FOR DYSPEPSIA.

A fair trial will convince you that there is nothing like it.

FOR CANCEROUS HUMORS.

It is the surest remedy ever offered. One widow lady in Lawrence, has been troubled with Cancer for years, by taking two bottles says she is now quite well.

FOR COSTIVENESS.

One gentleman says that it was the only medicine that cured him.

FOR KIDNEY DIFFICULTIES,

It is spoken of in the highest terms. A young man was sick so much with Asthma that he had to leave College; three bottles cured him, and he has now resumed his studies. One lady in Salem was perfectly cured of Periodical Sick Headache, by the use of two bottles. Mr. Williams, of Lawrence, had humors in his eyes for years, and was cured by the use of the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier. For Chills and Fever, Mercurial Diseases, Taints in the System, it stands unrivalled; sometimes where the system is much deranged it will cause disagreeable feelings at first, but continue its use as indications favorable. It is purely vegetable, and its compound and proportions are such that the effect is perfectly satisfactory and safe.

FULL DIRECTIONS ON THE BOTTLE.

☞ Price $1.00. ☜

HE HAS ALSO A HUMOR SALVE,

Unsurpassed for external humors, which, if used in connection with the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier will much facilitate a cure.

PRICE 25 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Cough Destroyer.

This invaluable Cough Remedy is for the complete cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Influenza, Whooping Cough, pains in the side and breast, hacking or tickling at the throat, spitting blood, tightness across the lungs and chest, and all Lung Complaints leading to Consumption.

No medicine yet discovered has that decided effect in curing Bronchial affections as the Cough Destroyer. It can be taken by all ages and classes, from a child six months old to the oldest man or woman, with the most happy results.

PRICE 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Pain Destroyer.

This preparation is composed of a great variety of Extracts, Gums, Essential Oils, most of which have not heretofore been united and compounded into their present form. It will cure attacks of Cramps of the Stomach, Spasms, Convulsions, Faintings, Pain in the Stomach, Bowels, Side, Back, Limbs, and a great variety of other difficulties. It is also invaluable as an external remedy. It will be found to contain nearly double the strength of any similar article, and possesses properties heretofore unknown. No family should be without it for a single day.

PRICE 25, 37½ AND 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Full directions for using the above medicines, on the Bottles. Orders should be accompanied with full directions how it should be sent.

Marble Chimney Pieces.

THE PENRHYN MARBLE is a new and beautiful article, manufactured of Stone imported from England, which is enameled in imitation of of the richest and most expensive Spanish, Galway, Egyptian, Pyronese, Lisbon, Sienna and other rare and desirable kinds of Marble—the imitation being so perfect as to challenge detection without the closest scrutiny. In style of finish these Chimney Pieces stand unequalled, being very highly polished—retaining their beauty much longer than common marble, and are not injured by oils, smoke, coal gas or acids. They have been extensively introduced into public and private buildings, giving perfect satisfaction to those who have used them. The best of references can be given, showing their adaptedness for general use, the subscriber having furnished some of the best dwelling houses in the city with them during the last two years.

While excelling all others in beauty of finish and appearance, they are sold much cheaper than any thing of the kind in the market. The subscriber has now in Store a complete assortment of the above named desirable Goods, to which he invites the attention of all interested.

POSTAGE BILL.

It is only justice to say of the New Postage Bill, that most of its provisions are excellent. This remark is especially true of the prepayment of all postage; by which the meanest letters of the meanest men will be kept out of the mails, and by which the revenue of the post office will be considerably increased.

The payment by stamps, is also a good feature, and will make no trouble for the public. A writer can give his three cents to the post master, and he can put on the stamp.

We think the California postage is rather too high for the public,—and that it will probably diminish the mail; but aside from this, the bill appears to be liberal and practicable in its provisions.

The Boston Herald of Monday, states the minimum postage at five cents,—but we believe it must be an error.

MR. SUMNER.—The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun writes:

The expulsion of Mr. Charles Sumner from the United States Senate was not for a single moment seriously contemplated. Mr. Gillett, the new Senator from Connecticut, in speaking on the resolution of censure passed by the Legislature of his State on Senator Toucey, was quite as severe as Mr. Sumner, so that if any expulsion takes place it must be done in couples.

It would have to be done in dozens. Expel members indeed! Cast out the sober men and keep in the drunkards? Cast out the friends of liberty and those who claim the right of private judgment, and keep in the subservient, time-serving and cowardly?—That day has not come yet. Very truly may it be said that no serious or sober intention of expelling Mr. Sumner has existed in the Senate. Madmen, whether maddened by drink passion, might so intend, but the Senators generally are not ripe for suicide.

ROGUES CAUGHT.—One Chas. A. Peverelly, a cotton broker in New York, has been arrested for stealing cotton from some of his customers, and getting ready to set fire to the rest, in order to conceal the fraud. He was discovered in his own store, by a private watchman of another store.

Peverelly, and a brother who seems to be his clerk, had cotton all about the floor, saturated with spirits turpentine, pine wood laid on the cotton, chinks and holes about front door caulked with cotton, &c. The watchman thought, on seeing them in the store, busy, at 1 o'clock in the morning, they were robbers, and getting some city watchmen to help, made entry, and found the rogues.

They are considerably worse than common thieves, who steal sheep and horses.

UNITED STATES MAGAZINE.—This is the title of a new Monthly, published in New York by A. Jones & Co., at No. 1 Spruce st., for $1 per year. It is in quarto form, with pages about double the size of magazines generally. It is devoted to science, art, manufactures, Agriculture, commerce and trade; and the contents of No. 2, published June 15, we find to be interesting and valuable. The engravings are spirited and the whole well printed. In the flood of all sorts of magazines, we set this down as one of the good ones.

FOWLER & WELLS' MAGAZINES.—The Phrenological and Water-Cure Journals commence new volumes with July. They are published monthly, on nice paper and clear type, for $1 a year each—and are well worth having in any family. Besides treating ably and thoroughly of the important subjects to which they are especially devoted, articles of general interest will always be found in their columns. Mr. Morse will furnish them.

NEW YORK MUSICAL REVIEW.—The No. for July 6 is a good one. The Review is always readable, and richly worth the one dollar a year charged for it. With the present issue comes a supplement, containing, among other good things, a lecture by Oliver Dyer, on teaching and learning music.

RIOT IN LAWRENCE.—A serious outbreak occurred in Lawrence on Saturday afternoon. An American flag was raised from the roof of an Irish house in Oak street, union down, upon the top of which was a cross. This insult raised the ire of the Americans, who collected together immediately and pulled down the flag and cross, upon which it was immediately raised as before, and again torn down by the excited mob, who raised it themselves the third time with the union up. The Americans paraded the streets till nearly midnight, hooting and shouting, but no collision happened between the parties. A party of Americans returning to their homes through Common street were assailed by the Irish residing in an old house known in the town as the "Bangor House." Several guns and pistols were discharged from the house, which was afterwards demolished by the Americans. Other buildings adjoining the latter house were more or less injured by missiles thrown from the street.

The city was in a state of great excitement during Saturday night and Sunday, and as there is a feeling of deep and bitter hostility between the belligerents it is feared that more serious disturbances will take place.—Jour.

SECOND ADVENT MEETINGS.

Seeing in your paper a notice that a series of "Second Advent meetings" was now in progress in this city, I stepped in on the afternoon of last Friday for an hour, and listened to a man who was "proving," very much, apparently, to his own satisfaction, that this year 1854 is to wind up the history of this world. The portion of scripture which he was shedding light upon, or drawing light from, was the parable of the ten virgins. It is not my purpose to follow the speaker through his remarkable exposition of this portion of the word of God. The argument was this:—The virgins in the parable had been disappointed once in expecting the bridegroom too soon, and had, under their disappointment, fallen asleep, and slept till the midnight cry aroused them, when they went forth and actually met the bridegroom. Now what could be clearer, more in exact accordance with facts as they are now developing? Did not the "virgins" expect the Lord in 1843? Certainly. Did he come? No. Were they not disappointed? Surely they were. Did they not fall asleep? They did. Is there not another "cry" now? There is. Must this not be the last one? It must. What can be more conclusive than this, that the Lord will make his second advent in this year, 1854!

But the speaker made one statement that surprised me not a little. He said he considered the first cry ended in 1847. The Lord was looked for from '43 to '47—but after the last named period, the expectation was abandoned. Now, said he, since 1847, the work of foreign missions in all lands and by all denominations, has been rapidly declining, going down. In Burmah and other lands in the East, missionary schools have been broken up, stations deserted, and the whole work is nearly abandoned. Previously to '47, missions had been prosperous. They had gone constantly up, up—but since then, all over the world, they had gone more rapidly down.

Now what are the facts? The American Baptist Missions commenced about 1812, and have consequently been in operation about 42 years, or six septennial periods. Of these periods, the last, or that beginning with '47 and closing with '54, has been by far more prosperous than any preceding one. During no seven years has the work been prosecuted more vigorously or with more encouraging results. In the year '47 the receipts of the Society were $85,009,24. In '53 the receipts were $121,377,42. In '48 the missionary stations under the care and support of the Society were 52. In '53 there were 86. At the former period the schools were 44, with 1472 pupils—at the latter period the schools were 88, pupils, 1992. In '48 there were 689 baptized, and in '53 there were 1820 baptized.

Now with these facts, accessible to any one, who would look for them, the speaker made in the most confident manner the statements I have referred to. Is there not enough here to throw discredit over whatever such a man may say? Most sincerely do I regret the results of the previous second advent excitement, and most certainly do I deprecate a repetition of them. But few of those who listen to these speakers have the means of verifying their statements, and they rely implicitly upon them. If this exposure of the error in one confident assertion shall lead those who daily listen to just such wild assertions, to be cautious how they rely upon them, it will have answered its design. W.

ORGANS AND ORGANISTS.

Messrs. Editors:—As you have in your paper of the 4th inst. noticed the new organ set up in the M. E. Church in your city, and with the desire to encourage the use of this valuable instrument in all our churches, allow me to give a hasty description from memory of the new organ just finished and set up by the Messrs. Hooks of Boston, in the 2d Congregational Church in Exeter, which I had the pleasure of hearing last Sabbath. It is a very fine instrument, and cost $1200. It varies from the one you lately described, having two banks of keys and a swell organ, and sub-bass running only to C, but having its power in the sub-bass by the use of the foot pedals, both of which are now considered necessary for a perfect organ. This I consider a very great improvement. Will Messrs. B. & C. give a moment's attention to this, as they have built several fine instruments, with the reputation of doing their work in a faithful manner, and need only to keep up with the times. The cost between a set of keys from G in bass, or from C in bass with sub-bass can be but little, and gives great power and sublimity to the organ.

The lady of the editorial chair of the Exeter News Letter, as organist, performed the psalmody in a neat, organ style, but in the voluntaries there was want of both theme and modulation. Very respectable organists often fail in the voluntary. It requires a taste for and knowledge of modulation, without which the voluntary is tame, and in time tires.—However, we had an opportunity to hear the power and majesty of this instrument by the varied performance of some of the grand choruses of the old masters, rendered by quite a young Miss of your city, with ability and correctness. Her performance both surprised and delighted all those who arrived before the P. M. services; and not a few expressed regret that they could not have had an opportunity of hearing their new organ and witnessing its capability in some of the sublime voluntaries for the organ, adapted for the different combinations of this truly sublime instrument. Few, especially ladies, can use the large and swell organ and pedals, but this child rendered each of several elaborate compositions as if it were the handy work of every day. I should do injustice not to add that the musical exercises under the direction of Mr. Hill reflect credit upon all who took part in the musical exercises. P.

LAUNCH.—Will be launched this day about 1 P. M., from the yard of Messrs. Tobey & Littlefield, a fine freighting ship, called the Moultrie. The is owned by R. H. Tucker & Son., P. Lennox, and D. Stone, of Wiscasset, Me., and Capt. Geo. W. Chapman, late of the Samoset. The Moultrie is 168 feet long, 33 feet beam, and 22 feet 9 inches depth of hold, and measures 820 tons. She is intended for the Charleston, S. C., trade.

CHILDREN'S JUBILEE.—The Newburyport Herald says that the Juvenile Singing Class of three hundred pupils, under the instruction of Mr. Henry S. Thompson of that city, celebrated the closing of Independence week, by a gathering on Saturday. A procession was formed towards the close of the afternoon—the scholars dressed in white, with wreaths of flowers on their heads, making a beautiful appearance. They passed through several streets, escorted by the Newburyport Brass Band; after which they repaired to "Thompson's Hall," listened to an address by Rev. Mr. Reed, and partook of a bountiful collation provided by the teacher. Nobody does up things of this kind better than Thompson.

MACKEREL.—Piscataqua river was full of these beautiful fish on Monday, and numberless lines were thrown to them throughout the day, from boats, wharves, bridges, &c., with good success generally.

☞ The most refreshing operation we have experienced for a long time was a champooing, in the most approved barberous manner, by Sol Holmes, on one of the hot days of last week. Sol has recently painted and refitted his shop, and is always ready to champoo, cut hair or shave any or all who may desire to be so treated, in an artistic style.

2 WEEKS LATER FROM CALIFORNIA.

ARRIVAL OF THE GEO. LAW.

NEW YORK, July 10.—The steamer Geo. Law with the mails and $1,150,000 specie from California, arrived at an early hour this morning. She also brings upwards of 400 passengers.

Capt. Adams brings the Japan treaty which secures to Americans the privilege of a residence at two ports.

Serious disturbances have taken place in San Francisco growing out of recent decisions adverse to squatter rights.

The markets at San Francisco were dull and without meterial change.

Dates from Sandwich Islands are up to the 23d of May, and from Oregon, 10th June. The election in Oregon is adverse to the Whigs, and also adverse to a State government.

The harvest has commenced and the yield is unusually abundant.

THE SUSQUEHANNA RAILROAD MURDER.—The Coroner's jury on the bodies of the persons killed on the Susquehanna Railroad, report that the deceased came to their deaths from the carelessness of Mr. Scott, the conductor of the accommodation train; and they also censure the officers of the company, and commend the road to the attention of the Grand Jury of the county.

BALTIMORE, July 9th.—New Orleans papers are received. The Grand Jury of the U. S. Court in New Orleans, says, in relation to the fillibusters, although they strongly incline to the opinion that meetings were held and collections made, having for the end an organized expedition, either for the purpose of assisting in a Cuban revolution, or making a demonstration upon the island, yet the plan seems altogether in prospective, and aware as we are that a great deal has been said about expensive and formidable preparations being on foot for the purpose of revolutionizing Cuba, we believe such to have been very much overrated and magnified, and nothing like a military organization.

NEW YORK, July 10th.—THE WALKER DIVORCE CASE.—The jury in the Walker divorce case could not agree, and were discharged by the Court. Eleven of the jurors were in favor of a verdict for Mrs. Walker, and they have signed a card stating their belief that Mrs. Walker is a high-minded, virtuous woman, and that they deeply sympathize with her that the deep set opposition of one of the jurors should deprive her of her just and lawful rights.

ALBANY, July 8.—A fire occurred at Cohoes this morning, by which Strong's mill was nearly consumed. After the fire the south wall fell in; several persons were caught in the falling mass. The body of a boy was found in the ruins. It is supposed there were other lives lost; several escaped more or less injured. Two deaths by cholera occured here to-day.

BUFFALO, July 7.—A despatch from St. Catharine this morning states that the night express train on the Great Western Railroad, which left the suspension bridge last night, run over a horse, whereby the two emigrant cars were thrown off the track, killing seven passengers and severely wounding ten others, some of whom will not recover. None of the passengers in the first class cars were severely injured, and all the employees escaped unhurt.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—The Union has a semi-official article to-day, declaring that Cuba must belong to the United States. It also intimates that the administration is now carrying on negotiations for the purchase of the Island. If they are unsuccessful war must be resorted to.

The merchants of Alexandria, Va., have entered into an agreement by which Indian corn will be sold by weight in that place after the 1st of July. The bushel will be estimated at 56 lbs.

Dr. Gibbs, who was lately rejected as Professor of Chemistry in Columbia College, in consequence of his being a Unitarian, has been elected to the Chair of Chemistry in Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio.

A despatch from Louisville states that for the week ending the 3d inst., there was the unusually large number of 470 burials at St. Louis.

CONGRESS.

FRIDAY, June 6.

SENATE.—In the Senate, Mr. Allen presented the resolution of the Legislature of Rhode Island against the Nebraska bill, against the fugitive slave law, and against the acquisition of new territory.

The bill making appropriations for the construction of military roads in Washington and Nebraska territories was reported and passed.

Mr. Mallory of Florida offered a resolution calling for information respecting the construction of the canal across the peninsula of Florida, and the removal of the bar at St. John River in that state. Adopted.

The private calendar was taken up. The bill for the relief of the heirs of Brigadier General Thompson of the revolution was passed, yeas 22, nays 12.

The Senate passed twenty Senate bills and six House bills, and postponed all others on the calender.

Mr. Stuart moved to reconsider the vote by which the Senate adopted the report of the Committee fixing the 4th of August for adjournment.

The Chair (Mr. Badger of North Carolina) decided that the motion was out of order—the rule requiring motions to reconsider to be made on the day the vote was taken or within the next two succeeding days of actual session.

Mr. Stuart appealed, but afterwards withdrew the appeal. The Senate then adjourned to Monday.

HOUSE.—In the House, the Speaker stated that the first business in order was the motion to reconsider the vote by which the House yesterday rejected the General Appropriation bill.

Mr. Orr of South Carolina said the action of the House, in rejecting the bill, did not excite any great surprise in his mind. He had no doubt it was produced by the incorporation in the bill of $500,000 or $600,000 for certain Custom Houses; he was opposed to that, but voted for the bill, owing to pressing public necessities. After consultation he proposed that the House shall reconsider the vote rejecting the bill, and that some member who voted for the Custom House Appropriation bill shall move to reconsider the vote on it, with the view that it may be stricken out; the bill could then be passed.

All civil and diplomatic officers of the government are dependant for their salaries on the bill.

Mr. Preston of Kentucky was frank to say that the friends of the Custom House would veto the first reconsideration, but they wanted the bill to pass as it now was. The appropriation for Custom Houses was recommended by government and endorsed by both Houses.

The house reconsidered the vote rejecting the bill, and then ordered it to a third reading, by 85 against 69.

The vote adopting the Custom House amendment was reconsidered by 84 against 69, and the question recurred on agreeing to the amendment making the appropriation $321,000 for the completion of Custom Houses.

After some debate Mr. Preston of Kentucky moved the previous question, under the operation of which the Custom House amendment was again agreed to by three majority, and the bill passed by 92 against 67. Adjourned.

SATURDAY, July 8.

HOUSE.—In the House to-day, the bill authorizing the Commissioner of Patents to grant an extension patent to Samuel Colt, for seven years, from the 25th of February next, for an improvement in his fire-arms, was taken up.

Mr. Clingman of North Carolina said before the vote was taken on the bill, there should be a call of the House, from the extraordinary means resorted to. He had no doubt very large sums of money had been offered to gentlemen to induce them either to vote for the bill or absent themselves. He had no reason to suppose that any gentleman would be influenced by such considerations. The remarks of Mr. Clingman led to a discussion, in which a large number of members participated. The committee finally rose without concluding the subject, when

Mr. Letcher of Virginia asked leave to offer the following resolution:—That a committee of several members be appointed to inquire whether money has been offered to members, or illegal means used to induce members to aid in securing the passage of the bill to extend Colt's patent for seven years; also, whether money had been offered to members, or other illegal means used, directly or indirectly, to secure the passage of any bill in Congress; and the said committee shall have power to send for any persons and papers, with authority to examine witnesses under oath.

Mr. Walsh of New York objected on the ground that it would end in smoke; if he were certain anything could come of the resolution, he would withdraw his objection, which he did on the assurance of Mr. Letcher that the matter should be probed.

Mr. Seward of Georgia—Let the gentleman make up resolutions applicable to both sides—the aiders as well as the defeaters of bills through Congress—I will make it as broad as the gentleman wishes.

The amendment was made as suggested.

Mr. Seward moved the postponement of the resolution to Thursday next.

LOUISVILLE, July 6.—The large warehouse on Main street, between Fourth and Fifth streets, occupied by Lewis & Wilkes, China dealers; Benedict & Kennedy, and Litcher, Loweathal & Co., dry goods dealers, were destroyed by fire on Tuesday last. The total loss is about $126,000, and is principally covered by insurance in Eastern offices.

BALTIMORE, July 7.—Up to the present time there have been 32 deaths from the late disaster on the Susquehanna Railroad, and three or four persons are in a doubtful condition. A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Mr. Park Winchester, the Superintendent of the road.

FAILURES.—New York, July 8.—Blatchford and Rainsford, brokers, of Harlem Company, and Barrows & Son, failed to-day. It is reported that Delawny, Iselin & Clark, one of the heaviest banking houses in Wall street, suspended payments to-day for a very heavy amount.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS!!
THE CELEBRITY OF
DR. S. O. RICHARDSON'S
Sherry Wine Bitters
HAS induced several persons, who do not possess the least medical knowledge, to assume the title of Doctor, and put before the public an article in imitation of my Medicine, which they call Sherry Wine Bitters, and attempt to palm them off under the pretence that I have retired from business, and also that they manufacture an improved article of the same name.
I would say to those in pursuit of health, to be sure that you obtain the REAL article, which may be known by the FAC SIMILE of my signature upon the outside wrapper, covering each bottle, and also by the copyright border of the same covering.
Sold wholesale and retail at my office, No. 51 Hanover street, Boston, and by all dealers in Medicine in every city, town and village throughout the New England States.

MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT—
Every land has failed with
Xtacy this preparation whose
Intrinsic merits has introduced its
Curative powers to the notice of the whole
American people. Rheumatism of long duration,
Neuralgia, with its tortures, have yielded to its
Magical influence; cancers, contorted joints,
Ulcerated and swollen limbs that have
Suffered for years under the weight of disease,
Turn by its application to suppleness and health.
A remedy of such general usefulness that can
Restore newness of Action to the diseased nerves,
Arteries and glands of the human body,
Is worthy of high praise.
Let the rheumatic, halt, lame and palsied
Invalid examine its qualities, and they will
Not be disappointed. Years of study and
Investigation have enabled the proprietors of the
Mexican Mustang Liniment to furnish a remedy,
Extraordinary in its power over diseases,
No matter of how long standing—sold at
The agents in all parts of the Union,

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common Pasture Weeds a remedy that cures Every Kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst cases of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruption of the skin.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of crofula.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed growing on the pastures and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system, yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start. There is no fib and ands, hums and ha's about its suiting some cases, but not yours. I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effect of it in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. I gave it to children a year old; to old people of sixty. I have seen poor, puny, wormy looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some have taken it who have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is sound it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings; but you must not be alarmed; they will disappear in from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from its use; on the contrary, when that feeling is gone, you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to.

Nothing in the annals of Patent Medicines has ever been received by the public with so much favor as this simple preparation. It is now composed of nine different herbs. In May, 1852, when I commenced making a business of it, I sold about two bottles per day. In June, 1853, I sold 4320 bottles. In October, 1853, I sold 6120 bottles. I hope you will call that doing well; I do.

In my own practice, I confine it strictly to humors; but there are some who are so enthusiastic in its favor they think what cured them will cure any thing and any body; they accordingly recommend it for every variety of disease. In this way a great many virtues of it have been found that I never would suspect.

Cases of Dyspepsia, of many years standing, that withstood every known remedy, have been permanently cured.

I know one man to gain 17 lbs. by taking three bottles; another 11 lbs.; another 16 lbs.; and another 7 lbs.—the venerable master Robinson of Boston.

In diseases of the Liver it is a specific. I know several with yellow skin and yellow eyes, the body emaciated and the mind melancholy, get fat and cheerful by a few bottles.

I know several cases of Dropsy, and one particularly bad. A lady, aged 79, was unable to leave her house for the last twelve years, was so much relieved (she was reduced in her measurement thirty-four inches,) as to visit her friends in several neighboring towns

Another had the Dropsy in her left leg, and was unable to walk for ten years, sometimes swelling to an enormous size; at last it ulcerated, making a bad wound which could not be healed; by taking three bottles and using two boxes of ointment, she is now quite well. Why it should make some fat and others lean, I cannot tell, but so it is.

I know of several cases of Kidney complaints cured by it. If the columns of a newspaper was a proper medium, I could tell of cases of this most distressing of all diseases that would make your heart bleed, that were permanently cured by it.

It has been lately found to be a sure cure for Panama fever. In one case the first spoonful put off the fit two hours. One bottle cured him. Another came home to die, and was induced by his brother to try it. They took two bottles and recovered.

It likewise gives great relief in the Asthma. A lady in Lawrence was unable to lie in bed for a number of years; she can now lie without the least uneasiness.

A lady in Weymouth lost the use of her left side by the Erysipelas. On the second bottle, she broke out in one mass of humor from head to foot. In a few days she was well.

It has lately been found to be equally good for humor outside as inside, (taking it inwardly in the meantime,) for Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Pimples on the Face, or any eruption of the skin whatever; only where the flesh is very sore you must dilute it with water.

When made weak enough it is the best eye-wash for weak and watery eyes that I ever saw.

Others use it to cease the dandruff out of the hair and strengthen its roots, which it certainly does, and to crown all, it has made the hair grow on bald heads, which, if I had not seen with my own eyes, I would not believe from you or anybody else.

As regards dieting, I never came across the first person that ever got any benefit from it. On the contrary, numbers came to death's door by it, as it gives the humors the upper hand. My medicine requires the most nourishing food you can get. It will soon give you an appetite.

Do not for a moment suppose that I warrant a cure of all those diseases, in every case. I merely tell you what it has done, hoping it will do the same for you. I do not warrant a cure in any disease but humors, where it never fails. For further particulars see the circular around each bottle.

No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you can get, and enough of it.

I have an herb simmered in olive oil, scatters Scrofulous swellings of the neck and under the ears. Price fifty cents per box.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE. Adults, one table spoonful per day; children of eight years, dessert spoonful; from eight to one, teaspoonful. As no direction can be applicable to all constitutions, take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

FOR THE CURE OF
INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,
Scrofula, General Debility, White Swellings, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the descriptions of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others, by
W. Gibson, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University.
Valentine Mott, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, N. York.
W. P. Dewees, M.D., Prof. of Mid., Pa. University.
N. Chapman, M.D., Prof. of Physic, Pa. University.
I. Parke, M.D., Pres't College of Physicians, Phila.
J. Del Vallo, Prof. of Medicine, Havana.
Jose Eourenco de Lus, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon.
G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spaine.
J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London.
Sir Thomas Pearson, Maj. Gen. British Army.
Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and, being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant.

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:—

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA."

and having the name Jas. Swaim stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork: and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geocentric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swain, copy right secured

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c., &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge. Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA, and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase no Remedy equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is an English Remedy, and was used by William IV. late King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure, and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by his Liniment, but considers warranting it sufficient, as the person who does not obtain relief, need not pay for it.

Price 50 cents. Dr. Tobias's Office, 240 Green

Dr. Tobias has put up a HORSE LINIMENT in pint bottles, which he warrants cheaper and better than any other for Cholic, Scratches, Old Sores, Galls, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc. which street, New York.

HOUSE on Christian Shore, suitable for two small families. If applied for immediately will be sold low. Apply to April 17. E. S. WENDELL.

HOUSES FOR SALE.

THE DWELLING HOUSE, No. 9 School street. This is a well built house, two (high) stories, in good repair, and is convenient for one family or two families, or for a large Boarding House. It contains nine or more rooms and two sculleries, and has an excellent cellar under the whole house. The situation is central, being about equi-distant from the markets, factories and railroads. Connected with this house is a building which has been and may be occupied both as a barn and a work-shop. If not sold soon, a part or the whole of the premises will be let.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 6 Green street. This house is fitted for two tenements; it is well built, was thoroughly painted and put in good order the last season, and is well calculated for two families, (having about 6 rooms each) and may be considered a good location for persons employed at the north end. It is centrally located between the different ship-yards in that section of the city; each tenement will be sold separately, if desired.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 7 Liberty street, corner of Charles street. This house was formerly owned and occupied by the late Peter M. Lowd and is in good order. Attached to it is a lot of land large enough for a Stable or for another dwelling house. It would make a good place for the residence of a person employed at the shipyards across the river, or at the Navy Yard.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 47 Bow street.—This house has been built but a few years, is well finished off, and is very convenient. In the rear is quite a large garden spot. This would be a desirable place for a person employed at the shipyards, or at the Navy Yard nearly opposite.

Also, for sale, a BUILDING LOT, on Mount Vernon street, (opposite No. 2,) with a small building thereon, which can be finished off into a Dwelling house.

All of the above property will be sold on liberal terms, if applied for soon. For further particulars apply to JOSEPH M. EDMONDS,
Feb. 27 No. 9 Islington street.

TO LET—The STORE on the corner of Vaughan and Deer streets. It was occupied as the first Union Store in this city, and is considered as a good stand for business. It is within a few rods of the Boston and Concord Railroad Depots. Possession can be had immediately.

FOR SALE—The HOUSE in the rear of the above, on Vaughan street—a convenient house for two families, and has been so occupied for about six years, by the same tenants. It rents for $160. For information, terms, &c., call on JOSEPH L. LOCKE, on the premises, or JOSEPH M. EDMONDS, 9 Islington st. m29

BY MILLERS & GRAY. PORTSMOUTH, N. H., WEDNESDAY, JULY 12, 1854. VOLUME 4. NO. 137.

THE DAILY MORNING CHRONICLE

is published by FRANK W. MILLER, SAMUEL GRAY, & THOS. W. MILLER, At No. 4 Exchange Buildings, Pleasant Street, ... PORTSMOUTH, N. H.

TERMS $4 a year, or $3 if paid strictly in advance.

The Weekly Chronicle,

A family newspaper, containing the news of the week, with carefully selected miscellany, &c., is published every Saturday morning—at $1 a year in advance.

ADVERTISING.—For a Square of sixteen lines nonpareil, or less, one insertion 50 cts., three insertions $1, and liberal terms for continuance.

Yearly, quarterly or monthly advertisers liberally accommodated—and their advertisements inserted in both papers without extra charge, thus affording unequalled facilities to business men.

☞ All accounts settled semi-annually.

JOB AND CARD PRINTING promptly executed.

V. B. Palmer, American Newspaper Agent, is the only authorized agent for this paper in the cities of Boston, New York and Philadelphia, and is duly empowered to take advertisements and subscriptions at the same rates as required by us. His receipts will be regarded as payments.

A CASE OF SCARE.—The Cleaveland Herald tells the following good story about one of those troublesome little imps of brightness that scatter sunshine and music through many a household. It will do to localize almost anywhere:

A friend of ours has an equal, undivided interest in a charming piece of personal property, a bright-eyed, intelligent little girl of five summers' experience, who rejoices in the name of Alice. In the family is a servant girl whose horror is rats, and who, chancing on one of the long tailed animals in the cellar, makes a most un-Chinese stampede, shouting "rats!" Alice sleeps in a crib so low that placing one foot on the inside of it, she can easily spring in. A few evenings since, her mother was attending her to bed, when she said:

"Mamma, do you know how I get to bed quick?"

"No," was the reply.

"Well," said Alice in great glee, "I step one foot over the crib, and then I say rats, and scare myself right in!"

If any "five years olds" can beat that, trot 'em out.

A RARE GENIUS.—A friend tells us a story of a young man, who, year before last, completed a thorough course of study in medicine, at Worcester. Since then he has been through an academical course and graduated; but in one of his fits of confidence he acknowledged to our friend,—"I'll tell you how it is; I don't think I'm posted up in grammar and rithmetic. I was so old that I was ashamed to study it last term, and as I am going to Harvard soon, I think I shall go to some out back place this summer, and post up a little in the common branches, so that I can make a decent appearance." This young man is from a wealthy family in Worcester, and has already started for that out back place, to "post up," and the Harvard boys will soon have him among them.—Charlestown Adv.

EXTRAORDINARY COUNTERFEIT COIN.—We understand that under instructions of the Secretary of the Treasury, given some months since, to the mint of the United States, to collect specimens of counterfeit coins in circulation, for the purpose of examination and report, one has lately been received of a very singular character. It purports to be a Mexican dollar, coined at the city of Mexico in 1851. Two pieces have been assayed, and give an average fineness of 776 thousandths, and a consequent value of 91 1-4 cents in silver; but, strange to say, the amount of gold contained in them is sufficient to add 12 cents to the value of each, after paying the charge of separating, making a net value of 103 1-4 cents; and it to this the usual premium of silver is added, the worth of this counterfeit is actually 109 cents!—Washington Union.

MORE SCHUYLERIZING.—Charles T. Shelton, President of the Empire Stone Dressing Company, is non est inventus. He has left for parts unknown—gone into the country for his health. An over issue of stock, to the amount of $100,000 has been discovered. Paper to the amount of $50,000 was protested yesterday. The liabilities of the Company amount to $95,000. This has been known as 'crack' stock in the market—having sold as high as 130, and having paid 20 to 30 per cent. dividends for the past two or three years.—N. Y. Mirror.

Senator Douglas, in his Fourth of July address at Philadelphia, made an attack upon the "Know Nothings," by saying "there was a secret organization, and he rejoiced that they called themselves Know Nothings, for they know not what they do; they know not the obligation they owe to the Constitution, to the laws, or to their fellow men." Many of the Americans were much dissatisfied.—Mr. D. attempted an explanation, but could not engage the attention of his audience.

ARREST OF A STUDENT.—There remains not the least shadow of doubt but that the recent burning of the Seminary at Richmondville, Schoharie county, was the work of a rathless incendiary. We are informed that one of the male students who has been attending the studies in the Seminary, and who resides in New York city, was arrested last Friday evening, charged with having set fire to the building.—Albany Register.

MR. PETIT AND OLD BULLION.—Col. Benton, in a published letter to Mr. Howe of Indiana, stigmatizes an assertion of Senator Petit, of that State, in terms more plain than elegant, more forcible than refined. He says, "Sir, your Senator is a great liar and a dirty dog, falsifying public history for a criminal purpose."

Garden Engines.

JULT received at "the sign of the Big Coffee Pot" a full supply of Garden or Fire Engines, which are respectfully commended by the subscriber to the notice of the public. Wherever these Engines have been introduced they have invariably given entire satisfaction. They are unsurpassed for power, capacity or usefulness. From the size of the air chamber sufficient power is obtained to enable one man to throw a steady stream of water to the height of fifty feet perpendicularly, thereby rendering it a desirable article as a

PROTECTION AGAINST FIRE,

And for washing windows of second and third stories of buildings, carriages, &c. With a newly invented water diffuser as a Garden Engine it defies competition. The diffuser is a perfect and simple article, and its superiority over the common rose sprinkler is that it will throw three times the quantity of water a much greater distance and spread it perfectly even, with less power applied. An Engine with a diffuser of this description, used in orchards and gardens to throw soap suds on the young trees, will destroy many kinds of vermin liable to injure the fruit and be an invaluable addition to the implements of the Nurseryman and Horticulturist.

Marble Chimney Pieces.

THE PENRHYN MARBLE is a new and beautiful article, manufactured of Stone imported from England, which is enameled in imitation of of the richest and most expensive Spanish, (Italian, Egyptian, Fyronee, Lisbon, Sienna and other rare and desirable kinds of Marble—the imitation being so perfect as to challenge detection without the closest scrutiny. In style of finish these Chimney Pieces stand unequalled, being very highly polished—retaining their beauty much longer than common marble, and are not injured by oils, smoke, coal gas or acids. They have been extensively introduced into public and private buildings, giving perfect satisfaction to those who have used them. The best of references can be given, showing their adaptedness for general use, the subscriber having furnished some of the best dwelling houses in the city with them during the last two years.

While excelling all others in beauty of finish and appearance, they are sold much cheaper than any thing of the kind in the market. The subscriber has now in Store a complete assortment of the above named desirable Goods, to which he invites the attention of all interested.

PROSPECTS OF KANSAS.

This territory will soon be settled. The New York Herald contains a page of extracts from various papers, all going to show that a grand struggle between freedom and slavery is about to take place in Kansas.

The Charleston, S. C., Mercury says:

Associations have been organized, and even a line of emigrant packet ships has been projected, the object of which is to send a tide of Northern and foreign emigration into Kansas, under the direct patronage and impulse of abolition.

Now, Kansas lies directly west of Missouri, and the people of that State have not been idle spectators of the proceedings so hostile to their security. They are willing that things should take their natural course, but they have no intention of being made the victims of a deliberate abolition conspiracy. They have had abundant experience of slave stealers on their eastern frontier, which was not populated with a view to slave stealing; and they do not intend that their western border shall be settled by people who are sent there pledged to the one absorbing sentiment of hostility to them. They will not have an abolition State get up by subscription in their very sight. They will meet association by associations, and threats of invasion by a determination to defend the right.

The issue is well met, and, if we do not mistake the spirit of the Southern people, it will be gallantly defended. We have enough of Northern subscriptions, at any rate; but this publishing of new States by subscription is a step beyond any preceding imposition.—It is now beyond hope that emigration will be allowed to take its natural course, and determine calmly, in the progress of time, what shall be the institutions of Kansas. It it is to be a struggle of fanaticism and political rancor on one side, and of plain self-defence on the other.

The Louisville, Ky., Journal replies:

All this amounts to a declaration that the persons sent to Nebraska and Kansas by the Northern companies and associations will not be permitted to settle there, but will be driven off by mob force. Resolutions to the same effect were recently adopted by a small squatter meeting in Kansas, near the Missouri border. Now all such designs and resolutions are wrong and outrageous. Once establish in practice the doctrine that the persons already in a Territory, or any other persons, may exercise the power of deciding who shall and who shall not emigrate to that territory, and there is no conceiving what or where the end would be. Very soon, no doubt, the fellows already upon the ground would appoint a committee to interrogate every new comer, and, if necessary, swear him as to his feelings and opinions on the subject of slavery, and if they didn't approve his views, order him to be off, bag and baggage. Not only so, but they would make it their business to ascertain how he obtained the money to get there, and, if they found that it had been furnished by a Northern association, they would at once banish him into exile. The Kansas squatter meeting and the Charleston editor say distinctly that men sent forward by the aid of Northern subscriptions will not be permitted to remain in Kansas—that mob law will take in hand the rectification of such an outrage.

The Southern fanatics had better keep as cool as their warm climate will permit.—Northern companies, when they supply funds to send emigrants to Kansas, are exercising no more than their rights; and emigrants, when they accept money for the removal of themselves and their families to Kansas or anywhere else, exercise no more than their rights.

The Louisville Journal adds other suggestions, for which we have not room. Almost all white American emigrants to a new territory, carry fowling pieces, rifles, revolvers and knives, for subsistence and defence. And it strikes us as highly probable, that if anything really chivalrous should attack a body of armed emigrants, they would be apt to defend themselves.

The less bluster there is made about such matters, the better.

The Worcester Spy gives us the following item:

Ho! for Kansas.—The first company of emigrants for Kansas, under charge of the Emigrant Aid Company, will start from Boston on the 17th inst. The train will stop at Worcester and the other principal stations between Boston and Buffalo, to receive the emigrants residing in the vicinities respectively. The company has provided one hundred tents, and ample provision will be made for the comfort of the emigrants. The expense of passage will not probably exceed half the usual rates.

Wheat Crops.—The Wilkesbarre, Pa., Times says the wheat crop throughout the valley is likely to be a failure; it is doubtful whether many fields will be worth cutting, except the straw. The farmers and newspapers of Erie, Cattaraugus, Chatuque, Genesee, Niagara and Orleans counties, New York, report the wheat crops fully an average. The incoming crop of Wyoming and Livingston counties indicates a far better yield than was expected a month ago. Notwithstanding that dreadful insect the weevil, the average in Summit county, Ohio, will be over half a crop, even the croakers admit. Although as high as $3 a day is paid in St. Charles county, Missouri, a large portion of the rich and abundant crops of wheat are likely to be lost for want of harvesters. There are hundreds of acres of over ripe grain untouched.

Plenty of wheat, and high price for reapers. At the same moment there are thousands of idlers in the cities, gambling, sponging and thieving for bread; and thousands more engaged in pursuits not half so pleasant and safe as tilling the soil.

Latest from Down East.—Something must have exercised the people and the parsons in Portland last Sunday. The Argus says:

Some of our clergymen took a notion last Sunday to preach about the democratic party, Nebraska and the administration. Several of the hearers took their hats and left, preferring to get their politics from caucusses regularly called.

"The moon comes
More near the earth than she was wont,
And makes men mad."

The Argus is the regular democratic paper, and views the matter thus, from its standpoint. Its opponent, the Advertiser, as regular whig, gives us the following sketch:

The weather was quite warm in this city Sunday, and the preaching, too, it is said, in some of our churches! One distinguished gentleman, at the High Street Church, felt obliged to "step out." Several others, we understand, were unable to attend in the afternoon. Rev. Mr. Chickering in the forenoon, delivered a very pointed discourse, in which he took occasion to speak in plain terms of the aggressions of the slave power.

We don't know what our office-holders and office-seekers will do. Most of the churches are getting to be rather uncomfortable for them on the slavery question, and if they flee from one to another, they only jump from the "frying pan into the fire." They will have to establish a church of their own—a Nebraska church. "Who'll be the Parson?"

The Gold Harvest.—Since the first discovery of gold in California, the yield has averaged about $60,000,000 a year, or $5,000,000 a month, $1,250,000 a week, $178,521 a day, or $7,440 an hour, or $124 a minute! Who talks about hard times?

Not we, commonly, for we are no grumblers. But all this glittering gold, which glares so gaudily in the newspapers and elsewhere, has not been brought out without much toil and sorrow, and without the accompaniments of crime, degredation, misery and death. Gold has its value and its uses; but gold may be bought too dear. In many cases it is so; perhaps in not a few of these California cases.

Suicide.—Isaac P. Nash and Adrianna Sampson, drowned themselves together in a pond in East Abington, Mass., on Monday night, and were found on Tuesday morning in the water, with their arms clasped about each other's, necks and their wrists bound together by a cord. They were devoted lovers.

A Sober Suggestion.—In commenting on the late enormous fraud committed by Mr. Schuyler, the New York Express remarks that "No man in this world can deviate from the straight path of duty, without bringing upon his head, sooner or later his full measure of punishment."

This is a thought that should be remembered in these days of extravagant living and fashion hunting, when every man with an income of $800 a year, is swelling out his annual expenses to $1,500 or $2,000. The fact is, we have lost the primitive simplicity of our vulgar forefathers; prudence, frugality, self-denial, are come into disuse; at the same time that the most servile imitations of foreign aristocracies have followed our all but universal abnegation of practical and truthful republicanism. To shine and to outshine—to live in the best houses—to wear the brightest jewels—to go to the most fashionable watering places in the summer, and to give the most recherche soirees in winter, too often constitute the highest ambition of our wives and our daughters. While, on the other hand, to be a "lion in the street," to be a "millionaire," or a "railroad king," is as often the only end and aim of him who figures in "the street." It is high time that all this should have an end.

Eastern Railroad Meeting.—The annual meeting of the Eastern Railroad Company was held in Boston, July 10. The annual report presented by the President, states the total receipts for the year to have been $613,141; expenditures $383,843; net income $229,298. Adding to this latter amount the value of the East Boston Ferry ($111,500) and the surplus fund, &c., makes a sum total of $427,259; from which deduct two dividends paid, the cost of new engines and cars, and the loss by fire, and the amount left for renewals, &c. is $153,855.

The total valuation of the Company's property, in houses, lands and stock, is $1,263,213; and the floating debt is $1,640,325. The Directors were authorized to issue bonds to the amount of $1,500,000 for the purpose of funding the floating debt.

The report states that should it finally be deemed expedient to make the terminus of the road on Market street, an agreement has been entered into with the Boston and Lowell road to build a passenger depot for the joint occupancy of both companies. No arrangement with the Boston and Maine road for fixing on a rule of division of the joint receipts has yet been completed.

The following gentlemen were unanimously elected Directors; Albert Thorndike, Beverly; Micajah Lant, Newburyport; Ichabod Goodwin, Portsmouth; David A. Neal, of Salem; Isaiah Breed, Lynn; Benj. T. Reed, Samuel Hooper, Boston.

The Annual Meeting of the Eastern Railroad in N. H. was held in this city on Tuesday, and the following board of Directors reelected:

Ichabod Goodwin, Daniel P. Drown, Portsmouth; Isaiah Breed, Lynn; Stephen A. Chase, Salem; Benjamin T. Reed, Boston.

Ohio Liquor Law.—We learn from the Ohio papers, that Chief Justice Corwin of that State has pronounced the liquor law of the last session of the legislature unconstitutional. Under the decision, several persons, confined for violating the provisions of the law, were immediately released from jail.—Boston Chronicle.

LOCAL.

THE VETERANS—CONCERT, &c.

Full arrangements are made for a grand time to-morrow, by this venerable corps.—And to be sure of making a day of it, the entertainment will be commenced this evening, with a grand Concert at the Temple, by Bond's celebrated Cornet Band, under the auspices of the Veterans. Tickets only fifteen cents,—a glance at the rich programme showing single pieces worth more than that.

The Veterans, accompanied by the above Band, are to take the first Eastern Railroad train for Greenland to-morrow morning, and carriages thence to Rye Beach. After parade, drill, and target exercise, with the incentive of a silver cup and a couple of gold medals to help their aim, they will dine at the Union House, nearly opposite the Ocean, with invited guests; and return by the same conveyance which takes them down. They number about eighty muskets, including military men of all ranks and various ages.

ORGANS.

The hint given by P. in Tuesday's Morning Chronicle, about keeping up with the times, is taken by Messrs. Barton & Cobb, organ-builders in this city, who keep posted up with the daily papers as well as with the improvements in their craft. They are perfectly prepared and desirous to put in all the apparatus desires, whenever purchasers are willing to pay for it. But when one society pays $1200 for an organ, and another can pay but $700, no reasonable man will expect the latter to contain all that pertains to the former. They are ready to build church organs of any desirable size or structure; and to furnish them with as great a variety of stops and action as may suit the taste and purse of the purchaser.

Newspaper Inspection.—We learn that the only Inspector of Timber in this vicinity denies that he has ever dictated to, or advised others as to what papers they had better not take, or that he has ever induced any persons to give back some papers which they had bought, and to buy others.

We give him the benefit of our circulation for this denial, and are willing to yield full credence to the sincerity of his anger at being charged with such dictation. We do not blame any one for being angry at such an imputation when it is untrue, for when true it is dreadfully mean: but it is meaner still for any one to submit to and obey such dictation in such a matter.

And now let us say, in regard to the Chronicle, it is and ever has professed to be Independent—but not neutral. It professes to give local and other news as accurate as may consist with the haste of a daily paper, and to correct all important errors as to matters of fact, as soon as may be. And as to opinion, while we claim and speak our own, we endeavor to treat fairly the views of others.

The Morning Chronicle now appears in the hands of carriers in Kittery about 7 o'clock in the morning.

AN OLD HOUSE.

A friend who hunts up old affairs, has given us the following sketch of the latter fortunes of the old Meeting House which used to stand south of Pickering's mill dam, and which was voted to "be town meeting house forever."

When the Rev. Mr. Rogers and his adherents had moved to the North Meeting House, those of the society which had refused to follow remained in the old house till the completion of the new, which was in 1732. It was located on the westerly side of the dam, upon Pickering's hill, and still remains in respectable order; it is regularly occupied as a place of worship by a Union society; some parts, however, are used as school rooms daily.

When the Meeting House which Mr. Rogers had left was deserted, there was a public resolution that it be transformed into a dwelling house. Accordingly, after one half of the building was detached and parts of it applied to other required purposes, the remaining half was moved from its long standing location to the vicinity of the minister's field.

It was purchased by John Newmarch, merchant, son of Rev. Mr. Newmarch of Kittery, Me., and was placed about fifteen rods west from the North Church, on the same premises on which now stands the lofty three story brick edifice called Congress Block; where it remained in a state of sound preservation until 1846. At that time Samuel Eliott Cones, Esq., purchased the estate and thereon erected Congress Block.

Mr. Cones, previous to erecting his building, sold the old house to Mr. Frederick W. Rogers of this city, who took it down, and of the materials of the building erected a story-and-a-half cottage, which is now standing in Jackson street.

Mr. Newmarch occupied his house during the time of having a family. After his decease one of his daughters, who was married to Mr. Richard Billings, succeeded her father in the proprietorship and occupancy of the homestead. Mr. Billings departed this life Dec. 9, 1808, aged 75; and Mary, his wife, Nov. 8, 1815, aged 78. The decease of each was in this Newmarch mansion. Their only son, John, and his wife, owned the property till 1819;—he died shortly after that time.

The size of this meeting house, when occupied as such, was about 60 feet long, 30 feet wide, its corner posts 22 feet high, and its roof 17 feet high. It was built of wood, and the oak timber in the frame work was massive.—It was lighted by an upper and lower row of large windows; the glass was small, of diamond shape and green complexion, set in sheet lead sashes, which were supported on the inside against the pressure of wind, by their upright wooden bars containing wire ligaments between the sash and its support.—Several apartments of the building remained in this condition till the entire structure was demolished. Some of its glass is still preserved by antiquarians.

Launch.—The ship Moultrie was launched on Tuesday, at 1 o'clock, as previously announced, from the yard of Messrs. Tobey & Littlefield. She is a beautiful specimen of naval architecture.

☞ The deaths in Portsmouth during the month of June were—Males five; females four; total 9: of the following ages:—Males, 29, 13, 59, 7, 28. Females—68, 68, 90, 29.

A fine Cow.—Mr. Stephen Scammon, of Stratham, informs us that he has a cow, of the Ayrshire breed, from which he has milked, in one day, at two milkings, 52 1-2 lbs. of milk; and from June 17th to the 24th, seven days, they have made 17 3-4 lbs. of butter, from her milk. The cow receives four quarts of meal a day.—Exeter News Letter.

Concord, N. H. July 10.—Legislature.—The bill increasing the salaries of the Executive and Legislative officers passed the Senate and was read twice in the House.

The Legislature will not probably adjourn before next Saturday.

The New Hampshire House of Representatives laid the Maine Liquor Bill on the table by 16 majority. So says a telegraphic despatch, but the Concord papers in their legislative report make no mention of such a vote.

Alms-House Examination.

Portsmouth, July 5, 1854.

COMPLAINT having been made to the Mayor and Aldermen that the comfort of the inmates had been disregarded in the management of the Alms-House, the Overseers of the Poor in fulfilment of their duty immediately took steps to investigate the charge. They found upon careful examination, that the statements made were not only without foundation in truth, but that every department of the institution is in the best condition, and the manner of conducting the establishment such as to reflect great credit upon Mr. Scott the Superintendent, and his lady.

CONGRESS.

MONDAY, July 10.

SENATE.—Messrs. Chase and Sumner presented petitions from Massachusetts, Ohio and Connecticut for the repeal of the fugitive slave law.

Various bills were reported and referred. The bill for a telegraph line to the Pacific was then taken up, debated and postponed, and after a short Executive session, the Senate, at four o'clock, adjourned.

HOUSE.—In the House, the rules were suspended for the introduction of a joint resolution fixing compensation for the employees in the legislative department, and to prohibit the allowance of extra compensation. The resolution was passed. It increases the compensation of officers, clerks, messengers and other employees in the legislative department of the government, 20 per cent.

Mr. Fuller of Maine made an ineffectual effort to have passed the bill authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to purchase or build four additional revenue cutters.

The Senate bill appropriating $140,000 for the improvement of Cape Fear River was passed by 110 to 28.

On motion of Mr Houston of Alabama, the House resolved that for the remainder of the session all debate in Committee of the Whole shall be confined to the question or proposition immediately under consideration.

On motion of Mr. Phillips it was resolved that on and after to-morrow the daily hour of meeting shall be eleven o'clock. Adjourned.

FROM ST. HELENA.—The Russian ship Cezerevitch, of 528 tons, with 10 guns and 70 men, anchored in the roads at St. Helena May 16. The arrival occasioned considerable speculation; indeed, the St Helena Herald says:—"If 70 Russian bears had been brought to the island, the event would have produced hardly any more sensation. Some of the islanders were of opinion that the vessel should be detained and searched, while others would have made a prize of her at once, and taken her at all risks. The vessel proved to be in the employ of the Russian American Company, and the men chiefly landsmen, on their return home, having fulfilled the period of their engagement in the foreign service. Of course, she was suffered to pass without molestation."

The St. Helena whaling ground during the present season had been explored with success by the American whalers. During the last few weeks no less than eight sperm whales have been taken on the carroll ground, yielding about 550 bbls.

The New York Evening Post of Saturday states that $7,000,000 has been paid from the Sub-Treasury on account of the Mexican treaty, and that the amount has been deposited in the city banks. Senor Almonte had not completed his arrangements on Saturday.

The N. Y. Journal of Commerce says:

We are requested by the Trustees of the Empire Stone Dressing Company to contradict the statement relative to the alleged over issue of the company's stock, to the amount of $100,000. There has been no over issue of stock whatever; and it is believed that the recent financial embarrassments of the company will meet with prompt and effectual relief.

THE BATH CHURCH BURNING.—The burning of the building used as a Catholic Church in Bath, Me., has been mentioned by telegraph. The Bath Mirror of Saturday says the name of the itinerant speaker who stirred up the passions of the mob was Brown, and that they had become exasperated because some persons in a carriage attempted to pass through their midst. The crowd was composed of thousands. The Mirror adds:

The work of firing the church was carried on so rapidly that in a few minutes from the first alarm the building was a complete mass of flames, which, shooting high up into the heavens, presented a scene of surpassing grandeur and sublimity.

NEW YORK, July 11.—Hon. Jerry Clemens writes to Mr. Letcher, Chairman of the Committee of Investigation in Colt's patent, that as counsel for Colt, he demands a rigid and immediate scrutiny before the committee enters into an investigation as to the bribery and corruption by which the Nebraska bill passed, as that developement might indefinitely postpone any action on his client's case and other business.

Mr. Barnum has resigned the Presidency of the Crystal Palace, having found the financial embarrassments of the concern too great for him to struggle against.

Mr. John H. White succeeds Mr. Barnum as chief officer of the association. The association have decided to close the exhibition on the 31st of October, when the Palace and all the property of the association will be disposed of by a committee appointed for that purpose.

PITTSBURG, July 10.—There are but thirty inches of water in the channel of the river, and it is still decreasing.

LOUISVILLE, July 11.—Passengers from Chicago on Monday report that there were 130 deaths from Cholera in that city on Sunday.

MORTALITY.—The deaths in New York for the week ending to-day, were 761, including 98 from cholera. The increase is 144 on the previous week, about half of which were children.

BROOKLYN.—There were 130 deaths in Brooklyn last week, including thirty from cholera.

MORTALITY IN NEW ORLEANS—For the week ending July 2, there were 379 deaths in New Orleans, being a large increase over the preceding week. One hundred of those were from the effects of sun stroke.

STOCK OPERATIONS.—Richard Schell, a large negotiator of loans and discounts for Robert Schuyler, in New York, has suspended. His name appears as endorsed on the Schuyler acceptances to the amount of $750,000.

THE CELEBRITY OF
Sherry Wine Bitters
HAS induced several persons, who do not possess the least medical knowledge, to assume the title of Doctor, and put before the public an article in imitation of my Medicine, which they call Sherry Wine Bitters, and attempt to palm them off under the pretence that I have retired from business, and also that they manufacture an improved article of the same name.
I would say to those in pursuit of health, to be sure that you obtain the REAL article, which may be known by the Fac Simile of my signature upon the outside wrapper, covering each bottle, and also by the copyright, border of the same covering.
Sold wholesale and retail at my office, No. 51 Hanover street, Boston, and by all dealers in Medicine in every city, town and village throughout the New England States.

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS

With the U. S. Patent Office, Washington,

No. 76 state Street, oppo. Kilby street, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skillful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

"PATENT OFFICE,
"R. H. EDDY, Esq., Boston, Mass.

"SIR:—Your facilities for the prosecution of any business connected with this Office, are equal to those of any other agent. I am very respectfully,

DR. ORDWAY'S HUMOR DISCOVERY,

AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

DR. ORDWAY has been using his Blood Purifier in his practice for the last seven years with great success. He has often been urged by his friends and those who have tried it, and know its efficacy, to put it within the reach of all. He has now added to it an herb, discovered in California, by Dr. KELLEY, which makes it the most wonderful remedy for

HUMORS OF ALL KINDS,

LIVER COMPLAINTS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

The virtues of this Herb were first made known to Dr. Kelley by the following: A Mexican, attending a patient, sick with that terrible disease, the California Erysipelas and Liver Complaint—the effect was miraculous—curing the man in a few days. The natives, when bitten by a rattles ake, or rabid animal, resort to this Herb for a cure.—Hundreds are taking this medicine, after trying in vain other remedies, and say that the half was never told them.

If you have Erysipelas, 3 to 5 bottles will cure it.
If you have Scrofula, 3 to 7 bottles will cure it.
Three to six bottles will cure Salt Rheum.
One or two bottles will cure Pimples on the Face.
Two or three bottles will cure Scaly Eruptions and Scald Head.
One to three bottles will cure Nursing Sore Mouth.
One to three bottles will cleanse the system of Biles.
Two to five bottles will cure Rheumatism.
Three to four bottles will cure old running Sores and Ulcers.
One or two bottles will cure Barber's Itch.
One to three bottles will cure Canker in the mouth and bowels.

For Liver Complaints and Jaundice.

Its effects are new and wonderful, removing obstructions from the Liver, open the pores of the skin, carrying off the morbid matter, relieving the side, and all-gone feelings of the stomach; and removing low spirits and despondency, which is the result of this disagreeable and often fatal disease.

FOR DYSPEPSIA.

A fair trial will convince you that there is nothing like it.

FOR CANCEROUS HUMORS,

It is the surest remedy ever offered. One widow lady in Lawrence, has been troubled with Cancer for years, by taking two bottles says she is now quite well.

FOR COSTIVENESS.

One gentleman says that it was the only medicine that cured him.

FOR KIDNEY DIFFICULTIES,

It is spoken of in the highest terms. A young man was sick so much with Asthma that he had to leave College; three bottles cured him, and he has now resumed his studies. One lady in Salem was perfectly cured of Periodical Headache, by the use of two bottles. Mr. Williams, of Lawrence, had humors in his eyes for years, and was cured by the use of the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier. For Chills and Fever, Mercurial Diseases, Taints in the system, it stands unrivaled; sometimes where the system is much deranged it will cause disagreeable feelings at first, but continue its use as indications favorable. It is purely vegetable, and its compound and proportions are such that the effect is perfectly satisfactory and safe.

FULL DIRECTIONS ON THE BOTTLE.

☞ Price $1.00. ☜

HE HAS ALSO A HUMOR SALVE,

Unsurpassed for external humors, which, if used in connection with the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier will much facilitate a cure.

PRICE 25 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Cough Destroyer.

This invaluable Cough Remedy is for the complete cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Influenza, Whooping Cough, pains in the side and breast, hacking or tickling at the throat, spitting blood, tightness across the lungs and chest, and all Lung Complaints leading to Consumption.

No medicine yet discovered has that decided effect in curing Bronchial affections as the Cough Destroyer. It can be taken by all ages and classes, from a child six months old to the oldest man or woman, with the most happy results.

PRICE 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Pain Destroyer.

This preparation is composed of a great variety of Extracts, Gums, Essential Oils, most of which have not heretofore been united and compounded into their present form. It will cure attacks of Cramps of the Stomach, Spasms, Convulsions, Faintings, Pain in the Stomach, Bowels, Side, Back, Limbs, and a great variety of other difficulties. It is also invaluable as an external remedy. It will be found to contain nearly double the strength of any similar article, and possesses properties heretofore unknown. No family should be without it for a single day.

PRICE 25, 37½ AND 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Full directions for the above medicines, on the Bottles. Orders should be accompanied with full directions how it should be sent.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the descriptions of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others, by

W. Gibson, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University.
Valentine Mott, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, N. Y.
W. P. Dewees, M.D., Prof. of Mid., Pa. University.
N. Chapman, M.D., Prof. of Physic, Pa. University.
R. Parke, M.D., Pres't College of Physicians, Phila.
Dr. Del Valle, Prof. of Medicine, Havana.
Jose Eourenco de Luz, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon.
G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spaine.
J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London.
Sir Thomas Pearson, Maj. Gen. British Army.
Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and, being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:—

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork: and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geocentric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swaim, copy right secured

ALSO SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c., &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge. Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA, and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase no Remedy equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is Anglish Remedy, and was used by William IV. late King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure, and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by his Linimeut, but considers warranting it sufficient, as any person who does not obtain relief, can get their money for it.

Price 50 cents. Dr. Tobias's Office, 240 Green

Dr. Tobias has put up a HORSE LINIMENT in that bottles, which is warranted cheaper and better than any other for Chilc, Scratches, Old Sores, Galls, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc.

HOUSES FOR SALE.

THE DWELLING HOUSE, No. 9 School street. This is a well built house, two (high) stories, in good repair, and is convenient for a family or two families, or for a large Boarding House. It contains nine or more rooms and two sculleries, and has an excellent cellar under the whole house. The situation is pleasant, being about equi-distant from the markets, factories and railroads. Connected with this house is a building which has been and may be occupied both as a barn and a work-shop. If not sold soon, a part or the whole of the premises will be let.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 6 Green street. This house is fitted for two tenements; it is well built, was thoroughly painted and put in good order the last season, and is well calculated for two families, (having about 6 rooms each) and may be considered a good location for persons employed at the north end. It is centrally located between the different ship-yards in that section of the city, each tenement will be sold separately, if desired.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 7 Liberty street, corner of Charles street. This house was formerly owned and occupied by the late Peter M. Lowd and is in good order. Attached to it is a lot of land large enough for a Stable or for another dwelling house. It would make a good place for the residence of a person employed at the shipyards across the river, or at the Navy Yard.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 47 Bow street.—This house has been built but a few years, is well finished off, and is very convenient. In the rear is quite a large garden spot. This would be a desirable place for a person employed at the shipyards, or at the Navy Yard nearly opposite.

Also, for sale, a BUILDING LOT, on Mount Vernon street, (opposite No. 2,) with a small building thereon, which can be finished off into a Dwelling house.

All of the above property will be sold on liberal terms, if applied for soon. For further particulars apply to JOSEPH M. EDMONDS,

Feb. 27. No. 9 Islington street.

TO LET—The STORE on the corner of Vaughan and Deer streets. It was occupied as the first Union Store in this city, and is considered as a good stand for business. It is within a few rods of the Boston and Concord Railroad Depots. Possession can be had immediately.

FOR SALE—The HOUSE in the rear of the above, on Vaughan street—a convenient house for two families, and has been so occupied for about six years, by the same tenants. It rents for $160. For information, terms, &c., call on JOSEPH L. LOCKE, on the premises, or JOSEPH M. EDMONDS, 9 Islington st. m29

HUMOR DISCOVERY,
AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

DR. ORDWAY has been using his Blood Purifier in his practice for the last seven years with great success. He has often been urged by his friends and those who have tried it, and know its efficacy, to put it within the reach of all. He has now added to it an Herb, discovered in California, by Dr. KELLEY, which makes it the most wonderful remedy for

HUMORS OF ALL KINDS,
LIVER COMPLAINTS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

The virtues of this Herb were first made known to Dr. Kelley by an Indian, while attending a patient, sick with that terrible disease, the California Erysipelas and Liver Complaint—the effect was miraculous—curing the man in a few days. The natives, when bitten by a rattles ake, or rabid animal, resort to this Herb for a cure.—Hundreds are taking this medicine, after trying in vain other remedies, and say that the half was never told them.

If you have Erysipelas, 3 to 5 bottles will cure it.
If you have Scrofula, 3 to 7 bottles will cure it.
Three to six bottles will cure Salt Rheum.
One or two bottles will cure Pimples on the Face.
Two or three bottles will cure Scaly Eruptions and Scald Head
One to three bottles will cure Nursing Sore Mouth
One to three bottles will cleanse the system of Biles.
Two to five bottles will cure Rheumatism.
Three to four bottles will cure old running Sores and Ulcers.
One or two bottles will cure Barber's Itch.
One to three bottles will cure Canker in the mouth and bowels.

For Liver Complaints and Jaundice.

Its effects are new and wonderful, removing obstructions from the Liver, open the pores of the skin, carrying off the morbid matter, relieving the side, and all-gone feelings of the stomach; and removing low spirits and despondency, which is the result of this disagreeable and often fatal disease.

FOR DYSPEPSIA.

A fair trial will convince you that there is nothing like it.

FOR CANCEROUS HUMORS.

It is the surest remedy ever offered. One widow lady in Lawrence, has been troubled with Cancer for years, by taking two bottles says she is now quite well.

FOR COSTIVENESS.

One gentleman says that it was the only medicine that cured him.

FOR KIDNEY DIFFICULTIES,

It is spoken of in the highest terms. A young man was sick so much with Asthma that he had to leave College; three bottles cured him, and he has now resumed his studies. One lady in Salem was perfectly cured of Periodical Sick Headache, by the use of two bottles. Mr. Williams, of Lawrence, had humors in his eyes for years, and was cured by the use of the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier. For Chills and Fever, Mercurial Diseases, Taints in the System, it stands unrivalled; sometimes where the system is much deranged it will cause disagreeable feelings at first, but continue its use as indications favorable. It is purely vegetable, and its compound and proportions are such that the effect is perfectly satisfactory and safe.

FULL DIRECTIONS ON THE BOTTLE.

☞ Price $1.00. ☜

HE HAS ALSO A HUMOR SALVE,

Unsurpassed for external humors, which, if used in connection with the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier will much facilitate a cure.

PRICE 25 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Cough Destroyer.

This invaluable Cough Remedy is for the complete cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Influenza, Whooping Cough, pains in the side and breast, hacking or tickling at the throat, spitting blood, tightness across the lungs and chest, and all Lung Complaints leading to Consumption.

No medicine yet discovered has that decided effect in curing Bronchial affections as the Cough Destroyer, it can be taken by all ages and classes, from a child six months old to the oldest man or woman, with the most happy results.

PRICE 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Pain Destroyer.

This preparation is composed of a great variety of Extracts, Gums, Essential Oils, most of which have not heretofore been united and compounded into their present form. It will cure attacks of Cramps of the Stomach, Spasms, Convulsions, Faintings, Pain in the Stomach, Bowels, Side, Back, Limbs, and a great variety of other difficulties. It is also invaluable as an external remedy. It will be found to contain nearly double the strength of any similar article, and possesses properties heretofore unknown. No family should be without it for a single day.

PRICE 25, 37½ AND 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Garden Engines.

JULT received at "the sign of the Big Coffee Pot" a full supply of Garden or Fire Engines, which are respectfully commended by the subscriber to the notice of the public. Wherever these Engines have been introduced they have invariably given entire satisfaction. They are unsurpassed for power, capacity or usefulness. From the size of the air chamber sufficient power is obtained to enable one man to throw a steady stream of water to the height of fifty feet perpendicularly, thereby rendering it a desirable article as a

PROTECTION AGAINST FIRE,

And for washing windows of second and third stories of buildings, carriages, &c. With a newly invented water diffuser as a Garden Engine it defies competition. The diffuser is a perfect and simple article, and its superiority over the common rose sprinkler is that it will throw three times the quantity of water a much greater distance and spread it perfectly even, with less power applied. An Engine with a diffuser of this description, used in orchards and gardens to throw soap suds on the young trees, will destroy many kinds of vermin liable to injure the fruit and be an invaluable addition to the implements of the Nurseryman and Horticulturist.

Marble Chimney Pieces.

THE PENRHYN MARBLE is a new and beautiful article, manufactured of Stone imported from England, which is enameled in imitation of of the richest and most expensive Spanish, Galway, Egyptian, Pyronese, Lisbon, Sienna and other rare and desirable kinds of Marble—the imitation being so perfect as to challenge detection without the closest scrutiny. In style of finish these Chimney Pieces stand unequalled, being very highly polished—retaining their beauty much longer than common marble, and are not injured by oils, smoke, coal gas or acids. They have been extensively introduced into public and private buildings, giving perfect satisfaction to those who have used them. The best of references can be given, showing their adaptedness for general use, the subscriber having furnished some of the best dwelling houses in the city with them during the last two years.

While excelling all others in beauty of finish and appearance, they are sold much cheaper than any thing of the kind in the market. The subscriber has now in Store a complete assortment of the above named desirable Goods, to which he invites the attention of all interested.

ALBION K. PARRIS.

We find the following record of the life of this distinguished man in an editorial article of the Eastern Argus, which paper, as the organ of the old line democratic party, supports Mr. Parris for Governor of Maine.

Albion K. Parris was born in the year 1798, in Acbron, county of Oxford, which makes him sixty-six years old.

In 1813 he was elected Representative from Paris to the Legislature, and in 1814, a Senator for the district formed of the counties of Oxford and Somerset.

From 1815 to 1818, inclusive, he was a member of Congress from the Oxford district, having been chosen almost unanimously at each election.

In 1818, President Monroe appointed him U. S. District Judge for Maine.

In 1819, the people of Portland elected him one of their delegates to the Convention that framed the Constitution.

In 1820, Gov. King appointed him Judge of Probate for Cumberland county.

He was elected Governor of Maine in 1822, which office he held till 1826.

In 1827, the Legislature elected him United States Senator for six years, but the year following he was appointed Judge of the Supreme Court by Gov. Lincoln.

In 1836, President Jackson offered him the appointment of American Minister to the court of Russia, which he declined, upon which, the same year, the President appointed him Comptroller of the Treasury, from which he was removed by Pres. Fillmore.

He returned to Portland, intending to retire from public life, but the people, without distinction of party, brought him into the field and elected him Mayor by the largest vote ever given to any candidate for that office since Portland became a city. Having served his term, he refused a renomination, against the earnest solicitations of many of our best men, whigs and democrats.

And now he is again presented to the suffrages of the people of Maine, not by his own volition, but against it.

His political life has been a long one, but during that whole period he has never voted except for a democrat.

We are proud of Albion K. Parris as the standard bearer of the democracy of Maine; and towering as he does, head and shoulders above all his competitors, we confidently hope to see him elected to the executive chair.

It is but just and proper to add that Mr. Parris was an open and avowed temperance man long ago, and still enjoys, and we believe deserves that appellation. Nevertheless, he was not a special friend of the Maine law; and this circumstance gave him the nomination and election to the office of Mayor of Portland, in opposition to the celebrated Neal Dow, for which he received all the votes of the Liberals, or liquor men. He did not, however, oppose the execution of that law, but conducted with so much moderation that many of the Liberals were dissatisfied.

This course, so in accordance with his whole life, makes him the best and most available candidate for the party which have nominated him, and which erects no other platform than the "Democratic Party," and "Albion K. Parris."

He is opposed by the Whigs; also by two Democratic parties, one of which is for the Maine law, and the other against it, while his own party takes no public ground on the subject.

Two parties, the Whigs, and Morrill or Maine law Democrats, oppose and condemn the repeal of the Missouri Compromise; while the Cary or Liberal Democrats do not touch the subject. And all the papers in Maine which uphold or apologise for this repeal, (except, we belive the Expositor,) uphold also the nomination of Mr. Parris, and publish the United States Advertisements.

There is, therefore, it appears, no Nebraska candidate in the field in Maine: but Mr. Parris stands as the candidate of the National Administration papers in Maine, and is not publicly committed to any opinion or policy on the subject of slavery extension, or freedom.

An officer on board the U. S. ship Portsmouth has furnished the Herald with the particulars of the rescuing of the fifty Americans who were captured with the Chilian barque Petria in the Gulf of California, in April last, on the ground that they were fillibusters.—Among the passengers were Wm. Snelling, brother of Capt. Snelling, Congress street, Boston; Daniel Byrnes of South Boston; A. B. Clemens, and H. Langley of New Hampshire; Peter H. Haynes of Rhode Island, and several others from the northern and western States. Through the active exertions of the American Consul and firm resolution of the commander of the Portsmouth, all the passengers were delivered up, and on the 20th of May, all but three, among whom was Mr. Snelling, who remained on board the Portsmouth, were transferred to the cutter W. S. Marcy, and sailed for San Francisco.

Won't Stay Caught.—The negro named Victor, who escaped from New York officers three or four times, and was at last arrested in Portland and confined in jail at Elmira, New York, has just escaped from that institution, with two others. He opened the doors with a wooden key. Victor is charged with stealing jewelry, &c., to the amount of $500.

Victor is a bad egg.

A little girl at Dedham, was poisoned last week and died, in consequence of plucking and eating some flowers of aconitum or monk's-hood, a perennial plant quite commonly found

A HOME SPEECH.

The Newburyport Herald gives us a speech made by Rev. Paul Couch, of North Bridgewater a Son of Newburyport, at their fourth of July dinner. He says:

Your note of invitation to the sons and daughters of Newburyport, scattered to the four winds, to come home to a family festival on the fourth of July, I read with gladness of boyhood revived, and in the fulness of crowding recollections, and gushing feelings, I said, I will go up to the feast. One of my strongest desires was that of ascertaining what meaning you would give to the fourth of July; to learn by observation and sympathy, what interpretation you would give to the declaration of independence; to learn whether at this ominous hour Newburyport was right side up, careening, or capsized.

Within the first two hours after my arrival happening, in conversation with an old acquaintance, to allude to the subject, which just now takes the lead of all others, I was confounded, saddened, (not to say maddened,) to hear the avowal that the late act of Congress, which is a violation of public faith and honor; and opens wide territories to the curse and blight of slavery, would be sustained by a majority of your citizens. I instantly replied, it can't be so; if I believed it were, I should take the next train of cars, and be off.

Mr. Mayor, I did not believe the words of my friend. I considered them, in meaning, though not in design, an aspersion on the fair fame of my native town. I do not, I cannot believe such words. Were conviction of their truth forced upon me, I should turn in sadness from the home of my boyhood, the scenes of early joys and privileges, and trials, and hopes, from the graves of my parents, (seeking other dust to cover mine,) and in deepest sorrow, and solemnity of spirit, I would go forth from your city, shaking the dust off my feet, as a testimony against you. But Mr. Mayor, that cannot be; Newburyport, true to herself, will be steadfast in defence of freedom, justice and humanity.

The Insult offered to Mr. McDonald at Home.—The Portland Argus refers to the reports that the Hon. Moses McDonald has been grossly insulted in the cars and at certain depots in his Congressional District lately, while traveling to and from Portland, and asks in view of the facts in the case why those having charge of the depots and cars did not interfere? They are bound to protect passengers from outrage, and to have force enough present to do it.

Our unfortunate Representative in Congress, Mr. McDonald, we are told, met with some annoyance at the Biddeford depot, one of the first days of this week. There was quite a crowd of persons there, who were going into Portland in an excursion train, and it being noised around that Mr. McDonald was in the crowd, a cry was raised by the boys, that 'a Northern doughface could be seen on the platform,' and a rush was made to see our Representative. We understand there was considerable hustling, and that a friend of McDonald, to avoid anything more unpleasant, prevailed on him to take a seat in the cars, with as little loss of time as he could. After he had found a seat, an excited democrat went through the cars shouting, 'Whoever wants to see a Northern doughface can be accommodated,' and directed attention to the car in which Mr. McDonald had seated himself.

It is not at all probable that the railway officers were expecting to have any passenger outraged by being called a doughface; nor could they have been prepared for a hustling rush to see one.

They will do better next time; and the people will learn better manners than to call Randolphian names.

Further Riotous Proceedings at Bath.—On Saturday evening last, a crowd, variously stated at from two to four hundred, assembled in the vicinity of an old building in the north part of the city, which from some cause had become obnoxious to them, and made preparations to pull it down. The Marshal and Oliver Meses, Esq., who was interested in the building, assisted by persons present, prevented the accomplishment of this purpose. The Mayor arrived, read the riot act, and ordered the gathering to disperse. This command was greeted by a portion of the crowd with hisses and insult. The Mayor ordered the City Greys to be called out. The bells were rung, and the members of the company assembled at their armory in strong force, when the order was countermanded, the rioters in the meantime having dispersed. Yesterday afternoon, Ira Mason was brought before Judge Smith, charged with aiding and abetting in the disturbances above mentioned, and was ordered to recognize in the sum of $2000 for his appearance for examination.—Bath, (Me.) Tribune of Thursday.

The Manchester Rioters.—James Mcgregor, Rufus Chandler, and Albert Gould, have been arrested in Manchester, for being engaged in the riot and assault on the Catholic Church on the 4th inst. They were bound over for trial.

The Over-Issues.—It has been ascertained that the over-issue of stock of the Harlem Railroad Company by Mr. Kyle, the secretary, amounts to 5100 shares so far. He was a speculator in the stock for a rise, and with strange fatuity threw his stolen stock on the market, thus depressing the price. The offices of the New York and New Haven Co. and that of the Harlem Co. were in the same building, and it is stated that Schuyler and Kyle were in the habit of swapping off their illegal shares with each other. A despatch from New Haven states that 100 shares of the Canal Railroad stock have been over issued.

The confessions of Mr. Kyle, the Secretary of the Harlem Railroad Company, afford food for comment. The loss of five thousand dollars by speculation in stocks led to the overdrawing of two hundred thousand dollars!

At Cleveland, Ohio, on the 4th of July, Mr. Ossian E. Dodge, of Boston, editor of the Literary Museum, was married to Miss

LOCAL.

The Chronicle.—With the close of the present month, will end the second year's issue of the Daily Chronicle. In accordance with our usual custom of semi-annual settlements, we have made out our bills for advertising and job printing to July 1st; as we wish to change our business year, as far as convenient, so as to open new accounts in January and July, instead of February and August as heretofore.

Incendiarism.—On Wednesday evening at about 9 o'clock, some scoundrel entered the basement of the house occupied by Mr. Isaiah Wilson, No. 9 Hanover street, and set fire to some dresses hanging in the room, which communicated with the wood work, and would have soon have enveloped the house in flames, but for a timely discovery. The family, above, were apprized of their danger by the smell of the fire, which came up the stairway through the open door; and succeeded in extinguishing the fire before it had made much progress.

☞ Bond's Cornet Band played finely last evening at the Temple, as we expected they would, having heard them before: and a good audience came out to greet them, as they richly deserved. A solid and well trained military band of eighteen or twenty performers on brass instruments and the usual drums, produce a fine effect on some pieces: and the quality of the playing last evening gives sure promise of brilliant out-door music for the Veterans to-day.

Legislative.—Concord, N. H., July 11.—In the House, a resolution appropriating $20,000 for a State Reform School came up upon its third reading.

Mr. Stephens of Nashua introduced a resolution postponing the matter to the next session, and submitting the question to the people at the next annual election.

Mr. Chapman of Nashua moved to lay the resolution of postponement on the table, which was negatived. The resolution was then adopted.

The liquor bill was taken from the table and ordered to a third reading.

Sandwich Islands.—A friend has handed us a paper, the New Era and Argus, printed at Oahu, May 3, in which the most interesting article to us is a notice of a flower garden, owned and cultivated by Mrs. Penhallow, a native of this city. The writer says:

Remembering as we did that five weeks ago there were nothing but grass and thistles in the lot indicated, we were not a little surprised to find on our entrance, a perfect young Eden in full blossom. There were upwards of 1200 plants of varying beauty, fragrance, tint of color and size, comprising a selection of some of the choicest flowers of every clime, and the industry, talent, assiduity and care required to perfect this little oasis in the wilderness of our city, are above all praise. Mrs. P.'s horticultural skill is well known in Honolulu, she having won prizes three successive years at the meeting of the Hawaiian Agricultural Society, nor is her name unknown in other countries where beauty and fragrance are appreciated.

Rev. Henry Wood, of New Hampshire, has been confirmed as consul to Beyrout.

Mr. Wood was the editor of the Congregational Journal, who endorsed certificates of Gen. Pierce's temperance and religion; and who was falsely reported as being appointed chaplain in the navy and army. We presume the above statement of his appointment to be consul, is correct.

Cincinnati, July 11.—The Rape Case.—Father Kroeger, the Catholic priest charged with an assault on a German girl, with intent to commit a rape, was tried yesterday before Judge Flynn; the testimony was about the same as at the Police Court. The jury remained out until to-day, when being unable to agree, they were discharged. They stood six for conviction for assault with intent to commit a rape, and six for assault and battery. There was a large crowd around the Court House during the trial.

Philadelphia, July 11.—The death of Dr. Bibingham, of cholera, was reported today to the Board of Health. It was only yesterday that he reported a case to the board. Dr. Korr and Robert L. Pittfield, President of the Northern Liberties Bank, also died today,—it is said of cholera.

Albany, July 11.—The business portion of Coxsackie village was entirely destroyed by fire last evening. The fire broke out in Bennett's hotel, at the middle landing, and before the flames could be checked 40 buildings were totally destroyed, including three hotels and the Post Office. Loss estimated from $50,000 to $75,000.

Philadelphia, June 11.—The Printers of this city have made a demonstration against the employment of girls in the Evening Register office, and several members of the Union have been held to bail for conspiracy.

Death of a Dragoon.—Mr. C. C. Hall, a member of the Boston Light Dragoons, died on Saturday evening, from the effects of a sun stroke, received on Monday last. Mr. Hall was a man who was generally esteemed. Others of the military are now quite unwell from the effects of the heat during the parade on the Fourth.

Arrest of a "Fugitive."—William Uxford alias Sullivan, the fellow who was arrested on a charge of assaulting Mr. Richard H. Dana, jr., and defaulted his bail, has been arrested at New Orleans by officers Heath and Jones of Boston, and is now on his way back

Washington, July 12—It is confidently expected that the River and Harbor Bill, which was considerably amended yesterday, will pass the House when it next comes up for ratification. The Senate has ratified all Indian treaties, extinguishing their titles to lands in Kanzas, without amendments.

Hardshell Convention.—Syracuse, 12th—There are about 100 delegates present to the Hardshell Convention. Probably Wm. Bronson will be nominated for Governor, and should he decline, then Mr. Schell will be the candidate of the party.

The principle of the Nebraska bill will be endorsed, but the bill, as it stands, will get the cold shoulder.

Hartford, 12th.—Mr. Wm. Turner, a respectable citizen of this city, aged about 60, and a son of Lewis Wilcox, aged about 10, were drowned yesterday, while bathing in Little River. Mr. Turner was attempting to swim across the river with the boy on his back, and was seized with cramp.

CONGRESS.

TUESDAY, July 11.

SENATE.—Mr. Rockwell presented a petition from citizens of Massachusetts, praying for the repeal of the Fugitive Slave law.

Mr. Sumner presented similar petitions from New York, and from the Unitarian Church in Cambridge, Mass.

Mr. Brodhead's resolution relative to a new Post Office in Philadelphia was adopted.

A bill for a telegraph to the Pacific was passed. Yeas 20, nays 19

The bill authorizing the Alexandria Railroad Company to build a bridge across the Potomac, and extend their road to the depot of the Washington and Baltimore Railroad, was passed.

The Chair laid before the Senate a communication from the Secretary of the Treasury, submitting, in compliance with a resolution of the Senate, a copy of the revenue laws, carefully revised and corrected into one law, with obsolete and inconsistent provisions omitted, and all arranged and adapted to the present wants of the country, with such improvements and additions as were required by experience. The Secretary submits this to Congress, and asks for its immediate enactment. It was referred and ordered to be printed.

The bill granting a right of way for a railroad through the government grounds of Pensacola was passed.

Mr. Sebastian said an Executive session was necessary to-day; he therefore moved one, which was agreed to. When the doors were opened, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—Mr. Bennett's bill granting land to the several states for railroad purposes, was postponed till December.

A bill making provisions for postal service in California, and Oregon and Washington territories, was passed.

Mr. Old reported a bill repealing that portion of the Post Office law of 1853 which authorizes a reduction of 50 per cent, on prepaid newspapers and periodicals. He looked upon the provision as a bonus to the city press against country papers.

Remonstrances were presented against any extension of the patent on Nevin's biscuit machine.

The House then took up the Harbor bill.

After agreeing to one or two amendments, Mr. Perkins of Louisiana moved to strike out the enacting clause of the bill. Negatived—63 against 72. The Committee then rose.—House adjourned.

LATER FROM CALIFORNIA.

NEW YORK, July 12.—The steamship Star of the West, from Nicaragua, with $1,097,000 specie on freight, a large amount in the hands of passengers, and 463 passengers, arrived here this morning, but brings no later news from California.

The American Guard, of 50 men, left by Mr. Borland for the protection of the Transit Company's property at Punta Arenas, had been disbanded and returned home by the Star of the West.

Matters remain quiet at San Juan, and no further trouble is apprehended by the steamship company.

MEXICAN REVOLUTION.

Santa Anna's Imperial Throne does not appear to be exactly a couch of roses. Late papers received in New York speak of success by the Revolutionists against his government. A New York paper says:

We have received copies of the Boletin Official del Gercito Restaurador de la Libertad—the organ of Alvarez—to the 4th ult., and from them we gather some further particulars of the movements and successes of the Mexican revolution.

The state of Yucatan has adopted the plan of Ayutla in the most splendid and victorious manner. Tehuantepec, Rio Verde, (State of San Luis,) Acatlan, Chiautla, and Cheila, (State of Puebla,) Haujepan de Leon, (State of Oajaca,) Tejapelco, and many people of the State of Mexico, Sierra Gorda, and Arista, have declared their adherence to the republican flag, and we are assured, on the most reliable information, that the revolution has been equally successful in Tampico and Tula de Tamaulipas, Tuxpon, (state of Vera Cruz) and the towns of the North.

The tyrant has returned to the capital, where triumphal arches were prepared for his reception, and where, with much exterior display, he has sought to make the people believe the lying statements of his exploits.

ACAPULCO, June 20.—On the 16th, a detachment of General Alvarez's troops gave battle to Gen. Santa Anna's troops, near the Mescalla River. A captain and thirteen of Santa Anna's soldiers were killed, and forty taken prisoners, with twenty pack mules and a large quantity of baggage and stores. Santa Anna's troops then retreated. There are in Acapulco about one thousand troops. The rest of Gen. Alvarez's troops are stationed at different points on the National road, between Acapulco and the city of Mexico. These troops are all well drilled, and are determined that the State shall be free from Santa Anna's yoke.

The United States ship Portsmouth has raised the blockade of Acapulco, by ordering off the Mexican ship Santa Anna. A letter from on board her says:

ACAPULCO, June 22.—Since our letter bag was closed this morning we got under weigh and went outside and ran alongside of the Santa Anna. Captain D. sent a messenger on board to inform her commander that we had come out to convey the steamers into port, and should do so as soon as they hove in sight. Her commander replied that he should consider the blockake was broken, and should quit forthwith; he accordingly made all sail and left for Mazatlan. So the port of Acapulco is again open to all. The commander of the Santa Anna was glad to have a chance to leave; he stated that he was short of provisions, had, out of a crew of seventy-five, twenty-five on the sick list, had buried four within a week, and had not heard from Santa Anna for some time.

NEW ORLEANS, July 10.—Millbank's Ropewalk and Factory, with their contents, and several other adjoining buildings were destroyed by fire yesterday. Loss reaches $200,000, and is covered by insurance.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common Pasture Weeds a remedy that cures Every Kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruption of the skin.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonder-working medicines of the day, as that a common weed growing on the pastures and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system, yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start. There is no if's and ands, humbugs and hum's about its healing effects in cases, but not yours. I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effects of it in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. I gave it to a child over one year old; to old people of sixty. I have seen poor, puny, wormy looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some have taken it who have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is sound it works quite easy, but where there is a disorganement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings; but you must not be alarmed; they will disappear in from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it; on the contrary, when that feeling has gone, you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to.

Nothing in the annals of Patent Medicines has ever been received by the public with so much favor as this simple preparation. It is now composed of nine different herbs. In May, 1852, when I commenced making a business of it, I sold about two bottles per day. In June, 1853. I sold 4320 bottles. In October, 1853, I sold 6720 bottles. I hope you will call that doing well; I do.

In my own practice, I confine it strictly to humors; but there are some who are so enthusiastic in its favor they think what cured them will cure any thing and any body. I therefore accordingly recommend it for every variety of disease. In this way a great many virtues of it have been found that I never would suspect.

Cases of Dyspepsia, of many years standing, that withstood every known remedy, have been permanently cured.

I know one man to gain 17 lbs. by taking three bottles; another 11 lbs.; another 10 lbs.; and another 7 lbs—the venerable master Robinson of Boston.

In diseases of the Liver it is a specific. I know several with yellow skin and yellow eyes, the body emaciated and the mind melancholy, get fat and cheerful by a few bottles.

I know several cases of Dropsy, and one particularly bad. A lady, aged 79, was unable to leave her house for the last twelve years, was so much relieved (she was reduced in circumference thirty-four inches,) as to visit her friends in several neighboring towns.

Another had the Dropsy in her left leg, and was unable to walk for ten years, sometimes swelling to an enormous size; at last bursted, making a bad wound which could not be healed; by taking three bottles and using two boxes of ointment, she is now quite well. Why it should make some fat and others lean, I cannot tell, but so it is.

I know of several cases of Kidney complaints cured by it. If the disease be of a nature opposed to a proper medium, I could tell of cases of this most distressing of all diseases that would make your heart bleed, that were permanently cured by it.

It has been lately found to be a sure cure for Panaroum fever. In one case the first opium put off the fit two hours. One bottle cured him. Another came home to die, and was induced by his brother to try it. Three bottles cured him.

It likewise gives great relief in the Asthma. A lady in Lawrence was unable to lie in bed for a number of years; she can now lie without the least inconvenience.

A lady in Weymouth lost the use of her left side by the Erysipelas. It restored it to a sound state. Broke out in one mass of humor from head to foot. In a few days she was well.

It has lately been found to be equally good for humor outside as inside, (taking it inwardly in the meantime;) for Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Pimples on the Face, or any eruption of the skin whatever; only where the flesh is very sore you must dilute it with water.

When made weak enough it is the best eye-wash for weak and watery eyes that I ever saw.

Others use it to clease the dandruff out of the hair and strengthen its roots, which it certainly does, and to crown all, it made the hair grow on bald heads, which, if I had not seen with my own eyes, I would not believe from you or anybody else.

As regards dieting, I never came across the first person that ever got any benefit from it. On the contrary, numbers came to death's door by it, as it gives the humors the upper hand. My medicine requires the most nourishing food you can get. It will soon give you an appetite.

Do not for a moment suppose that I warrant a cure of all those diseases, in every case. I merely tell you what it has done, hoping it will do the same for you. I do not warrant a cure in any disease but humors, where it never fails. For further particulars see the circular around each bottle.

No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you can get, and enough of it.

I have an herb, simmered in olive oil, scatters Scrofulous swellings of the neck and under the ears. Price fifty cents per box.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE.—Adults, one table spoonful per day; children of eight years, dessert spoonful, from five to eight, tea spoonfuls. As no direction can be applicable to all constitutions, take enough to operate on the bowels once or twice daily.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swellings, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the descriptions of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others, by

W. Gibson, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University.
Valentine Mott, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, N. York.
W. P. Dewees, M.D., Prof. of Mid., Pa. University.
N. Chapman, M.D., Prof. of Physic, Pa. University.
T. Parke, M.D., Pres't College of Physicians, Phila.
Dr. Del Valle, Prof. of Medicine, Havana.
Jose Eourenco de Lara, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon.
G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spaine.
J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London.
Sir Thomas Pearson, Maj. Gen. British Army.
Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and, being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant.

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:—

and having the name Jas. Swaim stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork: and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geocentric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for this exclusive use of Messrs. Draper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swaim, copy right secured.

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c., &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge. Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA, and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottle and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase no Remedy equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is an English Remedy, and was used by William IV. late King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

1,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure. and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by his Liniment, but considers it warranting its efficacy, to any person who does not obtain relief, need not pay for it.

Price 50 cents. Dr. Tobias's Office, 240 Green

Dr. Tobias has put up a HORSE LINIMENT in pint bottles, which is warranted cheaper and better for them than any other Liniment, Old Sores, Galls, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc.

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS

With the U. S. Patent Office, Washington,

No. 76 state Street, oppo. Kilby street, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the act of 1837) would respectfully present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS instead of twenty, as paid back by others, will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at the Office.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

"R. H. EDDY, Esq., Boston, Mass.

"SIR—Your facilities for the prosecution of any business connected with this Office, are equal to those of any other agent I am very respectfully,

Yours, &c. THOMAS EWBANK,
Commissioner of Patents."

MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT—

Every land has hailed with
Xtacy this preparation whose
Curtinsive merits have introduced its
Curative powers to the notice of the whole
American people. Rheumatism of long duration,
Neuralgia, with its tortures, have yielded to its
Magical influence; cankers, contorted joints,
Ulcerated and swollen limbs that have
Suffered years on years under the grip of disease,
Turn by its application to suppleness and health.
A remedy of such general usefulness that can
Restore newness of Action to the diseased nerves,
Arteries and glands of the human body,
Is worthy of high fame.
Let the rheumatic, halt, lame and palsied
Invalid examine its qualities, and they will
Not be disappointed. Years of study and
Investigation have enabled the proprietors of the
Mexican Mustang Liniment to furnish a remedy,
Extraordinary in its power over diseases.
No matter of how long standing—sold at

HOUSES FOR SALE.

THE DWELLING HOUSE, No. 9 School street. This is a well built house, two (high) stories, in good repair, and is convenient for one family or two families, or for a large Boarding House. It contains nine or more rooms and two sculleries, and has an excellent cellar under the whole house. The situation is central, being about equi-distant from the markets, factories and railroads. Connected with this house is a building which has been and may be occupied both as a barn and a work-shop. If not sold soon, a part or the whole of the premises will be let.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 6 Green street. This house is fitted for two tenements; it is well built, was thoroughly painted and put in good order the last season, and is well calculated for two families, (having 6 rooms each) and may be considered a good location for persons employed at the north end. It is centrally located between the different ship-yards in that section of the city, each tenement will be sold separately, if desired.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 7 Liberty street, corner of Charles street. This house was formerly owned and occupied by the late Peter M. Lowd and is in good order. Attached to it is a lot of land large enough for a Stable or for another dwelling house. It would make a good place for the residence of a person employed at the ship-yards across the river, or at the Navy Yard.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 47 Bow street.—This house has been built but a few years, is well finished off, and is very convenient. In the rear is quite a large garden spot. This would be a desirable place for a person employed at the ship-yards, or at the Navy Yard nearly opposite.

Also, for sale, a BUILDING LOT, on Mount Vernon street, (opposite No. 2,) with a small building thereon, which can be finished off into a Dwelling house.

All of the above property will be sold on liberal terms, if applied for soon. For further particulars apply to JOSEPH M. EDMONDS,
Feb. 27. No. 9 Islington street.

TO LET—The STORE on the corner of Vaughan and Deer streets. It was occupied as the first Union Store in this city, and is considered as a good stand for business. It is within a few rods of the Boston and Portland Railroad Depots. Possession can be had immediately.

FOR SALE—The HOUSE in the rear of the above, on Vaughan street—a convenient house for two families, and has been occupied for about six years, by the same tenants. It rents for $160. For information, terms, &c., call on JOSEPH L. LOCKE, on the premises, or JOSEPH M. EDMONDS, 9 Islington st. m29

DR. ORDWAY'S HUMOR DISCOVERY,

AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

DR. ORDWAY has been using his Blood Purifier in his practice for the last seven years with great success. He has often been urged by his friends and those who have tried it, and know its efficacy, to put it within the reach of all. He has now added to it an Herb, discovered in California, by Dr. KELLEY, which makes it the most wonderful remedy for

HUMORS OF ALL KINDS,

LIVER COMPLAINTS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

The virtues of this Herb were first made known to Dr. Kelley by an Indian, while attending a patient, sick with that terrible disease, the Cali-forian Erysipelas and Liver Complaint—the effect was miraculous—curing the man in a few days. The natives, when bitten by a rattles ake, or rabid animal, resort to this Herb for a cure.—Hundreds are taking this medicine after trying in vain other remedies, and say that the half was never told them.

If you have Erysipelas, 3 to 5 bottles will cure it.
If you have Scrofula, 3 to 7 bottles will cure it.
Three to six bottles will cure Salt Rheum.
One or two bottles will cure Pimples on the Face.
Two or three bottles will cure Scaly Eruptions and Scald Head
One to three bottles will cure NursingSoreMouth
One to three bottles will cleanse the system of Biles.
Two to five bottles will cure Rheumatism.
Three to four bottles will cure old running Sores and Ulcers.
One or two bottles will cure Barber's Itch.
One to three bottles will cure Canker in the mouth and bowels.

For Liver Complaints and Jaundice.

Its effects are new and wonderful, removing obstructions from the Liver, open the pores of the skin, carrying off the morbid matter, relieving the side, and all-gone feelings of the stomach; and removing low spirits and despondency, which is the result of this disagreeable and often fatal disease.

FOR DYSPEPSIA.

A fair trial will convince you that there is nothing like it.

FOR CANCEROUS HUMORS,

It is the surest remedy ever offered. One widow lady in Lawrence, has been troubled with Cancer for years, by taking two bottles says she is now quite well.

FOR COSTIVENESS.

One gentleman says that it was the only medicine that cured him.

FOR KIDNEY DIFFICULTIES,

It is spoken of in the highest terms. A young man was sick so much with Asthma that he had to leave College; three bottles cured him. and he has now resumed his studies. One lady in Salem was perfectly cured of Periodical Sick Headache, by the use of two bottles. Mr. Williams, of Lawrence, had humors in his eyes for years, and was cured by the use of the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier. For Chills and Fever, Mercurial Diseases, Taints in the System, it stands unrivalled; sometimes where the system is much deranged it will cause disagreeable feelings at first, but continue its use as indications favorable. It is purely vegetable, and its compound and proportions are such that the effect is perfectly satisfactory and safe.

FULL DIRECTIONS ON THE BOTTLE.

☞ Price $1.00. ☜

HE HAS ALSO A HUMOR SALVE,

Unsurpassed for external humors, which, if used in connection with the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier will much facilitate a cure.

Dr. Ordway's Cough Destroyer.

This invaluable Cough Remedy is for the complete cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Influenza, Whooping Cough, pains in the side and breast, hacking or tickling at the throat, spitting blood, tightness across the lungs and chest, and all Lung Complaints leading to Consumption.

No medicine yet discovered has that decided effect in curing Bronchial affections as the Cough Destroyer. It can be taken by all ages and classes, from a child six months old to the oldest man or woman, with the most happy results.

PRICE 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Pain Destroyer.

This preparation is composed of a great variety of Extracts, Gums, Essential Oils, most of which have not heretofore been united and compounded into one present form. It will cure attacks of Cramps of the Stomach, Spasms, Convulsions, Faintings, Pain in the Stomach, Bowels, Side, Back, Limbs, and a great variety of other difficulties. It is also invaluable as an external remedy. It will be found to contain nearly double the strength of any similar article, and possesses properties heretofore unknown. No family should be without it for a single day.

PRICE 25, 50 AND 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Garden Engines.

JULT received at "the sign of the Big Coffee Pot" a full supply of Garden or Fire Engines, which are respectfully commended by the subscriber to the notice of the public. Wherever these Engines have been introduced they have invariably given entire satisfaction. They are unsurpassed for power, capacity or usefulness. From the size of the air chamber sufficent power is obtained to enable one man to throw a steady stream of water to the height of fifty feet perpendicularly, thereby rendering it a desirable article as a

PROTECTION AGAINST FIRE,

And for washing windows of second and third stories of building, carriages, &c. With a newly invented water diffuser as a Garden Engine it defies competition. The diffuser is a perfect and simple article, and its superiority over the common rose sprinkler is that it will throw three times the quantity of water a much greater distance and spread it perfectly even, with less power applied. An Engine with a diffuser of this description, used in orchards and gardens to throw soap suds on the young trees, will destroy many kinds of vermin, without fear of its injure the fruit and be an invaluable addition to the implements of the Nurseryman and Horticulturist.

Marble Chimney Pieces.

THE PENRHYN MARBLE is a new and beautiful article, manufactured of Stone imported from England, which is enameled in imitation of of the richest and most expensive Spanish, Galway, Egyptian, Pyronese, Lisbon, Sienna and other rare and desirable kinds of Marble—the imitation being so perfect as to challenge detection without the closest scrutiny. In style of finish these Chimney Pieces stand unequalled, being very highly polished—retaining their beauty much longer than common marble, and are not injured by oils, smoke, coal gas or acids. They have been extensively introduced into public and private buildings, giving perfect satisfaction to those who have used them. The best of references can be given, showing their adaptedness for general use, the subscriber having furnished some of the best dwelling houses in the city with them during the last two years.

While excelling all others in beauty of finish and appearance, they are sold much cheaper than any thing of the kind in the market. The subscriber has now in Store a complete assortment of the above named desirable Goods, to which he invites the attention of all interested.

GENERAL QUITMAN.

The N. O. Delta gives a humorous description of Gen. Quitman's examination before the grand jury in New Orleans. The General appeared on one of the hottest afternoons ever experienced in New Orleans—as cool and calm as an autumnal eve. He was received with great courtesy and consideration. As soon as the parties were seated, and the ardor of their mutual admiration and respect had subsided into the requisite gravity and self-possession of high officials charged with very important duties, the district attorney handed to the general a printed circular which purported to contain a report of a meeting held at some unnamed place, relative to the island of Cuba, and of certain eloquent speeches delivered on that occasion by certain gentlemen. The general very coolly inspected this document, after which he was asked if he knew anything about said meeting, or of any other meeting, which contemplated any expedition or enterprise of revolutionary character against the island of Cuba. Thereupon, the general addressed the grand jury substantially as follows:

"Gentlemen—I have no knowledge of any act or speeches of the character referred to, or any other contemplating a revolutionary movement in the island of Cuba, in which I have not participated to as great an extent as any other person. I have done nothing, however, which, in my judgement, is either lawless or dishonorable. My conscience is clear on these points. But after the interpretations that have recently been given to the law, I submit it to your sense of honor, justice and propriety, if I can be expected to answer any questions relating to such movements or purposes."

"Certainly not," remarked several of the jurors.

"If it is your pleasure, then, gentlemen, I will retire," said the general.

"You can go," said the foreman, as if he regretted to part with the general, and thereupon the gallant gentleman bowed himself out.

This looks to our vision very like a farce. The General does not deny his fillibustering, but defends it, and claims to be its chief, or one of its chiefs, declining to answer questions—and the grand jury of New Orleans say Amen.

BARKING UP THE WRONG TREE.—The Boston Chronicle says:

Mr. Timothy Gilbert publishes a note he has received from one of his Southern customers, (W. R. Baker, Houston, Texas,) in which the said customer says he does not wish to patronize the said Gilbert, on account of his having "taken a conspicuous part in the late disgraceful riot in Boston," and he accordingly withdraws an order for pianos. The indignant Texan must have been thinking of Mr. G.'s Maine Lawism, which, though it belongs to the same genus, fanaticism, is yet of a slightly different species from that which counselled riot, at the time mentioned.

There is a slight difference between the fanaticism of enforcing one statute and resisting another; and yet our namesake styles them both fanaticism. He must take care, or somebody will expel him, if he dares to make any distinction between a good law and a bad statute. He must obey every thing which owls or donkeys dignify with a legal cloak, or else be pronounced a fanatic, a heretic, or a rebel.

LYNCH LAW IN KENTUCKY.—A negro slave in Danbridge, Ky., was burned a few weeks since by a party of indignant citizens. He had committed a fiendish outrage on a sister of his master—in the accomplishment of which he took the life of his master and mistress, and finally killed the young lady who was the particular object of his villainy. It is said that this violent punishment was adopted "as a means of absolute necessary self-defence, which could not be secured by an ordinary resort to the laws. Several executions by hanging have taken place, of slaves guilty of similar offences, but it had produced no radical terrer."

The whole of this is horrible,—and it shows pretty plainly that the severity of laws is not always a guaranty of their observance. It shows also, that the disregard of life and purity in respect of one race or color, is apt to react on another.

HOW IS IT?—The Newburyport Herald says:

There is satisfactory evidence that the Catholic females in our country, are, as a class, among the most chaste in the community, and when their physical organization and their lack of education is considered, this can only be attributed to the powerful influence of the confessional. Occasionally some one breaks through this barrier, and then the testimony of police officers and other observers is that the degredation is of the worst and and most frightful kind.

Of the last statement, we have no knowledge. If the first be true, we should like to see the evidence; and until we do see it, we stand much in doubt. That the influence of the confessional is powerful, we doubt not; but it is difficult to believe it tends to preserve purity, when we read such testimony as one priest gave of another in Cincinnati the other day.

VERMONT STATE TEMPERANCE CONVENTION.—Montpelier, July 12.—The convention called to consider the propriety of nominating a temperance ticket for state officers, is in session here to-day; Gen. Walton of Montpelier presides. No nomination will probably be made, as the Whig and Democratic candidates have most fully endorsed the provisions of the Maine Liquor Law. The attendance is quite large and proceedings harmonious.

LEGISLATIVE.—Concord, N. H., July 12.—Veto of the Concord Charter Bill.—Gov. Baker has vetoed one of the bills passed this session as follows:—

I have had presented me for approval and signature a bill entitled an act in amendment of an act to establish the city of Concord.

The 3d section of said bill was as follows:—"The City Council of Concord may make, establish, publish, alter, modify, amend or repeal ordinances, rules, regulations and by laws to regulate, restrain or prohibit the sale or use of all intoxicating drinks."

Believing, as I do, that the Legislature has no constitutional right to prohibit the use of all intoxicating drinks, and therefore no constitutional right to delegate such power to the municipal authorites of any city or town, I return the bill to the House of Representatives in which it originated, with these my objections. (Signed) N. B. BAKER.

The House passed the liquor bill this afternoon by a vote of 155 to 106. It will not go through the Senate.

N. H. LEGISLATURE.—CONCORD, July 13. The Governor's veto on the Concord Charter bill was sustained to-day—only six votes against it.

Legislature will not adjourn before Saturday next, if then.

REPRESENTATIVES.—In the House of Representatives at Concord, on Wednesday, action was taken on several contested seats in the House.

Jotham Harmon of Madison, Wm. C. Webster of Kingston, Wm. Haselton, jr., of Pembroke, and six members from Manchester, hold their seats.

Mr. Wheeler of Berlin was declared not a member, as no legal notice was given of the town meeting. And the three members from Sanbornton were sent home because the check list did not contain names enough to send them.

Messrs. Woodbury and Benton of Goffstown were ousted, and Alonzo F. Carr was declared entitled to a seat from that town.

NEW YORK, July 11.—A writer in the Journal of Commerce, who is vouched for by the editor as an eminent lawyer in Connecticut, denies that the New Haven Railroad Company are, or can by any means, be made responsible for the fraudulent stock issued by Schuyler. The writer says there can be no stock without the payment of money, or that which is equivalent, and that the amount of stock is limited by the charter, and cannot exceed the charter limits—the Directors are mere agents of the Company, and have no power to increase the stock, and much less to ratify a fraudulent act of one of their members.

Per Contra, it is said that no means exist whereby any man can distinguish the true from the false.

CHOLERA IN RICHMOND, ME.—We learn that the cholera is said to be prevailing at Richmond, Me., and is creating quite a panic among the inhabitants. Twenty-six deaths have occured in that town (out of a population of two or three thousand) since the 4th of July. Six of these deaths were in one family (Irish) and are decided to have been caused by ship fever. The remainder are said to have been cholera cases. Many of the inhabitants were leaving town, and business was generally suspended, particularly in the shipyards.—(Boston Journal.)

CHOLERA IN BROOKLYN.—New York, June 13*th*.—The reports of the Board of Health, in Brooklyn, indicate that the Cholera is rapidly increasing in that city. Twenty deaths were reported yesterday, and there were 7 deaths on Tuesday night; 6 persons died in the hospital; five persons, residents of the most filthy parts of the city, died on Monday, and were unattended by any physician.

ARREST.—Francis A. Lancaster, alias Lawrence, who hails from New Hampshire, was arrested for fogrery on the Bank of New York for $2600; he confessed the act and was committed for trial.

CHOLERA AT JAMAICA AND BARBADOES.—Kingston and Bermuda papers bring us melancholy accounts of the increasing ravages of the cholera at Jamaica and Barbadoes. In Jamaica the cholera was raging in the cities and on the plantations in various parts of the country. In St. Ann's Bay, the mortality was frightful, and there was no appearance of the disease having abated. More than 500 had died, and new cases were constantly occurring. In Metcalf there had been 600 victims, and the disease continued to prevail.—It had also appeared in St. Thomas, in the east, and there proved fatal to a number of persons. Among the remedies said to have been successfully tried in Kingston was seawater. Frequently repeated doses of four ounces, to patients in advanced stages of the cholera, had been administered with favorable results.

In Barbadoes the mortality at last accounts was daily on the increase. In the new burial ground at Bridgetown there had been buried in one day 244 human beings who died of the disease. Abel Clinkett, the editor of the Barbadian, had died. Mr. Drinan, editor of the Globe, was barely convalescent. The Liberal was published on but half a sheet of paper. Its sub-editor was sick, and there was but a single hand at work in the office besides the foreman. Of 150 prisoners confined in the jail of Bridgetown, but 13 survived, and they had been released by order of the Governor. The total number of deaths in the city up to June 13th, was 2107. Every precaution had been taken by the authorities against the extension of the disease. A panic prevailed among the inhabitants, however, and excess of fright had doubtless caused the death of many.

☞ Rev. Louis Dwight, Secretary of the Prison Discipline Society, died in Boston on Wednesday evening, aged 61.

An author unknown achieves the following remark:—The entrance of a single woman of talent into a family, is sufficient to keep it clear of fools for several generations.

LOCAL.

THE CHRONICLE.—With the close of the present month, will end the second year's issue of the Daily Chronicle. In accordance with our usual custom of semi-annual settlements, we have made out our bills for advertising and job printing to July 1st; as we wish to change our business year, as far as convenient, so as to open new accounts in January and July, instead of February and August as heretofore.

NEWSPAPER THIEVES.—Notwithstanding the low price at which we furnish the Chronicle, there are some persons with souls so small that it is cheaper for them to steal than buy the paper. Our early hour of circulation affords good opportunity for picking subscribers' doors. We will pay $10 for evidence to convict any one of the offence.

☞ There being no quorum present last evening, no business was transacted by the Board of Aldermen.

THE VETERANS, who were not all veterans in reality, went through with their programme on Friday, in good style. Under command of their Captain, Brig. Gen. J. G. Hadley—accompanied by Bond's celebrated Cornet Bank, they took the first cars for Greenland, thence to Rye Beach in carriages. Nelson N. Downing took the silver cup, first prize, for the best average shots at the target; Samuel Lamprey the second prize, (gold pencil,) and Lt. T. F. Rowe the third prize, (gold pencil.)

We understand the Company, with their guests, enjoyed their dinner at the Union House very highly. The crowd returned by the 4 1-4 train to this city, and after a short parade with riddled target, disbanded, well satisfied with their day's sport.

☞ On Tuesday last, Mr. John S. H. Frink, of Greenland, was admitted to the practice of law in the Superior Court, now in session at Concord. Mr. Frink pursued a full course of study in the office of Albert R. Hatch, Esq. of this city.

NICE PENS.—Of the fifteen patterns of metallic pens furnished our desk, by Mr. Shores, a short time since, we prefer C. A. Haskins & Co's Accountant's Pens. They are of an angular shape, bronze color, write finely, are durable, and do not corrode quickly.

☞ The Hackmen of this city, having tried the low fare or ninepenny system of work, for about six months past, have found it unprofitable and ruinous to their interest, wearying men and wearing down horses to no profit.—They have therefore concluded, as will be seen by advertisement, to put up their fare again to a quarter, which they suppose will pay.

☞ It is expected that there will be no services at the Pleasant Street Church on Sunday next, 16th inst.

A NEW ADVERTISEMENT.—Wm. R. Preston, chemist, druggist and apothecary, 2 Congress Block, has recently raised a new emblematic sign in front of the City Medical Dispensary. It is a handsome affair, swung on a large pole, similar to the old hotel signs.* We don't see the flag-staff above it yet, but probably the Dr. will hoist one in place of the gilt mortar which now surmounts the pole,—when his medicines have conquered all diseases. On one side is the Good Samaritan, serving him who was "left half dead," with the inscription "And he went and bound up his wounds;" on the other, three mammoth bottles, labelled respectively "Preston's Vegetable Catholicon," "Preston's Worm Syrup," and "Preston's Cough Syrup," with the inscription "Preston's Catholicon purifies the blood." The enterprising proprietor of the City Medical Dispensary is one of those who "believe in advertising" of all sorts, (what enterprising man or woman don't?) that of a good sign among the rest. Messrs. Butler & Poldemann were the painters.

* A stranger from the country, we are informed, called here with a team the other evening, desiring to put up for the night. Preston don't keep open all night, we beleive,—but customers can be served at his store at almost any time.

SARATOGA, N. Y., July 11.—The Kidnapping Case.—The examination of Alexander Merrill and Joseph Russell, charged with kidnapping Solomon Northrop, and selling him into slavery, has been in progress to-day at Ballston Spa. Northrop distinctly swore to their being the persons, and told how he was hired at Saratoga Springs in 1841, to go South with them to join a circus, and how he was treated at Washington with drugged liquors. A witness was in Court who drank with Northrop and his kidnappers at Washington the night before he was put in the slave pen, and it is expected that a witness will come forward and testify to having heard Merrill tell of selling Northrop. The accused were discovered from the descriptions and incidents given in Northrop's book.

SARATOGA, July 12.—The examination of Merrill and Russell, charged with kidnapping Samuel Northrop, continued to-day. The evidence is strong against them. Their counsel refused to call witnesses on their behalf; contending that the statute of immutation required that the indictment should be made within three years after the commission of the offence. The District Attorney contended that the crime was continued until Northrop was released from slavery. The Justice took the same view, and committed the prisoner.—Northrop has commenced suits for damages against both, and they have been held to bail in $5000 each.

FOURTH OF JULY ACCIDENT.—On Monday night, a woman named Catharine Awban was killed in New York by the accidental discharge of a pistol in the hands of a German named Frederick Van Clenback, who was celebrating the Fourth.

There are but few accidents from celebrations on that day, recorded in the newspapers; —for the reason, we suppose, that there were very few public celebrations, and consequently but few cannon fired by gunners who were neither good artillerists nor sober men.

3 DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

NEW YORK, July 12.

The Royal Mail steamship Asia, Captain Lott, from Liverpool, July 1st, arrived about 8 o'clock this evening.

The Asia brings 73 passengers.

The aspect of the war has undergone an entire change, and it is difficult to see what new complications may arise.

Austria is ready to march 200,000 troops into the Principalities, thus interposing between the combatants and preventing further actual hostilities in that quarter.

Austria has not yet received the Czar's official reply, and cannot probably before the 3d July, and will not act decisively until received. The action of Austria is in accordance with the convention between herself individually and the Porte.

The whole Anglo French force is now at Varna, preparing it is supposed for an expedition under General St. Arnaud in persen in the Crimea.

The whole of the Russian army of occupation is falling back in good order with all its stores on the Pruth. The garrison of Ismail, Galumatz, &c., was already on the march to Crimea, and all the disposable force will immediately follow, as that is supposed to be the next battlefield.

Nicholas is on his way to the Crimea from Kiew.

Sir Charles Napier on the 27th of June had concentrated his whole force in the Baltic, 25 miles from Cronstadt, in a manner that would indicate an attack.

Four British ships had bombarded Bomarsour.

The White Sea will be blockaded by 1st of August.

Both armies in Asia are motionless.

Greece is quiet.

There was an interesting debate in Parliament on the Fishery Treaty and Canada Elective Council.

Capt. PEARSON, of the Rose Standish, died of his wounds received at Shanghae.

LATEST.—Second Despatch.—VIENNA, Friday.—The Times correspondent is assured that Meyendorf received his letters on Friday morning, but it is not believed that diplomatic relations with Russia will be broken off.—Count Coronovo is to enter Little Wallachia by way of Orsova with about 30,000 men on the 3d July.

On the 20th and 23d of June, the Turkish vanguard of 25,000 men attacked the rear of the Russians and drove it beyond Trajan's wall.

In the treaty between Austria and Turkey it is added that Austria will not enter into any arrangement with Russia which shall not proceed to the assumption of the sovereign right of the Sultan and the integrity of the Empire.

Austria will evacuate the principalities on the conclusion of peace with the least possible delay.

A pontoon bridge at Kallarisch broke down on the 20th of June, with 500 Russian artillerymen, most of whom were drowned and their guns lost.

According to the Vienna Lloyd's, the Russians have shut up the Sea of Azof, by sinking in the Straits of Kertch 32 large barges laden with rocks.

Money in England was easier; Consols 94. American stocks advanced.

Breadstuffs in HAVRE—slack demand, and little offered. In Liverpool, markets being influenced by weather, depression in prices forms the ruling feature of the trade. Buyers still act on the reserve, and the decline of the week is quoted by the Broker's Board at 2d on fine and 4d on inf wheat; 1s a 1s 6d on flour, and 2s on corn.

CONGRESS.

WEDNESDAY, July 12.

SENATE.—The Homestead bill was taken up, debated, and postponed; and after a short executive session the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—Mr. Cutting of New York, was excused from serving on the Committee relative to Colt's patent case, on the ground of other engagements.

The House resumed the consideration of the bill repealing so much of the act of 1852 as makes a reduction of 50 per cent on prepaid postage for newspapers and periodicals.

When the morning hour expired the House went into Committee on the River and Harbor bill.

A confused and excited party debate took place, and great disorder prevailed; when, finally, the bill was reported to the House.

Mr. Perkins of La., moved to lay it on the table. Negatived, 57 to 93.

Pending the question on amendment, the House adjourned.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—The reciprocity treaty was reported by the committee yesterday, without amendment, and as it is certain that the whole power and influence of the administration will be brought to bear in its favor, the prospects for its confirmation is considerably improved.

The River and Harbor bill was taken up to-day, and passed the House by a handsome majority.

MAINE.—Mr. H. B. Brewster, who sometime since started a paper called "The Liberal," at Bangor, has written a letter to the Bangor Mercury, complaining that the opponents of the Maine law in Maine, and the friends of the nomination of Mr. Cary for Governor, do not come forward and properly support his paper, and he must therefore discontinue it.

The Universalist State Convention held its session at Norway last week, as previously appointed. Resolutions in favor of the Maine law, and in opposition to the Fugitive Slave law, and the Nebraska bill, were offered by Rev. J. L. Stevens, and passed without opposition.—Boston Courier.

GLASS IN A FINGER FOURTEEN YEARS.—A lady in this city, wife of Henry Wilcox, Esq., about fourteen years since, accidentally stack a piece of glass, about one quarter of an inch in length, into one of her fingers. A few days ago it voluntarily ejected itself, much to her relief, as it has been the cause of much trouble during the whole time it has been lodged there.—New Bedford Standard.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common Pasture Weeds a remedy that cures Every Kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, both thunder humors. He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruption of the skin.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of crofula.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed growing on the pastures and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system, yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start. There is no if's and ands, hums and ha's about its suiting some cases, but not yours. I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effects of it in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. I gave it to children a year old; to old people of sixty. I have seen poor, puny, wormy looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some have taken it who have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is sound it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings; but you must not be alarmed; they will disappear in from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it; on the contrary, when that feeling is gone, you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to.

Nothing in the annals of Patent Medicines has ever been received by the public with so much favor as this simple preparation. It is now composed of nine different herbs. In May, 1832, when I commenced making a business of it, I sold about two bottles per day. In June, 1853. I sold 4320 bottles. In October, 1853, I sold 6120 bottles. I hope you will call that doing well; I do.

In my own practice, I confine it strictly to humors; but there are some who are so enthusiastic in its favor they think what cured them will cure any thing and any body; they accordingly recommend it for every variety of disease. In this way a great many virtues of it have been found that I never would suspect.

Cases of Dyspepsia, of many years standing, that withstood every known remedy, have been permanently cured.

I know one man to gain 17 lbs. by taking three bottles; another 11 lbs.; another 10 lbs.; and another 7 lbs.—the venerable master Robinson of Boston.

In diseases of the Liver it is a specific. I know several with yellow skin and yellow eyes, the body emaciated and the mind melancholy, get fat and cheerful by a few bottles.

I know several cases of Dropsy, and one particularly bad. A lady, aged 79, was unable to leave her house for the last twelve years, and so much relieved (she was reduced in circumference thirty-four inches,) as to visit her friends in several neighboring towns

Another had the Dropsy in her left leg, and was unable to walk for ten years, sometimes swelling to an enormous size; at last bursted, making a bad wound which could not be healed; by taking three bottles and using two boxes of ointment, she is now quite well. Why it should make some fat and others lean, I cannot tell, but so it is.

I know of several cases of Kidney complaints cured by it In the columns of a newspaper was a proper medium, I could tell of case of this most distressing of all diseases that would make your hearts bleed, that were permanently cured by it.

It has been lately found to be a sure cure for Panama fever. In one case the first spoonful put off the fit two hours. One bottle cured him. Another came home to die, and was induced by his brother to try it. Three bottles cured him.

It likewise gives great relief in the Asthma. A lady in Lawrence was unable to lie in bed for a number of years; she can now lie without the least inconvenience.

A lady in Weymouth lost the use of her left side by the Erysipelas. On the second bottle, she broke out in one mass of humor from head to foot. In a few days she was well.

It lately been found to be equally good for humor outside as inside, (taking it inwardly in the meantime,) for Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Pimples on the Face, or any eruption of the skin whatever; only where the flesh is very sore you must dilute it with water.

When made weak enough it is the best eye-wash for weak and watery eyes that I ever saw.

Others use it to clease the dandruff out of the hair and strengthen its roots, which it certainly does, and to crown all, it made the hair grow on bald heads, which, if I had not seen with my own eyes, I would not believe from you or anybody else.

As regards dieting, I never came across the first person that ever got any benefit from it. On the contrary, numbers came to death's door by it, as it gives the humors the upper hand. My medicine requires the most nourishing food you can get. It will soon give you an appetite.

Do not for a moment suppose that I warrant a cure of all those diseases, in every case. I merely tell you what it has done, hoping it will do the same for you. I do not warrant a cure in any disease but humors, unless it never fails. For further particulars see the circular around each bottle.

No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you can get, and enough of it.

I have an herb, simmered in olive oil, scatters Scrofulous swellings all over the neck and under the ears. Price fifty cents per box.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE. Adults, one table spoonful per day; children of eight years, dessert spoonful; from five to eight, less spoonfuls. As no direction can be applicable to all constitutions, take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the descriptions of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among these, by

W. Gibson, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University.
Valentine Mott, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, N. Y.
W. P. Dewees, M.D., Prof. of Mid., Pa. University.
N. Chapman, M.D., Prof. of Physic, Pa. University.
T. Parke, M.D., Prest't College of Physicians, Phila.
Dr. Del Vallo, Prof. of Medicine, Havana.
Jose Eourenco de Lux, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon.
G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spaine.
J. Chapman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London.
Sir Thomas Pearson, Maj. Gen. British Army.
Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and, being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:—

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork: and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a concentric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swaim, copy right secured.

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c., &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge. Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, BELL'S STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA, and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase no Remedy equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is an English Remedy, and was used by William IV. late King of England, and certified to by him, as the cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure, and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by his Liniment, but considers warranting it sufficient, as any person who does not obtain relief, need not pay for it.

Price 50 cents. Dr. Tobias's Office, 240 Green

Dr. Tobias has put up a HORSE LINIMENT in pint bottles, which is warranted cheaper and better than any other for Cholic, Scratches, Old Sores, Galls, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc. which street, New York.

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS

With the U. S. Patent Office, Washington,

No. 76 state Street, oppo. Kilby street, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal of the application within ty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT—

Every land has hailed with
Xtacy this preparation whose
Intrinsic merits has introduced its
Curative powers to the notice of the whole
American people. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Magical influence; cancers, contorted joints, Ulcerated and swollen limbs that have Suffered for years under the weight of disease, Turn by its application to suppleness and health. A remedy of such general usefulness that can Restore newness of Action to the diseased nerves, Arteries and glands of the human body, Is worthy of high praise.

Let the rheumatic, halt, lame and palsied
Invalid examine its qualities, and they will
Not be disappointed. Years of study and

HOUSES FOR SALE.

THE DWELLING HOUSE, No. 9 School street. This is a well built house, two (high) stories, in good repair, and is convenient for one family or two families, or for a large Boarding House. It contains nine or more rooms and two oculieries, and has an excellent cellar under the whole house. The situation is central, being about equi-distant from the markets, factories and railroads. Connected with this house is a building which has been and may be occupied both as a barn and a work-shop. If not sold soon, a part or the whole of the premises will be let.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 6 Green street. This house is fitted for two tenements; it is well built, was thoroughly painted and put in good order the last season, and is well calculated for two families, (having about 6 rooms each) and may be considered a good location for persons employed at the north end. It is centrally located between the different ship-yards in that section of the city. each tenement will be sold separately, if desired.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 7 Liberty street, corner of Charles street. This house was formerly owned and occupied by the late Peter M. Lowd and is in good order. Attached to it is a lot of land large enough for a Stable or for another dwelling house. It would make a good place for the residence of a person employed at the shipyards or at the river, or at the Navy Yard.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 47 Bow street.—This house has been built but a few years, is well finished off, and is very convenient. In the rear is quite a large garden spot. This would be a desirable place for a person employed at the shipyards, or at the Navy Yard nearly opposite.

Also, for sale, a BUILDING LOT, on Mount Vernon street, (opposite No. 2,) with a small building thereon, which can be finished off into a Dwelling house.

All of the above property will be sold on liberal terms, if applied for soon. For further particulars apply to JOSEPH M. EDMONDS,
Feb. 27. No. 9 Islington street.

TO LET—The STORE on the corner of Vaughan and Deer streets. It was occupied as the first Union Store in this city, and is considered as a good stand for business. It is within a few rods of the Boston and Concord Railroad Depots. Possession can be had immediately.

FOR SALE—The HOUSE in the rear of the above, on Vaughan street—a convenient house for two families, and has been so occupied for about six years, by the same tenants. It rents for $160. For information, terms, &c., call on JOSEPH L. LOCKE, on the premises, or JOSEPH M. EDMONDS, 9 Islington st. m29

MORNING CHRONICLE.

BY MILLERS & GRAY. PORTSMOUTH, N. H., SATURDAY, JULY 15, 1854. VOLUME 4. NO. 140.

THE DAILY MORNING CHRONICLE

is published by
FRANK W. MILLER, SAMUEL GRAY, & THOS. W. MILLER,
At No. 4 Exchange Buildings,
Pleasant Street,.....PORTSMOUTH, N. H.

TERMS $4 a year, or $3 if paid strictly in advance.

The Weekly Chronicle,
A family newspaper, containing the news of the week, with carefully selected miscellany, &c., is published every Saturday morning—at $1 a year in advance.

ADVERTISING.—For a Square of sixteen lines nonpareil, or less, one insertion 50 cts., three insertions $1, and liberal terms for continuance.

Yearly, quarterly or monthly advertisers liberally accommodated—and their advertisements inserted in both papers without extra charge, thus affording unequalled facilities to business men.

☞ All accounts settled semi-annually.

JOB AND CARD PRINTING promptly executed.

V. B. Palmer, American Newspaper Agent, is the only authorized agent for this paper in the cities of Boston, New York and Philadelphia, and is duly empowered to take advertisements and subscriptions at the same rates as required by us. His receipts will be regarded as payments.

WAR ITEMS FROM PUNCH.—The Czar's Cellar. Being at war both with France and England, the Emperor of Russia has his supplies of champagne stopped by the French, and we take care to seal up all his ports.

Vegetables for the Army. It has been proposed that the Commissariat should issue rations of cauliflower to clothing Colonels, to compensate those gallant officers for the loss of cabbage which they have sustained through a recent arrangement.

Indecision. The indecision of the King of Prussia is known now by a different term—it is called 'Berlin-Woolgathering.'

Literary Character of the Czar. Nicholas has been the author of great misfortunes to Russia. He is an author whose subjects will soon be all threadbare.

Buffon Improved by Nicholas. Judging impartially from the quantity of Te Deums that have been heard at St. Petersburg, we should say that the Russian eagle was most decidedly a bird of pray.

The Battle that is Fought on the Hearth. The poor fellow whose wife has, for the last ten years, been continually giving him a 'bit of her mind,' has just declared himself anxious to have a 'Peace-at-any-price.

The Force of Contrast. We have a shrewd suspicion that the poor meek minded creatures who go in for 'peace at any price,' are afflicted with dreadfully unruly wives. We suspect that it is their having so much war at home that makes them anxious to see peace at all events abroad.

MORAL SUASION ON A RAM.—When a friend of ours, whom we call Agricola, was a boy, he lived on a farm in Berkshire county, the owner of which was troubled by his dog, Wolf. The cur killed his sheep, knowing perhaps, that his master was conscientiously opposed to capital punishment, and he could devise no means to prevent it.

I can break him of it, said Agricola, if you will give me leave.

Thou art permitted, said the honest farmer; and we will let Agricola tell the story in his own words.

There was a ram on the farm, said Agricola, as notorious for butting as Wolf was for sheep killing, and who stood in as much need of moral suasion as the dog. I shut Wolf up in the barn with this old fellow, and the consequence was, that the dog never looked a sheep in the face again. The ram broke every bone in his body literally. Wonderfully lifted up was the ram aforesaid, by his exploit; his insolence became intolerable; he was sure to pitch into whomsoever went nigh him. I'll fix him, said I, and so I did. I rigged an iron crowbar out of a hole in the barn, point foremost, and hung an old hat on the end of it. You can't always tell, when you see a hat, whether there is a head in it or not; how then, should a ram? Aries made at it full butt, and being a good marksman from long practice, the bar broke in between his horns, and came out at his tail. This little admonition effectually cured him of butting.

MODEST MERIT.—In Benton's 'Thirty Year View,' is an anecdote of Lafayette, that on approaching the harbor of New York, he made the unsophisticated inquiry, whether his servant would be able to find a hack at the pier to convey his party to the hotel, so little did he anticipate the national pageant which anxiously awaited his landing.

A letter in the Liverpool Times represents St. Petersburg as strangely altered in its appearance since the Turkish war commenced. Everything looks very gloomy in doors and out of doors. The city, once so beautiful and full of life, is no longer to be recognized. The palaces are converted into barracks, bridges are broken down, the streets covered with tents for more than 40,000 Bashkeers, who have come from the governments of Orenburg and Perm, from their steppes and nomad encampments, and to have entered St. Petersburg for the protection of the city, where they make a hideous impression. But the proud and magnificent guard has gone away, partly to Poland, partly to Finland, and thus, in the total absence of moving life and daily intercourse, the city looks desolate.

MAINE LUMBER.—The amount of lumber surveyed at Bangor during the six months ending on the 1st inst. was 67,161,291 feet, viz: Green pine, 22,376,265; dry pine, 6,589,078; spruce, 31,442,402; hemlock, hardwood, bass, &c., 6,753,546. This shows an aggregate increase of about 19,000,000 feet. The amount of spruce surveyed is nearly double what it was a year ago.

For the Morning Chronicle.

WHO PAYS?

The Richmond (Va.) Enquirer, after lamenting that the triumph in the recent slave case at Boston is not complete, says that the expense of the recapture of Burns cannot fall short of fifty thousand dollars, and as the government assumes the responsibility of this debt, the South pays for the recovery of its stolen property in the proportion that its contribution to the federal treasury exceeds that of the North. The Enquirer thinks that it would have been better for the interests of the South, had the government abstained from all endeavors to execute the law.

While we do not question the truth of the latter remark, the idea that the South pay more of the public revenue than the North, is rather amusing. Should the expense of the extradition of the fugitive Burns be fifty thousand dollars, the South would not be taxed over one fourth of the amount. But even twelve thousand dollars is paying rather dear for the whistle, especially as the claimant was offered twelve hundred dollars for the slave by citizens of Boston. As the slave States embrace about two thirds of the original domain of the United States, and as they raise a considerable quantity of cotton, corn, tobacco and sugar, the idea may be current that they pay most of the revenue. Exclusive of the small amount realized from the sale of the public lands, the revenue is paid by the consumers of foreign merchandise paying duties. The Southern population is about nine millions and a half, of which the three and a half millions colored pay no duty except a nominal sum on salt. Of the white population about five millions are ignorant, degraded, and destitute of property. For several reasons they hold labor to be degrading to white men. Such being their miserable condition, they have not generally the pecuniary means to purchase foreign goods. The consumers, to any considerable amount, of dutiable articles, at the South, cannot be estimated at over two millions; while the free States have a population of about fifteen millions, a large proportion having the ability to purchase, and being consumers of foreign goods and luxuries. It cannot be doubted that the North pay at least three fourths of the revenue, and therefore three fourths of the expense of sending back the slave to his life long prison house, falls upon the North.

It has recently been affirmed in some of the Southern journals that the North live upon the "hundred and fifty millions of Southern capital." The products of a country constitute its real capital. The aggregate annual value of all the products of the slave States is estimated at less than five hundred millions; while that of the products of the free States is estimated at about thirty hundred millions. Within the last ten years there has been a vast increase, and the free States are very rapidly increasing in wealth and population. The fatal institution is a paralysis upon Southern industry, progress, and improvement.—Compare old Virginia in her dilapidated state, with young Ohio, rising in giant strength, and then inquire for the cause why the one should sink, and the other rise? The cotton crop is far from being the greatest crop of the country. It is even less in value than the potato and oat crop combined. There is no truth in the statement that our free States are dependent upon the Southern capital. The trade between North and South is barter, that is, an exchange of products; and mutually beneficial; and will always continue, Union or no Union, while capitalists can derive a profit from it. Trade is carried on by individuals, and not by States or nations in their corporate capacity. The Southern trade is chiefly with England, and gives employment to some of our Northern vessels as carriers; but the idea of our dependence upon Southern capital, when we have the whole world to trade with, will be entertained by those only who have a very limited capacity. T.

☞ Putnam's Magazine for July, is on our table from Federhen & Co. of Boston, via Morse of this city. It contains a portrait of the author of the Potiphar Papers. The first article is a review of Gliddon's Types of Mankind, in which the reviewer aims to harmonise the Bible and science, by maintaining that the former was not intended and does not pretend to teach the latter. Then comes an odd chapter on Spanish Pigs, in Cosas de Espana; and then, twenty more articles, in every variety of style and manner, except the bad. This number begins a new volume, and offers a good chance to subscribe.

Resurrection.—We learn that a lady in Windsor died yesterday morning. A coffin and shroud were procured, and the body was prepared for interment. The arrangements for the funeral were completed, and as the undertaker was placing the body in the coffin, last evening, she revived, and this morning shows evident symptoms of convalescence.—Detroit Tribune of Friday.

SECOND ADVENT.

Many persons, who do not attend their meetings, may yet like to know what the Adventists believe. All of them profess to believe in the speedy coming of the Lord Jesus, to raise the dead, burn the earth, and judge the world. And a portion, but not all, are quite positive this coming will take place in 1854.

We copy below, a statement of Mr. J. C. Bywater, who entertains the latter belief. He says:

Touching my faith in the time of the Advent, I believe the time of the sufferings and the time of the glory that should follow, was revealed, (not to prophets,) but to us by prophets—so Peter believed and taught.—See 1 Pet. 1: 11, 12. I believe the time of the glory or glorious appearing of Jesus, and the resurrection of the dead is revealed to us in Dan. 8: 13, 14, and 12: 12. I believe that the 1335 days (years) and 2300, end with the opening of these scenes of glory.

I believe that the 1260, 1290 and 1335 days begin in A. D. 519, by the rise of the little horn of Dan. 7, with eyes and a mouth, or the nationalization of the Catholic church. I believe the saints were delivered out of its hand by 1779, as they were given into his hand by 519. I believe as truly that the 1290 days (years) measuring the Papal Abomination, did end in 1809, by the taking away of the Papal dominion, as that the Declaration of Independence of the United States was declared in 1776.

I believe, without doubt, that the darkening of the sun in May 19, 1780, was the one Jesus said should be in the days after that tribulation,—i. e., the days measuring the abomination of desolation, which Jesus tells us to understand as we read, and by the understanding of which we should know the time of his coming and the signs of that grand event.

I believe that the 1335 days end with this year, 1854, and bring us to the year of redemption, the coming of Jesus, and the resurrection of the dead.

Filthy Houses.—It can hardly be a matter of surprise that sickness prevails to an alarming extent among the lower classes in Boston, when many of the houses in which they borrow are so filthy. We hear of one case where a landlord ordered out his tenants to allow of a thorough cleaning, and was forced to hoe the dirt from the floors, it was so thick. In another instance, a landlord visited one of his houses, and found his tenant kept hens in a six by eight yard, while the cellar was made a receptacle for every kind of filth imaginable. He remonstrated with the man for keeping such a dirty place, and ordered him to clear out his hens and clean up his cellar. The man refused to comply, and before any thing could be done by the landlord, the man's wife and two children had been swept away by the cholera, and the man himself is now lying at the Cholera Hospital just alive. It seems as though there was a determination on the part of many of the power classes to live in filth, however great the risk; and however thorough a cleaning may be made, in a week the premises are nearly as bad as before. Few can imagine the extreme filthiness of many of the houses on Broad street without a personal visit, and this could not be made by most persons without experiencing sickness at the stomach.—Boston Traveller.

This is true: no one knows, except those who have been through such districts, what an amount of dirt, ignorance, and consequent suffering there is among a large class of poor immigrants in our cities, who yet cling to their old usages with as much bigotry as they would to something they deem sacred or holy.

The Lynn Bay State, a democratic paper, heretofore opposed to the Nebraska bill, comes out with the declaration that it can support no sectional party, and cannot be cajoled out of the democratic ranks.

The Bay State was a free democratic paper of the most decided cast, and opposed to repealing the compromise. Its late editor, about to publish elsewhere, sold it to a Nebraska democrat, who publishes his own views. This is the amount of the story.

Melancholy Death.—We learn from the Andover Advertiser, that in June last, a young man appeared in that town, barefoot, poorly clad and hungry. He was provided with work, and proved himself quite an apt artisan; he appeared well educated, would eat no flesh or fish, saying it was sinful, and seemed at times to be insane. On Friday he was at work as usual, when he took a double barreled pistol belonging to his employer, and pointing it to his own heart, said, "That is about the right place," and fired. He fell a corpse. A coroner's inquest was held. His name was ascertained to be probably Allen Chaffee. No information with regard to his relatives was found, although he has been heard to refer to friends in Rhode Island and Wisconsin. He is supposed to have escaped from some insane asylum.

A Child Saved by a Medium.—The Niagara Democrat relates, on the authority of several persons who were cognizant of the fact, that a young woman, a "medium" of that place, while returning home a few evenings since, was arrested in her walk by an irresistible impulse, and compelled to go in another direction to the railroad, where she found a child asleep, lying across one of the rails of the road. She had barely time to snatch it from the track before the train came dashing by?

A Conscientious Man.—Mr. Robert Schuyler, the defaulter, the extent of whose operations has far eclipsed those of all the Swartwouts and Hoyts of former times, is the same man that a few months ago had conscientious scruples about running trains on the New Haven Rail Road on Sundays. It is a pity he had not been equally conscientious in regard to the binding obligation of the eighth commandment, about which there is no dispute among Christian sects.—Boston Transcript.

LOCAL.

Eastern Railroad.—A writer in the Lynn Bay State, newspaper, signing himself "No part in Eastern Railroad stock," gives his testimony in favor of the excellent management of this road. He says that after much travel on four roads leading from Boston—the Providence, Fall River, Boston & Maine, and Eastern—he finds that the arrangements for the convenience of passengers are more attended to on the latter, than on the others. No quibbling is made here respecting the form of baggage, whether looking like merchandise or not; and tickets will pass at any time on any train, if there be no appearance of knavery. The writer says of the gentlemanly corps of conductors on this road, what every body knows who has tried them—and what the entire absence of accidents on their line proves conclusively:

As to the conductors on the Eastern Railroad, they are not outdone by any on any road, in gentlemanly and accommodating deportment. I am on the road nearly every day, and know. Those who have been stoned and clubbed most, appear to me like the best apple tree in an orchard, clubbed and stoned more on account of their good fruit than for their bad.

The total number of passengers carried over this road during the last twelve months, is officially reported to be one million, one hundred and eighty-one thousand, five hundred and fourteen—a crowd exceeding the entire population of Massachusetts, by nearly two hundred thousand persons.

The exports of Breadstuffs from the United States to Europe have now dwindled down to a very low figure. The shipments for the week ending 7th, foot up 13,439 bbls flour,—wheat 63,324 bushels, Indian corn 30,000 bushels.

Mr. Wm. Rayford, English Engineer, died recently from the effects of poison. While riding in a cab drawn by a glandered horse, a drop of the poison was thrown into his eye, and he died after great suffering.

A California Mrs. Partington told one of the Sun's that she was glad the sinners and house of reprobates had adjourned; for their acts were a shame to benighted people.

Accident.—The Salem Register says that a young man named Norcross, was killed in that city on Tuesday, by the explosion of a soda fountain, which he was charging. A piece of the copper struck him on the head, fracturing his skull in a horrid manner.

Lady Franklin refuses to accept a widow's pension. Sir John, she says, is not dead.—Acting, however, with the contrary conviction expressed by the Lords of the Almiralty, the Prerogative Court of Canterbury has granted probate of the will, made before his embarcation by Thomas Blanky, master of the ship Terror.

The celebrated Dr. Raffles, of Liverpool, was recently arrested, while traveling in Italy, because he wore a white hat, and for having in his writing desk a pen wiper that looked like a cockade.

I. C. Ghenowith, one of the Ward jury, has been expelled from the Baptist church, of which he was a member, because of his verdict of acquittal. It was proved, in addition, that, previous to the trial, he had uttered sentiments which rendered it improper for him to serve as a juryman on trial.

It is stated in the Washington Star that Miss Mary Ann Beachler, daughter of Mr. John Beachler, of Washington city, has fallen heir to $100,000 by the death of a relative in Germany, on condition that she marries on arriving at the age of eighteen.

Robert Allen was prosecuted in New Orleans by a Mr. Larges, on the 4th ult, for $5000 damage done his family by the defendant's ferocious dog, which had attacked and torn his wife and child. It was an aggravated case, and it is supposed that the defendant will be the owner of a $5000 dog when the trial is over.

About 225 hogs, being half of a drove of 450, died from the heat on Monday, on the Illinois Central Railroad. They were being transported from Vermillion county to New York, but being closely stowed in the cars, suffocated from the heat. The train went on to Detroit from the Junction, the dead and live hogs unseparated.

First of August.—The colored population of New York and Boston, we understand are making active preparations for celebrating in a becoming manner, the approaching anniversary of the British West India Emancipation.—N. Y. Express.

Feminine Spunk.—At Douglas's Flat, Toulomne county, Cal., a blooming young widow cowhided a gentleman of that place for using unbecoming language toward her, and wound up by giving him a beautiful pair of black eyes, with her fists, and tearing out a handful of his whiskers.

In Paris recently a prize of 10,000 francs was drawn in the Loterie Picarde, by a waiter in a cafe. Two gentlemen, who had bought a quantity of tickets, sat down to a green table to divide them equally. There was an odd ticket over, after the division was effected, and they gave it as a gratuity to the waiter.—As a matter of course, the forty or fifty tickets that the gentlemen kept for their own use, were every one of them blanks.

The mother of the great defaulter, Mr. Robert Schuyler, was a Newburyport woman, the daughter of Dr. Sawyer, whose old mansion now stands on the corner of State and Pleasant streets, in its original outside form, but elevated so as to allow of several stores in the basement story. She married Phillip L. Schuyler, a descendent of one of the old and wealthy aristocratic Dutch proprietary families of the State of New York. This son was a graduate of Harvard University, in 1817, in the class with Geo. Bancroft, Caleb Cushing, Rev. Dr. Tyng, and Hon. S. A. Eliot.—Newburyport Herald.

Concord, July 14.—The bill to organize the militia has been postponed until next session of the Legislature by a close vote.

The final adjournment will positively take place to-morrow.

CONGRESS.

THURSDAY, July 13.

SENATE.—Mr. Wade explained, in the absence of Mr. Seward, his vote to postpone the Homestead bill.

Mr. Sumner presented petitions from citizens of Windsor county, Vermont, praying for the abolition of slavery and the slave trade in the territories.

Mr. Jones of Iowa, from the Committee on Pensions, reported a bill granting a pension to the widow of Batchelder, who was killed in the Burns riot, while endeavoring to execute the law. Mr. Jones said the committee was equally divided on the form of a report to accompany the bill, and presented a paper agreed to by himself, and Messrs. Williams and Clay. Mr. Sumner presented a paper containing the views of himself and Mr. Seward. Both were ordered to be printed, and the Homestead bill was taken up.

The question pending was on Mr. Chase's amendment, to give the benefit of the bill to all foreigners now in or hereafter to come to the United States.

After debate the bill was postponed.

During the day a message was received from the President, accompanied by a tin box supposed to contain the Japan treaty.

Mr. Mason moved an executive session.—Agreed to. In a few minutes the doors were opened, and the Senate adjourned at 4 o'clock.

HOUSE.—A memorial from the Wheeling and Belmont Bridge Company was presented, asking an investigation of the charges against Justice Grier of the United States Supreme Court. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. May presented the memorial of the Washington Monument Committee, representing the present state of the structure, want of funds to carry it on and the failure of all efforts to raise them. The subject was referred to a select committee of thirteen.

The River and Harbor bill was passed, by yeas 95, nays 74.

The House went into Committee of the Whole on the Army Appropriation bill.

Mr. Stanton of Kentucky offered and advocated an amendment to restore the civil superintendency of Harper's Ferry and Springfield Armories.

Mr. Dickinson of Massachusetts defended the present system. Further consideration of the bill was postponed.

The Post Office and Light House Appropriation bills were considered, and when the Committee rose, passed. The latter appropriates $20,000 for life boats on the New Jersey coast. Adjourned.

NEW YORK, July 13.—The failure of John F. Pardy, a member of the Board of Brokers, was announced to-day.

DR. VARGOS, Ex-President of the Republic of Venezuela, died in this city this morning—He was President during the years 1835 and '38.

Leon Javelli, a member of the Ravel Troupe, died this morning, after only twenty-four hours illness.

The $14,000 stolen from Belmont & Co. have been returned through the post-office.—The robber first made application to the Chief of Police if he would be entitled to the reward.

RAIL ROAD ACCIDENT.—A serious accident occurred on the Watertown and Rome (N. Y.) R. R., on Saturday. A freight train had the engine, tender and one freight car smashed in crossing a bridge at Giddings.—The rails had been taken up for repairs and no signal was given to the train.

The engineer, fireman and conductor, saved themselves by jumping from the train. The engine went nearly over the open space, and then dropped in backwards, the tender going down first, followed by the engine and one freight car. In the latter were three passengers who, as the car was broken to pieces, were spilled out into the stream, and escaped unhurt.

A brakeman named Lyons, went down with the wreck, and was so much injured that he died next morning.

SUDDEN AND MYSTERIOUS DEATH.—Miss Ellen Dodge, aged about 23 years, daughter of Pickering Dodge, Esq., of Salem, was found dead in her bed, on Thursday morning, at her father's residence. She had been in usual health, and the night previous was in company till 11 o'clock. The family to which she belonged is one of the first in Salem, and she was beloved by all who knew her. It is supposed that her death may have been caused by disappointment in love. She had anticipated an early marriage with a young man now in the West, who had been paying attention to her, but had lately broken his engagement. Whatever may have been the cause, she is universally lamented.—Newburyport Herald.

ALLEGED BRUTALITY ON BOARD SHIP CLARA WHEELER.—The New Orleans True Delta states that the ship Clara Wheeler, from Liverpool, with emigrant passengers, was the scene of much excitement on the 3d inst., in consequence of the most brutal outrages perpetrated by the crew, mostly negroes, upon the female passengers during the voyage. A large body of the friends of the passengers proceeded on board the ship, and it is said threw several of the crew overboard.

Sagamore House.

FROST'S POINT.

THE subscriber having enlarged and thoroughly refitted the above well known House, announces that he will be ready to receive visitors on the FIRST DAY OF JULY, inst. This House is within 10 rods of salt water, with Sagamore harbor on one side, and the ocean on the other. In plain sight from the house are the city of Portsmouth, (from which it is but 3 miles distant) the harbor of Piscataqua, and seaward, an unobstructed view of the ocean.

The conveniences for bathing, sailing, fishing and fowling, are unequalled.

The situation of this house is considered by those who have visited it, to be unexcelled in beauty by any on the coast.

By prompt and personal attention to the wants of his patrons, he hopes to merit an increased share of public favor.

Appledore House,

ISLES OF SHOALS.

STEAM having died out in Portsmouth, the subscriber has the pleasure to announce to his old friends and the public, that he has chartered the beautiful YACHT SPY, of 40 tons burden, and has had the good fortune to secure the services of Capt. JAMES W. GOODWIN, the well known pilot, as master. His skill, carefulness and attention will secure to the travelling public a more safe, expeditious, comfortable and pleasant transit to and from the Islands, than has hitherto been attained.

She will leave PIER WHARF, foot of State Street, Portsmouth, every day (Sundays excepted) immediately after the arrival of the trains from Boston and Concord, and return in season for the evening trains.

Many alterations and improvements have been made in the establishment to make it more convenient and comfortable.

An abundant supply of Ice has been carefully laid in, and the facilities for fishing perfected.

To the invalid, the weary and the active pleasure seeker, this location presents attractions not equaled in New England.

je17e THOMAS B. LAIGHTON.

Gerrish House,

KITTERY POINT, MAINE.

THIS Establishment having been put in perfect order, will open for visitors on the 15th of June. Every attention will be given to make this House one of the most pleasant Summer resorts. Kittery Point is celebrated for its conveniences for bathing, fishing and sailing. Arrangements have been made to afford every facility for guests to enjoy the above amusements. The Post Office is within three minutes' walk of the House. A coach runs regularly twice a day to and from the Point, via the U. S. Navy Yard, arriving at and leaving the City of Portsmouth, three miles distant, on the arrival and departure of the cars. For further particulars address the proprietor, at Kittery Point, Me.

MORRISSEY'S TRIAL.—A correspondent of the New York Herald details the circumstances of the recent arraignment and trial of John Morrissey for his part in the disgraceful prize fight with Yankee Sullivan at Boston Corner, last summer. About two weeks since, Morrissey proceeded voluntarily into Massachusetts and surrendered himself to the Berkshire County sheriff, who permitted him to go at large on his parole of honor while the Grand Jury were preparing a bill against him; and on the 8th inst. he was brought into court and plead guilty.

C. F. Bennet, Esq., of Dalton, appeared in his behalf, and urged his good behavior since the fight, and his voluntary surrender of himself into the hands of justice, as circumstances in extenuation of his offence. The court stated that these circumstances had much weight in mitigation of the sentence, and he would gladly have dismissed him with a less severe punishment but for the statute. He accordingly sentenced Morrissey to pay a fine of twelve hundred dollars, or suffer imprisonment in the State Prison sixteen months. A messenger was sent to New York for the money, who returned on Sunday last, when the fine was paid, and Morrissey was discharged. Sullivan's bondsmen were defaulted on the same day.

Health Regulations.

THE Board of Health of the City of Portsmouth call the attention of the public to the following sections of City Ordinance No. 4, and invite all interested in the preservation of the health of the City to aid them in the execution of their duty:—

SEC. 3. All waste water of houses, yards, cellars, sinks, pumps, &c. shall be conveyed by their owners or occupiers to the common sewers, or to such places as the Health Officers may direct.

SEC. 4. No person shall be allowed to throw any vegetable or dead animal substance, or any other matter capable of producing infection, into any street, lane, alley or doc, or upon any wharf, but shall bury them or throw them into the river below low water mark.

SEC. 5. The contents of vaults and privies shall not be permitted to rise within one foot of the surface of the earth. And all owners or occupiers of buildings having such vaults or privies as shall require it, shall cause them to be emptied within ten days from the promulgation of this ordinance, and in future on or before the first day of May in each year. And any such owner or occupier neglecting so to do, shall forfeit and pay for every such neglect a sum not less than three nor more than twenty dollars, and a like sum for every week's neglect, after the time above specified.

SEC. 15. The Health Officers may give written notice to the owner or occupier of any building, vessel or enclosure, to remove or destroy any nuisance or other thing deemed by them, on examination, to be injurious to the public health, within a certain time limited therein; and in the case such owner or occupier—the said notice having been given to him, or left at his usual place of abode—shall neglect to comply therewith, the said Health Officers may, by direction of the Mayor and accompanied by the City Marshal, forcibly enter such building, vessel or enclosure, and cause the said nuisance or other thing aforesaid to be removed or destroyed.

SEC. 16. The owner or occupier of any building, vessel or enclosure shall be liable to pay the expense of the removal or destruction of any such nuisance or other thing, as aforesaid, including fees of the Health Officers who order or cause the same to be removed; and the same may be recovered by action to be brought in the name of the city.

SEC. 16. And whenever any person or persons shall violate any rule or regulation, or commit any act forbidden in any section of this ordinance, to which no special penalty is annexed, shall forfeit and pay a sum not less than one dollar nor more than twenty dollars, to be recovered by complaint before the Police Court of this city.

Garden Engines.

JULT received at "the sign of the Big Coffee Pot" a full supply of Garden or Fire Engines, which are respectfully commended by the subscriber to the notice of the public. Wherever these Engines have been introduced they have invariably given entire satisfaction. They are unsurpassed for power, capacity or usefulness. From the size of the air chamber sufficient power is obtained to enable one man to throw a steady stream of water to the height of fifty feet perpendicularly, thereby rendering it a desirable article as a

PROTECTION AGAINST FIRE,

And for washing windows of second and third stories of buildings, carriages, &c. With a newly invented water diffuser attached, the Engine defies competition. The diffuser is a perfect and simple article, and its superiority over the common rose sprinkler is that it will throw three times the quantity of water a much greater distance and spread it perfectly even, with less power applied. An Engine with a diffuser of this description, used in orchards and gardens to throw soap suds on the young trees, will destroy many kinds of vermin liable to injure the fruit and be an invaluable addition to the implements of the Nurseryman and Horticulturist.

Marble Chimney Pieces.

THE PENRHYN MARBLE is a new and beautiful article, manufactured of Stone imported from England, which is enameled in imitation of of the richest and most expensive Spanish, Italian, Egyptian, Pyronese, Lisbon, Sienna and other rare and desirable kinds of Marble—the imitation being so perfect as to challenge detection without the closest scrutiny. In style of finish these Chimney Pieces are unequalled, being very highly polished—retaining their beauty much longer than common marble, and are not injured by oils, smoke, coal gas or acids. They have been extensively introduced into public and private buildings, giving perfect satisfaction to those who have used them. The best of references can be given, showing their adaptedness for general use, the subscriber having furnished some of the best dwelling houses in the city with them during the last two years.

While excelling all others in beauty of finish and appearance, they are sold much cheaper than any thing of the kind in the market. The subscriber has now in Store a complete assortment of the above named destirable Goods, to which he invites the attention of all interested.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the descriptions of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others, by W. Gibson, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University. Valentine Mott, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, N. Y. " W. P. Dewees, M.D., Prof. of Mid., Pa. University. N. Chapman, M.D., Prof. of Physic, Pa. University. T. Parke, M.D., Pres't College of Physicians, Phila. Dr. Del Vallo, Prof. of Medicine, Havana. Jose Eourenco de Luz, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon. G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spaine. J. Chipman, Member of Royal Col. Surg., London. Sir Thomas Pearson, Maj. Gen. British Army. Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and, being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:—

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork: and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a gauceeful lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swain, copy right secured.

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c., &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge. Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD SPAIN, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA, and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase no Remedy equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is an English Remedy, and was used by William IV. and family, and recommended to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure, and many have stated that they would not be satisfied if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by his Linimeut, but considers warranting it sufficient, as any person who does not obtain relief, need not pay for it.

Price 50 cents. Dr. Tobias's office, 240 Green

Dr. Tobias has put up a HORSE LINIMENT in pint bottles, which is warranted cheaper and better than any other for Cholic, Scratches, Old Sores, Galls, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc.

Sold by all druggists, New York.

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS

With the U. S. Patent Office, Washington,

No. 76 state Street, oppo. Kilby street, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to Inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal thereof by him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT—

Every land has hailed with
Xtacy this preparation whose
Intrinsic merits has introduced its
Curative powers to the notice of the whole
American people. Rheumatism of long duration,
Neuralgia, with its tortures, have yielded to its
Magical influence; canners, contorted joints,
Ulcerated and swollen limbs that have
Suffered for years under the weight of disease,
Turn by its application to suppleness and health.
A remedy of such general usefulness that can
Restore newness of Action to the diseased nerves,
Arteries and glands of the human body,
Is worthy of high praise.

Let the rheumatic, halt, lame and palsied
Invalid examine the qualities, and they will
Not be disappointed. Years of study and
Investigation have enabled the proprietors of the
Mexican Mustang Liniment to furnish a remedy,
Extraordinary in its power over diseases,
No matter of long standing—sold at

HOUSES FOR SALE.

THE DWELLING HOUSE, No. 9 School street. This is a well built house, two (high) stories, in good repair, and is convenient for one family or two families, or for a large Boarding House. It contains nine or more rooms and two sculleries, and has an excellent cellar under the whole house. The situation is central, being about equi-distant from the markets, factories and railroads. Connected with this house is a building which has been and may be occupied both as a barn and a work-shop. If not sold soon, a part or the whole of the premises will be let.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 6 Green street. This house is fitted for two tenements; it is well built, was thoroughly painted and put in good order the last season, and is well calculated for two families, (having about 6 rooms each) and may be conveniently a good location for persons employed at the north end. It is centrally located between the different ship-yards in that section of the city. each tenement will be sold separately, if desired.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 7 Liberty street, corner of Charles street. This house was formerly owned and occupied by the late Peter M. Lord and is in good order. Attached to it is a lot of land large enough for a Stable or for another dwelling house. It would make a good place for the residence of a person employed at the shipyards across the river, or at the Navy Yard.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 47 Bow street.—This house has been built but a few years, is well finished off, and is very convenient. In the rear is quite a large garden spot. This would be a desirable place for a person employed at the shipyards, or at the Navy Yard nearly opposite.

Also, for sale, a BUILDING LOT, on Mount Vernon street, (opposite No. 2,) with a small building thereon, which can be finished off into a Dwelling house.

All of the above property will be sold on liberal terms, if applied for soon. For further particulars apply to JOSEPH M. EDMONDS,

Feb. 27. No. 9 Islington street.

TO LET—The STORE on the corner of Vaughan and Deer streets. It was occupied as the first Union Store in this city, and is considered as a good stand for business. It is within a few rods of the Boston and Concord Railroad Depots. Possession can be had immediately.

FOR SALE—The HOUSE in the rear of the above, on Vaughan street—a convenient house for two families, and has been occupied for about six years, by the same tenants. It rents for $160. For information, terms, &c., call on JOSEPH L. LOCKE, on the premises, or JOSEPH M. EDMONDS, 9 Islington st. m29

HUMOR DISCOVERY,

AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

DR. ORDWAY has been using his Blood Purifier in his practice for the last seven years with great success. He has often been urged by his friends and those who have tried it, and know its efficacy, to put it within the reach of all. He has now added to it an Herb, discovered in California, by Dr. KELLEY, which makes it the most wonderful remedy for

HUMORS OF ALL KINDS,

LIVER COMPLAINTS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

The virtues of this Herb were first made known to Dr. Kelley by an Indian, while attending a patient, sick with that terrible disease, the California Erysipelas and Liver Complaint—the effect was miraculous—curing the man in a few days. The natives, when bitten by a rattlesnake, or rabid animal, resort to this Herb for a cure.—Hundreds are taking this medicine, and are trying in vain other remedies, and say that the half was never told them.

If you have Erysipelas, 3 to 5 bottles will cure it.
If you have Scrofula, 3 to 7 bottles will cure it.
Three to six bottles will cure Salt Rheum.
One or two bottles will cure Pimples on the Face.
Two or three bottles will cure Scaly Eruptions and Scald Head.
One to three bottles will cure Nursing Sore Mouth
One to three bottles will cleanse the system of Biles.
Two to five bottles will cure Rheumatism.
Three to four bottles will cure old running Sores and Ulcers.
One or two bottles will cure Barber's Itch.
One to three bottles will cure Canker in the mouth and bowels.

For Liver Complaints and Jaundice.

Its effects are new and wonderful, removing obstructions from the Liver, open the pores of the skin, carrying off the morbid matter, relieving the side, and all-gone feelings of the stomach; and removing low spirits and despondency, which is the result of this disagreeable and often fatal disease.

FOR DYSPEPSIA.

A fair trial will convince you that there is nothing like it.

FOR CANCEROUS HUMORS,

It is the surest remedy ever offered. One widow lady in Lawrence, has been troubled with Cancer for years, by taking two bottles says she is now quite well.

FOR COSTIVENESS.

One gentleman says that it was the only medicine that cured him.

FOR KIDNEY DIFFICULTIES,

It is spoken of in the highest terms. A young man was sick so much with Asthma that he had to leave College; three bottles cured him, and he has now resumed his studies. One lady in Salem was perfectly cured of Periodical Sick Headache, by the use of two bottles. Mr. Williams, of Lawrence, had humors in his eyes for years, and was cured by the use of the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier. For Chills and Fever, Mercurial Diseases, Taints in the System, it stands unrivalled; sometimes where the system is much deranged it will cause disagreeable feelings at first, but continue its use as indications favorable. It is purely vegetable, and its compound and proportions are such that the effect is perfectly satisfactory and safe.

FULL DIRECTIONS ON THE BOTTLE.

☞ Price $1.00. ☜

HE HAS ALSO A HUMOR SALVE,

Unsurpassed for external humors, which, if used in connection with the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier will much facilitate a cure.

PRICE 25 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Cough Destroyer.

This invaluable Cough Remedy is for the complete cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Influenza, Whooping Cough, pains in the side and breast, hacking or tickling at the throat, spitting blood, tightness across the lungs and chest, and all Lung Complaints leading to Consumption.

No medicine yet discovered has that decided effect in curing Bronchial affections as the Cough Destroyer. It can be taken by all ages and classes, from a child six months old to the oldest man or woman, with the most happy results.

PRICE 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Pain Destroyer.

This preparation is composed of a great variety of Extracts, Gums, Essential Oils, most of which have not heretofore been united and compounded into their present form. It will cure attacks of Cramps of the Stomach, Spasms, Convulsions, Faintings, Pain in the Stomach, Bowels, Side, Back, Limbs, and a great variety of other difficulties. It is also invaluable as an external remedy. It will be found to contain nearly double the strength of any similar article, and possesses properties heretofore unknown. No family should be without it for a single day.

PRICE 25, 37½ AND 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Full directions for the above medicines, on the Bottles. Orders should be accompanied with full directions how it should be sent.

Garden Engines.

JULT received at "the sign of the Big Coffee Pot" a full supply of Garden or Fire Engines, which are respectfully commended by the subscriber to the notice of the public. Wherever these Engines have been introduced they have invariably given entire satisfaction. They are unsurpassed for power, capacity or usefulness. From the size of the air chamber sufficient power is obtained to enable one man to throw a steady stream of water to the height of fifty feet perpendicularly, thereby rendering it a desirable article as a

PROTECTION AGAINST FIRE,

And for washing windows of second and third stories of buildings, carriages, &c. With a newly invented water diffuser as a Garden Engine it defies competition. The diffuser is a perfect and simple article, and its superiority over the common rose sprinkler is that it will throw three times the quantity of water a much greater distance and spread it perfectly even, with less power applied. An Engine with a diffuser of this description, used in orchards and gardens to throw soap suds on the young trees, will destroy many kinds of vermin liable to injure the fruit and be an invaluable addition to the implements of the Nurseryman and Horticulturist.

DEFENCE OF SLAVERY.

We would like to give a fair view of every important question. No such view however, can be given, when only one side can be seen. It is needful to look at both. Therefore it is, that we copy the following defence, or rather apology for slavery, from the Trumpet, written by Rev. Theodore Clapp, an earnest, self denying, laborious minister of New Orleans.

We divide it into six paragraphs, and add a brief note to each.

1. Christians and philanthropists at the North take it for granted that because Slavery is a great evil, both physical and moral, it is sinful for the Southern States to keep the Africans among them in bondage. Is it not self evident, that God, in his wise providence, has ordained a multitude of evils, to which it is our duty to submit in patience, on the ground, that, at present, it is not in our power to remove or overcome them? The Scriptures assure us that man was placed on earth to be mortal, fallible, sinful and suffering. No doubt the Divine purpose in all these particulars will be fully and gloriously accomplished. Take an instance of my meaning. The best man in Massachusetts has a body whose appetites and passions, whatever may be the good purposes for which they were given, are a continual source of peril to his moral and spiritual interests. Nothing but death can deliver him from this evil. What forms of ignorance, disease, and depravity prevail in the most sainted communities of our land? How many of our pious, orthodox clergymen, every year, fall like stars 'that set to rise no more?' The illustrations might be multiplied to an indefinite extent.

It is not needful to multiply them. The fact that a man has appetites and passions, is not a good reason why he should let them run riot, and make himself miserable, but rather why he should curb, restrain, and keep them within bounds.

So if "God, in his wise providence has ordained" the evil of slavery in one dark spot, we don't think that is much of a reason why we should voluntarily spread "the evil" over the whole country. Some may call our cold winter a providential evil. Be it so: nevertheless, we buy wood and coal to warm ourselves withal.

2. The idea I am aiming at is obvious. Many of the ills of life must be borne in the spirit of a calm, rejoicing submission to the will of Heaven, because we are acquainted with no means by which they can be eradicated. Does African bondage, you may ask, come under this category? In reply, I would say, imagine a small area, equal in size to a New England township, containing a population as dense as that of Pittsfield or Northampton. Put into such a place to-day, five hundred or a thousand Africans, as ignorant, poor, and unqualified for self government as the generality of slaves in Louisiana. In addition, suppose this town to be compelled to support or look on and see them starve. They cannot send them off to some other place. Circumstances absolutely forbid it. Now, in what way could these white inhabitants extricate themselves from this fancied dilemma? Why, they might all emigrate, leave their houses and various possessions to be enjoyed by the new comers. But, if they staid at home, absolute necessity would require them to set these colored persons to work on the farm, in the shop, or manufactory. Laws would be enacted to restrain them from doing mischief and at the same time insure their comfortable subsistence.

Exactly. We don't believe it would injure a black man to work, any more than it does a white man. Paul says, "It any man will not work, neither should he eat:" and we believe Paul was about right.

3. Right or wrong, they could be disposed of in no other way, except by killing them as you would so many carnivorous animals.—For thirty three years I have been called to reside where the state of society corresponds almost exactly with the imaginary picture just sketched. In many of the States bordering on the Gulf, two thirds of the entire population or more are African. If they were not subjected to a reasonable servitude, what would be their fate? Speedy destruction.

The experience of the West India emancipation does not justify this. The alternative, work or starve, really makes almost every drone into a working bee.

4. O, no, one says, let them be sent to the free colony in Africa. This is not now within the limits of possibility. At some future day it may be done. A vast majority of the planters South are too poor to provide the necessary means for sending their slaves to Liberia. They can no more do it than they can make the Mississippi run up stream. It requires the resources of a State or Nation to accomplish such a result. I am not a slave owner, but were all the slaves of Louisiana in my hands, a sense of duty to God and Jesus, to them and to humanity, would keep me from manumitting them in their present condition, even if I had the means requisite to transport them to a distant continent.

This is rather a poser on colonization. Any body who feels moved thereto, may answer it. The fact that a vast majority of the planters are too poor to engage in the enterprise, is a proper check on the common notion that slavery is generally a great pecuniary benefit.

5. Why not, then, allow them to run away, and seek a fortune for themselves where they please? With respect to a vast majority, they have no wish to do so,—a fact which most people at the North seem quite unconscious of. They are bound to the places which God has assigned for them by the numerous ties of birth, early remembrance, habit, home, friendship, and the best affections of which our nature is capable.

Just stick a pin here, one moment, then go back and read Number 3, and then see how they agree together.

6. Again: Suppose all the slaves in New Orleans, or Charleston, should migrate next November to Boston, would you take them to your embrace with the same alacrity and joy, which you manifest when opening your arms to receive a solitary fugitive? Think what it would be to provide for such an army of wanderers. Could you do it with the consent of all concerned? I am fully persuaded, that no power short of a miraculous interposition, could meliorate the condition of our colored brethren at the South, by removing them to Canada, or any of the free States, or any part of the Western continent. Prompted by Christian philanthropy only, we should keep them where they now are, till ways and means can be revealed to transport them to the land of their ancestry. There is no other road by which they can reach a higher state of happiness. I see no evil in this Union, that the country may not be rid of in due time, provided all scrupulously abstain from mob violence, bloodshed, an unchristian spirit and unchristian conduct.

In respect to fugitives, numbers 5 and 6 balance and answer each other; and both of them contain valuable truths. We have no doubt whatever that most of the blacks at the South will stay there, bond or free, and we have always laughed at the silly idea so commonly suggested years ago, that they would rush to the North if freed.

They should be kept where they are, but not as they are. But a mere fraction of them will ever return to the land of their ancestry.

With the closing sentence we fully agree.—But no such change for the better ever was or ever can be brought about without effort, and toil, and sacrifice; nay, nor without strife and contention too, on some field or other. Patience may be, and doubtless is needful—but so is perseverance, also, in every thing good, especially in attempted reformation and improvement.

☞ The Newburyport Herald says:

We do not think, if the question had been acted upon directly by the people, that the repeal of the Missouri compromise would have received one fourth of their votes. We do not believe it could have received the sanction of a majority of the slave States.

This is undoubtedly true. The country never called for it: the administration did not create it, nor adopt it till the eleventh hour, and lost strength by adopting it at all. But the deed is done, and its consequences must be taken and felt by all.

It would be well to repeal the offensive clause and thus restore the compromise,—and also to repeal the famous finality fugitive bill of '50, and thus throw the country back on the old law of '93.

We suppose, however, that neither of these events is likely to take place speedily,—and therefore the friends of freedom must seek out and use other modes of action, to counteract these manifest encouragements of the slave power.

Terrible Explosion and Fortunate Escape.—On the morning of the 5th of July, as the Waterville military company, with their field-piece, were returning from Hamilton and within about three miles of home, two of their company met with a most remarkable adventure. The conveyance of the company consisted of four double teams, two of them on a wagon, and two on the gun and about fifteen rods in advance of the other. It appears the gun-caps, either through negligence or ignorance as to their nature, were left in the magazine, containing six and a half bags of powder of two pounds each. We suppose the motion of the gun over the road ground the caps together, produced a friction which fired them, thus igniting the powder, and all blew up with a terrible explosion. The air for several feet around presented one confused mass of buffalo robes, cushions and fragments from the inside of the magazine.

There was so much smoke it was impossible to see what became of the unlucky occupants of the seat, but as it cleared away we discovered one of them getting up from the ground; and the other a half a mile distant astride one of the wheel horses, his clothes on fire in several places, and exhibiting the tallest specimen of flying artillery we ever saw. It appeared upon inquiry that the driver was blown up the length of the reins, falling back on the pole to the gun, and afterwards getting on one of the horses and succeding in stopping them. But the most remarkable of all, nobody was seriously injured, although one of them is somewhat stiff. To many this may seem incredible, to burn thirteen pounds of powder beneath a person or persons without causing their instant destruction.—Utica (N. Y.) Herald.

The Home Journal refers to the curious fact, that in Scotland, the cultivation of the potato was once made filegal, because it was not mentioned in the Bible.

The Israelitish priests in Russia have received from the Government the intimation that they are not expected to offer up any more prayers for the success of the Russian arms. The Czar appears to distrust the prayers of a community which he has misused.

The lower hull of the ship Great Republic, which vessel was burned nearly to the water's edge, last spring, was sold by auction at New York, on Wednesday for $28,250. Purchased by N. B. Palmer.

It is stated that Bailey, the only sailor saved from the schooner Duke, which was lost on Lake Ontario last Tuesday, was the only man of six on board who could not swim.

LOCAL.

CARELESS LEGISLATION.

During the recent session of the Legislature a bill in amendment to the Charter of the City of Concord, and a Charter for the City of Dover, have been passed and sent to the Governor for his signature, containing the following provision:

"The City Council may make, establish, publish, alter, modify, amend or repeal ordinances, rules, regulations and by-laws, to regulate, restrain or prohibit the sale or use of all intoxicating drinks."

As this provision was a palpable infringement of the Constitution, the Governor very properly vetoed both bills containing it.

The passage of a bill with such a provision, through either branch of the legislature, is undoubtedly the result of the custom which has been common in past years of reading bills by their titles only, and printing them for the information of the members. Those printed bills are seldom read, and thus the errors pass with the rest, when the measure in general is favorably received. All bills should be read three times (as they purport to be) in full, before their passage.

The charter of the City of Portsmouth also contains the same provision, granting to the City Council the power to pass an ordinance prohibiting the use of liquors. Probably the City Council, as constituted at present, will not attempt to exercise the power delegated to them by that section of the charter.

Music.—Mr. A. Pearson, who offers his services to our citizens as teacher of the Piano, Organ, Thorough-bass and Singing, has taken the room in the rear of our office, which was so long a home of music and the other fine arts under the charge of Mr. T. P. Moses. Mr. Pearson is a young man, recently from Worcester county, Mass.; and from what we have seen of him during the last few weeks, we can cordially recommend him as a gentle man and a musician of taste and ability. He has in his room one of Hallett, Davis & Co.'s splendid "Grand Pianos"—and is agent for the sale of the instruments of these celebrated manufacturers. He designs opening a Juvenile Singing School at an early day.

Academies.—We are indebted to a pupil for a copy of the Catalogue of Phillips Exeter Academy, just published, for the Academical year 1853–4. The whole number of students is 101, of whom six are from this city. An examination was had on Tuesday, 11 inst. The next term begins on the 23d of August. Rev. Drs. Barroughs and Peabody of this city, are of the Board of Trustees, the first named being President. The instructors are Gideon L. Soule, A. M., Joseph G. Hoyt, A. M., and Henry S. Nourse, A. B.

☞ We have also received from a pupil, the Catalogue of the Ipswich Female Seminary, for the year ending with the current month.—Rev. John P. Cowles and lady are the Principals, with an array of eight other teachers, and five assistant pupils. The whole number of pupils for the year has been 214—the number for the term just closing, 130. We notice two from Portsmouth, with several from this vicinity.

☞ The Portsmouth & Concord Railroad have made some changes in their running arrangements, as will be seen by their advertisement in another column. The early train to the Junction appears to have been discontinued.

New Hampshire Legislature.—Concord, July 14.—Governor Baker vetoed, to-day, a resolution authorizing the Secretary of State to draw on the Treasury for the expense of the contemplated repairs on the State House: "The Constitution provides that the Governor only shall issue a warrant for the withdrawal of money from the treasury."

All the Banking bills—more than half the number originally introduced, have been laid over to the next session of the Legislature.

The Governor has vetoed the bill to establish the city of Dover, on account of a liquor clause similar to that of the Concord Charter Amendment bill.

The legislature holds an evening or an all night session, and will adjourn about 8 o'clock on Saturday morning.

Saturday, July 15.

The Senate, on Friday evening, rejected the Liquor Bill by a vote of 6 to 5.

To-day, at noon, both Houses adjourned sine die.

Boston Rioters.—The Grand Jury in Boston on Saturday, finished their business, finding no bill against any one for the murder of Batchelder, but returned indictments, containing four counts, against the eight following named persons, as implicated in the attack on the Boston Court House during the late fugitive slave case of Burns, viz:

Walter Phenix, Samuel Proudman, John Wesley, Rev. Thomas W. Higginson, Walter Bishop, Martin Stowell, Thomas Jackson, and John Morrison. The 1st count in the indictment charges the defts. with engaging in a riot; the 2d, with assaulting S. W. Cutting, one of Marshal Freeman's special officers; the 3d, with disturbing the public peace, and attacking the Court House; the 4th, for commencing to destroy the Court House.

The four individuals last named in the list were arraigned and severally pleading not guilty, were admitted to bail in the sum of $1000 each. Albert G. Browne, Jr. was discharged.

Antoinette Brown in the Pulpit.—Miss Antoinette Brown filled the pulpit of Rev. Luther Lee, yesterday, according to arrarangement, and had a crowded house morning and afternoon. She was neatly dressed, with rather a dashing watch establishment, and rfter throwing off her crape shawl presented herself at the desk, made her prayer, a long one, after the Presbyterian usage; and spreading the Bible open before her, took her text and walked into her discouse. Her subject in the morning was one on which women might be expected to speak with some feeling. It was Love!—[Syracuse Chronicle, 10th.

A Manchester negro recently got himself carried to Canada, free of expense, by pretending to be a fugitive slave, relays of abolitionists awaiting him on the way to pass him on.—Coos Democrat.

We have seen a statement to this effect in several newspapers of this State. There certainly seems to be no necessity for assailing the character of a defenceless man who happens to be a very little (and but a very little) darker of skin than a Caucasian. That Moore was a slave is admitted, and that his owners were in pursuit of him, we have the most ample proof. If it were advisable to state from what source Moore received the information that his owners were in pursuit of him, it might cause the cheeks of some of these northern sycophants to tingle with shame.—Manchester American.

CONGRESS.

FRIDAY, July 14.

SENATE.—Mr. Pearce reported a joint resolution providing for the distribution of the works of Thomas Jefferson to the states and territories, colleges, public offices, &c. Taken up and passed.

The bill making appropriations for the completion of the Treasury buildings, so as to cover the square East of the President's house, and accommodating the Treasury, State and Interior departments; and for a like building on the square West of the President's house, for the War and Navy departments, was taken up and passed. It appropriates $600,000 to commence the work.

The resolution that the Senate on and after Monday meet daily at 11 o'clock, was adopted.

The bill granting lands to Louisiana and Mississippi for the construction of a railroad from New Orleans to Mobile was taken up and passed.

The House bill making provisions for the postal service in California and Oregon was taken up and passed.

The bill granting public lands to aid in the construction of a certain railroad in Missouri was taken up and passed.

Mr. Chase, pursuant to notice, introduced a bill to prohibit slavery in the territories of the United Siatcs. He asked no reference of the bill, nor any action on it until the next session. The bill was then read a first time.

The Homestead bill was then taken up.—Mr. Chase's amendment, extending the benefits of the bill to aliens hereafter arriving in the country, was rejected—13 to 36. Mr. Dixon moved to amend the sixth section by striking out the words "any individual" and inserting in lien "any free white person."—After some debate, agreed to—37 to 16. Several other amendments with regard to aliens were proposed, debated and adopted. Without conclusion the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—A bill was introduced authorizing the Postmaster General to enter into a contract for the conveying of the mail between Brooklyn and certain ports in Europe.

Mr. Mace made an elaborate report on Mail steamers, in which no frauds are shown nor recommendations made. Ordered to be printed.

The House went into Committee of the Whole and took up Colt's patent bill, but did nothing.

After some unimportant business Mr. Stanton of Tennessee, from the Committee on the Judiciary, reported a bill providing places of meeting for the United States Courts of Boston, New York and Philadelphia; pending action on which the House adjourned.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—The Japan Treaty was sent into the Senate to-day. A motion to remove the injunction of secrecy forthwith was either rejected or laid over.

The whole batch of nominations of New York Postmasters, made by this administration, and hitherto withheld, were sent in today and referred.

The Homestead bill, on the principle heretofore advocated, is unquestionably dead.—The President's confidentials now say he will veto the House Homestead bill, if passed.—The probability is that Mr. Hunter's land graduation scheme will be substituted in order to avoid a veto.

In secret session to-day, Mr. Seward moved that the further consideration of the proposition to withdraw our squadron from the African Coast be with open doors. Without taking a vote upon it they adjourned.

FORGERY.—Forgeries have just been discoverd at Amity Springs, (better known as Visscher's Ferry,) Schenectady county, to the amount, as far as known, of $11,000, and it is supposed there are still others, committed by David Baker. Baker has been a resident of Visscher's ferry for the last two years. He came there as a school teacher. He ingratiated himself into the good will of the people, and always passed for a respectable and honest man. He was recently married to the daughter of a clergyman in the neighborhood.—One of the forgeries on his brother, to the amount of $1,000, was detected at a Schenectady Bank. He absconded on Saturday, but has been traced to Kingston, in Canada. His wife, an amiable young woman, is represented to be deeply distressed by the discovery of the villany, and much sympathy is expressed for her and her family. Baker has been a convict in the Clinton State Prison, we understand. He leaves considerable involved.—Albany Journal.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common Pasture Weeds a remedy that cures Every Kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruption of the skin.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the calt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of crofula.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed growing on the pastures and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system, yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start. There is no if's and ands, hums and ha's about its suiting some cases, but not yours. I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effects of it in every family where it has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. I gave it to children a year old; to old people of sixty. I have seen poor, puny, wormy looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some have taken it who have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is bound it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings; but you must not be alarmed; they will disappear in from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it. The patient knows when that feeling is gone, you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to.

Nothing in the annals of Patent Medicines has ever been received by the public with so much favor as this simple preparation. It is now composed of nine different herbs. In May, 1852, when I commenced making a business of it, I sold about two bottles per day. In June, 1853, I sold 620 bottles. In October, 1853, I sold 6120 bottles. I hope you will call that doing well; I do.

In my own practice, I confine it strictly to humors; but there are some who are so enthusiastic in its favor they think what cured them will cure any thing and any body; they accordingly recommend it for every variety of disease. In this way a great many virtues of it have been found that I never would suspect.

Cases of Dyspepsia, of many years standing, that withstood every known remedy, have been permanently cured.

I know one man to gain 17 lbs. by taking three bottles; another 11 lbs.; another 10 lbs.; and another 7 lbs.—the venerable master Robinson of Boston.

In diseases of the Liver it is a specific. I know several with yellow skin and yellow eyes, the body emaciated and the mind melancholy, get fat and cheerful by a few bottles.

I know several cases of Dropsy, and one particularly bad. A lady, aged 79, was unable to leave her house for the last twelve years, was so much relieved (she was reduced in circumference thirty-four inches,) as to visit her friends in several neighboring towns

Another had the Dropsy in her left leg, and was unable to walk for ten years, sometimes swelling to an enormous size; at last bursted, making a bad wound which could not be healed; by taking three bottles and using two boxes of ointment, she is now quite well. Why it should make some fat and others lean, I cannot tell, but so it is.

I know of several cases of Kidney complaints cured by it. If the column of a newspaper was a proper medium, I could tell of cases of this most distressing of all diseases that would make your heart bleed, that were permanently cured by it.

It has been lately found to be a sure cure for Fanale fever. In one case the first spoonful put off the fit two hours. One bottle cured him. Another came home to die, and was induced by his brother to try it. Three bottles cured him.

It likewise gives great relief in bad colds. A lady in Lawrence was unable to lie in bed for a number of years; she can now lie without the least inconvenience.

In a lady in Weymouth lost the use of her left side by the Erysipelas. She took a bottle and it broke out in one mass of humor from head to foot. In a few days she was well.

It has lately been found to be equally good for humor outside as inside, (taking it inwardly in the meantime,) for Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Eruptions on the face, or any eruption of the skin whatever; only where the flesh is very sore you must dilute it with water.

When made weak enough it is the best eye-wash for weak and watery eyes that I ever saw.

Others use it to clease the dandruff out of the hair and strengthen its roots, which it certainly does, and to crown all, it made the hair grow on bald heads, which, if I had not seen with my own eyes, I would not believe from you or anybody else.

As regards dieting, I never came across the first person that ever got any benefit from it. On the contrary, numbers came to death's door by it, as it gives the humors the upper hand. My medicine requires the most nourishing food you can get. It will soon give you an appetite.

Do not for a moment suppose that I warrant a cure of all these diseases, in every case. I merely tell you what it has done, hoping it will do the same for you. I do not warrant a cure in any disease but humors, where it never fails. For further particulars see the circular around each bottle.

No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you can get, and enough of it.

I have an herb, simmered in olive oil, scatters Scrofulous swellings of the neck and under the ears. Price fifty cents per box.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE. Adults, one table spoon full per day; children of eight years, dessert spoonful; from five to eight, tea spoonfuls. As no direction can be applicable to all constitutions, take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the descriptions of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others, by W. Gibson, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University. Valentine Mott, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, N. Y. " W. P. Dewees, M.D., Prof. of Mid., Pa. University. N. Chapman, M.D., Prof. of Physic, Pa. University. T. Parke, M.D., Pres't College of Physicians, Phila. Dr. Del Vallo, Prof. of Medicine, Havana. Jose Eourenco de Luz, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon. G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spain.

J. Chipman, Member Royal Coll. Surg., London. Sir Thomas Pearson, Maj. Gen. British Army. Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and, being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:—

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork: and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geocentric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swaim, copy right secured

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c., &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge. Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD YORK ROAD, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA, and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase no Remedy equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is an English Remedy, and was used by William IV. late King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure, and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by his Liniment, but considers warranting it sufficient, as any person who does not obtain relief, need not pay for it.

Price 50 cents. Dr. Tobias's Office, 240 Green Dr. Tobias put up a HORSE LINIMENT in pint bottles, which is warranted cheaper and better than any other for Cholic, Scratches, Old Sores, Galls, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc. which street, New York.

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS

With the U. S. Patent Office, Washington,

No. 76 state Street, oppo. Kilby street,

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty; as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and he will furnish them within three days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific subjects respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of patent and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries: besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual best delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and my intercourse with inventors has that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

"EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

"PATENT OFFICE, ——

"R. H. EDDY, Esq., Boston, Mass.

MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT—

Every land has hailed with
Xtacy this preparation whose
Intrinsic merits has introduced its
Curative powers to the notice of the whole
American people. Rheumatism of long duration,
Neuralgia, with its attendant horrors, have yielded to its
Magical influence; cancers, contorted joints,
Ulcerated and swollen limbs that have
Suffered for years under the weight of disease,
Turn by its application to suppleness and health.
A remedy of such general usefulness that can
Restore sinews of the contracted, the diseased nerves,
Arteries and glands of the human body,
Is worthy of high praise.
Let the rheumatic, halt, lame and palsied
Invalid examine its qualities, and they will
Not be disappointed. Years of study and

HOUSES FOR SALE.

THE DWELLING HOUSE, No. 9 School street. This is a well built house, two (high) stories, in good repair, and is convenient for one family or two families, or for a large Boarding House. It contains nine or more rooms and two cooking stoves, and has an excellent cellar under the whole house. The situation is central, being about equi-distant from the markets, factories and railroads. Connected with this house is a building which has been and may be occupied both as a barn and a work-shop. If not sold soon, a part or the whole of the premises will be let.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 6 Green street. This house is fitted for two tenements; it is well built, was thoroughly painted and put in good order the last season, and is well calculated for two families, (having about 6 rooms each) and may be considered a good location for persons employed at the north end. It is centrally located between the different ship-yards in that section of the city. each tenement will be sold separately, if desired.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 7 Liberty street, corner of Charles street. This house was formerly owned and occupied by the late Peter M. Lovd and is in good order. Attached to it is a lot of land large enough for a Stable or for another dwelling house. It would make a good place for the residence of a person employed at the shipyards across the river, or at the Navy Yard.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 47 Bow street.—This house has been built but a few years, is well finished off, and is very convenient. In the rear is quite a large garden spot. This would be a desirable place for a person employed at the shipyards, or at the Navy Yard nearly opposite.

Also, for sale, a BUILDING LOT, on Mount Vernon street, (opposite No. 2,) with a small building thereon, which can be finished off into a Dwelling house.

All of the above property will be sold on liberal terms, if applied for soon. For further particulars apply to JOSEPH M. EDMONDS,
Feb. 27. No. 9 Islington street.

TO LET—The STORE on the corner of Vaughan and Deer streets. It was occupied as the first Union Store in this city, and is considered as a good stand for business. It is within a few rods of the Boston and Concord Railroad Depots. Possession can be had immediately.

FOR SALE—The HOUSE in the rear of the above, on Vaughan street—a convenient house for two families, and has been so occupied for about six years, by the same tenants. It rents for $160. For information, terms, &c., call on JOSEPH L. LOCKE, on the premises, or JOSEPH M. EDMONDS, 9 Islington st. m29

HUMOR DISCOVERY,

AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

DR. ORDWAY has been using his Blood Purifier in his practice for the last seven years with great success. He has often been urged by his friends and those who have tried it, and know its efficacy, to put it within the reach of all. He has now added to it an Herb, discovered in California, by Dr. KELLEY, which makes it the most wonderful remedy for

HUMORS OF ALL KINDS,

LIVER COMPLAINTS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

The virtues of this Herb were first made known to Dr. Kelley by an Indian, who was attending a patient, sick with that terrible disease, the California Erysipelas and Liver Complaint—the effect was miraculous—curing the man in a few days. The native, when bitten by a rattlesnake, or rabid animal, resort to this Herb for a cure.—Hundreds are taking this medicine, after trying in vain other remedies, and say that the half was never told them.

If you have Erysipelas, 2 to 5 bottles will cure it.
If you have Scrofula, 3 to 7 bottles will cure it.
Three to six bottles will cure Salt Rheum.
One or two bottles will cure Pimples on the Face.
Two or three bottles will cure Scaly Eruptions and Scald Head.
One to three bottles will cure Nursing Sore Mouth
One to three bottles will cleanse the system of Biles.
Two to five bottles will cure Rheumatism.
Three to four bottles will cure old running Sores and Ulcers.
One or two bottles will cure Barber's Itch.
One to three bottles will cure Canker in the mouth and bowels.

For Liver Complaints and Jaundice.

Its effects are new and wonderful, removing obstructions from the Liver, open the pores of the skin, carrying off the morbid matter, relieving the side, and by all-gone feeling of the stomach; and removing low spirits and despondency, which is the result of this disagreeable and often fatal disease.

FOR DYSPEPSIA.

A fair trial will convince you that there is nothing like it.

FOR CANCEROUS HUMORS,

It is the surest remedy ever offered. One widow lady in Lawrence, has been troubled with Cancer for years, by taking two bottles says she is now quite well.

FOR COSTIVENESS.

One gentleman says that it was the only medicine that cured him.

FOR KIDNEY DIFFICULTIES,

It is spoken of in the highest terms. A young man was sick so much with Asthma that he had to leave College; three bottles cured him, and he has now resumed his studies. One lady in Salem was perfectly cured of Periodical Sick Headache, by the use of two bottles. Mr. Williams, of Lawrence, had humors in his eyes for years, and was cured by the use of the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier. For Chills and Fever, Mercurial Diseases, Taints in the System, it stands unrivalled; sometimes where the system is much deranged it will cause disagreeable feelings at first, but continue its use as indications favorable. It is purely vegetable, and its compound and proportions are such that the effect is perfectly satisfactory and safe.

FULL DIRECTIONS ON THE BOTTLE.

☞ Price $1.00. ₋2

HE HAS ALSO A HUMOR SALVE,

Unsurpassed for external humors, which, if used in connection with the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier will much facilitate a cure.

PRICE 25 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Cough Destroyer.

This invaluable Cough Remedy is for the complete cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Influenza, Whooping Cough, pains in the side and breast, hacking or tickling at the throat, spitting blood, tightness across the lungs and chest, and all Lung Complaints leading to Consumption.

No medicine yet discovered has that decided effect in curing Bronchial affections as the Cough Destroyer. It can be taken by all ages and classes, from a child six months old to the oldest man or woman, with the most happy results.

PRICE 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Pain Destroyer.

This preparation is composed of a great variety of Extracts, Gums, Essential Oils, most of which have not heretofore been united and compounded into their present form. It will cure attacks of Cramps of the Stomach, Spasms, Convulsions, Faintings, Pain in the Stomach, Bowels, Side, Back, Limbs, and a great variety of other difficulties. It is also invaluable as an external remedy. It will be found to contain nearly double the strength of any similar article, and possesses properties heretofore unknown. No family should be without it for a single day.

PRICE 25, 37½ AND 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Full directions for the above medicines, on the Bottles. Orders should be accompanied with full directions how it should be sent.

Garden Engines.

JUST received at "the sign of the Big Coffee Pot" a full supply of Garden or Fire Engines, which are respectfully commended by the subscriber to the notice of the public. Wherever these Engines have been introduced they have invariably given entire satisfaction. They are unsurpassed for power, capacity or usefulness. From the size of the air chamber sufficient power is obtained to enable one man to throw a steady stream of water to the height of fifty feet perpendicularly, thereby rendering it a desirable article as a

PROTECTION AGAINST FIRE,

And for washing windows of second and third stories of buildings, carriages, &c. With a newly invented water diffuser as a Garden Engine it defies competition. The diffuser is a perfect and simple article, and its superiority over the common rose sprinkler is that it will throw three times the quantity of water a much greater distance and spread it perfectly even, with less power applied. An Engine with a diffuser of this description, used in orchards and gardens to throw soap suds on the young trees, will destroy many kinds of vermin liable to injure the fruit and be an invaluable addition to the implements of the Nurseryman and Horticulturist.

TUESDAY, JULY 18, 1854.

THE ROMANCE OF KIDNAPPING.—We have already published a bare statement of the fact, that one Merrill has been lately arrested in New York State, for kidnapping Samuel Northup. The New Bedford Standard gives the following particulars of the case:—

Our readers have doubtless seen a book entitled "Solomon Northup, or twelve years a slave." The book states how Solomon was inveigled and enticed away, and sold into slavery, fifteen years ago. Henry B. Northup, Esq., of Sandy Hill, in whose family Solomon was brought up, expended a large sum of money in ascertaining his whereabouts, and finally found and rescued him after a twelve years' search. Since then Mr. Northup has been endeavoring to ferret out and bring to justice Sol's inhuman kidnapper, and on Friday, succeeded in making his arrest in Groversville, Fulton county, New York. The wretch's name is Merrill, and he is a notorious desperado. The negro identified him at once. Merrill was armed with bowie knives and pistols, but so prompt was the arrest, that he had no opportunity to use them. We hope the inhuman monster will be made to feel the full severity of the law.

EXTINCTION.—The Newburyport Herald says:

We long ago came to the conclusion that there are only three modes for the extinction of slavery. The first is its gradual melioration and ultimate freedom before the spirit of Christianity and liberally advancing civil institutions; second, its extinction as being found less profitable than free labor; and third, its abolition by the strong arm of force, by fire and sword and the conquest of the slave States, by some foreign army.

We choose the first method decidedly: only don't let the religious and civil institutions "advance backwards:" if they do it will be a long day before they accomplish much besides their own shame and disgrace.

THE BOOK TRADE.—At the complimentary festival recently given in Philadelphia to Mr. A. Hart, the great publisher, Mr. Henry C. Carey made a very interesting address upon the book trade in the United States.—His remarks upon one branch of the theme are quite suggestive:

We are surrounded, he said, by evidences of progress; but among the chapters which record its history, there is none more remarkable than the literary one. That chapter records great changes in the amount of trade, but there are other changes that are perhaps equally remarkable. Even so recently as forty years since, the trade looked to New York and the South, for a market for their books, whereas the market is now almost altogether west. Chicago, a city that scarcely existed ten years since, now absorbs, I imagine, more books than Norfolk, Charleston and Savannah, united. The consequences of this have been unfavorable to the printers and publishers of Philadelphia, separated as she has been from the great West, by a range of mountains that New York could turn, while she was obliged to scale them. The Erie Canal gave to New York and New England a communication with a great and growing market, while that on which this city has chiefly relied, became a declining one; and the consequence has been that the trade has scarcely kept pace with that of other cities in its growth.

FRUITS AND FARINACEA the proper Food of Man.—A thick pamphlet of near 100 pages, bearing this title, has just been received at this office from the publishers, Messrs. Fowlers & Wells, New York. The author styles his book, an attempt to prove, from history, anatomy, physiology, and chemistry, that the original, natural, and best diet of man is derived from the vegetable kingdom.

The argument is ingenious, and the facts are valuable. There is a basket of most tempting fruits as a frontispiece, and numerous illustrations beside. This No. is part 1 and 2: price 25 cts. The whole will make a vol. worth $1,25.

NEW BOOK BY MRS. HARRIET BEECHER STOWE.—Who is there among the half million readers of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" that will not want to see what Mrs. Stowe has to say about what she saw in Europe? See the Publishers' advertisement of Mrs. Stowe's new book in another column.

WILL AND JUSTICE.—It appears from the Taunton (Mass.) Whig, that Mr. Cyrus Lothrop, deceased, left a large property; but in making his will disinherited his own children, and gave the bulk of his estate to Mr. Charles Albro, of Taunton.

Mr. Albro, however, instead of holding on, has offered to give half the net estate, viz $42,500 to Mr. Lothrop's three sons, in three equal shares; and the offer has been accepted. In Mr. Albro's friendly letter he says, "although Mr. Lothrop has, by his will, made me his residuary legatee, he has not thereby required me to participate in all his feelings."

SETTING FIRE TO A CHURCH.—We learn from the Clinton Courant that an attempt was made at an early hour on Friday morning, to burn the Catholic Church in that town. Fortunately a lady living opposite discovered the light in the building and gave the alarm, and the fire was extinguished before much damage was done. A reward of $200 is offered by the selectmen of the town for the arrest and conviction of the rascal who perpetrated the deed.

CAUSES OF RIOT.

We have mentioned a late riot at Lawrence, Mass., between Catholics and others. A Lawrence correspondent of the Newburyport Herald, states that the first act in the disturbance was by a Yankee, and says: *

The city of Lawrence has a mixed population, suddenly drawn together from all quarters, nearly one half of them foreigners—and 6000 Irish alone, and as a consequence it has the usual amount of poverty, vice and crime, and is ready with such a mixture for most new-fangled notions in religion, politics and social reforms. This is a rich field for the new order of "Know Nothings," who number some eight hundred legal voters, and have an armed body, the Guard of Liberty, numbering 150. There is some reason for this organization here, as they may fear a foreign majority, and the Catholics have already been indiscreet in their action. The priests have preached politics at the altar, and even directed their people in their business dealings—children have been taken from the public schools—foreign military companies have been formed, and one been chartered by the State—Catholics have threatened in the caucuses, that if their candidates were scratched, they would be revenged by voting and electing an entire Catholic ticket. The leading politicians have fawned about and flattered the priests and their people. No longer ago than the 4th of July, the Mayor left the citizens' procession and went to the Catholic pic-nic. Many things have tended to create hostile feelings between the native and adopted population, which have been inflamed by stories of arms and powder under churches, and the insane and fanatical ravings of street preachers and others no better. * * *

One thing, without which a mob cannot go, seemed wanting, both on Saturday and Sunday; that was rum. One barrel of rum would have done the work: but the people were all sober. There is enough in this lesson, however, to serve as a warning. It should show the priests of Rome that American people are never to be subjects of the Pope. It should also show the people the danger of secret political organizations—especially of men carrying concealed weapons—organizations founded upon prejudice of birth and religion, which can in the end lead only to bloodshed and strife, such as will shake the very foundation of the republic.

*Another account makes him a bluenose.

AFFAIRS IN LAWRENCE.—Yankee Doodle a Seditious Tune.—The citizens of Lawrence are in a sad commotion. Since the outrages mention of which has already been made, a large number of special police officers have been sworn in, and they, to magnify their office, are ready to take alarm at the least appearance of evil. Taking counsel from their excited imagination, rather than from their reason, they smell a mob afar off, scent sedition in every wind that blows, and find conclusive proofs of villany in every act that is not squred by a rule of their own.

It was for this reason that a good citizen of the town was arrested on Tuesday night, as he was quietly passing along the street, whistling as he went, for want of thought, perhaps, that abominably seditious tune, "Yankee Doodle." In a minute he was made a prisoner. But he was not detained long. The arresting officers when they saw their man, stammered out some sort of an excuse; they were mistaken; he was whistling with such unction they thought it was a signal call. The officers escaped from their awkward predicament the best way they could. But the matter didn't end here. A large number of good natured citizens got together and whistled Yankee Doodle as it has never been whistled before. The air was vocal with its spirit stirring notes. We venture the assertion that no man will be arrested henceforth in Lawrence for indulging in Yankee Doodle.—Boston Herald.

OVER-ISSUE OF STOCK.—State street was a good deal excited Saturday afternoon at the discovery that some nine thousand shares of the Vermont Central Railroad had been over-issued by the President of the corporation, Edward Crane, Esq. This was not at all allayed by the announcement that Mr. Crane had resigned his office under peculiar circumstances. At a later period, in a corner, Mr. Crane confessed to an 8000 over-issue, the proceeds of which however are not accounted for. There is a strange feeling of indignation among the business portion of the community at this bold and fraudulent act.

Rumors are current that this is but the initial to other transactions of a similar nature. The accounts of the corporation were immediately put under investigation, which was continued through Sunday. They have found that the over-issue would probably reach 50,000 shares. The shares are rated, we believe, at $50 each.

The Gazette says:

"This is the second instance of a like dereliction on the part of Mr. Crane, whose case we hear was presented to the Grand Jury, but a few weeks since, and they refused to find a bill against him.

We trust if such acts are beyond the reach of the law, that our merchants will unite in denouncing these who are guilty of conduct which is disastrous in its effect upon communities, and a stain upon the character of Boston."

There is a determination abroad to have this swindle fully investigated, and the party be made the subject of ample justice. Boston will prove no profitable field for Schaylerism, whether in Vermont Central, or any better stock.

In the meantime the stock of the road is worse, if possible, than ever.—Boston Bee.

THE MONEY MARKET.—The payment of the seven millions of dollars out of the sub Treasury to the Mexican Minister at New York, has operated to relieve very sensibly the money market from the intense pressure which would have otherwise followed the recent financial developements. The Mexican Minister has deposited the whole seven millions in five of the New York Banks. Four millions of it is on call, and three millions is deposited on time at a low rate of interest.

Alfred Huntington, of West Killingly, Ct., had a fight with a warlike rattlesnake on Sunday, which he succeeded in despatching. The reptile had eleven rattles, and in the course of the fight inserted his fangs through Mr. Huntington's pants, barely missing the flesh.

LAW QUESTIONS.

Messrs. Editors.—These are the days of legal suasion; and therefore it behoves every man to watch the laws and the lawyers. My last New Hampshire Gazette contains a legal opinion by Ira Perley, Esq., on our City Charter, in which he gives the following luminous view of section 2 of the Amendments:

As there was no provision in the original charter, defining what a quorum of the city council should be, the amendment was probably intended to remove any doubt that may have been entertained, whether it were not necessary that all the members of the two boards should be present in order to constitute a legal city council.

I cannot say how much of a lawyer the squire may be; but I am sure he is quite ingenious at making suppositions.

He supposes a case, in the above extract, which I never saw supposed before, viz. that every member of a legislative or executive body, might be needful for a quorum. I do not believe any other man living ever dreamed of such a thing.

Mr. Perley says he thinks the elections in this City on the 19th of June were not legal, and offers the following advice as to testing them:

The validity of the elections may be tried in several ways. By a suit against the Marshal for some act, which he must justify under his authority as an officer elected at that convention; by petition to the Superior Court for a mandamus ordering the city government to admit the officers, who would hold ever under a previous election, to exercise the offices, from which they have been ejected; and perhaps by an information calling on the newly elected officers to show by what authority they hold their offices. I think however that the form of the proceedings, instituted to try this question, had better be considered with more deliberation than I have been able to use in considering this case.

You see, Messrs. Editors, the learned gentleman is doubtful about the latter part of it; and so am I. Any thing got before our Superior Court, might have a long tail, and the present city officers, as well as the State and National Administrations might all pass off the stage before the Judges could make up their minds to send down the mandamus.

Mr. Bartlett's opinion, alluded to by the editor of the Gazette, was given as the law stood in May, 1854; but the amendments were made a month or two afterwards, on purpose to change the rules of the City Council in Convention.

One thing more, Messrs. Editors, and I have done. Will you, or some good lawyer, answer these questions: May a man first take a solemn oath to perform the duties of his office, and then wilfully and persistently keep away from the only place where those duties can be performed? Does he keep his oath, in so doing, or does he break it? If he does thus keep away, may he take advantage of his own wrong, and visit the consequence of his own wilful transgression on the heads of those who aimed to keep their oath, and do their duty?

When you or squire Perley have answered these questions, with your leave I will ask a few more. ENQUIRER.

FORESTALLING AND REGRATING.

Messrs. Editors:—I wish to inquire through you, whether there is not a law against Forestalling or Regrating? If so, why is it not enforced? And why, instead thereof, stalls in the markets are allowed to be occupied by persons solely for that purpose, whereby we are obliged to pay for necessaries from 20 to 50 per cent. more than the true market price? A. B.

We believe there is such a statute in our State and elsewhere; but do not think it has ever been enforced, or that it could be, without great difficulty. It is difficult to see why the grocer or market man may not buy all the farmer's peas or potatoes at once, and then retail them out by pecks or quarts if he pleases. It is a convenience to all parties, and though somewhat costly to the consumer, it will and must be kept up, until the citizen goes back to the old fashion of getting up early, and buying of the farmer direct.

WHOLE AGAIN.—We are informed by Dr. Wentworth of Navy Yard Village, the attendant Physician during the late visitation of the small pox at Gerrish's Island, that the disease has entirely disappeared from the town, and that the house where it was has rife been thoroughly cleansed.

☞ The N. H. Legislature during its recen session, passed 35 public and 50 private acts and 55 resolutions. Among the acts passed are

An act relating to the Police Court of the City of Portsmouth.
" to authorize the erection of a bridge to Pierce's Island in Portsmouth.
" to incorporate the Howard Benevolent society of Portsmouth.
" to incorporate the Portsmouth Wharf Company.

DROWNED.—A young man named James Granville Goss, was drowned at Exeter on Sunday morning, July 16, while bathing in the river, being unable to swim, and going beyond his depth. He was a young man of good promise, eighteen years of age, being the eldest son of Mr. J. Madison Goss of Rye, and an apprentice of Orin Head, Esq., carriage maker, of Exeter.

Henry Noyes, who was accidentally shot with a pistol at Suncook, N. H., on the 5th inst., died of his wounds on the Saturday following.

CONGRESS.

SATURDAY, July 15.

SENATE.—The House joint resolution of the thanks of Congress and the presentation of a medal to Captain Duncan N. Ingraham, was taken up.

Mr. Badger said that he desired to move some amendments. He in no way wished to call in question the merit of all that Capt. Ingraham did, but the resolution of the House was a total departure from all precedent. In the history of public rewards a resolution of thanks was regarded as the highest mark of respect, being above the vote of a sword, medal, &c. The thanks of Congress had been voted to naval officers but on three occasions, and then only to commanders of squadrons; these were McDonough and Perry on the Lakes and Preble on the Mediterranean. The thanks of Congress were never voted to Decatur, Hull, Bainbridge, Jones, or others.—This resolution further provided that they should be communicated by the President to Captain Ingraham. This had never been done on any occasion. He moved, as amendments, striking out the vote of thanks, and that the resolution directing the action of Congress be sent to Captain Ingraham, and leaving it simply a resolution voting him a medal for his gallant and judicious conduct in protecting Martin Koszta, &c. &c. The amendment and resolution were adopted.

The light-house, river and harbor, and post-office appropriation bills were all referred.

Mr. Mason asked for an executive session. At half-past two the doors were opened.—The Homestead bill was taken up, and after a short discussion the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—On motion of Mr. Gerrit Smith, the memorial of the New York Temperance alliance, praying Congress to clothe the Corporation of Washington with full power to abolish the sale of intoxicating drinks, was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Davis of Rhode Island presented a resolution of the Legislature of that State, reversing and annulling the sentence rendered by the Supreme Court of Rhode Island against Governor Dorr for treason, and also resolutions against the Nebraska and fugitive slave bills.

The House then went into Committee on private bills. Twelve bills were favorably acted on and reported to the House, but were not passed. Adjourned.

MONDAY, July 17.

The Senate met at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Sumner presented several memorials from Massachusetts against the Fugitive Slave Law.

On motion of Mr. Hamblin, the Senate took up the bill for the better preservation of life and property in vessels shipwrecked on the coasts of the United States. Read three times and passed.

Mr. Mason called up the resolution fixing the salary of the employees of the Senate.—The report fixes the annual salaries with the view of adding thereto 25 per cent. under the resolution of the House for that purpose.

Mr. Petit moved to increase the pay of the committee's clerks to $5 per day, which, with 20 per cent. added, would be $6. Agreed to.

Mr. Rusk moved for an increase of the salaries of fifteen messengers from $900 per annum to $1000, making with the percentage $1200. Adopted. The pay of the mail boys was raised from $650 to $700 per annum.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—The Reciprocity Treaty will probably be voted on this week.

A suspension of the rules will be attempted to-day or to-morrow with a view of carrying through the Iowa and Wisconsin Railroad bills.

It is understood that the Colt investigating community will be ready to report on Thursday.

The Senate in executive session on Saturday had under consideration an alleged breach of privilege, refering to the unauthorized publication of the reciprocity treaty. A committee of investigation, it is understood, has been appointed.

RIVER AND HARBOR BILL.—In the course of the debate on the bill, Mr. Barksdale, of Mississippi, declared it to be the unalterable purpose of the administration to set its face against any such measure. Mr. Yates, of Illinois, asked him if he spoke for himself or for the administration, and he unequivocally declared that he spoke for the administration and for the Democratic party.

BALTIMORE, July 16.—The New Orleans mails, late as due, are received to-day, from which we learn Frank Smith was hung at New Orleans on the 7th inst., for murdering his wife; and that the Mayor of Alexandria, Louisiana, was shot dead during an affray on the 4th. Also that a malignant dysentery is prevailing in Lakeville, N. C., from which many deaths had occurred.

NEW YORK, July 16.—There arrived today the United States steamship Princeton, hence 8th inst. on a trial trip, which has proved very successful.

New York, July 16.—Wm. V. Paul, recently arrested for stealing $14,000 from Mr. Belmont's banking house, has been set at liberty. The District Attorney having decided that by the wording of the power of an Attorney, executed by Mr. Belmont before he left for Europe, Mr. Paul had not committed an offence which made him amenable to the laws of this state.

2 P. M. The weather is fine after two days easterly storm.

New York, July 17. The Courier & Enquirer's special correspondent at Washington says that the Japanese treaty was unanimously confirmed on Saturday.

The Herald and Times of this morning publish the treaty. It is brief, clear and comprehensive.

Marble Chimney Pieces.

THE PENRHYN MARBLE is a new and beautiful article, manufactured of Stone imported from England, which is enameled in imitation of of the richest and most expensive Spanish, Galway, Egyptian, Pyronese, Lisbon, Sienna and other rare and desirable kinds of Marble—the imitation being so perfect as to challenge detection without the closest scrutiny. In style of finish these Chimney Pieces stand unequalled, being very highly polished—retaining their beauty much longer than common marble, and are not injured by oils, smoke, coal gas or acids. They have been extensively introduced into public and private buildings, giving perfect satisfaction to those who have used them. The best of references can be given, showing their adaptedness for general use, the subscriber having furnished some of the best dwelling houses in the city with them during the last two years.

While excelling all others in beauty of finish and appearance, they are sold much cheaper than any thing of the kind in the market. The subscriber has now in Store a complete assortment of the above named desirable Goods, to which he invites the attention of all interested.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common Pasture Weeds a remedy that cures Every Kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two or three bottles will clear the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruption of the skin.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of scald head.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of Crofula.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed growing on the pastures and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system, yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start. There is no if's and buts, hums and ha's about its suiting some cases, but not yours, as I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effects of it in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. I gave it to children a year old; to old people of sixty. I have to remember, young, wrinkling children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some have taken it who have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is sound it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings; but you need not be alarmed; they will disappear in from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it; on the contrary, when that feeling is gone, you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to.

Nothing in the annals of Patent Medicines has ever been received by the public with so much favor as this simple preparation. It is now composed of nine different herbs. In May, 1852, when I commenced making a business of it, I sold about two bottles per day. In June, 1853. I sold 4320 bottles. In October, 1853, I sold 6120 bottles. I hope you will call that doing well; I do.

In my own practice, I confine it strictly to humors; but there are some who are so enthusiastic in its favor they think what cured them will cure any thing and any body; they accordingly recommend it for every variety of disease. In this way a great many virtues are ascribed to it have been found that I never would suspect.

Cases of Dyspepsia, of many years standing, that withstood every known remedy, have been permanently cured.

I know one man to gain 17 lbs. by taking three bottles; another 11 lbs.; another 10 lbs.; and another 7 lbs.—the venerable master Robinson of Boston.

In diseases of the Liver it is a specific. I know several with yellow skin and yellow eyes, the body emaciated and the mind melancholy, get fat and cheerful by a few bottles.

I know several cases of Dropsy, and one particularly bad. A lady, aged 79, was unable to leave her house for the last twelve years, was so much relieved (she was reduced in circumference thirty-four inches,) as to visit her friends in several neighboring towns

Another had the Dropsy in her left leg, and was unable to walk for ten years, sometimes swelling to an enormous size; at last bursted, making a bad wound which could not be healed; by taking three bottles and using two boxes of ointment, she is now quite well. Why it should make some fat and other lean, I cannot tell, but so it is.

I know of several cases of Kidney complaints cured by it. If the columns of a newspaper was a proper medium, I could tell of cases of this most distressing of all diseases that would make your heart bleed, that were permanently cured by it.

It has been lately found to be a sure cure for Panama fever. In one case the first spoonful put off the fit two hours. One bottle cured him. Another came home to die, and was induced by his brother to try it. Three bottles cured him.

It likewise gives great relief in the Asthma. A lady in Lawrence was unable to lie in bed for a number of years; she can now lie without the least inconvenience.

Le A lady in Weymouth lost the use of her left side by the Erysipelas. On the second bottle, she broke out in one mass of humor from head to foot. In a few days she was well.

It has lately been found to be equally good for humor outside as inside, (taking it inwardly in the meantime,) for Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Pimples on the Face, or any eruption of the skin whatever; only where the flesh is very sore you must dilute it with water.

When made weak enough it is the best eye-wash for weak and watery eyes that I ever saw.

Others use it to cleanse the dandruff out of the hair and strengthen its roots, which it certainly does, and to crown all, it made the hair grow on bald heads, which, if I had not seen with my own eyes, I would not believe from you or anybody else.

As regards dieting, I never came across the first person that ever got any benefit from it. On the contrary, numbers came to death's door by it, as it gives the humors the upper hand. My medicine requires the most nourishing food you can get. It will soon give you an appetite.

Do not for a moment suppose that I warrant a cure of all those diseases, in every case. I merely tell you what it has done, hoping it will do the same for you. I do not warrant a cure in any disease but humors, where a cure is possible. For further particulars see the circular around each bottle.

No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you can get, and enough of it.

I have an herb, simmered in olive oil, scatters Scrofulous swellings of the neck and under the ears. Price fifty cents per box.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE. Adults, one table spoo. ful per day; children of eight years, dessert spoonful; from five to eight, tea spoonfuls. As a no direction can be applicable to all constitutions, take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the descriptions of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others, by

W. Gibson, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University.
Valentine Mott, M.D., Prof. Surgery, N. Y. U.
W. P. Dewees, M.D., Prof. of Mid., Pa. University.
N. Chapman, M.D., Prof. of Physic, Pa. University.
I. Parke, M.D., Pres't College of Physicians, Phila.
Dr. Del Vallo, Prof. of Medicine, Havana.
Jose Eourenco de Lima, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon.
G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spaine.
J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London.
Sir Thomas Pearson, Maj. Gen. British Army.
Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and, being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant.

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:—

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name Jas. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork: and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geocentric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swain, copy right secured

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c., &c. See the Pamphlet which may be had gratis accompanying the Vermifuge. Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA, and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase no Remedy equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is an English Remedy, and was used by William IV. late King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure, and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by his Linimeut, but considers warranting it sufficient, as any person who does not obtain relief, need not pay for it.

Price 50 Cents. Dr. Tobias's Office, 240 Green

Dr. Tobias has put up a HORSE LINIMENT in pint bottles, which is warranted cheaper and better than any other for Cholic, Scratches, Old Sores, Galls, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc.

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS

With the U. S. Patent Office, Washington,

No. 76 state Street, oppo. Kilby street, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent office, under the act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any, persons solicitors, that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

"PATENT OFFICE, ——.

"R. H. EDDY, Esq., Boston, Mass.

"SIR:—Your facilities for the prosecution of any business connected with this Office, are equal to those of any other agent I am very respectfully, Yours, &c. THOMAS EWBANK,

HOUSES FOR SALE.

THE DWELLING HOUSE, No. 9 School street. This is a well built house, two (high) stories, in good repair, and is convenient for one family or two families, or for a large Boarding House. It contains nine or more rooms and two sculleries, and has an excellent cellar under the whole house. The situation is central, being about equi-distant from the markets, factories and railroads. Connected with this house is a building which has been and may be occupied both as a barn and a work-shop. If not sold soon, a part or the whole of the premises will be let.

THE DWELLING HOUSE No. 6 Green street. This house is fitted for two tenements; it is well built, was thoroughly painted and put in good order the last season, and is well calculated for two families, (having about 6 rooms each) and may be considered a good location for persons employed at the north end. It is centrally located between the different ship-yards in that section of the city, each tenement will be sold separately, if desired.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 7 Liberty street, corner of Charles street. This house was formerly owned and occupied by the late Peter M. Lord and is in good order. Attached to it is a lot of land large enough for a Stable or for another dwelling house. It would make a good place for the residence of a person employed at the shipyards across the river, or at the Navy Yard.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 47 Bow street.—This house has been built but a few years, is well finished off, and is very convenient. In the rear is quite a large garden spot. This would be a desirable place for a person employed at the shipyards, or at the Navy Yard nearly opposite.

Also, for sale, a BUILDING LOT, on Mount Vernon street, (opposite No. 2,) with a small building thereon, which can be finished off into a Dwelling house.

All of the above property will be sold on liberal terms, if applied for soon. For further particulars apply to JOSEPH M. EDMONDS,
Feb. 27. No. 9 Islington street.

TO LET—The STORE on the corner of Vaughan and Deer streets. It was occupied as the first Union Store in this city, and is considered as a good stand for business. It is within a few small rods of the Boston and Concord Railroad Depots. Possession can be had immediately.

FOR SALE—The HOUSE in the rear of the above, on Vaughan street—a convenient house for two families, and has been so occupied for about six years, by the same tenants. It rents for $160. For information, terms, &c., call on JOSEPH L. LOCKE, on the premises, or JOSEPH M. EDMONDS, 9 Islington st. m29

HUMOR DISCOVERY,

AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

DR. ORDWAY has been using his Blood Purifier in his practice for the last seven years with great success. He has often been urged by his friends and those who have tried it, and know its efficacy, to put it within the reach of all. He has now added to it an Herb, discovered in California, by Dr. KELLEY, which makes it the most wonderful remedy for

HUMORS OF ALL KINDS,

LIVER COMPLAINTS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

The virtues of this Herb were first made known to Dr. Kelley by an Indian, while attending a patient, sick with that terrible disease, the California Erysipelas and Liver Complaint—the effect was miraculous—curing the man in a few days. The natives, when bitten by a rattle snake, or rabid animal, resort to this Herb for a cure.—Hundreds are taking this medicine, after trying in vain other remedies, and say that the half was never told them.

If you have Erysipelas, 3 to 5 bottles will cure it.
If you have Scrofula, 3 to 7 bottles will cure it.
Three to six bottles will cure Salt Rheum.
One or two bottles will cure Pimples on the Face.
Two or three bottles will cure Scaly Eruptions and Scald Head.
One to three bottles will cure Nursing Sore Mouth.
One to three bottles will cleanse the system of Biles.
Two to five bottles will cure Rheumatism.
Three to four bottles will cure old running Sores and Ulcers.
One or two bottles will cure Barber's Itch.
One to three bottles will cure Canker in the mouth and bowels.

For Liver Complaints and Jaundice.

Its effects are new and wonderful, removing obstructions from the Liver, open the pores of the skin, carrying off the morbid matter, relieving the side, and all-gone feelings of the stomach; and removing low spirits and despondency, which is the result of this disagreeable and often fatal disease.

FOR DYSPEPSIA.

A fair trial will convince you that there is nothing like it.

FOR CANCEROUS HUMORS,

It is the surest remedy ever offered. One widow lady in Lawrence, has been troubled with Cancer for years, by taking two bottles says she is now quite well.

FOR COSTIVENESS.

One gentleman says that it was the only medicine that cured him.

FOR KIDNEY DIFFICULTIES,

It is spoken of in the highest terms. A young man was sick so much with Asthma that he had to leave College; three bottles cured him, and he has now resumed his studies. One lady in Salem was perfectly cured of Periodical Sick Headache, by the use of two bottles. Mr. Williams, of Lawrence, had tumors in his eyes for years, and was cured by the use of the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier. For Chills and Fever, Mercurial Diseases, Taints in the System, it stands unrivalled; sometimes where the system is much deranged it will cause disagreeable feelings at first, but continue its use as indications favorable. It is purely vegetable, and its compound and proportions are such that the effect is perfectly satisfactory and safe.

FULL DIRECTIONS ON THE BOTTLE.

☞ Price $1.00. ☜

HE HAS ALSO A HUMOR SALVE,

Unsurpassed for external humors, which, if used in connection with the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier will much facilitate a cure.

PRICE 25 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Cough Destroyer.

This invaluable Cough Remedy is for the complete cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Influenza, Whooping Cough, pains in the side and breast, hacking or tickling at the throat, spitting blood, tightness across the lungs and breast, and all Lung Complaints leading to Consumption.

No medicine yet discovered has that decided effect in curing Bronchial affections as the Cough Destroyer. It can be taken by all ages and classes, from a child six months old to the oldest man or woman, with the most happy results.

PRICE 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Pain Destroyer.

This preparation is composed of a great variety of Extracts, Gums, Essential Oils, most of which have not heretofore been united and compounded into their present form. It will cure attacks of Cramps of the Stomach, Spasms, Convulsions, Faintings, Pain in the Stomach, Bowels, Side, Back, Limbs, and a great variety of other difficulties. It is also invaluable as an external remedy. It will be found to contain nearly double the strength of any similar article, and possesses properties heretofore unknown. No family should be without it for a single day.

PRICE 25, 37½ AND 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Full directions for the above medicines, on the Bottles. Orders should be accompanied with full directions how it should be sent.

Garden Engines.

JULT received at "the sign of the Big Coffee Pot" a full supply of Garden or Fire Engines, which are respectfully commended by the subscriber to the notice of the public. Wherever these Engines have been introduced they have invariably given entire satisfaction. They are unsurpassed for power, capacity or usefulness. From the size of the air chamber sufficient power is obtained to enable one man to throw a steady stream of water to the height of fifty feet perpendicularly, thereby rendering it a desirable article as a

PROTECTION AGAINST FIRE,

And for washing windows of second and third stories of buildings, carriages, &c. With a newly invented water diffuser as a Garden Engine it defies competition. The diffuser is a perfect and simple article, and its superiority over the common rose sprinkler is that it will throw three times the quantity of water a much greater distance and spread it perfectly even, with less power applied. An Engine with a diffuser of this description, used in orchards and gardens to throw soap suds on the young trees, will destroy many kinds of vermin liable to injure the fruit and be an invaluable addition to the implements of the Nurseryman and Horticulturist.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 19, 1854.

FREE SCHOOLS AT THE SOUTH.—The Legislature of Alabama has made provisions for free schools in that State, and active preparations are now being made for carrying the act into operation. A letter was received a day or two since, says the Boston Traveller, by one of our most distinguished teachers, from the town of Reform, asking for information with regard to the School system of Massachusetts, and requesting advice as to the best means of providing free school instruction for the youth of Alabama. The teacher referred to, of course could give no definite advice, as local feelings and local laws must, of necessity, be in a great measure the guide in settling the details of so important a movement; but, in answer to the letter sent a number of educational documents, giving as full an idea of the Massachusetts school system as could be obtained, and proffered farther aid if desired.

The Advertiser adds, that North Carolina has an extensive public school establishment,—the number of such schools in that State at the time of the last census was 2657, with 2740 teachers and 104,095 pupils,—the schools being supported at an expenditure of $158,564, of which $97,378 came from public funds, $42,936 from taxation, and the rest from other sources. Indeed there are no States of the Union, except Florida and Texas, where there are not public schools partially supported by taxation.

COTTON MANUFACTORY IN THE SOUTHWEST.—Louisville papers state that the success of the extensive cotton manufacturing establishment of H. D. Newcomb & Bro., of Louisville, at Cannelton, Ky., during the last year, has been unprecedented in the history of modern manufactures. Their mammoth mill now in operation at that place, turns off a daily production of goods, such as the very best domestic fabrics in market, equal to 15,252 yards.—Boston Atlas.

The establishment spoken of, though built by Louisville capital, is nevertheless in a free State. Cannelton is not in Kentucky, but in Indiana. The proprietors showed their knowledge of the influence of slavery, by selecting a location where labor is respected.—The bituminous coal, known by the name of "Cannelton," by which steam engines are supplied, is equally abundant on both sides of the river. Nothing prevents successful manufactures in Kentucky, except the presence of slavery.—Boston Commonwealth.

JOHN MITCHELL, who escaped from Australia, speaks thus of Bostonians who do not like the Fugitive Slave Law:

"To compel a lazy, woolly headed negro to return to his master, and to work for a living, is the highest crime known to the higher law. But if the TRAITORS only received their desert in this world, the position to which they would be elevated is a gallows higher than any steeple. We rejoice that so far the majesty of the law has been vindicated, even at the point of the bayonet; but it would receive a higher and more salutary vindication, if the REBELS HAD BEEN SHOT DOWN LIKE DOGS, and to this complexion it must come at last!"

By the laws of England, Mitchell is himself a fugitive. A man so much in love with laws that consign "lazy, woolly headed negroes" to perpetual bondage, ought not to object to see "the majesty of the law vindicated" in his own person! If it be right to take back a "lazy, woolly headed negro" who has been guilty of no crime but that of asserting his liberty, why not take back a "lazy, woolly faced Irishman" who is guilty of the same offence?—Albany Journal.

BUSINESS BEFORE CONGRESS.—The National Intelligencer contains a list of the most important subjects to be acted on by Congress, which is to adjourn in four weeks. It enumerates 47 bills; among them the civil and diplomatic, army, navy, mint, and fortification bills, the French spoliation bill, bills to abolish the present ocean mail service, relating to the army and to the navy, &c., &c. There are various other bills on the House calendar of less importance, and also about one hundred and sixty private bills, besides the bills yet remaining on the tables of committees and those daily transmitted to the House for concurrence. Unless the members eschew all debate, they can accomplish little or nothing at this session.

The huge electric cable for the Mediterranean submarine telegraph measures 120 miles in length, comprising six conducting copper wires, each coated with solution, impervious to wet, again covered with hemp, &c., and the whole protected by galvanized wire of immense strength, the entire mass weighing nearly 1000 tons. The cable will be run out to Cape Corse, in Corsica, a distance of 110 miles, the remaining ten miles being allowed for the depth it has to traverse. Wires are being laid down the entire breadth of Corsica to the Straits of Bonifacie, and a second cable, 150 miles long is in the course of construction, to be submerged across these waters to reach the shores of Sardinia. From there on the opposite point of the island, a third cable is to be laid down to the coast of Africa to Tunis.

☞ Vermont Central Railroad stock can scarcely be sold at any price in Boston, now, in consequence of the over-issue by Mr. Crane. The puncturing of this financial bubble, and the explosion of the much larger one blown by Mr. Schuyler, are only the commencement of a series of exposures, which will show by and by the truth of the old proverb, "All is not gold that glitters."

LOCAL.

For the Chronicle.

MR. PERLEY'S OPINION OF OUR CHARTER ELECTIONS.

The opinion of Ira Perley, Esq., being published in the N. H. Gazette, we have a right to make comments and expose its fallacy.—But we are not aware that, being obtained for a fee, it is entitled to more weight than that of other members of the Bar. Some lawyers will give a crude and hasty opinion upon such statement as may be presented, without investigating the true state of the case, or examining the records. In charity to Mr. P., we doubt whether he has seen a transcript of the records. If he has not, his opinion cannot be worth much.

He thinks that the elections by the city council were not legal. His reasons are that there must be a majority of the board of Aldermen and of the Common Council concurring or agreeing to meet at Convention in order to constitute the city council. By the record it appears there was a majority of each board for the purpose, and the charter declares that the two "boards shall, in their joint capacity, be denominated the City Council."—The members of the two boards, when thus joined, are upon an equality, and do not act, in the legal sense, as Aldermen, or common council men, but strictly as members of the City Council.

Mr. P., if we understand him, in order to render the elections illegal, takes the singular position, that it must appear that a majority of the Aldermen and Common Council are present when the City Council is formed.—The record shows that the City Council, in pursuance of the votes of the two Boards, convened at the time specified, and for the purpose previously specified. If there had not been a quorum of each separate board, when the votes to go into joint convention were passed, (this must appear by the record) then the City Council could not have been legally formed. But when the city council is legally convened, it is not necessary to spread upon the record the names of each member; it is sufficient that a quorum be present; the names of the absentees, unless there should be a call of the roll, to see whether a quorum be present, do not appear on the record.

Our city charter was amended partly for the purpose of adding, as in sec. 2, of the amendments, the explicit declaration that "A majority of the city council shall constitute a quorum for proceeding in the elections &c." But Mr. P. contends that this clause should be so contrived that a majority of each board shall constitute a quorum, although the amendment was made for the very purpose of doing away the same objection which he now attempts to raise. His objection is idle. The only question that can be raised, is whether the Legislature had authority to make the amendments. We hardly need say that the two boards, acting "in their joint capacity," are legally merged into one, or a new body, each member having an equal authority, and so long as a quorum remains, the City Council may proceed, although a third of the members may not attend, or after appearing should absent themselves. The charter gives authority to compel the attendance of absentees, when there is not a quorum.

Mr. P. is not ignorant that the records of the City Council cannot be contradicted by parol evidence, unless they have been made up fraudulently. Our city authorities having acted fairly, honorably and liberally, their doings will not be set aside by legal exceptions which seem to fall beneath even captious legal quibbles. To justify our remarks we appeal to the records of the proceedings.

A CITIZEN.

IMPROVEMENTS.

While making our usual semi-annual business calls on the patrons of the Chronicle, a day or two since, we could not but particularly notice the great improvements made along Congress street, near Vaughan, within a few months. Under the enterprising hands of the Expressmen, the dismal old gambrel-roofed house on the corner of Fleet street, has assumed a new appearance; and this, with Hartshorn's gentlemen's toilet saloon, and the new Refreshment Saloon in the old Melcher house, on the corner of Chesnut street, have much improved that side of the street.

Hartshorn has got one of the neatest of Hair-dressing rooms, and does up all the branches of his business in a style that can't be beat. Freeman & Newcomb's ice cream and oyster saloon is fitted and furnished splendidly, with marble tables, &c., and they do up the tempting eatables to match.

On the other side of Congress street, Sol Holmes has just re-furnished and beautified his tonsorial establishment, rendering it very inviting in itself, as well as from the fact that "the barber" is always prepared with a keen razor and prompt scissors.

Next come Mr. Wenzel and Dr. Fuller, in the old Waldron house. Of course whatever Mr. Wenzel does is in good taste; and his window display of pictures, fancy articles, &c. interests every person who can be pleased at all. He has a very convenient workshop in the rear, and is ready to fill orders for book-binding, pictures, frames, and fancy articles, as usual.

Dr. Fuller, also, has been refitting his establishment, and furnished a new operating room, in an unique and splendid manner.—The furniture is of mahogany throughout—the chairs and lounge being covered with the same beautiful tapestry carpet as the floor.—A superb mahogany, plush-covered operating chair invites the patient with a promise of lazy comfort which will balance considerable prospective annoyance; and the operating table is copered with a full and splendid set of pearl-handled dental instruments, carved and inlaid with gold and stones. Paintings and statuary give a finish to all. The whole arrangement of the establishment, and this gem of a room in particular, bespeak the Dr.'s good taste and success. As will be seen by his advertisement, he has engaged an able asssistant, being compelled thus to do to meet the demands of his greatly increased patronage.

GOOD.—Mr. John C. Rives, editor of the Washington Daily Globe, tells the following good story in reply to a correspondent:

"We are admonished not to be too prolix in answering our correspondent, from the fact that this day one week, we published in the Globe an answer of eight columns, which was not all an answer, to an attack made on our "homestead" before the Senate, which answer was not generally read, because it was too long. We engaged a Senator, who is a lawyer, to read it, without thinking of his profession. Last Friday he called at Jackson Hall, in our absence, to see us, and left word that he would call next day. Thinking that he had read "our poor remarks," as modest men generally characterized their speeches, and that they had convinced him of the justice of our cause, we took care to be at home on Saturday.

At 1 o'clock, P. M., of that day, he called and said, "I have read the remarks in your case which you handed me, clean through; but have been unable to comprehend them. I charge you fifty dollars for my services, which is the lowest rate I have ever charged for reading so much matter, and advise you to employ assistant counsel, who understand ems and ens to aid me in the case." We asked him if he would not make some abatement if we would read an equal quantity of his prosy speeches, and he replied in substance that he could not, as that would do him no good, as they were not made to convince any body here, but for the purpose of keeping himself before the people of Mississippi."

AFFECTING INCIDENT.—Charles Watterson, an industrious blacksmith at Hickman, Ky., had, by hard work and close economy, accumulated sufficient means to send for his wife and family, whom he had left in England. They arrived at Hickman some three weeks since, in charge of a friend, when his cup of happiness was full. But alas! the joy of the happy family was soon turned to mourning. The friend was only a few days after his arrival attacked with cholera, and in a few hours his earthly course was run. The same day Watterson was attacked, and in five hours he had gone the way of all the living. The wife, a very intelligent and pleasant woman, overwhelmed with grief, was making arrangements to return to England, when she too was attacked by the fell destroyer, and in a few hours more had joined her husband in the spirit land.—Louisville Courier, July 10.

A PITHY DISCOURSE.—We understand that on the last Sabbath, at Grace Episcopal Church in this city, after the morning service, the rector, Rev. Mr. Homer, made this startling announcement to his congregation:—"I shall no longer preach in this house"—and after a short pause, amid the breathless silence of his hearers, he added, "so long as it is a house of merchandise and an oil shed." The benediction was then abruptly pronounced, and the congregation quietly separated. This, we are told, was the first intimation that any of the church had received of the rector's dissatisfaction in the matter. The custom of using the cellars under our churches as storehouses, is, we believe, not uncommon in New England.—New Bedford Mercury.

In Baltimore a Hebrew woman who was supposed to be dead was dressed in her shroud placed in her coffin, and the lid was about to be screwed down, when it was discovered that life was not extinct. All present immediately gathered around the coffin, and the enshrouded corpse-like form arose from her narrow bed, and embraced her children and relatives with all the fervor of renewed life. To all appearances she became convalescent, and subsequently partook of food. She remained in this condition until the approach of night, when she tottered to the bed and in a few moments breathed her last.

Mr. Soule's demand on the Spanish Government for the removal of Roca, the Intendente at Havana, known to us by his connection with the Black Warrior affair, has been pending for some time. Meanwhile Roca has been removed by a greater power than the Spanish Government! He died of the black vomito on the night of the 27th ult.

MARSHALL ADMITTED TO BAIL.—John Marshall, on a writ of habeas corpus was taken from Amherst jail and brought before the Superior Court of this State, now in session at Concord, last Wednesday. A hearing was held, and the Court decided that it was a bailable case. The bail was fixed at $5,000 for his appearance at Court next October to answer to the charge of murdering Michael Calin of this city.—Manchester Mirror.

The Southern (Mississippi) Journal gives a description of a barbecue given by Mr. Strickland, the agent and overseer of the plantation of Hon. Stephen A. Douglass, on the Pearl river. There are one hundred and forty adult slaves on the plantation, belonging to the Senator from Illinois, and about forty little darkies greeted the eyes of the editor, rolling about 'on the old cabin floors.'

A New York paper states that Robert Schuyler at one time held the Presidency of not less than six railroad companies.

ARRIVAL OF THE FRANKLIN.

NEW YORK, July 18.—The steamer Franklin, Capt, Wotton, from Havre and Southampton the 5th inst., went ashore off Montauk early yesterday forenoon, with 160 passengers and 800 tons of merchandise. Her position is considered dangerous. The passengers were safely landed, and about 40 reached the city at an early hour this morning.

A Liverpool circular just received quotes the sales of Cotton on the 3d at 8 to 9000 bales, at extreme prices, market closing very firm. The same circular quotes the trade in Breadstuffs at an advance of 6 a 9d on American flour. Corn dull and rather lower. In other articles no change. The London corn market was 2s lower. American flour is a 2s lower.

A formidable revolt took place at Madrid on the 28th, headed by Gen. O'Donnell.—The insurgents number 4000.

The reports from Madrid are very conflicting. The latest state that the city was covered with barricades, that the garrison had fraternized with the insurgents, and that Gen. O'Donnel had threatened to attack the palace unless the Ministry resigned. It was also stated that the Queen was required to abdicate.

A despatch from the Spanish government dated July 5d, states that the government troops attacked the Insurgents on the 1st inst. and gained a signal advantage over them; also that the Queen was well received by the troops and populace. Madrid was reported tranquil. The truth of the despatch was doubted at Paris.

The Russians have not evacuated Moldavia, and an Austrian force of 24,000 men had been dispatched to drive the Russians across the Sereth. A collision is considered extremely probable.

The Russians continue to retire from Wallachia, and the right bank of the Danube is believed to have been entirely evacuated, except in two or three fortified positions.

They are concentrating in Moldavia and Northern Wallachia upon the Transylvania frontier, making a complete change of front, with 80 leagues of ground lost, and at least 50,000 men hors du combat.

All the troops in Russian Poland have been ordered to march towards the Gallician frontier, and a levy en masse has been ordered in Poland; each landed proprietor is to supply twenty-four men, twelve of whome are to be armed with scythes.

CONGRESS.

MONDAY, July 17.

The House resolutions giving the employees of the Legislative department an increase of 20 per cent for compensation, and prohibiting hereafter the usual extra allowance was taken up and passed.

Mr. Badger's motion to reconsider the vote passing the Pacific Telegraph bill was rejected.

The Homestead bill was taken up, and the Senate refused to strike out the 6th section, 19 to 29.

Mr. Stuart of Michigan moved as a substitute for the bill one extending the privileges of the Homestead bill to all persons who, by state law, were entitled to hold lands therein, and to fix as the price to be paid by persons seeking the benefit of this act, after possession and cultivation for five years, 25 cents an acre, and for lands a certain time in market 12 1-2 cents. It graduates the price of public lands from $1 down to 25 cents an acre, depending on the time it has been in market. It allows the several states, in which lands are situated to take it at the graduate price for railroads, &c.

Mr. Gwin of California moved to amend the original bill by attaching 25 cents per acre as the price to be paid by persons availing themselves of the benefits of this act.

Mr. Brodhead of Pennsylvania moved to strike out 25 cents and insert 50 cents.

Various Senators spoke upon the bill, when Mr. Wade of Ohio called the attention of the Senate to a report in the Globe of Mr. Clayton's speech of last week on this bill.

[A sharp personal debate took place between Messrs. Wade and Clayton, not much to the credit of either.]

Mr. Dodge of Iowa explained his remarks on the subject, and after some farther debate between Messrs. Clayton and Cass on the subject of the Know Nothings and Catholics, the Senate adjourned.

House.—The Senate bill regulating pay of the army, and increasing its efficacy by the retiring of disabled officers, was rejected, 90 against 64.

The rules were suspended for Mr. Fenton to report from the Committee on Commerce a bill creating Dunkirk a collection district, and constituting the same place a port of entry. The bill was passed.

The House went into Committee of the Whole on the Army Appropriation bill.

The amendment pending was to repeal so much of the former acts as authorized military superintendence at the National Armories, and providing for the appointment of well qualified civilians at either of those establishments.

Mr. Vansant of Maryland, and Mr. Davis of Rhode Island, spoke in favor of civil superintendence, and Mr. Keitt of South Carolina for the military.

Mr. Skelton of New Jersey offered a resolution that the manufactories at Springfield and Harper's Ferry be discontinued, and authorizing the Secretary of War to contract for a supply of arms, and that $200,000 be appropriated for the purpose—rejected.

Mr. Banks of Massachusetts spoke against the military superintendency. The Committee rose without concluding the subject. Adjourned.

Dr. Treadwell

Marble Chimney Pieces.

THE PENRHYN MARBLE is a new and beautiful article, manufactured of Stone imported from England, which is enameled in imitation of the richest and most expensive Spanish, Italian, Egyptian, Tyrenee, Lisbon, Sienna and other rare and desirable kinds of Marble—the imitation being so perfect as to challenge detection without the closest scrutiny. In style of finish these Chimney Pieces stand unequalled, being very highly polished—retaining their beauty much longer than common marble, and are not injured by oils, smoke, coal gas or acids. They have been extensively introduced into public and private buildings, giving perfect satisfaction to those who have used them. The best of references can be given, showing their adaptedness for general use, the subscriber having furnished some of the best dwelling houses in the city with them during the last two years.

While excelling all others in beauty of finish and appearance, they are sold much cheaper than any thing of the kind in the market. The subscriber has now in store a complete assortment of the above named desirable Goods, to which he invites the attention of all interested.

Garden Engines.

JULT received at "the sign of the Big Coffee Pot" a full supply of Garden or Fire Engines, which are respectfully commended by the subscriber to the notice of the public. Wherever these Engines have been introduced they have invariably given entire satisfaction. They are unsurpassed for power, capacity or usefulness. From the size of the air chamber sufficient power is obtained to enable one man to throw a steady stream of water to the height of fifty feet perpendicularly, thereby rendering it a desirable article as a PROTECTION AGAINST FIRE.

And for washing windows of second and third stories of buildings, carriages, &c. With a newly invented water diffuser as a Garden Engine it defies competition. The diffuser is a perfect and simple article, and its superiority over the common rose sprinkler is that it will throw three times the quantity of water a much greater distance and spread it perfectly even, with less power applied. An Engine with a diffuser of this description, used in orchards and gardens to throw soap suds on the young trees, will destroy many kinds of vermin liable to injure the fruit and be an invaluable addition to the implements of the Nurseryman and Horticulturist.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common Pasture Weeds a remedy that cures Every Kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in over fifteen hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruption of the skin.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of crofula.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed growing on the pastures and along old stone walls should cure every humor in the system, yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start. There is no if's and ands, hums and ha's about its suiting some cases, but not yours. I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effects of it in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. I gave it to children a year old; to old people of sixty. I have seen poor, puny, wormy looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some have taken it who have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is sound it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings; but you must not be alarmed; they will disappear in from four days to one week. There never a bad result from it; on the contrary, when that feeling is gone, you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to.

Nothing in the annals of Patent Medicines has ever been received by the public with so much favor as this simple preparation. It is now composed of nine different herbs. In May, 1853, when I commenced making a business of it, I sold about two bottles per day. In June, 1853. I sold 4320 bottles. In October, 1853, I sold 6120 bottles. I hope you will call that doing well; I do.

In my own practice, I confine it strictly to humors; but there are some who are so enthusiastic in its favor they think what cured them will cure any thing and any body; they accordingly recommend it for every variety of disease. In this way a great many virtues of it have been found that I never would suspect.

Cases of Dyspepsia, of many years standing, that withstood every known remedy, have been permanently cured.

I know one man to gain 17 lbs. by taking three bottles; another 11 lbs.; another 10 lbs.; and another 7 lbs.—the venerable master Robinson of Boston.

In diseases of the Liver it is a specific. I know several with yellow skin and yellow eyes, the body emaciated and the mind melancholy, get fat and cheerful by a few bottles.

I know several cases of Dropsy, and one particularly bad. A lady, aged 79, was unable to leave her house for the last twelve years, was so much relieved after she was reduced in circumference thirty-four inches,) as to visit her friends in several neighboring towns

Another had the Dropsy in her left leg, and was unable to walk for ten years, continues swelling to an enormous size; at last bursted, making a bad wound which could not be healed; by taking three bottles and using two boxes of ointment, she is now quite well. Why it should make some fat and others lean, I cannot tell, but so it is.

I know of several cases of Kidney complaints cured by it. If the columns of a newspaper was a proper medium, I could tell of cases of this most distressing of all diseases that would make your heart bleed, that were permanently cured by it.

It has been lately found to be a sure cure for Panama fever. In one case the first spoonful put off the fit two hours. One bottle cured him. Another came home to die, and was induced by his brother to try it. Three bottles cured him.

It likewise gives great relief in the Asthma. A lady in Lawrence was unable to lie in bed for a number of years; she can now lie without the least inconvenience.

Mr. Ansel Weymouth lost the use of her left side by the Erysipelas. On the second bottle, she broke out in one mass of humor from head to foot. In a few days she was well.

It has lately been found to be equally good for humor outside as inside, (taking it inwardly in the meantime,) for Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Pimples on the Face, or any eruption of the skin whatever; only where the flesh is very sore you must dilute it with water.

When made weak enough it is the best eye-wash for weak and watery eyes that I ever saw.

Others use it to clease the dandruff out of the hair and strengthen its roots, which it certainly does, and to crown all, it made the hair grow on bald heads, which, if I had not seen with my own eyes, I would not believe from you or anybody else.

As regards dieting, I never came across the first person that ever got any benefit from it. On the contrary, numbers came to death's door by it, as it gives the humors the upper hand. My medicine requires the most nourishing food you can get. It will soon give you an appetite.

Do not for a moment suppose that I warrant a cure of all those diseases, in every case. I merely tell you what it has done, hoping it will do the same for you. I do not warrant a cure in any disease but humors, where it never fails. For further particulars see the circular around each bottle.

No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you can get, and enough of it.

I have an herb, simmered in olive oil, scatters Scrofulous swellings of the neck and under the ears. Price fifty cents per box.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE. Adults, one table spoonfu per day; children of eight years, dessert spoonful; from five to eight, tea spoonfuls. As no direction can be applicable to all constitutions, take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

FOR THE CURE OF INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swellings, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the descriptions of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others, by W. Gibson, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University. Valentine Mott, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, N. Y. " W. P. Dewees, M.D., Prof. of Mid., Pa. University. N. Chapman, M.D., Prof. of Physic, Pa. University. T. Parke, M.D., Pres't College of Physicians, Phila. Dr. Del Vallo, Prof. of Medicine, Havana. Jose Eouenco de Lac, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon. G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spaine. J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London. Sir Thomas Pearson, Maj. Gen. British Army. Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and, being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant.

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:—

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork: and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geocentric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swain, copy right secured

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c., &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge. Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA, and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines usurping the reputation of them by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase no Remedy equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is an English Remedy, and was used by William IV. late King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, and thousands have testified and may have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by his Linimeut, but considers warranting it sufficient, as any person who does not obtain relief, need not pay for it.

Price 50 cents. Dr. Tobias's Office, 240 Green

Dr. Tobias has put up a HORSE LINIMENT in pint bottles, which is warranted cheaper and better than any other for Cholic, Scratches, Old Sores, Caks, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc.

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS

With the U. S. Patent Office, Washington,

No. 76 state Street, oppo. Kilby street, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as charged by others), will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for obtaining Patents in the United States and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides having received a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business as a Solicitor of Patents, as solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

"PATENT OFFICE, ——.

"SIR:—Your facilities for the prosecution of any business connected with this Office, are equal to those of any other agent I am very respectfully, Yours, &c. THOMAS EWBANK,

MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT—

Every land has hailed with
Xtacy this preparation whose
Intrinsic merits has introduced its
Curative powers to the notice of the whole
American people. Rheumatism of long duration,
Neuralgia, with its tortures, have yielded to its
Magical influence; cancers, contorted joints,
Ulcerated and swollen limbs that have
Suffered for years under the weight of disease,
Turn to its application for suppleness and health.
A remedy of such general usefulness that can
Restore newness of Action to the diseased nerves,
Arteries and glands of the human body,
Is worthy of high praise.
Let the rheumatic, halt, lame and palsied
Invalid examine its qualities, and they will
Not be disappointed. Years of study and
Investigation have enabled the proprietors of the
Mexican Mustang Liniment to furnish a remedy,
Extraordinary in its power over diseases,
No matter of how long standing—sold at

HOUSES FOR SALE.

THE DWELLING HOUSE, No. 9 School street. This is a well built house, two (high) stories, in good repair, and is convenient for one family or two families, or for a large Boarding House. It contains nine or more rooms and two sculleries, and has an excellent cellar under the whole house. The situation is central, being about equi-distant from the markets, factories and railroads. Connected with this house is a building which has been and may be occupied both as a barn and a work-shop. If not sold soon, a part or the whole of the premises will be let.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 6 Green street. This house is fitted for two tenements; it is well built, was thoroughly painted and put in good order the last season, and is well calculated for two families, (having about 6 rooms each) and may be considered a good location for persons employed at the north end. It is centrally located between the different ship-yards in that section of the city. each tenement will be sold separately, if desired.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 7 Liberty street, corner of Charles street. This house was formerly owned and occupied by the late Peter M. Lowd and is in good order. Attached to it is a lot of land large enough for a Stable or for another dwelling house. It would make a good place for the residence of a person employed at the shipyards across the river, or at the Navy Yard.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 47 Bow street.—This house has been built but a few years, is well finished off, and is very convenient. In the rear is quite a large garden spot. This would be a desirable place for a person employed at the shipyards, or at the Navy Yard nearly opposite.

Also, for sale, a BUILDING LOT, on Mount Vernon street, (opposite No. 2,) with a small building thereon, which can be finished off into a Dwelling house.

All of the above property will be sold on liberal terms, if applied for soon. For further particulars apply to JOSEPH M. EDMONDS,
Feb. 27. No. 9 Islington street.

TO LET—The STORE on the corner of Vaughan and Deer streets. It was occupied as the first Union Store in this city, and is considered as a good stand for business. It is within a few rods of the Boston and Concord Railroad Depots. Possession can be had immediately.

FOR SALE—The HOUSE in the rear of the above, on Vaughan street—a convenient house for two families, and has been so occupied for about six years, by the same tenants. It rents for $160. For information, terms, &c., call on JOSEPH L. LOCKE, on the premises, or JOSEPH M. EDMONDS, 9 Islington st. m29

A SENSIBLE SERMON.—BURNING CATHOLIC CHURCHES.

We make the following extract from a sermon preached at Dorchester, Ms., on the 9th inst., by Rev. S. G. Bulfinch, on account of the late outrage upon the Catholic church in that town. The preacher strongly condemns the Roman system, but says:

"In the course of the past week an occurrence has taken place in our neighborhood, which calls for notice on the part of the ministers of religion, that they may mark it with the reprobation due to an act of sacrilegious violence. I allude to the injury done to the house of worship in process of erection by our Roman Catholic brethren. Whether the wrong was done by persons calling themselves Catholics or Protestants, is a question on which it is needless and improper to forestall judicial investigation. By whomsoever done, the act was an outrage, which all men should unite in condemning.

It was a violation of the rights of fellow men, fellow citizens and fellow Christians. It was a violation of a sanctuary of God, and whether the building had or had not as yet been formally consecrated to His service, whether the rites by which worship was there to be rendered, or the belief to be there inculcated, were the most conformable to the truth as it is in Christ, or the least so, among the various denominations who reverence the Savior's name, still was the building a house of God, a place destined for Christian worship, and they who wrought that deed under the veil of darkness, stained themselves with the guilt of sacrilege. For the feeling is natural and right, which respects things and places set apart for sacred uses. A feeling similar to that which bids us respect the grave of a parent, bids us reverence the sanctuary of religion.

I have said I would not forestall the investigation which we trust will soon make plain from whom this wrong proceeded.

But whatever may be the history of this especial act, there is no question of the existence in our country, of a deep and strong feeling of opposition to the Roman Church, —a feeling going far beyond that with which any other denomination is regarded, a feeling which has displayed itself, not only in the legitimate modes of controversy, but in the declamation of itinerant street preachers, in the formation of a political party, and sometimes in acts of outrage far more deplorable than the one which has suggested these remarks. The first occurrence of the kind among us was the destruction, by a mob, of the Charlestown convent, an act which being yet unatoned for by the public compensation which is due, stands in some degree as a precedent for succeeding injuries. The last of which the intelligence was received but yesterday, was the riotous burning of a Catholic church in another of the New England States.

If these things are passed over in silence, then are our country and our religion alike disgraced. The evil will not rest with these beginnings. A spirit of violence will prevail, which will terribly react upon those who have encouraged it, by loosening the foundations of social order, and endangering the safety of all denominations, and of all classes of men. It becomes every good citizen to oppose this spirit. Especially do Protestant ministers owe it to themselves and the religion they preach, to vindicate themselves and it from any participation or countenance of such evil; declaring that Protestantism neither needs, approves nor acknowledges such defenders; that they who do such things know not the spirit of the religion at whose altar they presumptuously offer the strange fires of discord and of violence.

AN UNPLEASANT PREDICAMENT.—The Baltimore Patriot says that in that city, a few days since, a man who had been arrested for imbibing too freely of intoxicating liquors, was confined for the night in the lockup room of the eastern station house. He had been left alone but a few moments, however, when, being determined to release himself if possible, from ignoble bondage, he stripped off his clothes, and descended into the sink, expecting to find in that direction an egress to the street. Unfortunately he was not sufficiently cautious in his explorations, and soon found himself sinking slowly beyond his depth in an apparently bottomless sea of blue, odoriferous sink mud. Terrified almost to death, he made the air ring with the startling cry of murder, and having attracted the attention of the officers, was speedily hoisted from his miry position by means of a rope attached to his waist. He was then subjected to the wholesome operation of a cold water bath, and in the morning was allowed to go his way in peace.

WHAT'S IN A NOSE?—The London correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune, speaking of Bulwer, gives great prominence to noses, making them, in fact, the foremost feature of man, and a guide-board to his character. It says:

"I omitted to mention that Bulwer has an extraordinary nose; it is quite Dantean in length and shape. I am aware that strength and persistency of character is often indicated by cheek, but I prefer the sign post of the nose, and in this particular I agree with Napoleon. Extraordinary persistency of effort, capacity for doing great things, I generally find accompanied with this elephantine illustration. It may not be infallible, but it certainly is not to be sneezed at. A pug may be smart and witty, edit a newspaper, or write a song, (mine's a pug;) but when did a pug conquer a kingdom, write an epic, or build a tabular bridge? Never. Is there a pug among Plutarch's heroes, except for pugnacity? No. Pugs are seldom more than "pup-pies" or "sad dogs." It's the large fine nose only that achieves the highest greatness and eminence.

POPERY IN THE UNITED STATES.

The American correspondent of one of the Edinburgh religious newspapers, furnishes the following facts and suggestions of great interest and value.

When we regard all its antecedents, it is no wonder that many of the good people of Britain indulge fears as to the ultimate prevalence of Popery in this land. Maryland, one of our oldest States, was settled by Papists; Lord Baltimore, its proprietor, was a Papist; its first colonists were Papists, who fled thither from England in 1633, in order to escape the severity with which they were treated. Papists were thus to Maryland what the Puritans were to New England, and had precisely the same opportunities to impress and to extend their opinions.

Florida, from its settlement by the Spaniards until its cession to the United States in 1820, save a few years of British rule, was entirely under Papal influence. There the Spaniards and their priests had everything at their will, as completely as in the neighboring island of Cuba.

The whole country west of the Mississippi, now embracing the States of Louisiana, Arkansas, and Missouri, extending north to Canada, belonged originally to the French, and was settled by them. Indeed the first Europeans that trod those vast regions were Jesuit missionaries, and never had Papal priests a fairer opportunity of laying deep and broad the foundations of their system.

The whole of our northern frontier, from the mouth of the St. Lawrence to Fond du Lac, at the western extremity of Lake Superior, has ever been exposed to the influence of Popery from Canada. Indeed the first settlement of most of the frontier cities and towns along that extended line was by Papists.

The State of Texas, until its independence few years since, was closed against all Protestant influence, as strongly as Spain itself.—And so was California, until its recent conquest and incorporation with the Union. And it is no wonder, in view of historical statements like these, that many among you may imagine that we are hemmed in on all sides, save on the east, with a Popish population, which is pressing inward upon us from the circumference to the centre.

And then, for the last fifty years, there has been a wonderful tide of immigration from the Popish countries of Europe pouring itself yearly upon our shores. It is asserted by some Popish writers that several millions of Irish immigrants have come hither. Most of these were Papists. And Irish Papists are to be found everywhere in this land. And German Papists are now coming hither in numbers, if not surpassing, at least equal to those coming from Ireland. And these very frequently settle in clusters, where they sustain each other in maintaining their national and their religious peculiarities. Now when we put all these things together, we need not wonder at the fears which many on your side of the Atlantic, indulge as to the prevalence of Popery amongst us, nor at the alarm of many amongst ourselves on the same subject. And yet, the present facts in the case are as follows:

Whilst in Maryland there are only 65 Papal churches, there are about 800 Protestant!—Whilst in Florida there are 152 churches, there are but five of them Papal! Of the 278 churches of Louisiana, but 55 belong to the Pope! Already there are 164 churches in Texas, of which but 13 are Papist! and at the present hour, the Protestant is, beyond all odds, the predominant influence in California, where, until very recently, Romanism reigned supreme and alone. Indeed, the census just published by Congress reveals the fact that the Papists have in the entire country, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, but 1112 churches, accommodating 621,000 hearers; which is not one eleventh of the number of Methodist churches, scarcely one eighth of the Baptist, and not one fourth of the Presbyterian. I hope these statistics, drawn, with some care, from the last census lying before me, may be remembered and pondered on the other side of the water.

BREAD IN EUROPE.—In the foreign news by the Niagara, the reader will perceive three items about the crops; asserting that the harvest in Bulgaria is very rich; in Greece everywhere abundant; in Lombardy, Italy, unusually so. This does not look like a great opening for the export of breadstuffs from this country. Flour and corn had fallen a little between the Franklin's and the Niagara's dates.

A SCRIMMAGE.—On Tuesday afternoon, in New York, an affray took place between two Irish editors, viz. Thomas F. Meagher of the Citizen, and J. A. McMaster of the Fireman's Journal. Meager attacked McM. with a whip; and McM. fired at Meagher with a revolver; but the latter wrested it from him and threw him down, hurting him severely. At the conclusion of the affray, Meagher went in search of a policeman, and desired that both himself and McMaster should be taken into custody. They were therefore arrested and carried before Justice Wood, and were bound over to keep the peace in the sum of $500 each.

☞ The United States Magazine for July, 1854, contains half a dozen illustrative woodcuts, and 36 pages large quarto in the whole, of valuable matter: all for $1 per annum.—A. Jones & Co. publishers, New York.

The New Bedford Mercury has the following:—Mr. James Thomas, the well known stable keeper on Elm street, died on Sunday afternoon, of cholera. He lived only about ten hours after the attack. Mr. Thomas had indulged quite freely in cucumbers and pineapples on Saturday. Mr. John Borden, who has been in the employ of the city as a teamster, died of cholera on Saturday night.

CONGRESS.

TUESDAY, July. 18.

SENATE.—Mr. Adams of Mississippi moved to take up the bill granting a pension to the widow of Batchelder, who was killed in Boston. Objected to.

Mr. Sumner presented a memorial of the Penn Society for the Abolition of Slavery, urging the repeal of the Fugitive Slave Law, arguing that, under the tenth section of the law, a free colored person had already been sent back to slavery.

The memorial referred to the case of a colored man in Philadelphia, who had escaped from slavery in Georgia under the guard of a steamboat, and who was rearrested at Wilmington, Deleware.; yet, notwithstanding the positive evidence that he was a free man, he was, under the working of the Fugitive Slave law, returned to slavery. The Senator from Massachusetts, in presenting the memorial, added a few brief comments.

Mr. Clay of Alabama said—"The dog will return to his vomit, but he, for one, was tired of hearing these hackneyed phrases, which were almost continually reported in violation of the order of the Senate.

Mr. Sumner replied—"I am in the habit of answering argument on this floor when it is presented by my peer, but when a Senator does not keep within rules of propriety and order in debate, that man is not my peer."

Mr. Dawson of Georgia reproved Mr. Sumner for renewing the agitation of the slavery question, and asserted that the man who was arrested in Wilmington was in reality and legally a slave.

Mr. Bayard of Delaware denounced the author of the letters, giving an account of the arrest at Wilmington, and stated that the assertions relating to the case were unworthy of belief, and they were, no doubt, the revenge of some maniac. The Abolitionists, he repeated, had several times been convicted of aiding in the escape of runaway slaves.

Mr. Benjamin of Louisiana asked whether Mr. Sumner recognized any obligations, under the Constitution he had sworn to support, to deliver up fugitive slaves.

Mr. Sumner asked the Senator of Louisiana whether, in his own state or South Carolina, there existed laws which refused to a colored man, a citizen of Massachusetts, his freedom when in those states, and selling him into slavery to pay his jail fees.

Mr. Benjamin admitted that there were such laws in force, but he regarded them as unconstitutional.

Mr. Sumner asked if the Senator from Louisiana was willing to introduce a bill in Congress carrying out the provisions of the Constitution guaranteeing to the citizens of one state the rights of citizenship in all.

Mr. Benjamin replied that he thought the question an extraordinary one. He said that the Senator improved upon the Yankee rule by answering one question by asking two.

Mr. Sumner said the Senator from Louisiana must explain his position on these points before he could confront the discussion.

Mr. Benjamin respectfully declined farther discussion.

Messrs. Shields, Toombs, Gwin, and others refused to permit Senator Sumner to rejoin.

A vote was had upon the memorial, when it was laid upon the table by yeas 37, nays 14.

Mr. Badger withdrew his motion to reconsider the vote passing the Pacific Telegraph bill, and the bill is now passed.

The Homestead bill was then taken up.

Mr. Weller of California made a lengthy speech in favor of a liberal policy towards foreigners, and in strong denunciation of Know Nothings, during which a controversy sprang up to the subject of the desertion of foreigners at the battle of Charleston.

Mr. Benjamin of Louisiana followed Mr. Weller against the bill, and Mr. Cass replied, when the question was taken on Mr. Brodhead's motion to amend the original bill by striking out the words, "free of cost," and in inserting at "50 cents per acre," and was decided in the negative. Yeas 25, nays 27.

Mr. Weller moved to strike out the same words, and insert 50c per acre, to be paid at the expiration of five years, and the settler to be credited at 50 cents per acre for each acre he may have reduced to actual cultivation.—Rejected—8 to 14.

HOUSE.—Mr. Phillips of Alabama asked leave to introduce a bill providing that all territory acquired from Mexico, under the Gadsden treaty, be incorporated with New Mexico, and subject to all the laws of that territory. He argued the passage of that bill.

Mr. Peckham of New York objected, and the bill was laid over.

The House took up the bill to repeal so much of the act of August 30, 1852, as makes a reduction of 50 per cent. on prepaid postage on newspapers and periodicals.

Mr. Olds of Ohio proposed to put the bill on its passage.

Mr. Washburn of Maine opposed the bill.

Gerritt Smith repeated his views against government having any thing to do with postal matters.

Mr. Elliot of Massachusetts could see no reason for the passage of the bill.

Before disposing of the subject the morning hour had expired.

The House went into Committee on the Army Appropriation bill.

The amendment pending was to restore the civil superintendency at the national armories, and after some debate it was agreed to, ayes 88, nays 38. Without disposing of the bill the committee rose, and the House adjourned.

On Wednesday, July 19, the House passed a bill making provision for temporary Court Houses in Boston, Philadelphia, and New Orleans; and also for sites for erecting proper Court Houses and Post Offices in those cities. This movement grows partly out of the Burns case.

In the Senate, Mr. Pettit reported from the Judiciary committee, on the various petitions to repeal the fugitive slave act, that it is inexpedient to legislate thereon—agreed to.

The Homestead Bill was discussed in the House; and the Army appropriation bill in the Senate.

Signor Pozzolini, the tenor of the Sontag troupe, has fallen a victim to the cholera, and nearly all the members have been sick, in Mexico.

LOCAL.

THE OLD STOCKING FACTORY, &C.

The beautiful premises so long known under this title, are being much improved in the hands of the company who purchased them a few months since. A road laid out some time ago, back of the railroads, parallel with Frenchman's Lane, has been recently opened to the angle of that Lane, and is being extended westerly through land of Messrs. A. W. Haven and B. Cheever, towards Boyd's road, which runs southwesterly from the late residence of Hon. Levi Woodbury. An open fence along this new road, improves the appearance of the factory grounds.

The buildings spared by the flames last year, are full of busy machinery. In the basement of the factory we find Mr. Lowd, in a fine machine shop, with the machinery just removed from the Sagamore Mill, carried by steam,—making Circular Looms of all sizes. These are really critical machines, requiring nearly the accuracy of watch work to run well. We saw them of all sizes, from that of a full sized shirt or drawers, to one in preparation, which is to make hose for children.

In the lower story are the carding machines and the spinning Jacks; in the upper story, the looms for weaving or knitting. There are a dozen of these circular stocking looms running, making about thirty five dozen pairs of hose per day. They make second quality work—the piece being woven in one entire circle, cut in desired lengths, the feet cut from the same, and the whole seamed and shaped on pattern boards. The nicer hose are shaped by the looms, similar to hand work.

The owners of the above establishment design building a large brick mill, with stone dam, &c., at an early day, to carry on the business extensively. They have one of the most delightful and advantageous sites for such a purpose, and will doubtless render the place an ornament as well as great benefit to our city. There are more looms running here now than ever before. Besides the circular power looms at this factory, the "Portsmouth Hosiery Mill," in the building formerly the Portsmouth Iron Foundry, are running as many more; and a number are in operation over the Portsmouth & Concord Railroad machine shop. And very many hand looms are running, in private houses, or in small establishments connected therewith. Messrs. Jarvis & Brother, in their factory at the Creek, have about twenty in operation, besides others running for them elsewhere in the city.—Odoms has a number on Wibird's Hill, and there are many others in all this vicinity.

The business is a good one, and likely to be much increased. The market is sure; and the quick, cheap work of the power looms, sells readily with the nicer manufacture of the hand looms. Portsmouth has long enjoyed almost a monopoly of the finer hosiery business in this country; but looms are being started elsewhere in the States, and in Canada.

EARLY CORN.—T. G. Furber, Esq. of Newington, laid a mess of new corn on our table Wednesday forenoon, which disappeared very suddenly about dinner time.

KEEP TO THE RIGHT.—Yes, be sure you are on the right hand and then go ahead, in our streets and on our sidewalks. That's the way they do in London, where all the vast crowds pass and re-pass easily by observing this simple rule.

EXECUTIVE APPOINTMENTS.—Rockingham—Horace Webster, Portsmouth; Strafford—Thomas J. Greenwood, Dover; Belknap—King S. Hall, Meredith; Carroll—Benj. M. Mason, Wolfborough; Merrimack—George S. Marston, Nottingham; Richard Hall, Auburn; Samuel Poor, East Kingston; Jesse E. George, Plaistow; James M. Godfrey, Epping; Joseph F. Wiggin, John O. Wiggin, Stratham, Amos A. Abbott, Portsmouth, Justices of the Peace for Rockingham County.

FIRE!—A two story building a few rods above the Belleville hotel, which was being converted into a dwelling house, was destroyed by fire at half past 12 o'clock, Tuesday morning. It was owned by Felix Maroney, an Irishman employed in the ship yards, and was probably uninsured.—Newburyport Herald.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.—George Pilsbury, about 22 years old, son of Mr. Joshua Pilsbury, fell from a load of hay at Belleville, Monday, and the wheels passed over his breast, injuring him so that he died in an hour or two. Mr. Pilsbury was a worthy young man, and was a cabinetmaker by trade. He was temporarily engaged in assisting his father to secure his hay.—Newburyport Herald.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—On Monday morning, the 8 o'clock train from Lawrence, on the Essex Railroad, run down a buggy at Danvers, and nearly killed or mortally wounded two young ladies, daughters of Mr. Fred. Howes, formerly a lawyer of Salem, but now residing in Chestnut street, Boston. Mr. Howes is an invalid, and has a country place in Beverly, and his daughters, in riding out, were wont to cross the track at Danvers. The engine struck the buggy, and though the ladies were run over, the horse was not injured. They were not expected to survive.

A FUGITIVE.—A colored man, who called himself Charles Shadrack, who has resided in Boston about fourteen years, six of which he has worked in the kitchen of Gibbs' Hotel, Court square, ascertained a day or two since that his former owner was in town, making inquiries respecting him. He took passage in the Admiral Tuesday morning, thinking the air of the British Provinces would be more congenial at this season of the year than the variable climate of Boston.—Boston Herald.

FOREIGN NEWS.

THREE DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

By the arrival of the Niagara, we have Liverpool dates to the 8th of July, three days later than by the Franklin.

FROM THE BALTIC.—Sir Charles Napier's fleet was lying in line of battle off Cronstadt, but up to the 29th of June no attack had been made. The English frigate Desperate fired some shots, which the batteries returned.

Bomarsand was a second time bombarded on the 26th and 27th June, and the fortifications were destroyed.

Fourteen neutral merchant ships now in Rega have petitioned Sir Charles Napier to permit them to leave.

BLACK SEA.—On the 24th June, eight Russian steamers came out of Sebastopol, and attacked some ships of the allied fleet, and afterwards regained shelter at the batteries. The allied ships engaged were the Furious, Terrible and Descartes.

The harvest in Bulgaria is very rich.

THE DANUBE.—On the 21st and 22d an important battle was fought. The particulars are derived from a despatch stating that the Turks, under Gerotti Massa Pasha, fell on the Russian rear guard of 25,000 men near Silistria, on the 21st, and the battle lasted during two days, the Russians losing 2500 men killed, but making good their retreat.

The Russians continued their concentration towards the Sereth and Pruth, but apparently mean to retain Matschin Isctcha and Tultscha on the right bank of the Danube.

The plan of the campaign and the movements of the allied army are kept profoundly secret. The cavalry are supposed to be advancing by land to the Balkans.

50,000 Anglo-French troops are still at Varna. Marshal St. Arnaud and Prince Napoleon are also there.

FROM ASIA.—The news is disastrous to the Turks. On the 9th of June, the Turks met with a severe check in attempting to storm two redoubts between Ussurguet and Kutais. The Russians attacked them in flank during the assault and defeated them, with 1500 killed,—13 cannon, 35 standards and the entire camp equipage was captured. An erroneous despatch was published reversing the facts, and stating that the Turks had defeated the Russians with the above loss; but reliable accounts show that the Turks were disastrously defeated.

The crew of the English steam frigate Sanspareil are fortifying Soukum Kale. The crew of the English Frigate Sampson are fortifying an entrenchment at Redout Kaleh.

GREECE.—It was announced that Hodgipetin had been completely routed at Kaladaka in Thessaly. The rebellion is now considered ended. The harvest in Greece was everywhere abundant. Piracy increases. French troops continue to arrive.

GREAT BRITAIN.—Official returns of the quarter's revenues to July 5th is unfavorable, showing a falling off of £812,000 on the quarter and £500,000 on the year.

Independence day was celebrated on the 4th by a banquet, at the Star and Garter Hotel, Richmond,—by George Peabody, to 150 guests. Queen Victoria sent her own and Prince Albert's portraits to decorate the dining room. Sir James Emerson Tennant proposed the memory of Washington.

Kossuth addressed a large meeting at Glasgow on the 5th. Resolutions were adopted to petition the Crown for the re-establishment of Poland.

The Franklin gives the news of the military insurection under Generals O'Donnel, Messina, Olano and McDube. Government is severely pressed. The Queen had thrown herself on the protection of the troops.

It is impossible to come at the truth from the doubtful statesments issued by government.

The Insurgents number 7000, of whom 2000 were cavalry. They demand the dismissal of the Ministry and the Queen's favorites. The outbreak as yet is entirely military. An action took place near the village of Vieabraro. The Insurgents charged three times unsuccessfully, and at length, after a great loss, retreated upon Toledo: the insurrection is formidable.

ITALY.—Letters from Italy say that the alliance of Austria with France and England has greatly depressed the prospects of the revolutionary party in Lombardy and the the other Roman states.

The harvest has commenced in Lombardy, and is unusually abundant.

FRIGHTFUL ACCIDENT.—One of the most melancholy affairs which we have had for some time, occurred at White Rock, Gorham, last Friday afternoon.

A shoemaker's shop took fire by means of some wax the workmen were making. Mr. John Sturgis and his son, who were at work close by in his haying field, hastened to the place to aid in extinguishing the flames. They took their position inside the building, where water was passed to them. The fire soon reached a cask of camphene, which at once exploded, closing the door and enveloping the building in a sheet of flame. It was impossible for them to escape through the door, and it was with difficulty they were taken out of the windows. Sturgis walked to his house, about a hundred rods, but he was burned over his entire body, the surface being black and crispy. He died in extreme agony the same evening. The son who stood behind his father in the shop, was not so badly injured, but his physicians say he cannot recover. He is 17 years old.

Mr. Sturgis was a very respectable citizen of Gorham, a deacon of the Freewill Baptist Church, and has frequently held offices of trust in the town. He leaves a large family.

His funeral took place last Sunday at the above named church, and was attended by nearly all the citizens.—Portland Argus.

The potato rot is said to have already appeared in this year's crop in New Jersey.

Marble Chimney Pieces.
THE PENRHYN MARBLE is a new and beautiful article, manufactured of Stone imported from England, which is enameled in imitation of of the richest and most expensive Spanish, Galway, Egyptian, Pyrenees, Lisbon, Sienna and other rare and desirable kinds of Marble—the imitation being so perfect as to challenge detection without the closest scrutiny. In style of finish these Chimney Pieces stand unequalled, being very highly polished—retaining their beauty much longer than common marble, and are not injured by oils, smoke, coal gas or acids. They have been extensively introduced into public and private buildings, giving perfect satisfaction to those who have used them. The best of references can be given, showing their adaptedness for general use, the subscriber having furnished some of the best dwelling houses in the city with them during the last two years.
While excelling all others in beauty of finish and appearance, they are sold much cheaper than any thing of the kind in the market. The subscriber has now in Store a complete assortment of the above named desirable Goods, to which he invites the attention of all interested.

Garden Engines.
JULT receeived at "the sign of the Big Coffee Pot" a full supply of Garden or Fire Engines, which are respectfully commended by the subscriber to the notice of the public. Wherever these Engines have been introduced they have invariably given entire satisfaction. They are unsurpassed for power, capacity or usefulness. From the size of the air chamber sufficient power is obtained to enable one man to throw a steady stream of water to the height of fifty feet perpendicularly, thereby rendering it a desirable article as a PROTECTION AGAINST FIRE.
And for washing windows of second and third stories of buildings, carriages, &c. With a newly invented water diffuser attached, the Engine it defies competition. The diffuser is a perfect and simple article, and its superiority over the common rose sprinkler is that it will throw three times the quantity of water a much greater distance and spread it perfectly even, with less power applied. An Engine with a diffuser of this description, used in orchards and gardens to throw soap suds on the young trees, will destroy many kinds of vermin liable to injure the fruit and be an invaluable addition to the implements of the Nurseryman and Horticulturist.

AN IRISHMAN'S PARADISE.—A letter from San Francisco, dated June 6, speaking of the productiveness of the soil and the large crops, says you can get potatoes for nothing. In many parts of the country they are turning them out of the bags to save the bags—leaving the potatoes to rot. The writer adds:

"I will give you an account of the sale of a lot for the benefit of the creditors of a man failing. There were sixty tons loose, which sold for six cents the ton. There were 200 bags of potatoes in the lot. They sold for ten cents the bag, each about 2 1-2 bushels. These bags cost about fifteen cents each. So you see the bags were depreciated in value by having the potatoes in. After paying expenses, the creditors had twelve dollars and a half for the sixty tons and two hundred bags."

A SAFE OFFER.—An English paper says the following is a copy of a placard which was posted up in the vicinity of Liverpool:

"The person who left two of his toes and the heel of an old boot in a steel trap in Anfield Plantation, on Sunday evening last, may have the same returned on application to the gardener at the cottage."

The lost property had not been called for at last accounts.

DR. ORDWAY'S HUMOR DISCOVERY,

AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

DR. ORDWAY has been using his Blood Purifier in his practice for the last seven years with great success. He has often been urged by his friends and those who have tried it, and know its efficacy, to put it within the reach of all. He has now added to it an Herb, discovered in California, by Dr. KELLEY, which makes it the most wonderful remedy for

HUMORS OF ALL KINDS,

LIVER COMPLAINTS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

The virtues of this Herb were first made known to Dr Kelley by an Indian, while attending a patient, sick with that terrible disease, the California Erysipelas and Liver Complaint—the effect was miraculous—curing the man in a few days. The natives, when bitten by a rattle snake, or rabid animal, resort to this Herb for a cure.—Hundreds are taking this medicine, after trying in vain other remedies, and say that the half was never told them.

If you have Erysipelas, 3 to 5 bottles will cure it.
If you have Scrofula, 3 to 7 bottles will cure it.
Three to six bottles will cure Salt Rheum.
One or two bottles will cure Pimples on the Face.
Two or three bottles will cure Scaly Eruptions and Scald Head.
One to three bottles will cure Nursing Sore Mouth
One to three bottles will cleanse the system of Biles.
Two to five bottles will cure Rheumatism.
Three to four bottles will cure old running Sores and Ulcers.
One or two bottles will cure Barber's Itch.
One to three bottles will cure Canker in the mouth and bowels.

For Liver Complaints and Jaundice.

Its effects are new and wonderful, removing obstructions from the Liver, open the pores of the skin, carrying off the morbid matter, relieving the side, and all gone feelings of the stomach, and removing low spirits and despondency, which is the result of this disagreeable and often fatal disease.

FOR DYSPEPSIA.

A fair trial will convince you that there is nothing like it.

FOR CANCEROUS HUMORS,

It is the surest remedy ever offered. One widow lady in Lawrence, has been troubled with Canker for years, by taking two bottles says she is now quite well.

FOR COSTIVENESS.

One gentleman says that it was the only medicine that cured him.

FOR KIDNEY DIFFICULTIES,

It is spoken of in the highest terms. A young man was sick so much with Asthma that he had to leave College; three bottles cured him, and he now resumed his studies. One lady in Salem, was perfectly cured of Periodical Sick Headache, by the use of two bottles. Mr. Williams, of Lawrence, had humors in his eyes for years, and was cured by the use of Ordway's Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier. For Chills and Fever, Mercurial Diseases, Taints in the System, it stands unrivalled; sometimes where the system is much deranged it will cause disagreeable feelings at first, but continue its use as indications favorable. It is purely vegetable, and the compound and proportions are such that the effect is perfectly satisfactory and safe.

FULL DIRECTIONS ON THE BOTTLE.

☞ Price $1.00. ☜

HE HAS ALSO A HUMOR SALVE,

Unsurpassed for external humors, which, if used in connection with the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier will much facilitate a cure.

PRICE 25 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Cough Destroyer.

This invaluable Cough Remedy is for the complete cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Influenza, Whooping Cough, pains in the side and breast, hacking or tickling at the throat, spitting blood, tightness across the lungs and chest, and all Lung Complaints leading to Consumption.

No medicine yet discovered has that decided effect in curing Bronchial affections as the Cough Destroyer. It can be taken by all ages and classes, from a child six months old to the oldest man or woman, with the most happy results.

PRICE 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Pain Destroyer.

This preparation is composed of a great variety of Extracts, Gums, Essential Oils, most of which have not heretofore been united and compounded into their present form. It will cure attacks of Cramps of the Stomach, Spasms, Convulsions, Faintings, Pain in the Stomach, Bowels, Side, Back, Limbs, and a great variety of other difficulties. It is also invaluable as an external remedy. It will be found to contain nearly double the strength of any similar article, and possesses properties heretofore unknown. No family should be without it for a single day.

PRICE 25, 37 AND 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

FOR THE CURE OF

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the descriptions of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others, by W. Gibson, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University. Valentine Mott, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, N. Y. "W. P. Dewees, M.D., Prof. of Mid., Pa. University. N. Chapman, M.D., Prof. of Physic, Pa. University. T. Parke, M.D., Pres't College of Physicians, Phila. Dr. Del Valle, Prof. of Medicine, Havana. Jose Eourenco de Luz, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon. G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spaine.

J. Chapman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London. Sir Thomas Pearson, Maj. Gen. British Army. Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and, being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:—

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork: and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geocentric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swaim, copy right secured.

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Costiveness, Flatulency, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c., &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge. Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD ISLAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA, and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase no Remedy equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is an English Remedy, and was used by William IV. late King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure, and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by his Liniment, but considers warranting it sufficient, as any person who does not obtain relief, need not pay for it.

Price 50 cents. Dr. Tobias's Office, 240 Green

Dr. Tobias has put up a HORSE LINIMENT in pint bottles, which is warranted cheaper and better than any other for Cholic, Scratches, Old Sores, Galls, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc. which street, New York.

Appledore House,

ISLES OF SHOALS.

STEAM having died out in Portsmouth, the subscriber has the pleasure to announce to his old friends and the public, that he has chartered the beautiful YACHT SPY, of 60 tons burden, and has had the good fortune to secure the services of Capt. JAMES W. GOODWIN, the well known pilot, as master. His skill, carefulness and attention will secure to the travelling public a more safe, expeditious, comfortable and pleasant transit to and from the Islands, than has hitherto been attained.

She will leave PIER WHARF, foot of State Street, Portsmouth, every day (Sundays excepted) immediately after the arrival of the trains from Boston and Concord, and return in season for the evening trains.

Many alterations and improvements have been made in the establishment to make it more convenient and comfortable.

An abundant supply of Ice has been carefully laid in, and the facilities for fishing perfected.

To the invalid, the weary and the active pleasure seeker, this location presents attractions not equaled in New England.

HOUSE on Christian Shore, suitable for two small families. If applied for immediately will be sold low. Apply to April 17. E. S. WENDELL.

HOUSES FOR SALE.

THE DWELLING HOUSE, No. 9 L School street. This is a well built house, two (high) stories, in good repair, and is convenient for one family or two families, or for a large Boarding House. It contains nine or more rooms and two siullieries, and has an excellent cellar under the whole house. The situation is central, being about equi-distant from the markets, factories and railroads. Connected with this house is a building which has been and may be occupied both as a barn and a work-shop. If not sold soon, a part or the whole of the premises will be let.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 6 Green street. This house is fitted for two tenements; it is well built, was thoroughly painted and put in good order the last season, and is well calculated for two families, (having about 6 rooms each) and may be considered a good location for persons employed at the north end. It is centrally located between the different ship-yards in that section of the city, each tenement will be sold separately, if desired.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 7 Liberty street, corner of Charles street. This house was formerly owned and occupied by the late Peter M. Lowd and is in good order. Attached to it is a lot of land large enough for a Stable or for another dwelling house. It would make a good place for the residence of a person employed at the shipyards across the river, or at the Navy Yard.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 47 Bow street.—This house has been built but a few years, is well finished off, and is very convenient. In the rear is quite a large garden spot. This would be a desirable place for a person employed at the shipyards, or at the Navy Yard nearly opposite.

Also, for sale, a BUILDING LOT, on Mount Vernon street, (opposite No. 2,) with a small building thereon, which can be finished off into a Dwelling house.

All of the above property will be sold on liberal terms, if applied for soon. For further particulars apply to JOSEPH M. EDMONDS,
Feb. 27. No. 9 Islington street.

TO LET—The STORE on the corner of Vaughan and Deer streets. It was occupied as the first Union Store in this city, and is considered as a good stand for business. It is within a few rods of the Boston and Concord Railroad Depots. Possession can be had immediately.

FOR SALE—The HOUSE in the rear of the above, on Vaughan street—a convenient house for two families, and has been so occupied, for about six years, by the same tenants. It rents for $100. For information, terms, &c., call on JOSEPH L. LOCKE, on the premises, or JOSEPH M. EDMONDS, 9 Islington st. m29

HUMOR DISCOVERY,

AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

DR. ORDWAY has been using his Blood Purifier in his practice for the last seven years with great success. He has often been urged by his friends and those who have tried it, and know its efficacy, to put it within the reach of all. He has now added to it an Herb, discovered in California, by Dr. SHUTE, which makes it the most wonderful remedy for

HUMORS OF ALL KINDS,

LIVER COMPLAINTS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

The virtues of this Herb were first made known to Dr. Kelley by an Indian, while attending a patient sick with that terrible disease, the California Erysipelas and Liver Complaint—the effect was miraculous—curing the man in a few days. The natives, when bitten by a rattles ake, or rabid animal, resort to this Herb for a cure.—Hundreds are taking this medicine, after trying in vain other remedies, and say that the half was never told them.

If you have Erysipelas, 3 to 5 bottles will cure it.
If you have Scrofula, 3 to 7 bottles will cure it.
Three to six bottles will cure Salt Rheum.
One or two bottles will cure Pimples on the Face.
Two or three bottles will cure Scaly Eruptions and Scald Head
One to three bottles will cure Nursing Sore Mouth
One to three bottles will cleanse the system of Biles.
Two to five bottles will cure Rheumatism.
Three to four bottles will cure old running Sores and Ulcers.
One or two bottles will cure Barber's Itch.
One to three bottles will cure Canker in the mouth and bowels.

For Liver Complaints and Jaundice.

The effects are new and wonderful, removing obstructions from the Liver, open the pores of the skin, carrying off the morbid matter, relieving the side, and all-gone feelings of the stomach; and removing low spirits and costiveness, which is the result of this disagreeable and often fatal disease.

FOR DYSPEPSIA.

A fair trial will convince you that there is nothing like it.

FOR CANCEROUS HUMORS,

It is the surest remedy ever offered. One widow lady in Lawrence, has been troubled with Cancer or tyers, by taking two bottles says she is now quite well.

FOR COSTIVENESS.

One gentleman says that it was the only medicine that cured him.

FOR KIDNEY DIFFICULTIES,

It is spoken of in the highest terms. A young man was sick so much with Asthma that he had to leave College; three bottles cured him, and he has now resumed his studies. One lady in Salem was perfectly cured of Periodical Sick Headache, by the use of two bottles. Mr. Williams, of Lawrence, had humors in his eyes for years, and was cured by the use of the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier. For Chills and Fever, Mercurial Diseases, Taints in the System, it stands unrivalled; sometimes where the system is much deranged it will cause disagreeable feelings at first, but continue the use as indications favorable. It is purely vegetable, and its compound and proportions are such that the effect is perfectly satisfactory and safe.

FULL DIRECTIONS ON THE BOTTLE.

☞ Price $1.00. ☜

HE HAS ALSO A HUMOR SALVE,

Unsurpassed for external humors, which, if used in connection with the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier will much facilitate a cure.

PRICE 25 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Cough Destroyer.

This invaluable Cough Remedy is for the complete cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Influenza, Whooping Cough, pains in the side and breast, hacking or tickling at the throat, spitting blood, tightness across the lungs and chest, and all Lung Complaints leading to Consumption.

No medicine yet discovered has that decided effect in curing Bronchia; affections as the Cough Destroyer. It can be taken by all ages and classes, from a child six months old to the oldest man or woman, with the most happy results.

PRICE 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Pain Destroyer.

This preparation is composed of a great variety of Extracts, Gums, Essential Oils, most of which have not heretofore been united and compounded into their present form. It will cure attacks of Cramps of the Stomach, Spasms, Convulsions, Faintings, Pain in the Stomach, Bowels, Side, Back, Limbs, and a great variety of other difficulties. It is also invaluable as an external remedy. It will be found to contain nearly double the strength of any similar article, and possesses properties heretofore unknown. No family should be without it for a single day.

PRICE 25, 37½ AND 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Full directions for the above medicines, on the Bottles. Orders should be accompanied with full directions how it should be sent.

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS

With the U. S. Patent Office, Washington,

No. 76 state Street, opposite Kilby street, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries: besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents."

FRIDAY, JULY 21, 1854.

MORAL STATISTICS.

Somebody has prepared a table, with figures derived from the census of 1850, of the comparative population, churches, and criminals, in ten Northern and ten Southern States.

The ten Northern States include New England, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Delaware; and these contain 8,718,383 inhabitants, 13,300 churches, and 2,171 criminals.

The ten Southern States are Maryland, Virginia, the Carolinas, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Tennessee and Kentucky; which contain 8,329,450 inhabitants, 14,685 churches, and 1,098 criminals.

One paper remarks on these statistics—

"With a smaller population, these Southern States have the larger number of churches, and relatively much the less number of criminals.

It might be well for some of our far reaching philanthropists to labor for the cure of the evils existing at home. The North may not have African slavery to curse it, but it hugs to its bosom wrongs quite as bad. The garden of Eden has not as yet been discovered this side of Mason and Dixon's line—neither does the promised millenium appear to have commenced among us. In short, the accident of birth does not make angels of us."

To these remarks and more of the same sort, we need not reply; for if Northern rascality gets lashed, we say, "sarved him right." But the statistics themselves, as they stand, are delusive, as we infer from the comments.

The churches mentioned in the census, are mere houses or edifices, not assemblies or organized bodies of christians. Of these houses, there are about 1400 more at the South than at the North. Now if we compare Massachusetts with Virginia, as two of the eldest States, we shall find a very large excess of church edifices in favor of Virginia; but there is no man who knows both States, that will think of saying there are more church goers pro rata, in Virginia than in Massachusetts.

Nearly the same remarks would apply if Massachusetts were compared with Kentucky and Tennessee.

The statistics of crime are still more delusive. Five of the blackest States, viz., the Carolinas, Georgia, Alabama and Mississippi, containing almost 4,000,000 of inhabitants, have only 222 criminals set down.

Now these figures, if they prove any thing of the sort for which they are brought out, prove a vast deal too much; for they prove what no man, South or North, can possibly believe, viz., that the negroes of those States are the purest and most christian people in the world!

If for criminals, we read imprisoned criminals, in the census, we begin to see the truth. Our Northern prisons are tenanted by poor thieves, assaulters, adulterers, &c.—but for very obvious reasons, the negro slaves who commit thefts are not imprisoned, but whipped. Adulterers they cannot be, for they have no legal marriage.

Not many rich men get imprisoned, North or South, and therefore we leave them out of the account; and the intelligent reader can easily strike the balance between the poor black rogues who get whipped, and the poor white rascals who get into jail.

One other consideration will nearly use up the remainder of this famous piece of statistics. This is, to consider that the foreign immigration pours its tide of paupers and criminals on the North, ten fold deeper and stronger than on the South—and that New York, which has the most immigrants, has also by far the most criminals.

Take away the proportion of foreign criminals in our jails, the disproportion disappears; make proper allowance for private punishment of the slave, and the public punishment of the freeman, the disproportion changes sides.

The figures of the table are very possibly correct; but the conclusions so gravely drawn from them are absurd and ridiculous.

HOMESTEAD BILL.—On this bill, the Boston Courier of Thursday, says:

The Homestead Bill, in Congress, is likely to try the consciences of ambitious and rising politicians in a very severe manner. A letter from Washington states that the rejection of Mr. Clayton's amendment, excluding foreigners from the provisions of the bill was not expected, although many were surprised that Mr. Toombs of Georgia should have voted against it. Mr. Seaward was not present, having paired off with Mr. Cooper of Penn. The New Hampshire Senators voted for the amendment—the Abolition Senators against it. An analysis of the vote shows a curious medley. The vote of the New Hampshire Senators is regarded as conclusive as to the President's determination to veto the bill, should it pass. Mr. Douglas dodged the vote, and it is not known whether he was afraid of the "Know Nothings" or of the foreigners.—The motion to lay the bill finally on the table, was lost, in nearly a full Senate, by a vote of 27 to 24.

The Washington Sentinel learns that two of the corps of that city are on the eve of dissolution, to be reorganized under new names and with new uniforms, the membership to be exclusively of natives, without the admixture of any persons of foreign birth.

SOUTHERN PHILANTHROPY.

The men who think that all goodness resides in their church or sect; that all principle exists in their party or faction alone; and that no true philanthropy dwells beyond some river or geographical boundery, are greatly to be pitied for their narrowness of soul and scantiness of vision. If we supposed we had any such readers, we would give them license to skip over the following item; but as we think otherwise, it may be read.

There passed through Hagerstown, Md., on the 25th ult., fifty or sixty slaves, men, women and children, the women in a large farm wagon, and the men on foot; they were all healthy and able bodied. They were from down south, and had been liberated by their owner, who had sent them to Canada. The New York Journal of Commerce observes upon the fact—"Probably the late owner of these slaves makes as great a sacrifice as he who endows an university or establishes a hospital; yet he gets no thanks for his philanthropy. It is not known who he is, nor does any body care; yet who shall say that he is not as truly a great man as Mr. Stephen Girard, and a thousand others whose names are inscribed on the records of fame?"

We don't know who he is, but we would like to know. Somebody can find out, and the incident will get into the 3d vol. of Uncle Tom. The sacrifice of property cannot be less than 20 or 30,000 dollars. Who among us all at the north have ever done half as much for conscience sake, or for the sake of humanity?

WHEAT CROP.

On this subject the Boston Courier of Monday says:

Croaking is at discount now, so far as the yield of wheat is concerned, and the farmer only groans because of the high price which he must pay for the harvesting of his immense crops. The weevil has not devoured the wheat at the west. In all parts of Michigan the yield will far exceed expectation. The heads are longer than usual, and are well filled, and there will produce five bushels more than was expected. Much wheat is down, but little will be lost. In central Illinois, the Springfield Journal says the wheat crop can be gathered but by the aid of the horse-power reaping machines. In Missouri, the farmers pay as high as two or three dollars a day for hands to work in the harvest fields, with a scarcity of help, even at these prices. The prices are tending downward. A gentleman who has traversed Canada from London to Montreal, informs the Rochester American that the wheat crop of Upper Canada will far exceed that of any other year in its amount. A third more was sown last year than the year before, and it all looks flourishing. The surplus last year was estimated at 7,000,000 bushels. This year it is calculated the surplus will reach 12,000,000 bushels, which the people of that great wheat growing region will have to sell, after their own wants are supplied. The crop of the South is also well spoken of, and so is that of New York.

THE PIECES OF SILVER.—The Boston Mail informs us that among other bills that have been rendered to the U. S. Marshal for services rendered in the case of Burns are—one for military services, amounting to $9000; one by the city of Boston for extra policemen, amounting to $7000; A. D. Parker's bill, amounting to $4000; and the Steam Tug John Taylor, $420. These are but a small number compared with the whole.

The mention of these items induces us to enquire whether any of those magnificent subscriptions which were reported by telegraph, to be raised in southern cities, have ever reached Mrs. Batchelder in Charlestown Mass. Also to ask whether the military subscriptions for Burns's ransom ever came to any thing. Can any body tell what has become of these things?

MILITARY SCRIMMAGE.—It appears from the Boston Mail, that at the Military Dinner on Long Island, (Boston Harbor) on Wednesday, Capt. Hogan of the Sarsfield Guards, spoke against Capt. Cass of the Columbian Artillery, and then got into a fight, in which many of their companies joined. Tables were upset, with bottles, victuals and soldiers. It was a disgraceful row, and rather damages the reputation of these preservers of law and order. The Bee calls them Irish companies. We suspect whiskey was at the bottom of the difficulty.

HARVARD COLLEGE.—At the Annual Commencement on Wednesday, the degree of A. B. was conferred on 86 gentlemen, in course; among them Charles Gilman Conner and Nicholas Gilman, of Exeter, N. H., and Titus Salter Tredick of this city. The degree of A. M. was conferred on 12 of the class of '51, in course; among them Joshua Rindge Peirce, of Greenland.

NEW DISCOVERIES IN THE PACIFIC.—The United States squadron in the Pacific has completed its surveys, and Capt. Ringgold has transmitted to Washington the result thereof. Heretofore but very little has been known relative to the navigation of the South Pacific and Indian Oceans, and, as our commerce in that part of the world is rapidly increasing, and is soon to be further extended by trade with Japan, the results of these surveys will be most anxiously looked for by nautical men. It is a matter of the highest importance, and government should publish the charts at once.—Messenger.

Mrs. Lucy Howes, one of the sisters injured by the collision on the Danvers Railroad, died on Wednesday morning at 5 o'clock. There are some hopes that the other sister will recover.

LOCAL.

CITY COUNCIL,—JULY 20.

In the Board of Aldermen, petitions were received for repairs on Vaughan and Russell streets, and for opening Jaffrey's Court as a street—referred.

The Common Council passed the usual votes for collecting the Highway Tax, and for discounts on taxes paid within certain days. [In these votes the Aldermen concurred.]

A communication was received, notifying the City Council of vacancies in the Board of Engineers, &c. The Common Council voted (if the Aldermen concur) to go into convention on the 3d of August. [These papers being sent up, the Aldermen voted to lay the communications on the table, and to postpone the subject indefinitely. One of the majority moved to reconsider, but as no one voted for the reconsideration, it stands postponed.]

GERRISH HOUSE, KITTERY POINT.

This House is delightfully located, in one of the healthiest and most pleasant places to be found.

Mr. Weston, the keeper of the House, informs us that in almost all the letters he receives, applying for board, there is an enquiry about safety from Small Pox.

Now we are able to state from Medical testimony, that there is no small pox in Kittery at all, and has been none for some weeks.—And we state on our own local knowledge, that the only cases that have been there this year, were in one house, on an island, four miles away from Kittery Point, and as separate from it as one place can possibly be from another.

CELEBRATION OF THE WEST INDIA EMANCIPATION,

At Eliot, Me. This is to be a great and glorious gathering. All friends of true American liberty, in Portsmouth, who wish to attend, are requested to meet in the Room under Rechab Hall, Market street, this evening at 8 o'clock, to make preliminary arrangements to meet in the Grove near the Depot, in Eliot, August 1st. A full statement of the designs of the meeting will be made. jy21

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, July 20.

SENATE.—Mr. Badger's resolution rescinding the rule fixing Fridays for private bills, was adopted.

Mr. Hunter moved that the Civil and Diplomatic Appropriation bill. It was urged that the Homestead bill be disposed of, so Mr. Hunter withdrew his motion.

The Texas Debt bill was taken up and debated when it was postponed.

The Homestead bill was taken up. The question pending was Mr. Mason's amendment that nothing in this act shall apply to any public lands lying northwest of the Ohio, ceded to the United States by Virginia.

HAVANA, July 14.—Since the sailing of the Cahawba, there has been no quotable change in our sugar or other principal markets. The weather is intensely hot, and there is much sickness among sailors, as well as on shore. Nine American seamen died yesterday.

NEW YORK, July 20.—At the Franklin-st. cholera hospital, yesterday, fifteen new cases of cholera were reported, and seven deaths.—Ten new cases were reported in Brooklyn yesterday, and four deaths.

THE CASE OF DELIA WEBSTER.—Miss Delia Webster, at present imprisoned at Madison, Indiana, to await a hearing on a writ of habeas corpus, publishes a lengthy appeal for protection in the Madison Banner, of the 4th inst., in which she charges the revival of an old indictment against her upon Newton Craig, the Warden of the Penitentiary at Frankfort, Kentucky. She says:—The motives of his malice, as near as I can account for it in a few words, are, first, that he experienced a decided repulse, and totally failed to have his ungentlemanly and uncivilized desires accommodated; next, that I was unwilling to have him visit my house, even under pretence of seeing his children, whom he had by previous contract engaged to keep under my tuition for a certain time. Then, after finding his entreaties and letters he had written to me availed nothing, he, in his rough Kentucky manner, swore with an oath that if I did not agree to marry him in case his wife should die—which he expected would take place before long, as she was then sick—he would get somebody to swear to enough on that old indictment to send me to the penitentiary, where his will should be my law, and where resistance would be vain.

THE NORTHERN POWERS.—The Czar of Russia has replied to the invitation of Austria and Prussia to evacuate the Principalities. He will evacuate Wallachia and leave free the Danube, which he deems sufficient to satisfy the demands of Austria, but will retain Moldavia for ulterior purposes. In his answer to Prussia he states that he will resign the protectorate of the Greek Christians when Turkey shall be placed under the protectorate of the five powers, and that he will evacuate the Principalities when the Western Powers evacuate Turkey.

MELANCHOLY OCCURRENCE.—On Tuesday last, Miss Harriet Hough, an interesting little daughter of Mr. Enoch Hough, aged about eleven years, was drowned in the mill pond in Lebanon, just below the Hanover bridge.—Ind. Democrat.

The U. S. Steamship Princeton returned to Brooklyn on Sunday, from a trial trip in the Gulf Stream. A committee of several gentlemen went out in her to test her qualities as a war steamer. Their report is to be forwarded to Washington. But rumor says it will be unfavorable. She is thought not to have sufficient beam to work her guns to advantage. Immediately on her arrival off Brooklyn, seven of her seamen swam ashore and escaped before a boat could be manned.

DYSENTERY, CHOLERA MORBUS

AND

DIARRHŒA ELIXIR,

PREPARED BY WM. R. PRESTON,

Druggist, Congress Block, Congress street.

AT this season of the year, when the above diseases are so prevalent, and in our larger cities, sweeping off a great portion of the population, it becomes every one to keep in his family a remedy that will immediately arrest its course and give certain relief. This is no quack nostrum; it has been used the present season by one of the first Physicians in New York, and in thirty cases out thirty-two of confirmed cholera, that came under his treatment, he was successful in the employment of the above remedy.

PRICE 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

NEW YORK, July 20.—A special despatch from Washington to the Tribune states, as a positive fact within the writer's own knowledge, that a treaty is about to be concluded between Mr. Gregg, the U. S. Commissioner, and the Government of the Sandwich Islands, for their annexation to the United States forthwith. The only unsettled question in relation to the annexation is, whether the Islands shall come in as a Territory or a State. Mr. Gregg insists upon the former.

The River and Harbor bill will be reported to the Senate to-morrow, without amendment. Few doubt that it will pass that body, and fewer still doubt that the President will veto or pocket it, if presented for his signature.

There is no progress with the Homestead Bill in the Senate, but its defeat is considered nearly certain.

The refusal of the Senate, by a large vote to go into Executive session yesterday, is regarded as unfavorable to the Reciprocity Treaty.

The amount of the defalcation of Mr. Richardson, the Collector at Oswego under the Fillmore Administration, is unknown, as last year's account is withheld, but it is not under $60,000.

FORGERY.—Four rogues from Philadiphia, viz.: Matthew Matthews, John Gill, William L. Mentzer and C. Saxton, recently obtained $3700 from the Rutland (Vt.) Bank, by means of forgeries. They did not appear to act together, but opened accounts at the Rutland and Vergennes Banks, and at the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank at Burlington, obtained certified checks from the cashiers which enabled them to copy the signatures, and then forged and presented certified checks of $800 on the Farmers' and Mechanics' and of $2900 on the Vergennes Bank, which were cashed at the Rutland Bank. Matthews and Gill were arrested at Montreal, and Mentzer was taken at Rouse's Point, and $3350 recovered. Gill was a horse trader, which assisted the operations of the company. Saxton is at large.

ROBBERY.—Capt. Holder, of St. John, N. B., was robbed of about nine hundred sovereigns on board of the steamer Admiral, from Boston, during her last trip. Capt. Holder was on his return from Australia, having taken out his vessel last year, where she was sold. The robbery is supposed to have been committed while the boat lay at the wharf in Portland on Friday evening, as the Captain locked the state-room in which the money was deposited, and went on shore, and it was not until after she had left that he discovered his loss. It is supposed that some villain knowing that Capt. Holder had the money' with him took passage in the steamer, and watched the opportunity when he had unluckily left his treasure to rob him of it. The trunk in which it was deposited was cut open, and the contents scattered on the floor. Search was made on board the boat, but without effect, and it is supposed that the thief left her at Portland.

SOLDIERS ON THE ISTHMUS.—The last accounts from San Francisco, state that Major Thomas had successfully landed there a detachment of 250 of the soldiers who were wrecked in the San Francisco, in less than thirty days from New York, without the loss of a man, either by death or desertion. The transit of the Isthmus was made under arms, and in full uniform. From the railroad terminus into Panama, they were provided with mules, and all arrived in good condition—every man with his musket on his shoulder.—The arrival of such a body of soldiers much alarmed the Panamanos, who thought the Americans had come in a body to take the Isthmus.

A PILE SAVED.—Yesterday, a business man, belonging in Milton, came into the city and imbibed too much liquor. He drew $3,300 from the Merchants' Bank, in gold coin, and began to 'travel,' displaying the treasure in bar rooms and other public places. One of the officers of the 2d Division heard of the gentleman in a drinking saloon, and upon going there found him jingling his coin about for the amusement of a number of loungers. He took possession of the man and money, and deposited the first in the bank from whence it was drawn, and the last in the station house, where he became rather uproarious, and was detained until the train was ready, when he was escorted to the cars by an officer and sent home. It is probable that his funds might have suffered some, if it had not been for the humane severity of the police.—Boston Herald.

Henry Welgharst, a prominent German of Baltimore, and captain of a German company, deliberately threw a camphene lamp into his wife's face Monday evening, burning her very badly, after which he beat her until she died. The affair caused much excitement, and the murderer has been arrested to answer.

Henry W. Merritt, ex-police justice of New York, died in that city on Sunday. He was at the head of the bank forgery detectives in that city. N. Bowditch Blunt died suddenly at Lebanon Springs, on Sunday, and Mrs. Emma Mason, formerly Miss Wheatley, an actress, was suddenly taken off at Oyster Bay, L. I., on the same day. There were 84 deaths from cholera in Brooklyn, N. Y., last week.

The cholera has been raging fearfully at Barbadoes; upwards of one hundred per day were swept off. The remedy found most efficacious was camphor, which, when administered to a person when first seized, with two drops on a bit of sugar, in a tea-spoonful of water, arrested the disease.

DEAD.—We are informed that Samuel Walton, who, our readers will remember, was badly injured by the bursting of a small cannon on the night before the 4th, died yesterday morning. He survived the accident about a fortnight, during which time his sufferings have been unspeakable. The deceased was an uncommonly promising youth.—Lowell Advertiser.

FIRE.—At New Orleans on the morning of the 9th inst. the Louisiana rope factory, which occupied an entire square, was destroyed with all its contents, machinery, rope, hemp, &c.; loss $200,000. A number of frame houses were destroyed, with a coffee house. The fire is supposed to have been kindled by an incendiary.

Marble Chimney Pieces.
THE PENRHYN MARBLE is a new and beautiful article, manufactured of Stone imported from England, which is enameled in imitation of of the richest and most expensive Spanish, Galway, Egyptian, Pyronese, Lisbon, Sienna and other rare and desirable kinds of Marble—the imitation being so perfect as to challenge detection without the closest scrutiny. In style of finish these Chimney Pieces stand unequalled, being very highly polished—retaining their beauty much longer than common marble, and are not injured by oils, smoke, coal gas or acids. They have been extensively introduced into public and private buildings, giving perfect satisfaction to those who have used them. The best of references can be given, showing their adaptedness for general use, the subscriber having furnished some of the best dwelling houses in the city with them during the last two years.
While excelling all others in beauty of finish and appearance, they are sold much cheaper than any thing of the kind in the market. The subscriber has now in Store a complete assortment of the above named desirable Goods, to which he invites the attention of all interested.

Garden Engines.
JULT received at "the sign of the Big Coffee Pot" a full supply of Garden or Fire Engines, which are respectfully commended by the subscriber to the notice of the public. Wherever these Engines have been introduced they have invariably given entire satisfaction. They are unsurpassed for power, capacity or usefulness. From the size of the air chamber sufficent power is obtained to enable one man to throw a steady stream of water to the height of fifty feet perpendicularly, thereby rendering it a desirable article as a
PROTECTION AGAINST FIRE.
And for washing windows of second and third stories of buildings, carriages, &c. With a newly invented water diffuser as a Garden Engine it defies competition. The diffuser is a perfect and simple article, and its superiority over the common rose sprinkler is that it will throw three times the quantity of water a much greater distance and spread it perfectly even, with less power applied. An Engine with a diffuser of this description, used in orchards and gardens to throw soap suds on the young trees, will destroy many kinds of vermin liable to injure the fruit and be an invaluable addition to the implements of the Nurseryman and Horticulturist.

MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT—

Every land has bailed with
Xtacy this preparation whose
Intrinsic merits has introduced its
Curative powers to the notice of the whole
American people. Rheumatism of long duration,
Neuralgia, with its tortures, have yielded to its
Magical influence; cancers, contorted joints,
Ulcerated and swollen limbs that have
Suffered for years under the weight of disease,
Turn by its application to suppleness and health.
A remedy of such general usefulness that can
Restore newness of Action to the diseased nerves,
Arteries and glands of the human body,
Is worthy of high praise.

Let the rheumatic, halt, lame and palsied
Invalid examine its qualities, and they will
Not be disappointed. Years of study and
Investigation have enabled the proprietors of the
Mexican Mustang Liniment to furnish a remedy,
Extraordinary in its power over diseases,
No matter of how long standing—sold at
The agents in all parts of the Union,

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common Pasture Weeds a remedy that cures Every Kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruption of the skin.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of crofula.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed growing on the pastures and along old stone walls, should cure every tumor in the system, yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start. There is no if and ands, hums and ahs about its setting some cases, but not yours. I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effects of it in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. I gave it to children a year old; to old people of sixty. I have seen poor, puny, wormy looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some have taken it who have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is sound it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings; but you must not be alarmed; they will disappear in from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it; on the contrary, when that feeling is gone you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to.

Nothing in the annals of Patent Medicines has ever been received by the public with so much favor as this simple preparation. It is now composed of nine different herbs. In May, 1852, when I commenced making a business of it, I sold about two bottles per day. In June, 1853. I sold 4320 bottles. In October, 1853, I sold 6120 bottles. I hope you will call that doing well; I do.

In my own practice, I confine it strictly to humors; but there are some who are so enthusiastic in its favor they think what cured them will cure any thing and any body; accordingly recommend it for every variety of disease. In this way a great many virtues of it have been found that I never would suspect.

Cases of Dyspepsia, of many years standing, that withstood every known remedy, have been permanently cured.

I know one man to gain 17 lbs. by taking three bottles; another 11 lbs.; another 10 lbs.; and another 7 lbs.—the venerable master Robinson of Boston.

In diseases of the Liver it is a specific. I know several with yellow skin and yellow eyes, the body emaciated and the mind melancholy, get fat and cheerful by a few bottles.

I know several cases of Erysipelas, and one particularly bad. A lady, aged 79, was unable to leave her house for the last twelve years, was so much relieved (she was reduced in circumference thirty-four inches,) as to visit her friends in several neighboring towns.

Another had the Dropsy in her left leg, and was unable to walk for ten years, sometimes swelling to an enormous size; at last bursted, making a bad wound which could not be healed; by taking three bottles and using two boxes of ointment, she is now quite well. Why it should make some fat and others lean, I cannot tell, but so it is.

I know of several cases of Kidney complaints cured by it. If I should write in a newspaper was a proper medium, I could tell of cases of the most distressing of all diseases that would make your heart bleed, that were permanently cured by it.

It has been lately found to be a sure cure for Pasmus female complaint. One first spoonful put off the fit two hours. One bottle cured him. Another came home to die, and was induced by his brother to try it. Three bottles cured him.

It likewise gives great relief in the Asthma. A lady in Lawrence was unable to lie down for a number of years; she can now lie without the least inconvenience.

A lady in Weymouth lost the use of her left side by the Erysipelas. After the second bottle, she broke out in one mass of humor from head to foot. In a few days she was well.

It has lately been found to be equally good for humor outside as inside, (taking it inwardly in the meantime,) for Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Pimples on the Face, or any eruption of the skin whatever; only where the flesh is very sore you must dilute it with water.

When made weak enough it is the best eye-wash for weak and watery eyes that I ever saw.

Others use it to clease the dandruff out of the hair and strengthen its roots, which it certainly does, and to crown all, it made the hair grow on bald heads, which, if I had not seen with my own eyes, I would not believe from you or anybody else.

As regards dieting, I never came across the first person that ever got any benefit from it. On the contrary, numbers came to death's door by it, as it gives the tumors no nourishment. My medicine requires the most nourishing food you can get. It will soon give you an appetite.

Do not for a moment suppose that I warrant a cure of all those diseases, in every case. I merely tell you what it has done, hoping it will do the same for you. I do not warrant a cure in any disease but humors, where it never fails. For further particulars see the circular around each bottle.

No change of diet or other necessary. Eat the best you can get, and enough of it.

I have an herb, simmered in olive oil, scatters Scrotulous swellings of the neck and under the ears. Price fifty cents per box.

Dyscrocus rose cure. Adults, one table spoonful per day; children of eight years, dessert spoonful; from five to eight, teaspoonfuls. As no direction can be applicable to all constitutions, take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

FOR THE CURE OF

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the descriptions of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others, by

W. Gibson, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University.
Valentine Mott, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, N. Y.
W. P. Dewees, M.D., Prof. of Mid., Pa. University.
N. Chapman, M.D., Prof. of Physic, Pa. University.
I. Parke, M.D., Pres't College of Physicians, Phila.
Dr. Del Vallo, Prof. of Medicine, Havana.
Jose Eouverin de Luz, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon.
G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spain.
J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surgs., London.
Sir Thomas Pearson, Maj. Gen. British Army.
Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, what is the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and, being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant.

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:—

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork; and a splendid engraving for the side of the wrapper, composed of a geocentric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swaim, copy right secured.

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable preparation of this medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c., &c. See the Pamphlet which may be had gratis accompanying the Vermifuge. Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA, and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels, or they may be imposed on. Many worthless articles are made in imitation of them by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase a Remedy equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is the Original Remedy, and was used by William IV. late King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure, and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by his Linimeut, but considers warranting it sufficient, as any person who does not obtain relief, need not pay for it.

Price 50 cents. Dr. Tobias's office, 240 Green

Dr. Tobias has put up a HORSE LINIMENT in pint bottles, which is warranted cheaper and better than any other for Cholic, Scratches, Old Sores, Galls, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc.

Appledore House,

ISLES OF SHOALS.

STEAM having died out in Portsmouth, the subscriber has the pleasure to announce to his old friends and the public, that he has chartered the beautiful YACHT SPY, of 40 tons burden, and has had the good fortune to secure the services of Capt. JAMES W. GOODWIN, the well known pilot, as master. His skill, carefulness and attention will secure to the travelling public a more safe, expeditious, comfortable and pleasant transit to and from the Islands, than has hitherto been attained.

She will leave PIER WHARF, foot of State Street, Portsmouth, every day (Sundays excepted) immediately after the arrival of the trains from Boston and Concord, and return in season for the evening train.

Many alterations and improvements have been made in the establishment to make it more convenient and comfortable.

An abundant supply of Ice has been carefully laid in, and the facilities for fishing perfected.

To the invalid, the weary and seeker after pleasure seeker, this location presents attractions not equaled in New England.

HOUSES FOR SALE.

THE DWELLING HOUSE, No. 9 School street. This is a well built house, two (high) stories, in good repair, and is convenient for one family or two families, or for a large Boarding House. It contains nine or more rooms and two sculleries, and has an excellent cellar under the whole house. The situation is central, being about equi-distant from the markets, factories and railroads. Connected with this house is a building which has been and may be occupied both as a barn and a work-shop. If not sold soon, a part or the whole of the premises will be let.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 6 Green street. This house is fitted for two tenements; it is well built, was thoroughly painted and put in good order the last season, and is well calculated for two families, (having about 6 rooms each) and may be considered a good location for persons employed at the north end. It is centrally located between the different ship-yards in that section of the city, each tenement will be sold separately, if desired.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 7 Liberty street, corner of Charles street. This house was formerly owned and occupied by the late Peter M. Lowd and is in good order. Attached to it is a lot of land large enough for a Stable or for another dwelling house. It would make a good place for the residence of a person employed at the shipyards near the river, or at the Navy Yard.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 4 Vaughan street.—This house has been built but a few years, is well finished off, and is very convenient. In the rear is quite a large garden spot. This would be a desirable place for a person employed at the shipyards, or at the Navy Yard, nearly opposite.

Also, for sale, a BUILDING LOT, on Mount Vernon street, (opposite No. 2,) with a small building thereon, which can be finished off into a Dwelling House.

All of the above property will be sold on liberal terms, if applied for soon. For further particulars apply to JOSEPH M. EDMONDS,

Feb. 27. No. 9 Islington street.

TO LET—The STORE on the corner of Vaughan and Deer streets. It was occupied as the first Union Store in this city, and is considered as a good stand for business. It is within a few rods of the Boston and Concord Railroad Depots. Possession can be had immediately.

FOR SALE—The HOUSE in the rear of the above, on Vaughan street—a convenient house for two families, and has been so occupied for six years, by the same tenants. It rents for $160. For further particulars, &c., call on JOSEPH L. LOCKE, on the premises, or JOSEPH M. EDMONDS, 9 Islington st. m29

WHO ALTERED COWPER'S HYMN?

Useful as may be "committees of revision," yet there is no more intolerable plague sometimes than these very revisions. The most honorable and responsible post in the literary world, is, perhaps, that which is occupied by the learned, discreet and comprehensive critic; —one who comprehends the duties and the difficulties of authorship, and who can also enter with some just appreciation of the author's spirit and affiatus. A man who cannot feel with the author, in all the phases of his feeling, especially in poetry, where the heart seeks expression, has no more business with the office of critic, than the Pope of Rome has with the keys of Heaven.

It is really painful to look over any of our popular Hymn Books, and see the wretched work some revisor or revisers have made of some of the most beautiful of our Hymns.—Bad sense and bad taste and bad poetry, are jumbled up together, making a melancholy wreck of a most beautiful Hymn, which we learned when we were young, and which we cannot now find save in our warm and loving memories.

Not being able to attend public worship on last Sabbath, I drank in a little of the sanctuary service in a sort of eaves-dropping way. I sat at my chamber window, and overheard the singing in a near-by church. The Hymn was that incomparable one of Cowper's, commencing—

"There is a fountain filled with blood."

The last verse of this hymn has been altered, as it would seem, for the mere purpose of officious, unmeaning criticism. The alteration consists in making the first two lines take the place of the last two, and the last two the place of the first two. The alteration is in extreme bad taste, and flattens the poetry to the level of the dullness which suggested the alteration.

As soon as I knew the hymn the choir was singing, I got my hymn book, as all right minded worshippers will, and I sang with the congregation, as all will, or ought, who can; and I enjoyed it extremely. We finally got to the last verse. The book I had was the same as used in the North Church; and in that book the verse is printed as Cowper wrote it. After the brief interlude on the organ was finished, we—the congregation and myself—began to sing the last verse, commencing in my book, rightly:—

"And when this feeble, stammering tongue,
Lies silent in the grave,—
Then in a nobler, sweeter song,
I'll sing thy power to save."

But in the book on which the rest of the singers were looking, there was set down that wretched alteration. However, I held on my course; I sang on as Cowper wrote—the rest sang on as some other person wrote who had not the fear which waits on evil deeds before his eyes. And had I been in that church, I should have sung on in a happy rejoicing with the spirit of the good Cowper, though all the rest should have gone wrong.

Rev. Dr. Bethune, in reading this same hymn once in the pulpit, paused when he came to the altered verse, and raising his eyes to the audience, said:—

"Who has had the presumption to alter this hymn of Cowper's? If the choir can sing it as Cowper wrote it, they may, but if not, they will please omit it."

Any person reading this hymn through carefully, will find that the alteration is bad sense, as well as in bad taste. As Cowper wrote it, it is in beautiful continuance of the verse which preceeds it; and in beautiful association with the entire spirit of the hymn. But as it now stands in some of our hymn books, it is discreditable. Who revised it? *

The New York Mirror declares that Jullien is Barnum let to music.

A BROKER SOLD.—A few weeks ago a well dressed man, of prepossessing appearance, applied to a broker of this city for a loan of $75, upon a chaise, which he stated he posessed, he being "hard up." The broker required a "voucher," and a note from a hotel keeper of this city was produced, endorsing the character of the applicant. This was deemed satisfactory, and the money was loaned. Shortly afterwards, a stable keeper from New Hampshire called upon the broker, and stated that the chaise upon which the money was loaned had been stolen from him. As he was able to prove property, the chaise was restored to him, the broker considering it rather a bad investment. Of course the voucher from the hotel keeper proved to be a forgery.—Boston Trav.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT.—Mr. Silas Horton and wife, residing near Oswego, who recently exerted themselves so nobly in warning the train on the New York and Erie road of the danger before it—which was, that a large tree had fallen directly across the track—and thereby avoided the horrors of a collision, have been handsomely rewarded by the Railroad Company. The President has forwarded them each a life pass over the road, a medal from the company, and a silk dress for Mrs. Horton, accompanying the presents with a letter expressing the gratitude of the company for their noble and humane conduct.

SATURDAY, JULY 22, 1854.

RETURN OF SULLIVAN, THE INDIVIDUAL CHARGED WITH THE ASSAULT OF MR. DANA.—William Sullivan, the individual who was arrested on a charge of assaulting Mr. Richard H. Dana, jr., in Court street, in this city, on the night of the 2d of June, and who was examined, held for trial, and forfeited his bond, $500, returned to town last evening, in custody of officers Jones and Heath. Sullivan was apprehended on board the ship Union, below New Orleans. When the officers first went on board he attempted to secrete himself, and endeavored to effect his escape to shore in a boat, but was prevented. He then talked war, and in this he was joined by his wife, who was with him, and who stated, between intervals of tears and sobs, that she would lose the last drop of blood in her veins before she would be taken; but it was all of no avail, and Sullivan was conveyed to New Orleans in irons, and was placed on board the steamer "Star of the South," bound for New York, which port was reached on Wednesday afternoon. Sullivan's wife returned in the steamer "Philadelphia." The City Marshal of New Orleans, Mr. James, seemed anxious to render the Boston officers every assistance. Mr. James knew Sullivan, who formerly resided in New Orleans, and was a sort of street bully.—Boston Courier of Friday.

It has been said and believed that this Mr. William Sullivan was one of the Marshal's posse in Boston in the Burns case, and therefore by construction a deputy slave jailer in the employ of the United States, to oppose whom must be treasonable and seditious, and to fight whom must be levying war against the United States, according to Judge Curtis.

We hope some respectable Boston paper will tell us whether he really was one of those honorable conservators of law and order, and give us a further sketch of his life and character, especially if his trial does not bring out these matters clearly.

CHEAP PAPER.—Dr. Antisel of New York has invented and patented a paper-making machine and pulp that will materially reduce the price of paper—a pulp which in its raw state will not cost more than about one sixth of a cent per pound, and by the aid of the machine can be brought into market and made into paper, at a cost of about four cents per pound. It is stated that the pulp is white and clear, soft and pliant as a gutta percha conscience.—Lowell Courier.

This is a very good statement: but we should like better to see the paper itself, and buy it at the price named.

THE GREAT RED DRAGON.

We have seen a large 12 mo. volume, entitled "The Great Red Dragon, or the Master-Key to Popery," by Anthony Gravin, formerly a Roman Priest,—which may be obtained this day of an agent who is canvassing the city, and also by subscription from Mr. J. P. Morse, through the agent for this city.

It purports to a full illustration of Romanism. Price $1,25. The work has four illustrations. It is recommended by the "Know Nothing" newspaper, by the Boston Bee, Olive Branch, &c. See advertisement.

BOSTON MUSICAL JOURNAL.—This is a new publication, edited by A. N. Johnson and B. F. Barker. Price $1 per annum; published once a fortnight. The number before us announces the publication of "Practical Instructions in Harmony upon the Pestallozzian System, teaching Harmony, and the art of extemporizing Voluntaries or Interludes." By A. N. Johnson.

WASHINGTON NEWS.—The President is about to veto the bill appropriating $140,000 for the improvement of Cape Fear River as unconstitutional. This defeats the River and Harbor bill. I also understand that he is preparing to veto the bill for the survey of land in the new territories, because it has a section granting homesteads to actual settlers.

The Senate, at 9 o'clock, on Thursday evening, adopted Mr. Hunter's land graduating scheme, as a substitute for the Homestead bill. It grants homesteads at 25 cents per acre. The bill will now pass both Houses and be signed. The Administration is anxious for the termination of the session.

Gerrit Smith, the famous Abolitionist, has been censured by his friends for some shortcomings during the session of the present Congress. Alluding to this in a letter to one of his constituents, he says:

"Only a few months ago, I was regarded on all hands as a too zealous Abolitionist. But now the Whigs and Democrats are driven so far ahead of me by this Nebraska impulse, that they look back upon me and call me a traitor to liberty."

CHOLERA CASE.—The St. Paul (Minnesota) news, of the 7th inst. has the following paragraph:

We are pained to record the death of R. F. Fletcher, a stranger, who has been engaged buying real estate in our Territory for a few weeks past. It appears that he rode in the hot sun some eight or ten miles on Wednesday, and on arriving at the American House, where he was stopping, was soon taken with convulsions, and died on Wednesday evening at 10 o'clock. We learn that he was a gentleman of middle age, possessed of wealth, and has friends in Boston, whither his remains will be conveyed for interment.

A horse is now being exhibited in England which is "twenty-one hands high, and weighs twenty-five hundred weight."

ROMANTIC AFFAIR.—A romantic instance of love at first sight occurred in this city on Saturday, which, but for certain untoward circumstances that often hinder the course of true love, would have been followed by an elopement and marriage. A young sailor, who arrived a few days since from New York, was making some purchases in a clothing store in the Northern Liberties, when the daughter of the proprietor and the hero of this true history became mutually smitten. While bargaining for the articles, he invited her to accompany him on an excursion up the Schuylkill, and she, nothing loth, joined him subsequently.

During their trip up that romantic river, they formed their plans for a runaway match, which was to be put in effect the same night. In the evening they again met, and wandered off with the design of going to New York by the one o'clock night line. Unfortunately for their design, this line does not start on Sunday morning, and the unlucky pair, discovering this before the time, did not go to the Kensington depot, but continued to walk the streets, having concluded to wait until the early morning line, they presuming that it left Walnut street wharf as usual on the other days of the week. The parents of the girl, alarmed by her absence, started out in pursuit, and gave information to all the watchmen they met, and asked the arrest of the girl and her companion.

A watchman told the story to officer J. Donnell, of the Northeastern division, and he accidentally encountered the pair in Second street, near Chesnut, and took them to her parents' house. A scene occurred there that may well be imagined. The officer was prepared to take the young sailor into custody, but the father declined to prosecute the suit for attempted abduction, in order to save his daughter from exposure; and finally the manly behavior of the sailor made such an impression upon the parents, that they gave him shelter for the night, and when the officer left, there was a strong probability of the "old heads" consenting to the union resolved upon by the "young hearts." The girl is not more than sixteen years of age.—Phila. Ledger, July 3.

HARD PUSHED FOR A HUSBAND.—A few days ago, a buxom Irish woman, fat and forty, arrived in this city by one of the Boston trains, in hot pursuit of a truant lover. Having ascertained his whereabouts, a warrant was procured for his arrest for breach of marriage promise, alleging damages in the sum of $100. Duly armed with this missive, officer Walker made his acquaintance, giving him a choice of alternatives—marriage or damage. The former was assented to, and under pretence of arranging his toilet for the nuptial ceremony, he was permitted to retire to his room, but was followed almost immediately by the officer, who was just in time to see the promised bridegroom, through an open window, spanning an opposite field at a 2,40 gait. Quietly taking possession of the fugitives' forgotten wardrobe, which was found to contain nearly $150 in hard cash, more than enough to satisfy the warrant and heal the broken hearted, the knight of the "star" was content to wait the issue. Twenty-four hours brought back the unwilling bridegroom, who, unable to recover his money without giving himself in exchange, finally yielded obedience to his fate. The marriage was soon perfected, and the groom, apparently resigned and contented, left, in the next train for Boston, accompanied by his bride, whose extravagant grins betokened an overjoyed heart at her successful pursuit of a husband under difficulties.—Springfield Repub.

ATMOSPHERIC TELEGRAPH.—The memorial of Mr. J. S. Richardson, for Congressional aid in building an experimental atmospheric telegraph, has received the favorable attention of the special committee to whom the memorial was referred. Mr. Mallory of Florida, the chairman of that committee, reports in favor of a grant to Mr. Richardson, to enable him to establish a line between Washington and Baltimore. The committee, though sensible that practical difficulties and objections may arise in establishing the Atmospheric Telegraph on a large scale, yet are quite persuaded that this invention is destined to work an entire revolution in our mail carrying. They say:

"The mail between Washington and New York is now carried upon railroads in twelve hours. If your committee do not greatly err, the same mails may be carried between these cities in two hours, by the proposed atmospheric telegraph, and the expenditure now necessary for the transmission of one set of mails, would enable the post office department to send six sets of mails every 12 hours.

The impulse which such a frequent, rapid and certain delivery of the mails between distant points would give to all the business of the country, is incalculable; operating with as much safety and unerring certainty in night as in daylight; unaffected by changes of season or weather—and exempt from liability to those mischances, accidents and delays, which are retarding the delivery of the mails throughout the country, the atmospheric telegraph seems destined to become the exclusive mail carrier of the age."

BEQUESTS.—Mr. Thomas W. Sweetser, late of Salem, recently deceased, bequeathed, in his will, the sum of ten thousand dollars, to be paid to his native city, Salem, to form a fund, upon interest at six per cent., for the purpose of furnishing poor inhabitants of that city with cooking stoves, or any other apparatus for cooking and warming which may be invented and better adapted for those purposes than the present cooking stoves. The trustees of this charity shall consist of the Mayor, two Aldermen, and one member of the Common Council from each ward, of the city of Salem, to be chosen annually. The trustees are required to expend the whole interest, six hundred dollars, every year, for the purposes provided for by the bequest. If a portion of the fund is left, after supplying what stoves may be needed, the surplus is to be expended in procuring fuel; and if a surplus is left still, it is to be expended in such necessary groceries, or other articles of comfortable food, to be distributed as the trustees may deem expedient. If the City Council of Salem shall not within one year after the sum becomes payable to them, formally and expressly accept the fund, on the conditions of the will, the money is to be divided among the heirs of the testator.

☞ It is now confidently reported that the Reciprocity Treaty will be ratified.

LOCAL.

EASTERN RAILROAD.

Unfounded rumors of the failure of this corporation were in circulation in this city on Friday morning, which probably had their origin among some stockjobbing busybodies in Boston, as we infer from the following paragraph in the Monetary article in the Boston Journal of Friday evening:

Eastern Railroad stock has depreciated to a very low figure, selling at the Board on Thursday at 57 3-4 to 58. Rumors prejudicial to the credit of this corporation have been freely circulated in the street, and these have doubtless contributed to effect the great decline noticed. We have been assured, however, by reliable persons well acquainted with the affairs of this corporation, that its engagements thus far have in every instance been honored, and although as might be expected in times like these, it has been somewhat embarrassing with a large floating debt, to contend against the tide of popular feeling against Railways, and the general distrust of credits, there is no reason to apprehend difficulty if anything like ordinary facilities are given to a concern which is actually strong in its resources. The Eastern Railroad Company have a large and valuable interest in real estate, and are now preparing bonds which the company will probably be able to negotiate, and with an undeniably large and lucrative business, there are no good grounds for throwing obstacles in its way, by adverse reports, which tend to raise unexpected and actually unnecessary embarrassments.

CORRECTION.—The announcement of the death of Capt. Samuel Pickett of this city, in Friday's Morning Chronicle, was an erroneous report. He has been sick; but we are happy to be informed is better.

☞ Readers will find on the outside this morning a just protest against the too common practice of tampering with poetry above the comprehension of mere machine rhyme-makers.

☞ Isaac F. Nelson, Esq., of this city, has been appointed an Inspector in the Boston Custom House.

PROMPTNESS'—We have never had reason to complain of our patrons generally. They all pay up when asked—many of them before. But we feel bound to return a word of thanks for the prompt manner in which the business of the great American Newspaper Agent, V. B. Palmer, Esq., is conducted—particularly at his Boston agency, "per S. P. Niles."—During the two years in which we have published the Daily Chronicle, we have been in constant fulfilment of orders from this source, at fair rates, with the most prompt payments. We regard the establishment of this comprehensive agency as of great benefit to city advertisements, and to the press.

The Journal learns that Leavitt's Hotel, at Great Boar's Head, Hampton Beach, was destroyed by fire on Friday morning, July 21st.

APPOINTMENT.—Ira R. Philbrick, Esq., who has been door-keeper of the N. H. House of Representatives, for several sessions, has been appointed Mail Agent on the Boston and New York Railroad and Steamboat line.

Mr. Philbrick was in this city a few days ago, with friends from the country, preparing for a short fishing excursion, to recuperate from the fatigues of the session of the legislature, before entering on the duties of his new office.

ACCIDENT.—Simon Worthing, a young man employed as brakeman on the freight train on the Boston & Maine Railroad, was knocked from the top of the train, on Wednesday, by coming in contact with a bridge which crosses the road about a mile below Great Falls village. When taken up life was extinct.—Great Falls Journal.

GERRISH HOUSE, KITTERY POINT.

This House is delightfully located, in one of the healthiest and most pleasant places to be found.

Mr. Weston, the keeper of the House, informs us that in almost all the letters he receives, applying for board, there is an enquiry about safety from Small Pox.

Now we are able to state from Medical testimony, that there is no small pox in Kittery at all, and has been none for some weeks.—And we state on our own local knowledge, that the only cases that have been there this year, were in one house, on an island, four miles away from Kittery Point, and as separate from it as one place can possibly be from another.

STEAM BOAT.—A company of our citizens have recently purchased a Steamboat called the "Grace Darling," which will soon be put on to the Merrimack River, to take parties to the Island, on excursions, &c. She is said to be a fine boat, with good accommodations, and will make regular trips and good time when advertised. She is expected on the river every day.—Haverhill Banner.

MARRIED.

In Philadelphia, Mr Manning Kennard, formerly of this city, to Miss Virginia Eyre, daughter of the late Manuel Eyre, Esq. of P.

In South Berwick Mr John G. Chesley of Lawrence to Miss Caroline, daughter of Gen. T. A. Burleigh, of Greenland.

In Lawrence, by Rev Mr Rust, Mr Edwin P. Hurd to Miss Susan A. Cowell, both of Somersworth.

DIED.

In Newburyport, Mr George Pillsbury, aged 28.

In West Newbury, Mrs Grace Downer, aged 20 years.

In the Chronicle of Wednesday was published the death of Mr. Nathaniel Dennett, aged 75 yrs. The following tribute to his worth is from a correspondent:

Mr. Dennett has been well and extensively known in this community for a period of over a half century, as a man of great moral worth, combining integrity, honesty, fidelity, and of untiring industry. Perhaps it may be said that but few excelled him in these respects. Being strictly honorable in his dealing with his fellow men, united with his other characteristics, made him a valuable member of the society which he lived.

The proofs of his industry remain all around the City, in the public and private edifices erected under his supervision. To others, as well as his particular family circle, his loss is severely felt.—His sickness was borne with great patience and fortitude, and his death, as was expected, calm, resigned, peaceful and happy.

COPELAND'S CONFECTIONERY

JUST received and for sale at the New Ice Cream Saloon, corner of Chesnut and Congress sts. FREEMAN & NEWCOMB.

The Motto of every true American, "The Extinction of Popery."

A BOOK FOR AMERICANS.
The Great Red Dragon;
OR THE MASTER-KEY TO POPERY.

By Anthony Gavin, formerly one of the Roman Catholic Priests of Saragossa, Spain. Boston: Published by Samuel Jones, No. 86 Washington street, 1854.

COMPRISING a complete history of Popery; giving a full account of all the customs of the Priests and Friars, and the Rites and Ceremonies of the Popish religion; to which is added an account of the Inquisition at Goa; the Inquisition at Macerata; a Preservative against Popery; a Summary of the Roman Catholic Faith; and a number of authenticated Damnations and Excommunications proclaimed by the Pope at sundry times against well known European personages.

Also a detailed account of the Roman Catholic Auricular Confession, comprising a number of private confessions of young women, and of Priests at the point of death; the deplorable practice of the Priests in selling permission to commit crimes, or indulgences of the most awful and indelicate nature; to which is appended a List of Prices required for each sin; Extirpation of Heretics, and Notes giving a statement of the Power and Prospects of the Papal Church in the United States. PRICE $1.25.

Those wishing copies of the above work will please leave their names at the Store of JOSEPH P. MORSE, Congress street, and they will be supplied at an early day by the exclusive Agent for Portsmouth, who is now in the city.

DYSENTERY, CHOLERA MORBUS
AND
DIARRHŒA ELIXIR,
PREPARED BY WM. R. PRESTON,
Druggist, Congress Block, Congress street.

AT this season of the year, when the above diseases are so prevalent, and in our larger cities, sweeping off a great portion of the population, it becomes every one to keep in his family a remedy that will immediately arrest its course and give certain relief. This is no quack nostrum; it has been used the present season by one of the first Physicians in New York, and in thirty cases out thirty-two of confirmed cholera, that came under his treatment, he was successful in the employment of the above remedy.

JOS. HARVEY,
WM. MARTIN,
A. W. HAVEN,
Grantees authorised to call the first meeting of said company. jy18

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, July 20.

Senate. Homestead bill taken up. The question being was Mr. Mason's amendment that any in this act shall apply to any public lying northwest of the Ohio, ceded to United States by Virginia.

Mr. M of Virginia supported the amendment and Mr. Badger of N. C. opposed it. Toucey of Conn. supported the amendment and opposed the whole bill.

Mr. Bd of Delaware followed, showing that it is impossible to properly consider the bill during this session, and how much other important business will be delayed by its further consideration. He moved to postpone the bill till the 2d Monday of December next, and that it be the special order for that day. Long debate then ensued on postponing the.

Mr. Julia of Maine, though opposed to the bills also opposed to postponement.—He wal to get rid of the subject to-day.

Mr. Douglas urged the friends of the bill to stand and sit it out to-night. The question waken and the Senate refused to postpone as 24, nays 30.

Hou—An hour was spent in debating the propeference of certain memorials.

Mrlds reported a bill establishing certain post ites.

THouse went into committee on the Armed Navy Appropriation bill.

Af some uninteresting proceedings the Comttee rose.

THouse, by 117 against 47, concurred in the ndment to restore the civil in lieu of the litary superintendence of the national armes. The bill was passed, 93 to 62.

T Speaker laid before the House a message from the President accompanied by the corpondence of Mr. Marshall, late Commisner to China, with the State Department. Thiorrespondence numbers 1300 pages, but cobins nothing of special interest. Referred to tommittee on Foreign Affairs. Adj.

THE NEW YORK CENTRAL RAILROAD.—Anttachment was laid on the morning train forNew York yesterday by Mr. Dillon, the contractor, in consequence of which no train wsent in Blackstone, causing much disappointment to passengers beyond Dedham.—Th cars were removed from the passenger deot in the custody of the Sheriff. Three lomotives belonging to this corporation are nmed respectively Hamilton Willis, Edward Cane and Welcome Farnum. The Hamilton Willis was attached to the train that was sezed. It should be understood that the mrtgage upon the road covers the equipment, and that attachments, though they may be perplexing, are not substantial.—Boston Courier.

MONEY MATTERS AT CINCINNATI.—The Commercial of the 8th says considerable want of confidence exists in commercial circles, perhaps more than at any other time during the past year; and all business paper offered, except that to which no suspicion can be attached, is negotiated with great difficulty, and at rates ranging from 18 to 24 per cent. per annum, while undoubted paper goes freely at 10a12; but there is little of this first class paper found in the streets.—Business continues dull, in all departments, and the present aspect of affairs is far from satisfactory.

TIGHT TIMES IN CHICAGO.—The Press has the following:

"Money is excedingly close in this city, more so than for many months past. The banks are still supplying their best customers, but at the same time giving good advice to all to make the best possible use of their funds for the time may soon come when they may be obliged to shut down the gate entirely.—What they do lend is at the regular rates, viz: ten; but in the streets two to five per cent. per month is still freely paid.

AGRAVATED ASSAULT CASE.—In the Lowell Police Court on Tuesday, the case of Commonwealth vs. Francis Green, charged with a diabolical assault upon Miss Mahala Richardson, in Dracut, one day last week, came up. Judge Crosby ordered Green to recognize in the sum of $10,000 for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court, in default of which he was committed. He is apparently not over 18 years of age, and is, in appearance, so far from being but "a little lower than the angels," that he is but a trifle above the brutes.—Lowell Courier.

RATTLESNAKE KILLED AT MILTON, MS.—A day or two since a rattlesnake 3 1-2 feet long entered the yard of Mr. Hutchinson, where was playing a boy. He screamed to his mother and ran away. The reptile laid down on the door step in the sun, but was driven off by Mrs. H., who threw stones upon it from a window. It was finally killed by some boys, and had seven rattles.

The Galveston News understands that Schultz—now under sentence of death in that city for murder—has made a confession, not only of the murder of Bateman and Jett, but also of a long catalogue of other murders and crimes during a period of many years. He confesses having killed an old pensioner in Knoxville, Tennessee, before he came to Texas, for which he was tried and acquitted. He also confesses to having shot Colonel Teel in his tent in 1835.

At Williamsburg, N. Y., a servant girl residing in the family of Mr. Bergman, was found lying dead, on Friday, in the house, having evidently been seized with cholera and died without a human being having been present. Mr. Bergman proceeded to his business in New York on Thursday; that afternoon his wife and two children went to New York on a visit, where Mrs. Bergman was taken with the cholera and died during the night, and one of the children is not expected to live.

STAMPEDE OF NEGROES.—Forty negroes, out of fifty, employed by one of the contractors on the Clarksville & Ridgway Railroad, ran off last Sunday week, and have not since been heard from.—Ind. Dem.

Charles Lamartine, a wealthy Frenchman, was arrested in Cincinnati on Tuesday, for vending bogus American quarters, and counterfeit bills. The coins are perfect imitations, but the bills are badly executed.

Marble Chimney Pieces.

THE PENRHYN MARBLE is a new and beautiful article, manufactured of Stone imported from England, which is enameled in imitation of the richest and most expensive Spanish, Galway, Egyptian, Pyronese, Lisbon, Sienna and other rare and desirable kinds of Marble—the imitation being so perfect as to challenge detection without the closest scrutiny. In style of finish these Chimney Pieces stand unequalled, being very highly polished—retaining their beauty much longer than common marble, and are not injured by oils, smoke, coal gas or acids. They have been extensively introduced into public and private buildings, giving perfect satisfaction to those who have used them. The best of references can be given, showing their adaptedness for general use, the subscriber having furnished some of the best dwelling houses in the city with them during the last two years.
While excelling all others in beauty of finish and appearance, they are sold much cheaper than any thing of the kind in the market. The subscriber has now in Store a complete assortment of the above named desirable Goods, to which he invites the attention of all interested.

Garden Engines.

JULT received at "the sign of the Big Coffee Pot" a full supply of Garden or Fire Engines, which are respectfully commended by the subscriber to the notice of the public. Wherever these Engines have been introduced they have invariably given entire satisfaction. They are unsurpassed for power, capacity or usefulness. From the size of the air chamber sufficient power is obtained to enable one man to throw a steady stream of water to the height of fifty feet perpendicularly, thereby rendering it a desirable article as a PROTECTION AGAINST FIRE.
And for washing windows of second and third stories of buildings, carriages, &c. With a newly invented water diffuser as a Garden Engine it defies competition. The diffuser is a perfect and simple article, and its superiority over the common rose sprinkler is that it will throw three times the quantity of water a much greater distance and spread it perfectly even, with less power applied. An Engine with a diffuser of this description, used in orchards and gardens to throw soap suds on the young trees, will destroy many kinds of vermin liable to injure the fruit and be an invaluable addition to the implements of the Nurseryman and Horticulturist.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS!!

DR. S. O. RICHARDSON'S
Sherry Wine Bitters
HAS induced several persons, who do not possess the least medical knowledge, to assume the title of Doctor, and put before the public an article in imitation of my Medicine, which they call Sherry Wine Bitters, and attempt to palm them off under the pretence that I have retired from business, and also that they manufacture an improved article of the same name.
I would say to those in pursuit of health, to be sure that you obtain the REAL article, which may be known by the fac Simile of my signature upon the outside wrapper, covering each bottle, and also by the copyright border of the same covering.
Sold wholesale and retail at my office, No. 51 Hanover street, Boston, and by all dealers in Medicine in every city, town and village throughout the New England States.

New Breech-Loading Rifle.—We yesterday examined and experimented, with the inventor, a new breech-loading rifle. The construction is so simple as to make it in every way practical for the use of the army, as well as a sporting piece. The principal recommendations are its simple construction, the rapidity with which it can be loaded and discharged, and the use of a conical thimble, countersunk into the bottom of the bore, which by the force of concussion is pressed upon its bed so firmly as to effectually prevent the escape of any gas at the breech. The inventor is Col. J. Durrell Greene of Cambridge, Mass., the accomplished commander of the Fourth Regiment of Infantry, M. V. M. A patent has been secured in the United States and in Great Britain. The Colonel loaded and discharged the piece twelve times in the space of one minute.—Worcester Transcript.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

Mr. Kennedy, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common Pasture Weeds a remedy that cures Every Kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst cases of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruption of the skin.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of crofula.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed growing on the pastures and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system, yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has got to go. There is no if's and ands, hums and ha's about its suiting some cases, but not yours. I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effects of it in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. I gave it to children a year old; to old people of sixty. I have seen poor, puny, wormy looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some have taken it who have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is sound it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings; but you must not be alarmed; they will disappear in from four days to a week. There is never any result from it; on the contrary, when that feeling is gone, you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to.

Nothing in the annals of Patent Medicines has ever been received by the public with so much favor as this simple preparation. It is now composed of nine different herbs. In May, 1852, when I commenced making a business of it, I sold about two bottles per day. In June, 1853, I sold 4320 bottles. In October, 1853, I sold 6120 bottles. I hope you will call that doing well; I do.

In my own practice, I confine it strictly to humors; but there are some who are so enthusiastic in its favor that they think what cured them will cure any thing and any body. They accordingly recommend it for every variety of disease. In this way a great many virtues of it have been found that I never would suspect.

Cases of Dyspepsia, of many years standing, that withstood every known remedy, have been permanently cured.

I know one man to gain 17 lbs. by taking three bottles; another 11 lbs.; another 10 lbs.; and another 7 lbs.—the venerable master Robinson of Boston.

In diseases of the Liver it is a specific. I know several with yellow skin and yellow eyes, the body emaciated and the mind melancholy, get fat and cheerful in a few bottles.

I know several cases of Dropsy, and one particularly bad. A lady, aged 79, was unable to leave her house for the last twelve years, was so much relieved (she was reduced in circumference thirty-four inches) as to visit her friends in several neighboring towns

Another had the Dropsy in her left leg, and was unable to walk for ten years, sometimes swelling to an enormous size; at last bursted, making a bad wound which could not be healed; by taking three bottles and using two boxes of ointment, she is now quite well. Why it should make some fat and others lean, I cannot tell, but so it is.

I know of several cases of Kidney complaints cured by it. If the columns of a newspaper was a proper medium, I could tell of cases of the most distressing of all diseases that would make your heart bleed, that were permanently cured by it.

It has been lately found to be a sure cure for Panama fever. In one case the first spoonful put off the fit two hours. One bottle cured him. Another came home to die, and was induced by his brother to try it. Three bottles cured him.

It has given great relief in cases of the Asthma. A lady in Lawrence was unable to lie in bed for a number of years; she can now lie without the least inconvenience.

A lady in Weymouth lost the use of her left side by the Erysipelas. On the second bottle, she broke out in one mass of humor from head to foot. In a few days she was well.

It has lately been found to be equally good for humor outside as inside, (taking it inwardly in the meantime,) for Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Pimples on the Face, or any eruption of the skin whatever; only where the flesh is very sore you must dilute it with water.

When made weak enough it is the best eye-wash for weak and watery eyes that I ever saw.

Others use it to clease the dandruff out of the hair and strengthen its roots, which it certainly does, and to crown all, it made the hair grow on bald heads, which, if I had not seen with my own eyes, I would not believe from you or anybody else.

As regards dieting, I never came across the first person that ever got any benefit from it. On the contrary, numbers came to death's door by it, as it gives the humors the upper hand. My medicine requires the most nourishing food you can get. It will soon give you an appetite.

Do not for a moment suppose that I warrant a cure of all those diseases, in every case. I merely tell you what it has done, hoping it will do the same for you. I do not warrant a cure in any disease but humors, where it never fails. For further particulars see the circular around each bottle.

No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you can get, and enough of it.
